ARE VERSIFIED,

LOCAL PASSAGES ARE ALTERED, AND A NUMBER OF PSALMS ARE VERSIFIED ANEW,
IN PROPER METRES.

By TIMOTHY DWIGHT, D. D. Prefident of Yale-College.

At the Request of the GENERAL ASSOCIATION OF CONNECTICUT.

A SELECTION OF HYMNS.

HARTFORD :

PRINTED BY HUDSON AND GOODWIE.

PUBLISHED ACCORDING TO ACT OF CONGRESS.

T T HEREAS the Rev. Dr. Dwight, was requested by the General Affociation of the State of Connecticut, that met on the third Tuesday of June. in the year of our Lord 1797, to revise Dr. WATTS's imitation of the Pfalms of David, fo as to accommodate them to the state of the American Churches; and to supply the deficiency of those Pfalms which Dr. WATTS had omitted. And having undertaken this fervice, and made fuch alterations and additions, gave notice thereof to the Affociation, at their meeting in the year 1799; and the Affociation wishing the advice and concurrence of the General Affembly of the Prespyterian Church in the United States in this important bufinels; the fubscribers were appointed by the above bodies, to meet and examine fuch alterations and additions; and accordingly met at Stamford, on the 10th day of June 1800, and having carefully examined them approve and recommend faid version, as thus altered and amended, to the use of the Churches.

John Rodgers, John Smalley, Cyprian Strong, Isaac Lewis, Joseph Strong, Asa Hillyer, Jun Jonathan Freeman, Committee.

WE also recommend to Dr. Dwight to select such Hymns, from Dr. Watts, Dr. Doddridge, and others, and annex them to his edition of the Pfalms, as shall furnish the Churches with amore extensive system of pfalmody.

John Rodgers, John Smalley, Cyprian Strong, Isaac Lewis,

Joseph Strong, Asa Hillyer, jun. Jonathan Freeman

The above is a true copy of the doings of the Committee,

AFTER the American Revolution, it became earby the general wift of the Churches and Congregations in this country, that such passages in Doctor Watts's version of the Pfalms, as were local, and inapplicable to our own circumstances, might be altered, and made to accord with those circumstances. In several succeeding instances, fuch an alteration bas been made. The General Affor ciation of this state, bowever, thought proper, at their Seffion in June 1795, to request the Subscriber to attempt the work anew. To this request they subjoined another; wiz. that be would verfify the Pfalms, emitted by Doctor Watts. At the same time, a number of the Clergy and Laity, of the first respectability, recommended, that an addition should be made to the number of Psalms, verfifted by Doctor Watts in proper metres, for the purpose of preventing a too frequent repetition of them in our worship. They also recommended, that a number of Hymns should be annexed to the Pfalm-book, Suffisient to complete a system of public Pfalmody.

In May, 1798, a motion was made in the General Aljembly of the Prefbyterian Church, for accomplishing the fame general purpose; but the General Assembly, being informed, that the business in the entant medium informed, that the business had been taken up by the General Assembly, concluded to possipone any surther measures, relative to it, until they sould see the issue of the measures, adopted in Connecticut. After this work was completed, a joint Committee was appointed to examine, on behalf of both these Ecclissical bottes, the state and character of the work, and finally to approve, or disapprove of it, as they scouldings proper.

Their decision the reader has already seen, on a preceding page.

With the requests and recommendations abovementioned I have endeavored to comply. Some account of what I have done is due to the public.

In making such alterations in Doctor Watts's version, as respected objects merely local, I have in some instances applied the Pfalm, or the paffage, to the Church at large, or to Christian nations generally ; and in others, particularly, to our own country. The latter I have done, because every nation, like every individual, feeling its orun concerns more than any other, will find various occasions of adapting its praise peculiarly to them.

In altering such passages, as were defective, either in the language, or the fentiment, I found two objects claiming my attention-the errors of the prefs, and those of the writer.

The reverence for Doctor Watts is in this country so great, that I Sall not be surprised to find myself charged with want of modelly, for Suggesting, that he was the subject of such errors. Doctor Watts was a man of great eminence for learning, wildom, and piety; and in usefulness to mankind has had few equals. As a poet, in writing a flowing, bappy flanza, familiar without vulgarifm, and elevated without affectation or obscurity, he has perhaps, never been excelled. The defign of evangelizing the Pfalms (if I may be allowed the expression) was one of those bappy thoughts, which rarely occur, and will give his verfion a decided Superiority over every other, as a vehicle for the praise of Christians. Still be was not distinguished as a correct writer, and must undoubtedly be charged with some of the errors, found in his Pfalm-book. A part of those only have I attempted to remove. I fould have ventured farther, bad I not been originally cautioned to make no alterations except those, which should appear to be either absolutely necessary, or plainly important. In these alterations I have aimed to vary as little as might be from my original.

As the Editions of Doctor Watts's Pfalms bave been very numerous, both in Great Britain and America, many typographical errors have crept into the modern coties of that work. Those I have carefully endeavored to correct.

In versifying the Pfalms, omitted by Doctor Watts, I bave followed the free example, which he has fet. When the reader is informed, that Doctor Watts was discouraged from attempting thefe. I am perfuaded, that he will not think the latitude, which I have taken, unwarrantable.

In adding to the number of Pfalms, verfified in feweral kinds of proper metres, I bave generally selected those, which were of frequent use. As the design was to prevent the necessity of singing the existing Psalms, of this description, too often, such a selection became indispensable. I have not versified any in the metre of the Old 50th because of the incumbrance of the Chorus; nor any in that of the II3th. because I thought the number already Sufficient.

The Hymns I have selected from various writers, with a design of extending and completing a System of Pfalmody. I do not flatter myfelf, that a divine fong will be found here, adapted to every religious subject ; yet I hope, there will be no important deficiency. Had I followed my own judgment only, the collection would bave been somewhat larger; but I found several judicious divines of opinion, that it would be expedient to make it still less. To the Hymns selected I am persuaded, there will be no objection.

It cannot, without weakness, be supposed, that what I have done will meet the universal approbation of those, for subose use this Psalm-book is intended. The introduction of a Pfalm-book into the use of Churches bas ever been attended with difficulties. I have not fatisfied myfelf; it ought, therefore, not to be expected, that I should satisfy others, whose judgment must doubtless be more impartial, and less bia fed in my favour, than my own. I can only fay, that I have intended well.

No doctrine will, I believe, be found in the book, which is not accordant with the general Protestant Orthodoxy. In this part of the performance I prefume, therefore, I shall not be extensively consured. With respect to the rest, I leave it in the hands of the public, with my sincere wish, and earnest prayer to God, that it may please him to make it a mean of assisting the praise, and promoting the edification and comfort of my fellow Christians.

PSALMS OF DAVID,

IMITATED IN THE

LANGUAGE

OF THE

NEW-TESTAMENT.

PSALM I. Common Metre.

The way and end of the righteous and the wicked.

- f. B LEST is the man who shuns the place,
 Where sinners love to meet;
 Who sears to tread their wicked ways,
 And hates the scoffer's seat:
- But in the statutes of the Lord, Has plac'd his chief delight;
 By day he reads or hears the word, And meditates by night.
- He, like a plant of generous kind By living waters fet, Safe from the storms and blasting wind, Enjoys a peaceful state.]

A 2

4. Green as the leaf, and ever fair Shall his profession shine; While fruits of holiness appear Like clusters on the vine.

5. Not fo the impious and unjust;
What vain defigns they form!
Their hopes are blown away like dust,
Or chaff before the storm.

6. Sinners in judgment shall not stand Among the sons of grace, When Christ the judge at his right-hand Appoints his saints a place.

". His eye beholds the path they tread, His heart approves it well; But crooked ways of finners lead Down to the gates of hell.

PSALM I. Short Metre.

The faint happy, the finnner miserable.

THE man is ever bleft
Who shuns the sinner's ways,
Among their councils never stands,
Nor takes the scorner's place.

2. But makes the law of God His study and delight, Amid the labours of the day, And watches of the night

g. He like a tree shall thrive, With waters near the root: Fresh as the leaf his name shall live; His works are heavinly fruit.

4. Not fo th' ungodly race,
They no fuch bleffings find:
'Their hopes shall slee like empty chass
Before the driving wind.

5. How will they bear to stand Before that judgment-seat, Where all the saints at Christ's right-hand In full assembly meet?

6. He knows, and he approves
The way the righteous go:
But finners and their works finall meet
A dreadful overthrow.

PSALM I. Long Metre.

The difference between the righteous and the wilked.

- T. HAPPY the man whose cautious feet Shun the broad way that sinners go, Who hates the place where Atheists meet, And sears to talk as scoffers do.
 - He loves t' employ his morning light Among the statutes of the Lord; And spends the wakeful hours of night, With pleasure pondering o'er his word.
- 3. He, like a plant by gentle streams, Shall flourish in immortal green; And heav'n will shine with kindest beams On ev'ry work his hands begin.
- 4. But finners find their counfels crost;
 As chaff before the tempest flies,
 So shall their hopes be blown and lost,
 When the last trumpet shakes the skies.
- In vain the rebel feeks to stand In judgment with the pious race; The dreadful Judge with stern command, Divides him to a different place.
- 6. "Straight is the way my faints have trod,"I bleft the path and drew it plain;
 - " But you would choose the crooked road;
 "And down it leads to endless pain."

PSALM II. Short Metre.

Translated according to the divine pattern, Acls

Christ dying, rising, interceding and reigning.

I. [MAKER and fov'reign Lord
Of heav'n, and earth, and feas,
Thy providence confirms thy word,
And answers thy decrees.

 The things, fo long foretold By David, are fulfill'd, When Jews and Gentiles join'd to flay, Jefus, thy holy child.]

3. Why did the Gentiles, rage, And Jews with one accord Bend all their counfels to destroy Th' Anointed of the Lord?

A Rulers and kings agree,
To form a vain defign;
Against the Lord their pow'rs unite,
Against his Christ they join.

5. The Lord derides their rage,
And will support his throne;
He that hath rais'd him from the dead
Hath own'd him for his Son.
Pause.

6. Now he's afcended high,
And afks to rule the earth;
The merit of his blood he pleads,
And pleads his heav'nly birth,

7. He asks, and God bestows A large inheritance;— Far as the world's remotest ends His kingdom shall advance.

8. The nations that rebel Must feel his iron rod; He'll vindicate those honors well Which he receiv'd from God.

 Be wife, ye rulers, now, And worship at his throne;
 With trembling joy, ye people, bow To God's exalted Son.

10. If once his wrath arife, Ye perifh on the place; 'Then bleffed is the foul that flies For refuge to his grace.]

PSALM II. Common Metre.

i. WHY did the nations join to flay
'The Lord's anointed Son?
Why did they cast his laws away,
And tread his gospel down?

- The Lord that fits above the fkies, Derides their rage below, He fpeaks with vengeance in his eyes, And strikes their spirits through.
- I call him my eternal Son,
 And raife him from the dead;
 I make my holy hill his throne,
 And wide his kingdom spread.
- 4 Ask me, my Son, and then enjoy "The utmost heathen lands: "Thy rod of iron shall destroy "The rebel that withstands."
- Be wife, ye rulers of the earth, Obey th' anointed Lord, Adore the King of heav'nly birth, And tremble at his word.
- 6 With humble love address his throne; For if he frown ye die;

Those are secure, and those alone, Who on his grace rely.

PSALM II. Long Metre.

- Christ's death, resurrection, and ascension.

 I. WHY did the Jews proclaim their rage?
 The Romans why their swords employ?
 Against the Lord their pow'rs engage
 His dear anointed to destroy?
- "Come, let us break his bands, they fay,
 "This man shall never give us laws;"
 And thus they cast his yoke away,
 And nail'd their Monarch to the cross.
- 3. But God, who high in glory reigns,
 Laughs at their pride, their rage controls
 He'll vex their heart with inward pains,
 And fpeak in thunder to their fouls.
 - 4. " I will maintain the King I made "On Zion's everlasting hill,

" My hand shall bring him from the dead,

- " And he shall stand your sov'reign still.
- [His wond'rous rifing from the earth Makes his eternal Godhead known;
 The Lord declares his heavenly birth;
 This day have I begot my Son.
- . 4. " Afcend, my Son, to my right-hand, " There thou shalt ask, and I bestow

" The utmost bounds of Heathen land;

- " To thee the Northern isles shall bow."]
- But nations that refult his grace Shall fall beneath his iron stroke;
 His rod shall crush his foes with ease,
 As potters earthen work is broke.
 PAUSE.

8. Now, ye that fit on earthly thrones, Be wife, and serve the Lord, the Lamb, Now at his feet fubmit your crowns, Rejoice and tremble at his name.

- With humble love address the Son,
 Lest he grow angry, and ye die;
 His wrath will burn to worlds unknown,
 If ye provoke his jealousy.
- To. His florms shall drive you quick to bell, He is a God, and ye but dust: Happy the souls that know him well, And make his grace their only trust.

PSALM III. Common Metre.

Doubts and fears feffrest or, God our defence from fin and Satan.

- x. MY God, how many are my fears!

 How faft my foes increase!

 Confpiring my eternal death,

 They break my present peace.
- The lying tempter would perfuade, There's no relief in heavn;
 And all my fwelling fins appear Too big to be forgiv'n.
- But thou, my glory and my strength, Shalt on the tempter tread,
 Shalt silence all my threat'ning guilt,
 And raife my drooping head.
- 4 [I cried and from his holy hill He bow'd a lift'ning ear;
 I sall'd my Father, and my God
 And he fubdu'd my fear.
- 5. He shed fost slumbers on mine eyes, In spite of all my foes;
 - I 'woke, and wonder'd at the grace, That guarded my repose.]

- 6. What the 'the hofts of death and hell All arm'd against me stood, Terrors no more shall shake my soul; My refuge is my God.
- Arife, O Lord, fulfil thy grace,
 While I thy glory fing:
 My God hath broke the ferpent's teeth,
 And death has loft his fting.
- Salvation to the Lord belongs, His arm alone can fave;
 Bleffings attend thy people here, And reach beyond the grave.

PSALM III. 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 8. Long Metre.

A Morning Pfalm.

- I. O LORD how many are my foes
 In this weak flate of flesh and blood!
 My peace they daily discompose,
 But my desence and hope is God.
- 2. Tir'd with the burdens of the day, To thee I rais'd an ev'ning cry; Thou heard'ft when I began to pray, And thine almighty help was nigh.
- 3. Supported by thy heav'nly aid
 I laid me down, and flept fecure;
 Not death should make my heart afraid,
 Though I should wake and rife no more.
- 4. But God fultain'd me all the night: Salvation doth to God belong: He rais'd my head to fee the light, And make his praife my morning fong.

PSALM IV. 1, 2, 3, 5, 6, 7. Long Metre.

Hearing of prayer; or, God our portion, and Christour bope.

I. O GOD of grace and righteousness,

I. O GOD of grace and righteousness,
Hear and attend when I complain;

Thou hast enlarg'd me in distress, Bow down a gracious ear again.

- 2. Ye fons of men, in vain ye try
 To turn my glory into shame;
 How long will scoffers love to lie,
 And dare reproach my Saviour's name?
- Know that the Lord divides his faints
 From all the tribes of men beside;
 He hears the cry of penitents
 For the dear sake of Christ that died.
- When our obedient hands have done A thousand works of righteousness, We put our trust in God alone, And glory in his pard'ning grace.
- 5. Let the unthinking many fay,
 "Who will bestow some earthly good?"
 But, Lord, thy light and love we pray;
 Our souls desire this heav'nly food.
- 6. Then shall my cheerful pow'rs rejoice At grace and favours so divine, Nor will I change my happy choice For all their corn, and all their wine.

PSALM IV. 3, 4, 5, 8. Common Metre.

An Evening Pfalm.

- I. ORD, thou wilt hear me when I pray;
 I am for ever thine;
 I fear before thee all the day,
 Nor would I dare to fin.
- And while I reft my weary head, From cares and bus'ness free, "Tis sweet conversing on my bed With my own heart and thee.
- I pay this ev'ning facrifice :
 And when my work is done,

Great God! my faith and hope relies Upon thy grace alone.

4. Thus, with my thoughts compos'd to peace.
I'll give mine eyes to fleep;
Thy hand in fafety keeps my days,
And will my flumbers keep.

PSALM V.

For the Lord's Day Morning.

- 7. T ORD, in the morning thou shalt hear My voice ascending high; To thee will I direct my prayer, To thee-lift up mine eye;
- Up to the hills where Christ is gone, To plead for all his faints, Presenting at his Father's throne Our songs and our complaints.
- Thou art a God, before whose sight.
 The wicked shall not stand,
 Sinners shall ne'er be thy delight,
 Nor dwell at thy right-hand.
- 4. But to thy house will I resort,
 To taste thy mercies there;
 I will frequent thy holy court,
 And worship in thy sear.
- Oh may thy Spirit guide my feet In ways of righteoufnefs!
 Make ev'ry path of duty ftraight, And plain before my face.

PAUSE.

My watchful enemies combine
 To tempt my feet aftray;
 They flatter with a base design,
 To make my soul their prey.

7. Lord, crush the serpent in the dust, And all his plots destroy; While those that in thy mercy trust, For ever shout for joy.

3. The men that love and fear thy name Shall fee their hopes fulfill'd; The mighty God will compais them With favour as a shield.

PSALM VI. Common Metre.

Complaint in stokness, or, diseases bealed.

 I Nanger, Lord, rebuke me not, Withdraw the dreadful fform: Nor let thy fury grow to hot, Against a feeble worm.

 My foul's bow'd down with heavy cares, My flesh with pain oppress: My couch is witness to my tears, My tears forbid my rest.

Sorrow and pain wear out my days;
 I waste the night with cries,
 Counting the minutes as they pass,
 "Till the slow morning rife.

4. Shall I be ftill afflicted more? Mine eyes confum'd with grief: How long, my God, how long before Thy hand affords relief?

He hears when dust and ashes speak,
 He pities all our groans,
 He saves us for his mercy's sake,
 And heals our broken hones.

6. The virtue of his fov'reign word Reftores our fainting breath; For filent graves praife not the Lord, Nor is he known in death.

PSALM VI. Long Metre.

Temptations in sickness overcome.

- I. ORD, I can fuffer thy rebukes,
 When thou with kindness dost chastise;
 But thy fierce wrath I cannot bear,
 Oh let it not against me rise.
- 2. Pity my languishing estate,
 And ease the sorrows that I feel;
 The wounds, thy heavy hand hath made,
 Oh let thy gentler touches heal!
- See how I pass my weary days
 In fighs and groans; and when 'tis night,
 My bed is water'd with my tears;
 My grief consumes and dims my sight.
- 4. Look how the pow'rs of nature mourn!
 How long, almighty God, how long?
 When shall thine hour of grace return?
 When shall I make thy grace my song?
- I feel my flesh so near the grave, My thoughts are tempted to despair; But graves can never praise the Lord, For all is dust and filence there.
- 6. Depart, ye tempters, from my foul,
 And all defpairing thoughts depart;
 My God, who hears my humble moan,
 Will eafe my flesh and cheer my heart.

PSALM VII. Common Metre.

God's care of his people, and punishment of persequiess.

I. MY trust is in my heav'nly friend,
My hope in thee my God;
Rife, and my helplefs life defend
From those that feek my blood,

With infolence and fury they
My foul in pieces tear,
As hungry lions rend the prey
When no deliv'rer's near.

If I indulge in thoughts unjust,
And wish and seek their woe,

Then let them tread my life to dust, And lay mine honour low.

If there were malice hid in me, I know thy piercing eyes; I should not dare appeal to thee, Nor ask my God to rise.

7. Arife, my God, lift up thy hand, Their pride and pow'r control; Awake to judgment, and command Deliv'rance for my foul.

PAUSE.

6. [Let finners and their wicked rage Be humbled to the duft; Shall not the God of truth engage To vindicate the juft?

He knows the heart, he tries the reins.
 He will defend th' upright;
 His sharpest arrows he ordains
 Against the sons of spite.

For me their malice dug a pit,
 But there themfelves are cast;
 My God makes all their mischief light
 On their own heads at last.]

That cruel perfecuting race
 Must feel his dreadful sword,
 Awake, my foul, and praise the grace
 And justice of the Lord.

PSALM VIII. Short Metre.

God's sovereignty and goodness; and man's dominion over the creatures.

Thy glories round the earth are fpread,
And o'er the heav'ns they shine.

When to thy works on high
I raife my wond ring eyes,
and fee the moon complete in light,
Adorn the darkfome fkies:

3. When I furvey the stars
And all their shining forms,
Lord, what is man! that worthless thing,
A-kin to dust and worms?

4. Lord, what is worthlefs man!
That thou fhould'ft love him so?
Next to thine angels is he plac'd,
And lord of all below.

 Thine honours crown his head, While beafts like flaves obey,
 And birds that cut the air with wings,
 And fift that cleave the fea.

6. How rich thy bounties are !
How wond'rous are thy ways!
Of dust and worms thy pow'r can frame.
A monument of praise.

Out of the mouths of babes
 And fucklings thou can'ft draw
 Surprifing honours to thy name,
 And firike the world with awe.

8. O Lord, our heav'nly King,
Thy name is all divine;
Thy glories round the earth are fpread,
And o'er the heav'ns they shine.]

PSALM VIII. Common Metre.

Christ's condes.ension, and glorification; or, God made man.

I. O LORD, our Lord, how wond'rous great, Is thine exalted name! The glories of thy heav'nly state Let men and babes proclaim.

 When I behold thy works on high, The moon that rules the night, And stars that well adorn the sky, Those moving worlds of light;

3. Lord, what is man, or all his race, Who dwells fo far below, 'That thou should'st visit him with grace, And love his nature so:

- 4. That thine eternal Son should bear To take a mortal form, Made lower than his angels are, To fave a dying worm!
- [Yet while he liv'd on earth unknown, And men would not adore, Th' obedient feas and fishes own His Godhead and his pow'r.
- The waves lay spread beneath his feet;
 And fish, at his command,
 Brought their large shoals to Peter's net,
 And tribute to his hand.
- These humbler glories of the Son, Shone thro' the fleshly cloud;
 Now we behold him on his throne, And men confess him God.]
- Let him be crown'd with majefty,
 Who bow'd his head to death;
 And be his honours founded high,
 By all things that have breath.

Jefus, our Lord, how wond'rous great
Is thine exalted name!
 The glories of thy heav'nly state,
Let the whole earth proclaim.

PSALM VIII. Ver. 1, 2, Paraphrased.

First Part. Long Metre.

The bosanna of the children; or, Infants praising God

- t. A LMIGHTY Ruler of the skies,
 Thro' the wide earth thy name is spread,
 And thine eternal glories rise,
 O'er all the heav'ns thy hands have made.
- To thee the voices of the young A monument of henour raife;
 And babes with uninftructed tongue Declare the wonders of thy praife.
- Thy power affifts their tender age
 To bring proud rebels to the ground,
 To ftill the bold blafphemer's rage,
 And all their politics confound.
- Children amidst thy temple throng
 To fee their great Redeemer's face;
 The Son of David is their fong,
 And young hofannas fill the place.
- The frowning fcribes and angry priefts
 In vain their impious cavils bring:
 Revenge fits filent in their breafts,
 While Jewish babes proclaim their King.

PSALM VIII. Ver. 3, &c. Paraphrafed.

Second Part. Long Metre.

Adam and Christ, lords of the old and new creation.

1. I ORD, what was man, when made at first. Adam, the offspring of the dust,

That thou fhould'it fet him and his race But just below an angel's place ?

- 2. That thou should'it raife his nature for And make him lord of all below. Make ev'ry beaft and bird fubmit. And lay the fishes at his feet ?
- 3. But O what brighter glories wait To crown the fecond Adam's state! What honours shall thy Son adorn, Who condescended to be born!
- a. See him below his angels made; See him in dust among the dead, To fave a ruin'd world from fin : Yet he shall reign with pow'r divine.
- 5. The world to come, redeem'd from all The mis'ries that attend the fall, New made, and glorious, shall submit At our exalted Saviour's feet,

PSALM IX. First Part.

Wrath and mercy from the judgment-feat.

- t. WITH my whole heart I'll raise my song Thy wonders I'll prociaim, Thou, the great indge of right aud wrong, Wilt put my foes to shame.
- 2. I'll fing thy majefty and grace; My God prepares his throne To judge the world in righteeuineis, And make his vengeance known:
- 3. Then shall the Lord a refuge prove For all the poor opprest; To fave the people of his sove, And give the weary reft.

4. The men that know thy name will trult,
In thine abundant grace:
And thou wilt ne'er forfake the just,
Who humbly feek thy face.

 Sing praifes to the righteous Lord, Who dwells on Zion's hill,
 Who executes his threat'ning word, And doth his grace fulfil.

PSALM IX. Ver. 12. Second Part.

The wifdom and equity of Providence.

- WHEN the great Judge, fupreme and juft, Shall once enquire for blood, The humble fouls, that mourn in duft, Shall find a faithful God.
- He from the dreadful gates of death Doth his own children raise:
 In Zion's gates with cheerful breath They sing their Father's praise.
- His foes shall fall with heedless feet Into the pit they made;
 And sinners perish in the net That their own hands have spread.
- 'Thus by thy judgments, mighty God, Are thy deep counfels known;
 When men of mischief are destroy'd, The share must be their own.

PAUSE.

- The wicked shall fink down to hell;
 Thy wrath devour the lands
 That dare forget thee, or rebel
 Against thy known commands.
- 6. Though faints to fore diffress are brought, And wait and long complain,

Their cries shall never be forgot, Nor shall their hopes be vain.

- [Rife, great Redeemer, from thy feat, To judge and fave the poor: Let nations tremble at thy feet, And men prevail no more.
- Thy thunder shall affright the proud, And put their hearts to pain;
 Make them consess that thou art God, And they but seeble men.

PSALM X. Common Metre.

Proyer beard, and faints faved : or, pride, atheifm and oppression punished.

For a Humiliation Day.

- I. WHY doth the Lord stand off so far?

 And why conceal his face,

 When great calamities appear,

 And times of deep distress?
- 2. Lord, shall the wicked still deride Thy justice and thy pow'r? Shall they advance their heads in pride, And still thy faints devour?
- They put thy judgments from their fight, And then infult the poor;
 They boaft, in their exalted height, That they shall fall no more.
- 4. Arife, O God, lift up thy hand, Attend our humble cry: No enemy fhall dare to stand When God ascends on high.

PAUSE.

Why do the men of malice rage, And fay with foolish pride,

- "The God of heat'n will ne'er engage "To fight on Zion's fide."
- But thou forever art our Lord;
 And pow'rful is thy hand,
 As when the heathens felt thy fword,
 And perish'd from thy land.
- God will prepare our hearts to pray, And bow his ear to hear;
 He marks whate'er his children fay, And puts the world in fear.
- Proud tyrants shall no more oppress, No more despite the just;
 And mighty sinners shall confess They are but earth and dust.

PSALM XI. Long Metre.

Cod loves the righteous and hates the wicked.

- Y refuge is the God of love, Why do my foes infult and cry,
 Fly like a tim'rous trembling dove,
 To distant woods or mountains fly.
- 2. If government be all deftroy'd,

 (That firm foundation of our peace)

 And violence make juffice void,

 Where shall the righteous seek redres?
- 3. The Lord in heav'n hath fix'd his throne. His eye furveys the world below; To him all mortal things are known, His eye-lids fearch our fpirits through.
- 4. If he afflicts his faints fo far,
 To prove their love, and try their grace,
 What must the bold transgressors fear?
 His very soul abhors their ways.
- 5. On impious wretches he shall rain Tempests of brimstone, sire and death,

Such as he kindled on the plain Of Sodom, with his angry breath.

 The righteous Lord loves righteous fouls, Whose thoughts and actions are sincere, And with a gracious eye beholds The men that his own image bear.

PSALM XII. Long Metre.

The faints fafety and hope in evil times; or, Sins of ib. tongue complained of, viz. blasphemy, falkood, &c.

- I. L ORD, if thou doit not foon appear,
 Virtue and truth will fly away;
 A faithful man amongit us here,
 Will fcarce be found if thou delay.
- 2. The whole discourse, when neighbours meet, Is fill'd with trifles loose and vain; Their lips are flatt'ry and deceit, And their proud language is profane.
- 3. But lips that with deceit abound Shall not maintain their triumph long; The God of vengeance will confound The flatt'ring and blaspheming tongue.
- 4. "Yet shall our words be free, they cry;
 "Our tongue shall be control'd by none:
 "Where is the Lord will ask us why;
 - " Or fay, our lips are not our own?"
- The Lord, who fees the poor oppress'd, And hears th' oppressor's haughty strain, Will rise to give his children rest, Nor shall they trust his word in vain.
- Thy word, O Lord though often tried, Void of deceit shall still appear; Not filver sev'n times purified From dross and mixture shines so clear.

 'Thy grace shall in the darkest hour Defend the holy soul from harm;
 Though, when the vilest men have pow'r, On ev'ry fide will sinners swarm.

PSALM XII. Common Metre.

Complaint of a general corruption of manners: ot, The promise and signs of Christ's coming to judgment.

- t. TELP, Lord, for men of virtue fail,
 Religion lofes ground;
 The fons of violence prevail,
 And treacheries abound.
- Their oaths and promifes they break, Yet act the flatt rer's part;
 With fair, deceifful lips they fpeak, And with a double heart.
- i. If we reprove some hateful lie,
 How is their sury stirr'd!
 Are not our lips our own," they cry,
 " And who shall be our lord?"
- Scoffers appear on ev'ry fide, Where a vile race of men Is rais'd to feats of pow'r and pride, And bears the fword in vain.

PAUSE.

Lord, when iniquities abound, And blafphemy grows bold, When faith is hardly to be found, And love is waxing cold:

Is not thy chariot hast'ning on?
Hast thou not giv'n the sign?
May we not trust and live upon
A promise so divine?

- 7. "Yes, faith the Lord, now will I rife,
 "And make oppreffors flee;
 - a I shall appear to their surprize, and set my servants free."
- Thy word, like filver fev'n times tried, Through ages shall endure;
 The men that in thy truth confide Shall find the promise sure.

PSALM XIII. Long Metre.

Pleading with God under defertion : or, Hope in darknels.

- T. HOW long, O Lord, shall I complain,
 Like one that seeks his God in vain?
 Wilt thou thy face for ever hide?
 Shall I still pray and be denied?
- 2. Shall I for ever be forgot, As one whom thou regardeft not? Still shall my foul thine absence mourn? And still despair of thy return?
- 3. How long fhall my poor, troubled breaft Be with these anxious thoughts opprest? And Satan, my malicious soe, Rejoice to see me funk so low?
- Hear, Lord, and grant me quick relief, Before my death conclude my grief, If thou withhold thy heav'nly light, I fleep in everlasting night.
- J. How will the pow'rs of darkness boast, If but one praying soul be lost? But I have trusted in thy grace, And shall again behold thy face.
- 6. Whate'er my fears or fees fuggeft, Thou art my hope, my joy, my reft: My heart shall feel thy love, and raife My cheerful voice to songs of praife, PSAEM XIII. Common Metre.

Complaint under temptations of the devil.

- T. HOW long wilt thou conceal thy face?
 My God, how long delay?
 When shall I feel those heav'nly rays
 That chase my fears away?
- How long shall my poor, lab'ring soul Wrestle and toil in vain?
 Thy word can all my soes controul, And ease my raging pain.
- See how the prince of darkness tries
 All his malicious arts,
 He fpreads a mist around my eyes,
 And throws his fiery darts.
- Be thou my fun, and thou my fhield;
 My foul in fafety keep;
 Make haste, before mine eyes are seal'd In death's eternal sleep.
- 5. How would the tempter boast aloud
 Should I become his prey!
 Behold the fons of hell grow proud
 At thy so long delay.
- But they shall fly at thy rebuke, And Satan hide his head;
 He knows the terrors of thy look, And hears thy voice with dread.
- Thou wilt display that soverign grace,
 Where all my hopes have hung;
 I shall employ my lips in praise,
 And vict'ry shall be fung.

PSALM XIV. First Part.

Ey nature all men are finners.

I. FOOLS, in their hearts, believe and fay,
"That all religion's vain,

- " There is no God that reigns on high, " Or minds th' affairs of men."
- From thoughts fo dreadful and profane Corrupt discourse proceeds;
 And in their impious hands are found Abominable deeds.
- The Lord, from his celeftial throne, Look'd down on things below,
 To find the man that fought his grace,
 Or did his justice know.
- By nature all are gone aftray,
 Their practice all the fame;

 There's none that fears his Maker's hand,
 There's none that loves his name.
- c. Their tongues are us'd to fpeak deceit, Their flanders never ceafe: How fwift to mifchief are their feet! Nor know the paths of peace.
- b. Such feeds of fin (that bitter root) In ev'ry heart are found; Nor can they bear diviner fruit, "Till grace refine the ground.

PSALM XIV. Second part.

The felly of perfecutors.

- i. A RE finners now fo fenfeless grown,
 That they the faints devour?
 And never worship at thy throne,
 Nor fear thine awful pow'r?
- Great God, appear to their furprize, Reveal thy dreadful name;
 Let them no more thy wrath despise, Nor turn our hope to shame.
- 3. Dost thou not dwell among the just, And yet our foes deride,

That we should make thy name our trust : Great God, confound their pride.

4. Oh that the joyful day were come To finish our distress ! When God shall bring his children home,

Our fongs shall never cease.

PSALM XV. Common Metre.

Characters of a faint, or a citizen of Zion : or, The qualifications of a Christian.

I. TATHO fhall inhabit in thy hill. O God of holiness? Whom will the Lord admit to dwell So near his throne of grace?

- 2. The man that walks in pious ways. And works with righteeus hands; That trusts his Maker's promises, And follows his commands.
- 3. He speaks the meaning of his heart, Nor flanders with his tongue; Will scarce believe an ill report, Nor do his neighour wrong.
- 4. The wealthy finner he contemns, Loves all that fear the Lord; And, though to his own hurt he swears, Still he performs his word.
- 5. His hands difdain a golden bribe, And never gripe the poor : This man shall dwell with God on earth, And find his heav'n fecure.

PSALM XV. Long Metre.

Religion and justice, goodness and truth; or, Duties to God and man; or, The qualifications of a Christian.

WHO shall ascend thy heavenly place, Great God, and dwell before thy face?

The man that minds religion now, And humbly walks with God below.

- Whose hands are pure, whose heart is clean;
 Whose lips still speak the thing they mean:
 No slanders dwell upon his tongue;
 He hates to do his neighbour wrong.
- 3. [Scarce will he truft an ill report, Nor vent it to his neighbour's hurt: Sinners of state he can despife, But saints are honour'd in his eyes.]
- Firm to his word he ever ftood, And always makes his promife good: Nor dares to change the thing he fwears, Whatever pain or lofs he bears.
- [He never deals in bribing gold, And mourbs that juffice should be fold; While others gripe and grind the poor, Sweet charity attends his door.]
- 6. He loves his enemies, and prays
 For those that curse him to his sace;
 And doth to all men still the same
 That he would hope or wish from them.
- 7. Yet, when his holieft works are done, His foul depends on grace alone: This is the man thy face shall fee, And dwell for ever, Lord, with thee.

PSALM XVI. First Part. Long Metre.

Confession of our powerty: and Saints the best company or, Good works profit men, not God.

I. PRESERVE me, I.ord, in time of need,
For fuccour to thy throne I flee,
But have no merits there to plead;
My goodsefs cannot reach to thee.

- 2. Oft have my heart and tongue confess'd, How empty and how poor I am; My praife can never make thee bleft, Nor add new glories to thy name.
- 3. Yet, Lord, thy faints on earth may reap Some profit by the good we do; These are the company I keep, These are the choicest friends I know.
- 4. Let others chuse the sons of mirth
 To give a relish to their wine;
 I love the men of heavenly birth,
 Whose thoughts and language are divine.

PSALM XVI. Second Part. Long Metre.

Christ's all sufficiency.

- HOW fast their guilt and forrows rife
 Who haste to seek some idol-god;
 I will not taste their facrifice,
 Their off'rings of forbidden blood.
- My God provides a richer cup, And nobler food to live upon, He for my life hath offer'd up Jefus his best beloved Son.
- 3. His love is my perpetual feaft;
 By day his counfels guide me right:
 And be his name for ever bleft,
 Who gives me sweet advice by night.
- 4. I fet him still before mine eyes;
 At my right hand he stands prepar'd
 To keep my foul from all surprise,
 And be my everlasting guard.

PSALM XVI. Third Part. Long Metre. Courage in death, and hope of the refurrection.

1. WHEN God is nigh, my faith is strong, His arm is my almighty prop:

Be glad my heart, rejoice my tongue, My dying flesh shall rest in hope.

- Though is the dust I lay my head,
 Yet, gracious God, thou wilt not leave
 My foul for ever with the dead,
 Nor lose thy children in the grave.
- My flesh shall thy first call obey, Shake off the duß and rife on high; Then shalt thou lead the wond'rous way Up to thy throne above the sky.
- 4. There ftreams of endless pleasure flow; And full discoviries of thy grace (Which we but tasted here below) Spread heavenly joys thro' all the place.

PSALM XVI. 1,-8. First Part. Com. Metre.

Support and counsel from God without merit.

- I, SAVE me, O Lord, from ev'ry foe;

 O In thee my trust I place,

 Though all the good that I can do

 Can ne'er deserve thy grace.
- Yet, here, thy children to fuffain Shall be my lov'd employ,
 Thy children, first and best of men,
 My friends, my highest joy.
- Let heathens to their idols hafte, And worship wood, or stone;
 But my delightful lot is cast Where the true God is known.
- 4. His hand provides my constant food,
 He fills my daily cup;
 Much am I pleas'd with present good,
 And more rejoice in hope.
- 5. God is my portion and my joy;
 His counfels are my light:

He gives me fweet advice by day, And gentle hints by night.

 My foul would all her thoughts approve To his all-feeing eye;
 Not death nor hell my hope shall move

While fuch a friend is nigh.

PSALM XVI. Second Part. Common Metre.

The death and refurrection of Christ.

I. " I Set the Lord before my face, " He bears my courage up;

" My heart and tongue their joys express,
" My flesh shall rest in hope.

2. " My fpirit, Lord, thou wilt not leave " Where fouls departed are;

" Nor quit my body to the grave,
" To fee corruption there.

3. " Thou wilt reveal the path of life, " And raife me to thy throne;

"Thy courts immortal pleasure give,
"Thy presence joys unknown."

4. [Thus in the name of Christ, the Lord, The holy David sung, And Providence sulfils the word Of his prophetic tongue.

 Jefus, whom every faint adores, Was crucified and flain:
 Behold the tomb its prey restores, Behold he lives again.

6. When shall my feet arise and stand On heav'n's eternal hills? There sits the Son at God's right hand, And there the Father smile al PSALM XVII. Ver. 13, &c. Short Metre.

Portion of faints and finners: or, Hope and despair in death.

1. A RISE, my gracious God,
And make the wicked flee:
They are but thy chastizing rod
To drive thy faints to thee.

2. Behold the finner dies,
His haughty words are vain;
Here in this life his pleafure lies,
And all beyond is pain.

3. Then let his pride advance, And boast of all his store;

The Lord is my inheritance, My foul can wish no more.

4. I shall behold the face Of my forgiving God; And stand complete in righteousness, Wash'd in my Saviour's blood.

5. There's a new heav'n begun When I awake from death, Dreft in the likeness of thy Sen, And draw immortal breath.

PSALM XVII. Long Metre.

The finner's portion, and faint's bope a or the heaven of feparate fouls, and the refurrection.

ORD, I am thine; but thou wilt prove My faith, my patience, and my love-; When men of spite against me join, They are the sword, the hand is thine.

Their hope and portion lie below,
 Tis all the happiness they know;
 Tis all they seek; they take their shares,
 And leave the rest among their heirs.

- 3. What finners value I refign;
 Lord, 'tis enough that thou art mine:
 I shall behold thy blissful face,
 And stand complete in righteousness.
- 4. This life's a dream, an empty show;
 But the bright world to which I go,
 Hath joys substantial and sincere;
 When shall I wake and find thee there?
- 5. O glorious hour! O bleft abode!

 I shall be near and like my God!

 And slesh and sin no more controul

 The sacred pleasures of the foul.
- My flesh shall slumber in the ground,
 "Till the last trumpet's joyful found;
 "Then burst the chains with sweet surprise,
 And in my Saviour's image rise.

PSALM XVIII. Proper Metre. Asthe New 50th.

First Part.

The thanksgiving of David for deliverance from his enemies.

Verfe 1. 2.

X. To heaven let all my facred passions move,
My trust, my wonder, gratitude, and love;
God is my hope, my strength, my rock, my tower;
My shield his favour, and my sword his power;
All praise, all love, his high perfections claim;
Let endless glory celebrate his name.

Ver. 3. 4. 5.

2. Before me death in gloomy terror rose, In arm, exulting came my banded foes; [fpread, Like floods, tempestious thousands round me Roar'd with fierce rage, and billow'do'er my head; Fear in the front amaz'd my trembling mind, And forrow, death, and hell, advanc'd behind.

Ver. 6. 7. 8.

3. In deep distress I rais'd my voice on high: From Heaven he bow'd to hear the humble cry: Then dread convulsions shook the folid ground; Wav'd the tall woods, and quak'd the hills around; Forth rush'd a smoky tempest through the skies, And round all ether slames began to rise.

Ver. 9. 10. 11.

4. To earth he came; the heavens before him bow'd; Beneath his feet deep midnight (fretch'd her shroud; Cherubic hofts his funbright chariot form; His wings the whirlwind, and his path the florm; Around his car thick clouds their curtains spread, And wrapp'd the concave in a boundles shade.

Ver. 12. 13.

5. Before his path o'erwhelming splendors came; The clouds dissolv'd; all nature selt the flame; From his dark throne a voice in thunder broke; The wide world trembled, as th' Eternal spoke: His soes to vanquish angry blasts conspire, Showers of dread hail, and coals of burning sire.

Ver. 14. 15.

6. Through the vast void his arrows wing'd their His lightnings blaz'd insusferable day; [way; Oppress'd, o'erthrown, or scatter'd on the plain, Fled his pale soes, or strew'd the fields with slain; Th' affrighted sloods their secret channels show'd, And earth's disclos'd soundations own'd her God.

Ver. 16. 17. 19-24.

7. Trembling he match'd me from the realms of woe, Drew from the pit, and fav'd from every foe: Keen were their fwords; and fierce their flaming Their fouls a furnace, and their rage a fire: [ire, *But God beheld, and faw my bosom clean, My tongue from falshood free, my hands from sin.

Ver. 22. 25. 26.

8. His holy word I made my chief delight:
His laws are perfect, and his judgments right:
In him the just a juster God shall find,
Pure to the pure, and to the piteous kind;
While froward lips, and froward hearts shall see
The rod of vengeance their reward from thee.

Ver. 27. 29. 33.

9. Thy hand shall fink the proud, exalt the poor, And bid the lamp of joy illume my door, Train me to war, conduct me to the field, In peace my glory, and in war my shield: [fly; Wing'd by thy power, my feet through thousands Walls fink beneath me, and proud chieftains die.

Ver. 28. 30. 31.

10. How perfect is thy way, Almighty Lord!
Thy name how wondrous! how divine thy word!
Thou art the Saviour, thou the God, alone,
The lamp of Zion, and of heaven the fun,
Of lords the Lord, of kings th' eternal King;
My raptur'd lips thy praife shall ever fing.

* This is spoken in a comparative sense only. David himself teaches us, that neither himself, nor any other man, is strictly clean before God. See Psalm 14 & 51.

PSALM XVIII. Proper Metre. As the New 50th. Second Part.

Applied to the American Revolution.

1. To bless the Lord, our God, in strains divine With thankful hearts, and raptur'd voices, join,

To us what wonders his right hand hath shown to whereis, his chosen tribes have scarcely known! Like David blest, begin th' enraptur'd song; Let praise and joy awaken every tongue.

When, fir'd to rage, against our nation rose hiefs of proud name, and bands of haughty foes, de train'd our hosts to sight, with arms array'd, With health invigor'd, and with bounty fed, 3ave us his chosen chief our sons to guide, Heard every prayer, and every want supplied.

Ver. 5. 19. 48.

He gave their armies captive to our hands, Or fent them frustrate to their native lands, Burst the dark snare, disclos'd the miry pit, And led to broad, safe grounds our sliding seet, Bounteous for us extended regions won, The fairest empire spread beneath the sun.

Ver. 18. 35. 39. 43.

When, dark and threatning, civil broils arose, Each hope grew dim, and friends were chang'd to soes.

God was our stay, our help, our heavenly shield; His grace preferv'd us, and his arm upheld, Sav'd us from tumults dire, and deep distress, Enlarg'd our blessings, and confirm'd our peace.

Ver. 44. 45.

No more against our land shall strangers rife, But sade, and sade, beneath avenging skies: Pleas'd, the sierce heathen yield to happier sway, The groping savage hail the gospel day; Low sink the proud, the sons of blood be slain, Nor injur'd Zion list her cries in vain.

Ver. 49. 50.

But, O thou Power belov'd! our shores around Be every virtue, every blessing, found.

Here bid thy feafons crown the fruitful plain; Here bid fair peace extend her blifsful reign; Let laws, let justice, hold perpetual fway, The foul unfetter'd, and the conscience free.

7. With clearest spendor, here, let knowledge shine Here every glory beam from truth divine; To Jesus' call the soul obsequious bend; Grace from thy Spirit in rich showers descend Nations each day ascend the bright abode, And boundless praise unceasing rise to God.

PSALM XVIII. First Part. Long Metre.

Ver. 1,-6. 15,-18.

Deliverance from despair : or, Temptations overcome.

- 1. THEE will I love, O Lord, my strength, My rock, my tow'r, my high defence; Thy mighty arm shall be my trust, For I have found salvation thence.
- Death, and the terrors of the grave, Stood round me with their difmal shade; While sloods of high temptations rose, And made my sinking soul asraid.
- I faw the op'ning gates of hell
 With endless pains and forrows there,
 Which none, but they that feel, can tell,
 While I was hurried to despair.
- 4. In my diffres I call'd my God,
 When I could scarce believe him mine;
 He bow'd his ear to my complaint;
 Then did his grace appear divine.
- 5. [With speed he flew to my relief, As on a cherub's wing he rode; Awful and bright as lightning shone The face of my deliv'rer God,

Temptations fled at his rebuke.
The blast of his almighty breath;
He sent falvation from on high,
And drew me from the depths of death.]

Great were my fears, my foes were great, Much was their firength, and more their rage; But Chrift, my Lord, is conqu'ror still In all the wars that devils wage.

My fong for ever shall record That terrible, that joyful hour; And give the glory to the Lord Oue to his mercy and his pow'r.

ISALM XVIII. Second Part. Ver. 20,-26.

Long Metre.

Sincerity proved and requarded.

ORD, thou hast feen my foul fincere, Haft made thy truth and love appear : Before mine eyes I fet thy laws, And thou haft own'd my righteous cause.

Since I have learn'd thy holy ways, 've walk'd upright before thy face; Or if my feet did e'er depart,
Twas never with a wicked heart.

What fore temptations broke my reft!
What wars and firugglings in my breaft?
But, through thy grace that reigns within,
guard against my darling fin.

.. The fin that close befets me ftill,
"hat works and ftrives against my will;
When shall thy Spirit's fov reign pow'r
Destroy it, that it rife no more?

With an impartial hand, the Lord leals out to mortals their reward:

The kind and faithful foul shall find A God as faithful and as kind.

6. The just and pure shall ever say,
Thou art more pure, more just than they:
And men that love revenge shall know
God hath an arm of vengeance too.]

PSALM XVIII. Third Part. Ver. 30, 31, 3 35, 46, &c. Long Metre.

Rejoicing in God; or, falvation and triumph.

- JUST are thy ways, and true thy word, Great rock of my fecure abode:
 Who is a God befide the Lord?
 Or where's a refuge like our God?
- "Tis he that girds me with his might, Gives me his holy fword to wield; And while with fin and hell I fight, Spreads his falvation for my shield.
- He lives, (and bleffed be my Rock)
 The God of my falvation lives,
 The dark defigns of hell he broke;
 Sweet is the peace my Father gives:
- Before the fcoffers of the age
 I will exalt my Father's name,
 Nor tremble at their mighty rage,
 But meet reproach, and bear the shame.
- 5. To David and his royal feed
 Thy grace for ever shall extend;
 Thy love to faints in Christ their head
 Knows not a limit, nor an end.

PSALM XVIII. First Part. Common Metro

Victory and triumph over temporal enemies.

I. WE love thee, Lord, and we adore, Now is thine arm reveal'd:

Thou art our strength, our heavenly tow'r, Our bulwark and our shield.

2. We fly to our eternal Rock,
And find a fure defence;
His holy name our lips invoke,
And draw falvation thence.

3. When God our leader fhines in arms, What mortal heart can bear The thunder of his loud alarms? The lightning of his fpear?

4. He rides upon the winged wind, And angels in array, In millions, wait to know his mind, And I wift as flames-obey.

 He speaks, and at his fierce rebuke Whole armies are difmay'd His voice, his frown, his angry look Strikes all their courage dead.

 He forms our gen'rals for the field With all their dreadful skill;
 Gives them his awful sword to wield, And makes their hearts of steel.

 [He arms our captains to the fight, (Though there his name's forgot; He girded Cyrus with his might, When Cyrus knew him not.

Oft has the Lord whole nations bleft
 For his own children's fake:
 The pow'rs that give his people reft
 Shall of his care partake.

PSALM XVIII. Second Part. Common Metre.

The conqueror's fong.

To thine almighty arm we owe The triumphs of the day; Thy terrors, Lord, confound the foe, And melt their strength away.

- 'Tis by thine aid our troops prevail, And break united pow'rs;
 Or burn their boafted fleets, or feale 'The proudeft of their tow'rs.
- 3. How have we chas'd them thre' the field, And trod them to the ground, While thy falvation was our fhield, And they no fhelter found!
- 4. In vain to idol faints they cry,
 And perish in their blood;
 Where is a rock so great, so high,
 So pow'rful as our God?
- 5. The Rock of Ifrael ever lives, His name be ever bleft; 'Tis his own arm the vict'ry gives, And gives his people reft.

PSALM XIX. Proper Metre. As the 148th

The Glory of God Seen in Creation.

- LORD, our Lord most high!
 In heaven thy glories shine,
 And all this lower sky
 Unfolds thy skill divine.
 Thy wisdom there,
 And power sublime,
 Through every clime
 Thy works declare.
- Each day proclaims thy hand To earth's admiring throng;
 Each night, from land to lands
 Repeats the folemn fong.

The pale moon finnes With filver rays, And writes thy praise In fairest lines.

- 3. Like a young bridegroom dreft Comes forth the morning fur, And, as a champion bleft, Delights his race to run. O'er feas and ifles Ilis warn:th extend; To heaven's far ends
- 4. Beneath the kindly ray
 All nature's realms rejeice;
 All join the folemn lay,
 And lift their grateful voice.
 The fea and fhore,
 The morn and even,
 And earth and heaven
 Their God adore.
- Se What though no voice, nor found, A nobler speech is found
 By virtue's raptur'd eye.
 To God's great hand,
 The chorus cries,
 Let songs arise
 From every land

Renewing grace Thy truth imparts.

- 7. How pure thy perfect word!
 That lamp to wandering feet.
 What peace thy laws afford!
 Thy promifes how fweet!
 A rich reward
 Thy flatutes give,
 And bid me live,
 And ferve the Lord.
- 8. Not honey fo delights,
 Nor heaps of gold refin'd,
 No pleafure fo invites
 The pure and pious mind.
 Her erring thoughts
 Teach thou my foul,
 And make me whole
 From fecret faults.
- 9. From each prefumptuous way
 My wandering feet restrain;
 So shall my life be free
 From every fatal stain.
 Oh make me fee,
 Thou God of grace,
 My thoughts and ways
 Approv'd by thee!

PSALM XIX. First Part. Short Metre.

The book of nature and Scripture.

For a Lord's Day-morning.

- r. BEHOLD the lofty sky
 Declare its maker God,
 And all his starry works on high
 Proclaim his pow'r abroad.
 - The darkness and the light Still keep their course the same;

- While night to day, and day to night Divinely teach his name.
- 3. In ev'ry different land
 Their gen'ral voice is known;
 They shew the wonders of his hand,
 And orders of his throne.
- 4. Ye Western lands rejoice, Here he reveals his word, We are not left to nature's voice To bid us know the Lord.
- 5. His flatutes and commands
 Are fet before our eyes,
 He puts his gospel in our hands,
 Where our falvation lies.
- 6. His laws are just and pure, His truth without deceit, His promises for ever sure, And his rewards are great.
- Not honey to the tafte
 Affords fo much delight,

 Nor gold that has the furnace pass'd.
 So much allures the fight.
- 8. While of thy works I fing,
 Thy glory to proclaim,
 Accept the praife, my God, my King,
 In my Redeemer's name.]

PSAUM XIX. Second Part. Short Metre.

God's word most excellent; or, Sincerity and watch-fulness.

For a Lord's Day-morning.

BEHOLD the morning fun
Begins his glorious way;
His beams thro' all the nations run,
And life and light convey.

2. But where the gospel comes
It spreads diviner light,
It calls dead sinners from their tombs,

And gives the blind their fight.

3. How perfect is thy word!

And all thy judgments just,
For ever fure thy promise, Lord,
And men securely trust.

4. My gracious God, how plain Are thy directions giv'n! Oh may I never read in vain, But find the path to heav'n!

PAUSE.

5. I hear thy word with love, And I would fain obey; Send thy good Spirit from above To guide me, left I ftray.

6. O who can ever find
The errors of his ways?
Yet with a bold prefumptuous mind
I would not dare transgress.

7. Warn me of ev'ry fin,
Forgive my fecret faults,
And cleanfe this guilty foul of mine,
Whose crimes exceed my thoughts.

8. While with my heart and tongue
I fpread thy praife 2broad;
Accept the worthip and the fong,
My Saviour and my God.

PSALM XIX. Long Metre.

The book of nature and scripture compared; or, The glory and success of the gospel.

1. THE heav'ns declare thy glory, Lord, In ev'ry flar thy wisdom shines;

But when our eyes behold thy word, We read thy name in fairer lines.

- 2. The rolling fun, the changing light, And nights and days thy pow'r confess; But the bleft volume thou hast writ, Reveals thy justice and thy grace
- 3. Sun, moon, and stars convey thy praise
 Round the whole earth, and never stand:
 So when thy truth began its race,
 It touch'd and glane'd on ev'ry land.
- 4. Nor shall the foreading go well rest,
 "Till through the world the rath has ran ;
 "Till Christ has all the nations blest
 That see the light, or feel the sun.
- 5. Great Sun of righteoufnefs, arife;
 Blefs the dark world with heavinly light;
 Thy gospel makes the simple wife,
 Thy laws are pure, thy judgments right.
- 6. Thy noblest wonders here we view, In fouls renew'd, and fins forgiv'n: Lord, cleanfe my fins, my foul renew, And make thy word my guide to heav'n.

PSALM XIX. Proper Metre. As 113th Pfalm.

The book of nature and Scripture.

- I. GREAT God, the heav'n's well order'd frame
 Declares the glories of thy name:
 There thy rich works of wonder finine;
 A thousand starry beauties there,
 A thousand radiant marks appear
 Of boundless pow'r, and skill divine.
- From night to day, from day to night,
 The dawning and the dying light,
 Lectures of heav'nly wifdom read;
 With filent eloquence they raife

Our thoughts to our Creator's praise, And neither found nor language need.

Yet their divine infiructions run Far as the journies of the fun, And every nation knows their voice; The fun, like fome young bridegroom dreft, Breaks from the chambers of the eaft, Rolls round, and makes the earth rejoice.

4. Where'er he fpreads his beams abroad, He fmiles and speaks his Maker God; All nature joins to shew thy praise. Thus God in ev'ry creature shines; Fair are the book of nature's lines, But fairer is thy book of grace.

PAUSE.

- 4. I love the volumes of thy word; What light and joy those leaves afford To fouls benighted and diffrent! Thy precepts guide my doubtful way, Thy fear forbids my feet to stray, Thy promise leads my heart to rest.
- 6. From the discoveries of thy law The perfect rules of life I draw; These are my study and delight; Not honey so invites the taste. Nor gold that hath the sunace past, Appears so pleasing to the sight.
- 7. Thy threat'nings wake my flumb'ring eyes, And warn me whefe my danger lies; But 'tis thy bleffed gospel, Lord, That makes my guilty confcience clean, Converts my foul, subdues my fin, And gives a free, but large reward.
- 8. Who knows the errors of his thoughts?
 My God, forgive my fecret faults,

And from prefumptuous fins referain.
Accept my poor attempts of praife,
That I have read thy book of grace
And book of nature not in vaip.

PSALM XX.

Proper and ispe of victory.

For a day of prayer in time of war.

- N OW may the God of pow'r and grace Attend his people's humble cry! Jehovah hears when Ifrael prays, And brings deliv'rance from on high.
- The name of Jacob's God defends
 Better than shields or brazen walls:
 He from his fanctuary fends
 Succour and strength when Zion calls.
- Well he remembers all our fighs,
 His love exceeds our best deferts:
 His love accepts the facrifice
 Of humble groans and broken hearts.
- 4. In his falvation is our hope,
 And in the name of Ifrael's God.
 Our troops shall lift their banners up,
 Our navies spread their slags abroad.
- Some trust in horses train'd for war, And some of chariots make their boasts; Our surest expectations are From thee, the Lord of heav'nly hosts.
- 6. [Oh may the memory of thy name Inspire our armies for the fight! Our foes shall fall and die with shame, Or quit the field with shameful flight.]
- Now fave us, Lord, from flavish fear, Now let our hope be firm and strong, 'Till thy falvation shall appear, And joy and triumph raise the song.

PSALM XXI. Common Metre.

Rulers are the care of Heaven.

- T. OUR Rulers, Lord, with fonge of pratie Shall in thy firength rejoice, And, blest with thy falvation, raise To heaven their cheerful voice.
 - Thy fure defence through nations round Has fpread their honors far;
 And their fuccessful measures crown'd, Alike in peace and war.
 - 3. Then let them fill on God rely, For wifdom, and for grace; His mercy shall their wants supply, And save our happy race.
 - But, righteous Lord, thy stubborn foes Shall quake through all their bands;
 Thy vengeful arm shall find out those,
 That hate thy mild commands.
 - When thou against them dost engage, Thy just but dreadful doom, Shall, like a fiery oven's rage, Their hopes and them consume.
 - Thus, Lord, thy wondrous pow'r declare, And thus exalt thy fame;
 Whilft we glad fongs of praise prepare For thine almighty name.

PSALM XXI. 1-9. Long Metre.

Christ exalted to the kingdom.

PAVID rejoiced in God, his strength,
Raised to the throne by special grace.
But Christ, the Son, appears at length,
Fulfils the triumph and the praise.

- 1. How great is the Messiah's joy, In the salvation of thy hand! Lord, thou hast rais'd his kingdom high, And giv'n the world to his command.
- Whate'er he wills thy goodness gives, Nor doth the least request withhold, Blessings attend him while he lives, And crowns of glory, not of gold.
- 4. Around his facred temples fhine, Th' Eternal's uncreated rays; All power is his, and grace divine, And length of everlafting days,
- And as a fiery oven glows
 With raging heat, and burning coals,
 Thy vengeance shall confume his foes,
 Thy wrath devour their guilty souls.

PSALM XXII. 1-16. First Paris Common Metre.

The Sufferings and death of Christ.

- 1. W HY hath my God my foul forfook, Nor will a finile afford? (Thus David once in anguish spoke, And thus our dying Lord.)
- Though 'tis thy chief delight to dwell Among thy praifing faints, Yet thou canft hear a groan as well, And pity our complaints.
- Our Fathers trufted in thy name, And great deliv'rance found;
 But I'm a worm, despis'd of men, And trodden to the ground.
- And laugh my foul to fcorn;

C 4

- " In vain he trusts in God, thy cry, " Neglected and forlorn."
- But thou art he who form'd my flesh, By his almighty word, And since I hung upon the breast, My hope is in the Lord.
- 5. Why will my Father hide his face, When foes fland threatning round, In the dark hour of deep diffrefs, And not a helper's found?

PAUSE.

- 7. Behold thy derling left among The cruel and the proud, As bulls of Baffian fierce and ffrong, As lions roaring loud.
- From earth and hell my forrows meet
 To multiply the fmart;
 They nail my hands, they pierce my feet,
 And try to vex my heart.
- 9. Yet if thy fov'reign hand let loofe The rage of earth and hell, Why will my heav'nly Father bruife The Son he loves fo well?
- to. My God, if possible it be, Withhold this bitter cup: But 1 resign my will to thee, And drink the sorrows up.
- rr. My heart dissolves with pangs unknown; In groans I waste my breath: The heavy hand hath brought me down Low as the dust of death.
- 12. Father, I give my fpirit up, And truft it in thine hand; My dying flesh shall rest in hope, And rife at thy command.

PSALM XXII. 20, 21, 27,-31. Second Part.

Christ's Sufferings and kingdom.

7. " NOW from the roaring lion's rage,
" O Lord, protect thy Son,
" Nor leave thy darling to engage

"The pow'rs of hell alone."

- Thus did our fuff'ring Saviour pray With mighty cries and tears;
 God heard him in that dreadful day, And ches'd away his fears.
- Great was the vict'ry of his death, His throne exalted high:
 And all the kindreds of the earth Shall worship or shall die.
- 4. A num'rous offspring must arise From his expiring groans; They shall be reckon'd in his eyes For daughters and for sons.
- The meek and humble fouls shall fee His table richly spread;
 And all that feek the Lord shall be With joys immortal fed.
- The isles shall know the righteousness
 Of our incarnate God,
 And nations yet unborn profess
 Salvation in his blood.

PSALM XXII. Long Metre Christ's fufferings and exaltation.

 NOW let our mournful fongs record The dying forrows of our Lord, When he complain'd in tears and blood, As one forfaken of his God. 2. The Jews beheld him thus forlorn,
And shook their heads and laugh'd in scorn;
"He rescued others from the grave;

" Now let him try himfelf to fave.

3. This is the man did once pretend
"God was his father and his friend;
"If God the bleffed lov'd him fo,

" Why doth he fail to help him now?"

- 4. Barbarous people! Cruel priests!
 How they stood round like savage bensts;
 Like lions gaping to devour,
 When God had left him in their pow'r.
- 5. They wound his head, his hands, his feet, "Till Areams of blood each other meet; By lot his garments they divide, And mock the pangs in which he died.
- 6. But God, his father, heard his cry;
 Rais'd from the dead he reigns on high;
 'The nations learn his righteousness,
 And humble sinners taste his grace.

PSAIM XXIII. Long Metre.

God our Shepherd.

- 1. MY shepherd is the living Lord;
 Now shall my wants be well supplied;
 His providence and holy word
 Become my safety and my guide.
- In pastures where salvation grows
 He makes me feed, he makes me rest;
 There living water gently flows,
 And all the food's divinely blest.
- 3. My wand'ring feet his ways mistake, But he restores my foul to peace, And leads me, for his mercy's take, In the fair paths of righteourness.

- 4. Though I walk thro' the gloomy vale
 Where death and all its terrors are,
 My heart and hope shall never fail,
 For God my shepherd's with me there.
- 5. Amidft the darknefs and the deeps Thou art my comfort, thou my flay; Thy flaff fupports my feeble fleps, Thy rod directs my doubtful way.
- 6. The fons of earth and fons of hell Gaze at thy goodness, and repine To see my table spread so well With living bread and chearful wine.
- [How I rejoice, when on my head The Spirit condescends to reft!
 "Tis a divine anointing, shed Like oil of gladness at a seast.
- Surely the mercies of the Lord Attend his houshold all their days;
 There will I dwell to hear his word,
 To feek his face and fing his praise.

PSALM XXIII. Common Metre.

- MY Shepherd will supply my need, Jehovah is his name; In pastures fresh he makes me feed, Beside the living stream.
- He brings my wand'ring spirit back, When I fortake his ways;
 And leads me, for his mercy's sake, In paths of truth and grace.
- When I walk thro' the shades of death
 Thy presence is my stay;
 A word of thy supporting breath
 Drives all my sears away.

- Thy hand, in fight of all my foes,
 Doth still my table spread;
 My cup with blessings overflows.
 Thine oil anoints my head.
- 5. The fure provisions of my God Attend me all my days; Oh may thy house be mine abode, And all my work be praise!
- 6. There would I find a fettled reft,
 (While others go and come)
 No more a ftranger, nor a gueft,
 But like a child at home.

PSALM XXIII. Short Metre.

r. THE Lord my shepherd is,
I shall be well supplied;
Since he is mine, and I am his,
What can I want beside?

 He leads me to the place Where heav'nly pasture grows, Where living waters gently pass, And full salvation flows.

3. If e'er I go astray, He doth my foul reclaim, And guides me in his own right way For his most holy name.

4. While he affords his aid I cannot yield to fear; Though I should walk through death's dark shade My shepherd's with me there.

g. In fpite of all my foes Thou doft my table spread, My cup with bleflings overflows, And joy exalts my head.

6. The bounties of thy love
Shall crown my following days;

Nor from thy house will I remove, Nor cease to speak thy praise.

PSALM XXIV. Common Metre-

Dwelling with God.

THE earth for ever is the Lord's,
With Adam's num'rous race;
He rais'd its arches o'er the floods,
And built it on the feas.

a. But who among the fors of men
May vifit thine abode?
He that hath hands from mifchief clean,
Whose heart is right with God.

 This is the man, may rife and take The bleffings of his grace:
 This is the lot of those that feek.
 The God of Jacob's face,

 Now let our fouls' immortal pow'rs, To meet the Lord prepare;
 Lift up their everlasting doors;
 The King of glory's near.

The King of glory! who can tell
 The wonders of his might?
 He rules the nations; but to dwell
 With faints is his delight.

PSALM XXIV. Long Metre.

Saints dwell in beaven, or, Christ's afcension.

THIS spacious earth is all the Lord's
Andmen and worms, and beasts and birds.
He rais'd the building on the seas,
And gave it for their dwelling-place.

2. But there's a brighter world on high, 'Thy palace, Lord, above the ky;.

Who shall afcend that blest abode, And dwell so near his Maker, God?

- He that abhors and fears to fin,
 Whose heart is pure, whose hands are clean;
 Him shall the Lord the Saviour bless,
 And clothenis soul with righteousness.
- 4. These are the men, the pious race, That seek the God of Jacob's face: These shall enjoy the blissful sight, And dwell in everlasting light.

PAUSE.

- 5. Rejoice, ye shining worlds on high, Behold the King of glory nigh! Who can this King of glory be? The mighty Lord, the Saviour's he.
- 6. Ye heav'nly gates, your leaves difplay, To make the Lord, the Saviour, way a Laden with fpoils from earth and hell, The Conqu'ror comes with God to dwell.
- Rais'd from the dead, he goes before, He opens heav'n's eternal door, To give his faints a bleft abode Near their Redeemer and their God.

PSALM XXV. 1-11. First Part.

Waiting for parden and direction.

- I. I LIFT my foul to God,
 My trust is in his name;
 Let not my foes that feek my blood
 Still triumph in my shame.
- 2. Sin, and the pow'rs of hell
 Perfuade me to defpair:
 Lord, make me know thy cov'nant well,
 That I may 'fcape the fnare.

- 3. From the first dawning light,
 'Till the dark evening rife,
 for thy falvation, Lord, I wait
 With ever longing eyes.
- 4. Remember all thy grace, And lead me in thy truth; orgive the fins of riper days, And follies of my youth,
- f. The Lord is just and kind, The meek shall learn his ways, And every humble sinner find The bieffings of his grace.
- 6. For his own goodness sake
 He saves my foul from shame;
 le pardons (though my guilt be great)
 Through my Redeemer's name.

PSALM XXV. 12, 14, 10, 13. Second Part.

Divine Instruction.

- 1. WHERE shall the man be found,
 That sears t' offend his God,
 That loves the gospel's joyful found,
 And troubles at the rod?
- 2. The Lord shall make him know The secrets of his heart, The wonders of his cov'nant show, And all his love impart.
- The dealings of his hand Are truth and mercy ftill, With fuch as in his cov'mant stand, And love to do his will.
- 4. Their fouls shall dwell at ease Before their Maker's face; Their feed shall taste the premises In their executive grace.

PSAIM XXV. 15-22. Third Part.

Diffres: of foul: or, Backstiding and desertion.

I. MINE eyes and my defire

Are ever to the Lord;

I love to plead his promifes, And reft upon his word.

Turn, turn thee to my foul;
 Bring thy falvation near;
 When will thy hand release my feet
 Out of the deadly frare?

When shall the fov'reign grace
 Of my forgiving God,
 Restore me from those dangerous ways
 My wand'ring feet have trod!

4. The tumult of my thoughts

Doth but enlarge my woe;

My fpirit languishes; my heart
Is desolate and low.

5. With every morning light My grief anew begins; I.ook on my anguish and my pain, And pardon all my fins.

PAUSE.

6. Behold the hofts of hell, How cruel is their hate? Against my life they rife, and join Their fury with deceit.

7. Oh keep my foul from death, Nor put my hope to shame, For I have plac'd my only trust In my Redeemer's name.

8. With humble faith I wait
To fee thy face again:
Of Ifrael it shall ne'er be faid,
He fought the Lord in vain.

PSALM XXVI.

Self-examination, or, Evidences of grace.

JUDGE me, O Lord, and prove my ways. And try my reins, and try my heare; My faith upon thy promife ftays, Nor from thy law my feet depart.

I hate to walk, I hate to fit With men of vanity and lies: The fcoffer and the hypocrite Are the abhorrence of mine eyes.

Among thy faints will I appear, With hand, well wash'd in innocence; But when I stand before thy bar, The blood of Christ is my defence.

I love thy habitation, Lord, The temple where thine honors dwell; There shall I hear thy holy word, And there thy works of wonder tell.

Let not my foul be join'd at last With men of treachery and blood, lince I my days on earth have past Among the faints, and near my God.

PSALM XXVII. 1-6. First Part

The church is our delight and safety.

THE Lord of glory is my light, And my falvation too; 3od is my strength; nor will I fear What all my foes can do.

One privilege my heart defires;
Oh grant me an abode,
Among the churches of thy faints,
The temples of my God

- There shall I offer my requests, And see thy beauty still;
 Shall hear thy messages of love, And there enquire thy will.
- When troubles rife, and ftorms appear,
 There may his chikiren hide;
 God has a ftrong pavilion, where
 He makes my foul abide.
- Now shall my head be lifted high Above my foes around, And fongs of joy and victory Within thy temple found.

PSALM XXVII. 8, 9, 13, 14. Second Pa

Prayer and Hope.

- Soon as I heard my Father fay, "Ye children, feek my grace," My heart replied without delay, "I'll feek my Father's face."
- Let not thy face be hid from me, Nor frown my foul away;
 God of my life, I fly to thee In a diffressing day.
- Should friends and kindred near and dear, Leave me to want or die,
 My God would make my life his care, And all my need fupply.
- 4. My fainting flesh had died with grief, Had not my foul believ'd, Thy grace would foon provide relief, Nor was my hope deceiv'd.
- 5. Wait on the Lord, ye trembling faints, And keep your courage up; He'll raife your spirit when it faints, And far exceed your hope.

PSALM XXVIII. Long Metre.

trayer, and projet to God for de perance from temperations, and enemies.

O GOD of grace, my cry attend!
Left, like the fons of guilt become,
Beguil'd by Satan, I descend
With hopeless wretches to the temb.

. To thee my humble fighs ande; My lifted hands will thou regard; And let my positione and cries Find in thy house a rich reward.

- Oh fave my foul from frame and fin, Nor let my headless feetitess go Where burden'd wretches fwife decline Down the broad way to endless wee.
- . While peace their flattering lips proclaim, And love profes, and hope impart, They blast their neighbour's honest fame, And wing their arrows to his heart.
 - But, while they plant the fecret fnare, Thy feareding eyes their path regard. Thy hands their dreadful doom prepare, And mete their guid its just reward.
 - Because their hearts thy works despise, Thy works of wisdom, grace, and power, Thy hand, regardless of their cries, Shall sink them, that they rise no more.

PAUSE.

- '. Bleft be the Lord, who heard my prayer, The Lord my fhield, my help, my fong, Who fay'd my foul from fin and fear, And tun'd with praise my thankful tongue.
- l. In the dark hour of deep diffres, By soes beset, of death siraid,

My spirit trusted in his grace, And sought, and sound, his heavenly aid.

- O bleft Redeemer of mankind!
 Thy shield, thy saving strength, shall be
 The shield, the strength, of every mind,
 That loves his name, and trusts in thee.
- 10. Remember, Lord, thy chosen feed; Ifrael defend from guilt and woe; Thy flock in richest pastures feed, And guard their steps from every foe.
- 21. Zion exalt, her cause maintain, With peace and joy her courts surround, In showers let endless blessings rain, And Saints eternal praise resound.

PSALM XXVIII. Common Metre.

Prayer, and praise for deliverance from evil companio

- TO thee, my King, my God of grace,
 I lift my humble cry
 Let not my poor, desponding soul
 With impious wretches die.
- Withdraw me from the path of guilt, Nor let my foul be join'd With men of violence and fraud, Th' unthankful and unkind.
- With honey'd lips, and guileful tongue, They charm the wretch aftray,
 And lure his heedlefs feet to death,
 Along the flowery way.
- 4. For me they dug the secret pit,
 And form'd the hidden snare;
 Thoughtless, I follow'd where they led,
 Nor saw destruction near,
- 5. My heart with agonizing prayer Befought the Lord to save;

Unfeen, he feis'd my trembling hand, And brought me from the grave.

He broke the charm, which drew my feet To darkness and the dead; From lips profane, and tongues impure, With quivering steps I fled.

And feek his face divine, Reffor'd to peace, to hope, to life, To Zion's friends, and mine.

My lips thy wondrous works shall sing.
 My heart adore thy grace;
 Henceforth be love my sweet employ,
 And all my pleasure praise.

PSALM XXIX.

Storm and Thunder.

CIVE to the Lord, ye fons of fame, Give to the Lord renown and pow'r, Aferike due honors to his name, And his eternal might adore.

The Lord proclaims his pow'r aloud Over the ocean and the land; His voice divides the watry cloud, And lightnings bluze at his command.

He speaks, and tempess, hail and wind. Lay the wide forest bare around: The fearful hart, and frighted had. Leap at the terror of the sound.

To Lebanon he turns his voice, And lo, the stately cedars break; The mountains tremble at the noise, The vaillies roar, the deferts quake.

The Lord fits fov'reign on the flood, The Thund'rer reigns for ever king; But makes his church his bleft abode, Where we his awful glories fing.

gentler language there the Lord The counfels of his grace imparts: Amid the raging from his word Speaks peace and courage to our hearts.

PSALM XXIX. Proper Messe. As the new 50th

Storm and Thunier.

- 1. Y Echiefs, and kings, to God your voices raife.
 To him afcribe the glory, power, and praife.
 The grateful incenfe of a contrice mind,
 With truth enlighten'd, and by grace refin'd:
 Jehovah fpeaks; through heaven his terrors roll.
 And the vaft concave shakes from pole to pole.
- O'er the dark world, when clouds the fky deform
 His car the whirlwind, and his throne the florm.
 His voice is heard; aftenifh'd at the found,
 Old ocean trembles to his farthest bound;
 The hard rocks cleave; the hills in homage nod;
 And the touch'd earth proclaims the present God.
- 3. See groves of cedars, lifted to the tky, Rent by the flaming blaft, in ruin lie! Proud Lebanon, with deep convultions riven, Bends his high clifts, and ownsthe voice of heaven Sad Sirion leaps; his deep foundations fhake; The vallies heave; the howling deferts quake.
- 4. There fink the biasted pines, their honors lost;
 There oaks majestic bow their heads in dust;
 The wasted forest opes its dark abodes,
 Shorne all its glories, prostrate all its woods;
 Anew the lightnings blaze; the thunders roar;
 And shrinking mortals tremble, and adore.
- 5. In awful grandeur o'er the boundless flood Thus, thron'd in clouds, the God of thunders rode Dreadful to guilt he reigns forever king, While faints his milder face behold, and fing; With gentlest voice he bids their terrors cease, And mid the tempest charms their hearts to peace.

PSALM XXX. First Part.

Sickness bealed, and forrewremoved.

- I WILL extol thee, Lord, on high, At thy command difeafes fly; Who but a God can fpeak, and fave From the dark borders of the grave?
- Sing to the Lord, ye faints of his, And tell how large his goodness is; Let all your pow'rs rejoice and bless, While you record his holiness.
- 3. His anger but a moment stays; His love is life and length of days; Though grief and tears the night employ, The morning-star restores the joy.

PSALM XXX. Ver. 6. Second Part.

Health, fickness and recovery.

- FIRM was my health, my day was bright,
 And I prefum'd 'twould ne'er be night;
 Fondly I faid within my heart,
 " Pleafure and peace shall ne'er depart."
- But I forgot thine arm was firong,
 Which made my mountain fland fo long;
 Soon as thy face began to hide,
 My health was gone, my comforts dy'd.
- 3. I cried aloud to thee, my God:
 "What canst thou profit by my blood?
 "Deep in the dust can I declare

" Thy truth, or fing thy goodness there ?

D

- 4. " Hear me, O God of grace, I faid,
 " And bring me from among the dead;"
 Thy word rebuk'd the pains I felt,
 'Thy pard'ning love remov'd my guilt.
- y. My groans, and tears, and forms of woe,
 Are turn'd to joy and praifes now;
 I throw my fackcloth on the ground,
 And eafe and gladness gird me round.
- 6. My tongue, the glory of my frame, Shall ne'er be filent of thy name; 'Thy praise shall found thro' earth and heav'n, For sickness heal'd, and sins forgiv n.

PSALM XX XI. 5, 13-19, 22, 23. First Part.

Deliverance from death.

- INTO thy hand, O God of truth,
 My fpirit I commit;
 Thou haft redeem'd my foul from death.
 And fav'd me from the pit.
- 'The passions of my hope and sear Maintain'd a doubtful strife;
 While forrow, pain, and sin conspir'd To take away my life.
- 3. " My times are in thy hand, I cried, Tho' I draw near the dust:" Thou art the refuge where I hide, The God in whom I trust.
- 4. Oh make thy reconciled face
 Upon thy fervant shine,
 And we me for thy mercy's sake,
 For I'm intirely thine.

PAUSE.

5. ['Twas in my haste my spirit faid,
" I must despair and die,

- " I am cut off before thine eyes;"
 But thou haft heard my cry.]
- Thy goodness, how divinely free!
 How wend'rous is thy grace,
 To those that fear thy majesty,
 And trust thy promises!
- 7. Ch love the Lord, all ye his faints,
 And fing his praifes loud;
 He'll bend his ear to your complaints,
 And recompence the proud.

PSALM XXXI. 7—13, 18—21. Second Par...

Deliverance from flander and reproach.

- Y heart rejoices in thy name, My God, ray help, my trust; Thou hast preferv'd my face from shame, Mine honor from the dast.
- 2. " My life is fpent with grief, I cried, ...
 " My years confum'd in groans,
 - " My strength decays, mine eyes are dried,
 " And forrow wastes my bones."
- 3. Among mine enemies my name
 Was a mere proverb grown,
 While to my neighbours I became
 Forgotten and unknown.
- Slander and fear on every fide Seiz'd and befet me round,
 I to the throne of grace, applied,
 And speedy rescue found.

PAUSE.

5. How great deliv'rance thou haft wrought Before the fons of men! The lying hips to filence brought, And made their boaftings vain! Thy children, from the strife of tongues, Shall thy pavilion hide,
 Guard them from infamy and wrongs, And crust the sons of pride.

 Within thy fecret prefence, Lord, Let me for ever dwell;
 No fenced city wall'd and barr'd Secures a faint fo well.

PSALM KXXII. Short Metre.

Forgiveness of sins upon confession.

t. O BLESSED fouls are they.
Whose size cover'd o'er!
Divinely blest, to whom the Lord
Imputes their guilt no more!

 They mouth their follies paft, And keep their hearts with care;
 Their lips and lives, without deceit, Shall prove their faith fincere.

 While I conceal'd my guilt, I felt the fest ring wound;
 Till I confest my fins to thee, And ready pardon found.

4. Let finners learn to pray, Let faints keep near the throne; Our help in times of deep diffrefs Is found in God alone.

PSALM XXXII. Common Metre.

Free pardon, and sincere obedience: or, Confession and forgiveness.

1. HAPPY the man to whom his God No more imputes his sin, But, wash'd in the Redeemer's blood, Hath made his garments clean!

- Happy beyond expression he, Whose debts are thus discharg'd!
 And from the guilty bondage free He feels his soul enlarg'd.
- His spirit hates deceit and lies,
 His words are all sincere;
 He guards his heart, he guards his eyes,
 To keep his conscience clear.
- While I my inward guilt suppress,
 No quiet could I find;
 Thy wrath lay burning in my breast,
 And rack'd my tortur'd mind.
- Then I confefs'd my troubled thoughts, My fecret fins reveal'd? Thy pard'ning grace forgave my faults, Thy grace my pardon feal'd.
- This shall invite thy faints to pray;
 When like a raging flood
 Temptations rife, our strength and stay
 Is a forgiving God.

PSALM XXXII. First Part. Long Metre.

Repentance and free Pardon; or, Justification and Sanstification.

- I. BLEST is the man, for ever bleft,
 Whose guilt is pardon'd by his God,
 Whose sins with forrow are confess'd,
 And cover'd with his Saviour's blood.
- 2. Blest is the man to whom the Lord Imputes not his iniquities; He pleads no merit of reward, And not on works but grace relics.
- 3. From guile his heart and lips are free; His humble joy, his holy fear,

With deep repentance well agree, And join to prove his faith ancere.

4. How glorious is that rightcoufness. That hides and camels all less ins! While a bright evidence of grace. Thro' his whole life appears and shines.

PSALM XXXII. Second Part. Long Metrc.

A guilty Confidence cased by Genf fion and Pardon.

- WHILE I keep filence and conceal My heavy guilt within my heart, What tornions do it my conference feel! What agonize of knownd finant!
- I spread my fins before the Lord, And all my secret facts confess; Thy gospel speaks a pardining word, Thy boly Spirit feals the grace.
- 3. For this fhall ev'ry humble foul Make fwift addresses to thy feat; When floods of huge temptations roll, There shall they find a blest retreat.
- 4. How fafe beneath thy wings I lie, When days grow dark, and ftorms appear : And when I walk, thy watchful eye Shall guide me fafe from ev'ry fnare.

PSALM XXXIII. Firg? Part. Common Metre.

Works of Creation and Providence.

- r. R EJOICE, ye righteous, in the Lord,
 This work belongs to you;
 Sing of his name, his ways, his word,
 How holy, just and true!
- 2- His mercy and his righteousness
 Let heav'n and earth proclaim:

- His works of nature and of grace Reveal his wond'rous name.
- His wildom and almighty word The heavinly arches iproad;
 And by the Spirit of the Lord Their thining hofts were made,
- He bid the liquid waters flow
 To their appointed deep;
 The flowing feas their limits know,
 And their own station keep.
- Ye tenants of the fpacious earth, With fear before him fland: He fpake, and nature took its birth, And refts on his command.
- He scorns the angry nations rage, And breaks their vain designs;
 His counsel stands through ev'ry age, And in full glory shines.

PSALM XXXIII. Second Part. Common Metre Creatures vain, and God all-sufficient.

- I. BLEST is the nation where the Lord
 Hath fix'd his gracious throne;
 Where he reveals his heav'nly word,
 And calls their tribes his own.
- His eyes, with infinite furvey,
 The fpactous world behold;
 He form'd us all of equal clay,
 And knows our feeble mould.
- Kings are not resen'd by the force
 Of armies from the grave:
 Nor speed nor courage of a horse
 Can the bold rider save.
- 4. Vain is the strength of beasts or men, To hope for safety thence;

But holy fouls from God obtain A ftrong and fure defence.

- God is their fear, and God their truft, When plagues or famine fpread; His watchful eye fecures the just Among ten thousand dead.
- Lord, let our hearts in thee rejoice, And bless us from thy throne;
 For we have made thy word our choice, And trust thy grace alone.

PSALM XXXIII. As the 113th Pfal. First Part.

Works of Creation and Providence.

- YE holy fouls, in God rejoice,
 Your Maker's praife becomes your voice,
 Great is your theme, your fongs be new;
 Sing of his name, his word, his ways,
 His works of nature and of grace,
 How wife and holy, just and true!
- 2. Justice and truth he ever loves,
 And the whole earth his goodness proves,
 His word the heavinly arches spread;
 How wide they thine from north to south!
 And by the spirit of his mouth
 Were all the starry armies made.
- 3. He gathers the wide flowing feas;
 Those watry treasures know their place,
 In the vast store-house of the deep;
 He spake, and gave all nature birth,
 And fires, and seas, and heav'n, and earth,
 His everlasting orders keep.
- A. Let mortals tremble, and adore
 A God of fuch reliftles pow'r,
 Nor dare indulge their feeble rage:
 Vain are their thoughts, and weak their hands,

But his eternal counfel stands, And rules the world from age to age.

PSALM XXXIII. As the 113th Pfal. Second Part.

Creatures vain, and God all-fufficient.

1. O HAPPY nation where the Lord Reveals the treasure of his word, And builds his church, his earthly throne! His eye the heathen world furveys, He form'd their hearts, he knows their ways, But God, their Maker, is unknown.

Let Kings rely upon their hoft,
 And of his strength the champion boast;
 In vain they boast, in vain rely;
 In vain we trust the brutal force,
 Or speed, or courage of an horse,
 To guard his rider, or to fly.

3. The eye of thy compassion, Lord,
Doth more secure desence afford,
When death or dangers threat ning stand;
Thy watchful eye preserves the just,
Who make thy name their fear and trust,
When wars or samine waste the land.

4. In fickness, or the bloody field, Thou our Physician, thou our Shield, Send us faivation from thy throne; We wait to see thy goodness shine; Let us rejoice in help divine, For all our hope is God alone.

PSAIM XXXIV. First Part. Long Metre. God's Care of the Saints: or, Deliverance by Prayer

I. L ORD, I will bless thee all my days,
Thy praise shall dwell upon my tongue:

My foul shall glory in thy grace. While faints rejoice to hear the fong.

- 2. Come, magnify the Lord with me; Come, let us all exalt his name; I fought th' eternal God, and he Has not expos'd my hope to flame.
- I told him all my fecret grief,
 My fecret groaning reach'd his ears,
 He gave my inward pains relief,
 And calm'd the tumult of my fears.
- 4. To him the poor lift up their eyes, Their faces feel the heavinly faine; A beam of mercy from the skies Fills them with light and joy divine.
- g. His holy angels pitch their tents Around the men that ferve the Lord: Oh fear and love him, all his faint, Tafte of his grace, and trust his word.
- 6. The wild young lions, pineh'd with pain And hunger, rost through all the wood; But none shall feek the Lord in vain, Nor want supplies of real good.

PSALM XXXIV. 11-22. Second Part. Long Metre.

Religious Education ; or, Intractions of Fiety.

- T. CHILDREN in years and knowledge young.
 Your perents hope, your parents joy,
 Attend the counfels of my tongue,
 Let pious thoughts your minds employ.
- 2. If you defire a length of days,
 And peace to crown your mortal flate,
 Reftrain your felt from impious ways,
 Your lips from flander and deceit.

- 3. The eyes of God regard his faints, His cars are open to their cries; He fets his frowning face against The fons of violence and lies.
- 4. To humble fouls and broken hearts God with his grace is ever nigh; Pardon and hope his love imparts When men in deep contrition lie.
- He tells their tears, he counts their grouns, His Son redeems their fouls from death; His Spirit heals their broken bones; While they in praise employ their breath.

PSALM XXXIV. 1,-10. First Part. Com. Mietre.

Prayer and Praise for eminent deliverance.

- I'LL bless the Lord from day to day;
 How good are all his ways?
 Ye humble fouls that use to pray,
 Corne, help my lips to praise.
- Sing to the honor of his name, How a poor fufferer cried, Nor was his hope expos'd to shame, Nor was his fuit denied.
- When threat'ning forrows round me flood, And endless fears arofe, Like the loud billows of a flood, Redoubling all my woes.
- I told the Lord my fore diffress
 With heavy groans and tears,
 He gave my tharpest terments ease,
 And silene'd all my fears.

PAUSE.

5. [O finners, come and tafte his love, Come, learn his pleafant ways,

- And let your own experience prove The fweetness of his grace.
- He bids his angels pitch their tents
 Where'er his children dwell;
 What ills their heav'nly care prevents
 No earthly tongue can tell.]
- Oh love the Lord, ye faints of his;
 His eye regards the just!
 How richly bless'd their portion is,
 Who make the Lord their trust!
- Young lions pinch'd with hunger roar, And famish in the wood:
 But God supplies his holy poor With ev'ry needful good.

PSALM XXXIV. 11.—22. Second Part. Common Metre.

Exhortations to Peace and Holinefs.

- r. COME, children, learn to fear the Lord,
 And that your days be long,
 Let not a falfe or spiteful word
 Be found upon your tongue.
- Depart from mifchief, practife love, Purfue the works of peace;
 So shall the Lord your ways approve, And set your fouls at ease.
- 3. His eyes awake to guard the just, His ears attend their cry; When broken spirits dwell in dust, The God of grace is nigh.
- What tho' the forrows here they tafte Are sharp and tedious too,
 The Lord, who faves them all at last,
 Is their supporter now.

PSALM XXXV.

Evil shall smite the wicked dead;
But God secures his own,
Prevents the mischief when they slide,
Or heals the broken bons.

When desolation like a flood O'er the proud sinner rolls, Saints find a refuge in their God, For he redeems their souls.

PSALM XXXV. 1-9. First Part.

Prayer and faith of periodical factor, ir, Impresa-

t. N OW plead my cause. Almighty God, With all the sons of strife; And fight against the men of blood; Who fight against my life.

- Draw out thy spear, and stop their way, Lift thine avenging rod;
 But to my soel in inercy say,
 I am thy Saviour God."
- They plant their finares to catch my feet, And nets of mischief spread:
 Plunge the destroyers in the pit
 That their own hands have made.
- 4. Let fogs and darkness hide their way, And slipp ry be their ground; Thy wrath shall make their lives a prey, And all their rage confound.
- They fly, like chaff before the wind, Before thine angry breath;
 The angel of the Lord behind Purious them down to death.
- They love the road that leads to hell:
 Then must the rebels die,
 Whose malice is implacable
 Against the Lord on high.

- 7. But if thou hast a chosen few Amongst that impious race, Divide them from the bloody crew By thy surprizing grace.
- Then will I raife my tuneful voice
 To make thy wonders known;
 In their falvation I'll rejoice,
 And blefs thee for thy own.

PSALM XXXV. ver. 12, 13, 14, &c. Second Par

Love to Enemies; or, The love of Christ to sinner typify'd in David.

- T. BEHOLD the love, the generous love
 That holy David shows;
 Mark how his tender bowels move
 For his afflicted foes!
- When they are fick, his foul complains,
 And feems to feel the fmart;
 The fpirit of the gofpel reigns,
 And melts his pious heart.
- How did his flowing tears condole
 As for a brother dead!

 And fasting mortified his foul,
 While for their life he pray'd.
- 4. They groan'd and curs'd him on their bed.
 Yet still he pleads and mourns;
 And double blessings on his head
 The righteous God returns.
- O glorious type of heav'nly grace!
 Thus Christ the Lord appears;
 While sinners curse, the Saviour prays,
 And pities them with tears.
- He the true David, Ifrael's King, Bleft and belov'd of God, To fave us rebels dead in fin, Pa' his own dearest blood.

PSALM XXXVI. 5-9. Long Metre.

e perfections and journates of God; er, General providence and special grace.

HIGH in the heavins, eternal God, the Thy geodness in full glory shines; Thy truth shall break through eviry cloud That veils and darkens thy designs.

- .. For ever firm thy juffice stands.

 As mountains their foundations keep;

 Wife are the wonders of thy hands;

 Thy judgments are a nighty deep.
- Thy providence is kind and large, Both man and beaft thy bounty share; The whole creation is thy charge; But faints are thy pecaliar care.
- 4. My God how excellent thy grace;
 Whence all our hope and comfore fprings?
 The fons of Adam in diffrefs
 Fly to the shadow of thy wings.
- From the provisions of thy house We shall be fed with sweet repast;
 There mercy like a river flows,
 And brings falvation to our taste.
- 6. Life, like a fountain rich and free,
 Springs from the prefence of my Lord;
 And in thy light our fouls shall fee
 The glories promised in thy word.

PSALM XXXVI. 1, 2, 5, 6, 7, 9, Com. Metre.

Practical otherin experient: or, The being and atti-

And yet a God they own,
My heart within me often fays,

" Their thoughts believe there's nene."

- Their thoughts and ways at once declare (Whate'er their lips profefs)
 God hath no wrath for them to fear, Nor will they feek his grace.
- 3. What strange self-flatt'ry blinds their eyes? But there's a hast'ning hour When they shall see with sore surprise The terrors of thy pow'r.
- 4. Thy justice shall maintain its throne,
 Though mountains melt away;
 Thy judgments are a world unknown,
 A deep, unfathom'd sea.
- Above these heav'ns' created rounds,
 Thy mercies, Lord, extend;
 Thy truth out-lives the narrow bounds
 Where time and nature end.
- Safety to man thy goodness brings, Nor overlooks the beast;
 Beneath the shadow of thy wings. Thy children choose to rest.
- From thee, when creature-streams run low, And mortal comforts die,
 Perpetual springs of life shall flow, And raise our pleasures high.
- 3. Though all created light decay, And death close up our eyes, Thy presence makes eternal day, Where clouds can never rise.]

PSALM XXXVI. 1-7. Short Metre.

The wickedness of man, and the majesty of God; of Practical Atheism exposed.

I. WHEN man grows bold in fin, My heart within me cries,

He hath no faith of God within, "Nor fear before his eyes."

2. [He walks a while conceal'd In a felf-flattering dream, "Ill his dark crimes, at once reveal'd, Expose his hateful name.]

3. His heart is false and foul, His words are smooth and fair; risdom is banish'd from his foul, And leaves no goodness there.

4. He plots upon his bed New mifehiefs to fulfil: It fets his heart, his hand, and head To practife all that's ill.

 But there's a dreadful God, Though men renounce his fear;
 Juffice, hid behind the cloud, Shall one great day appear.

6. His truth transcends the sky, In heavn his mercies dwell; Deep as the sea his judgments lie, His anger burns to hell.

7. How excellent his love, Whence all our fafety springs! Oh never let my foul remove From underneath his wings!

PSALM XXXVII. 1-15. First Part.

The sure of every, fretfulness, and unbelief: or, The rowards of the righteous and the wicked; or, The world's batred, and the faint's patience.

I. WHY should I vex my foul and fret To see the wicked rise? Or envy sinners waxing great, By violence and lies?

- As flow'ry grafs, cut down at noon, Before the evening fades, So shall their glories vanish foon, In everlasting shades.
- 3. Then let me make the Lord my trust, And practife all that's good; So shall I dwell among the just, And he'll provide me food,
- I to my God my ways commit,
 And chearful wait his will;
 Thy hand, which guides my doubtful feet,
 Shall my defires fulfil.
- Mine innocence shalt thou display, And make thy judgments known, Fair as the light of dawning day, And glorious as the noon.
- 6. The meek at last the earth possess, And are the heirs of heav'n; True riches with abundant peace, To humble fouls are giv'n.

PAUSE.

- Rest in the Lord, and keep his way, Nor let your anger rise, Though providence should long delay, To punish haughty vice.
- Let finners join to break your peace, And plot, and rage, and foam;
 The Lord derides them, for he fees Their day of vengeance come.
- g. They have drawn out the threat'ning fword, Have bent the murd'rous bow, To flay the men that fear the Lord, And bring the righteous low.
- To. My God shall break their bows, and burn Their perfecuting darts, all their own fwords against them turn ; And pain surprise their hearts.

LM XXXVII. 16, 21, 26-31. Second Part.

(with to the poor ; or, Religion in words and dec ...

WHY do the wealthy wicked boaff, And grow prefanely bold? he meanest portion of the just, Excels the sinner's gold.

The wicked borrows of his friends, But ne er deligns to pay; he faint is merciful and lends, Nor turns the poor away.

this alms with libral heart he gives Amongst the four of need; Its mem'ry to long ages lives, And bleffed is his feed.

(He fears to talk with lips profane, To flander or defrand; . Its ready tongue declares to men What he has learn'd of God.

The law and goipel of the Lord Deep in his heart abide; Led by the Spirit and the word, His feet shall never slide.

When sinners fall, the righteous stand Preserv'd from ev'ry snare,

They shall possess the promis'd land, And dwell forever there.

PSALM XXXVII. 23-37. Third Part.

The way and end of the righteous and the wicked.

MY God, the steps of pious men Are order'd by thy will; Though they should fall they rise again, Thy hand supports them still.

- The Lord delights to fee their ways, Their virtues he approves;
 He ne'er deprives them of his grace, Nor leaves the men he loves.
 - The heav'nly heritage is theirs,
 Their portion and their home;

 He feeds them now, and makes them heirs
 Of bleffings long to come.
- Wait on the Lord, ye fons of men, Nor fear when tyrants frown;
 Ye shall confess their pride was vain When justice casts them down.

PAUSE.

- The haughty finnner have I feen, Not fearing man nor God, Like a tall bay-tree fair and green, Spreading his arms abroad.
- And lo, he vanish'd from the ground, Destroy'd by hands unseen; Nor root, nor branch, nor leaf was found, Where all that pride had been.
- But mark the man of righteoufnefs, His fev'ral fteps attend;
 True pleafure runs thro' all his ways, And peaceful is his end.

PSALM XXXVIII.

Guilt of conscience and relief; or, Repentance of prayer for pardon and health.

1. A MIDST thy wrath remember love, Restore thy servant Lord; or let a Father's chastening prove ke an avenger's sword.

hine arrows stick within my heart, My slesh is forcly prest; tween the forrow and the fanart My spirit finds no rest.

fy fins a heavy load appear, And o'er my head are gone; so heavy for my foal to bear, Too hard for me t' atone.

Iy thoughts are like a troubled fea, My head fill bending down; and I go mourning all the day, Beneath my Father's frown.

Lord, I am weak and broken fore, None of my pow'rs are whole; 'he inward anguish makes me roar, The anguish of my foul.

All my defire to thee is known, Thine eye counts ev'ry tear, And ev'ry figh, and ev'ry groan, Is notic'd by thine ear.

Thou art my God, my only hope, My God will hear my cry, My God will bear my spirit up, When Satan bids me die.

My foes rejoice to fee me flide Into the miry pit; They raife their pleafure and their pride, When they fupplant my feet.

But I'll confess my guilt to thee, And grieve for all my fin; I feel how weak my graces be, And beg support divine. 10. My God, forgive my follies past, And be for ever nigh; O Lord of my salvation haste,

Before thy fervant die.]

PSALM XXXIX. 1, 2, 3. First Part.

Watchfulness over the tongue : or, Prudence and zea

- I. THUS I refolv'd before the Lord,
 "Now will I watch my tongue,
 "Left I let flip one finful word,
 "Or do my neighbour wrong."
- And, if I'm e'er constrain'd to stay
 With men of lives profane,
 I'll fet a double guard that day,
 Nor let my talk be vain.
- I'll fearce allow my lips to fpeak
 The pious thoughts I feel,
 Left feoffers should th' occasion take
 To mock my holy zeal.
- 4. Yet if fome proper hour appear,
 I'll not be overaw'd,
 But let the fcoffing finners hear,
 That I can fpeak for God.

PSALM XXXIX. 4, 5, 6, 7. Second Par.

The vanity of man as mortal.

- 1. TEACH me the meafure of my days,
 Thou maker of my frame;
 I would furvey life's narrow space,
 And learn how frail I am.
- A fpan is all that we can boaft, An inch or two of time: Man is but vanity and duft, In all his flower and prime.

See the vain race of mortals move Like fhadows o'er the plain, They rage and ftrive, defire and love, But all their noise is vain.

Some walk in honour's gaudy show, Some dig for golden ore, They toil for heirs they know not who, And straight are seen no more.

What should I wish or wait for then From creatures, earth and dust? They make our expectations vain, And disappoint our trust.

Now I forbid my carnal hope, My fond desires recall! I give my mortal interest up, And make my God my all.

PSALM XXXIX. 9-13. Third Part.

Sick-bed devotion : or, Pleading without repining.

OD of my life, look gently down, Behold the pains I feel, But I am dumb before thy throne, Nor dare difpute thy will.

Difeases are thy servants, Lord, They come at thy command: I'll not attempt a murm'ring word, Against thy chast'ning hand.

Yet I may plead with humble cries, Remove thy sharp rebukes: My strength consumes, my spirit dies, Thro'thy repeated strokes.

Crush'd as a moth beneath thy hand,
 We moulder to the dust;
 Our seeble pow'rs can ne'er withstand,
 And all our beauty's lost.

- 5. [This mortal life decays apace, How foon the bubble's broke! Adam, and all his num'rous race Are vanity and fmoke.]
- 6. I'm but a fojourner below,

 As all my fathers were;

 May I be well prepar'd to go,

 When I the fummons hear.
 - But if my life be fpar'd a while Before my last remove, 'Thy praise shall be my bus'ness still, And I'll declare thy love.

PSALM XL. 1, 2, 3, 5, 17. 1ft. Part. Com. Met

A fong of deliv'rance from great distress.

- t. I WAITED patient for the Lord, He bow'd to hear my cry; He faw me refting on his word, And brought falvation nigh.
- He rais'd me from a horrid pit, Where mourning long I lay, And from my bonds releas'd my feet, Deep bonds of miry clay.
- Firm on a rock he made me stand, And taught my cheerful tongue To praise the wonders of his hand In a new, thankful song.
- A. I'll fpread his works of grace abroad; The faints with joy shall hear, And sinners learn to make my God Their only hope and fear.
- 3. How many are thy thoughts of love! Thy mercies, Lord, how great! We have not words, nor hours enough Their numbers to repeat.

 When I'm afflicted, poor and low, And light and peace depart, My God beholds my heavy wee, And bears me on his heart.

PSALM XL. 6-9. Second Part. Com. Metie.

The incarnation and farific of Christ.

1. THUS faith the Lord, "Your work is vain, "Give your burnt off range o'er,

" In dying goats and bull sels firin,
" My foul delights 10 more."

2. Then spake the Saviour, " Lo, I'm here " My Ged to do thy will;

"Whate'er thy facred books declare,
"Thy fervant shall sulf!

3. " Thy law is ever in my fight,
" I keep it near my beart:

" Mine ears are open'd with delight
" To what thy lips impart."

4. And fee, the bleft Redeemer comes, Th' eternal Son appears! And at the appointed time affumes The body, God prepares.

 Much he reveal'd his Father's grace, And much his truth he shew'd, And preach'd the way of righteonsness, Where great assemblies stood.

His Father's honor touch'd his heart;
 He pitied finners cries,
 And, to fulfil a Saviour's part,
 Was made a facrifice.

PAUSE.

*. No blood of beaits, on alears shed, Could wash the conscience clean, But the rich facrifice he paid, Atones for all our fin,

 Then was the great falvation (pread, And Satan's king som shock;
 Thus by the womin's promis'd feed The serpent's head was broke.

PSAIM XL. 5-10 Long Metre.

Carif cur Sarifice.

- THE wonders, Lord, thy love has wrought, Exceed our proife, furmount our thought; Should I attempt the long detail.
 My speech would faint, my numbers fail.
- 2. No blood of beafts on alters spilt, Can cleanse the souls of men from guilt: But thou half set before our eyes An all-sufficient facrisce.
- 3. In heaven, before his Father's throne, Complacent, fmiles th' eternal Son, And, pleas'd, prefents with boundlefs grace Himself, a ranfom for our race.
- 4. " Behold I come" (the Saviour cries, With love and dury in his eyes) " I come to bear the heavy load
 - " Of fins, and do thy will, my God.
- Mine ear is open'd to thy voice,
 My heart delighted with thy choice;
 Pleas'd, I affume a fiefaly form,

" Akin to man, that dying worm."

- 6. "Tis ritten in thy great decree,
 "Tis in thy boo coretold of me.
 - " I must fulfil the Saviour's part; " And lo! thy law is in my heart.
- ". " I'll magnify thy hely law,
 " And rebels to obedience draw,

- " When on my cross I'm lifted high,
- " Or to my crown above the sky.
- 8. " The Spirit shall descend and show " What thou hast done, and what I do;
 - "The wond'ring world shall learn thy grace,
 - " Thy wisdom and thy righteousness."

PSALM XLI. 1, 2, 3.

Charity to the poor : or, Pity to the afflified.

- T. BLEST is the man whose bowels move,
 And melt with pity to the poor;
 Whose foul by sympathizing love
 Feels what his fellow-faints endure.
- 2. His heart contrives for their relief
 More good than his own hands can do:
 He in the time of gen'ral grief,
 Shall find the Lord has bowels too.
- 3. His foul shall live secure on earth,
 With secret blessings on his head,
 When drought, and pestilence, and dearth,
 Around him multiply their dead.
- 4. Or if he languish on his couch, God will procounce his fins forgiv'n, Will fave him with a healing touch, Or take his willing foul to heav'n.

PSALM XLII. 1-5. Firf Fare

Defertion and love: or, Complaint of absence from public recession.

2. WIFH earnest lengings of the mird.

My God, to thee I lenk;

So pants the lunted hart to find

And take the cooling brook.

- When shall I fee thy courts of grace;
 And meet my God again?
 So long an absence from thy face
 My heart endures with pain.
- 2. Temptations vex my weary foul, And tears are my repaft; The foe infults without control, " And where's your God at laft?"
- 4. 'Tis with a mournful pleafure now
 I think on ancient days;
 Then to thy house did numbers go,
 And all our work was praise.
- 5. But why's my foul funk down fo far Beneath this heavy load? Why do my thoughts indulge defpair, And fin against my God?
- Hope in the Lord, whose mighty hand Can all thy woes remove:
 For I shall yet before him stand, And sing restoring love.

PSALM XLII. 6-11. Second Part.

Melancholy thoughts repreved; or, Hope in afflictions

- I. MY fpirit finks within me, Lord,
 But I will call thy name to mind,
 And times of past diffres record,
 When I have found my God was kind.
- Huge troubles with tumultuous noife Swell like a fea, and round me fpread; Thy water fpouts drown all my joys, And rifing waves roll o'er my head.
- 3: Yet will the Lord command his love, When I address his throne by day, Nor in the night his grace remove; The night shall hear me sing and pray.

- 4. I'll cast myself before his seet,
 And say, "My God, my heav nly Rock,
 "Why doth thy love so long forget
 "The soul that groans beneath thy stroke?
- 5. I'll chide my beart that finks to low,
 Why fhould my foul includes her grief?
 Hope in the Lord, and praife him too;
 He is my reft, my fure relief.
- 6. Thy light and truth that paide me fill,
 Thy word thall my best thoughts coupley.
 And lead me to thine bear my hill,
 My God, my most exceeding joy.

PSALM XLIII. Proper Metre. Asibe 148th.

- A complaint, mingled will hope, under great trials, particularly, long desertion from public worthin.
 - I. MY God, defend my couse Against a host of foce; O fave me from th' unjust, Who triumph in my woes! Why dost thou faint, My trembling heart? To God impart Thy sad complaint.
- 2. Why dost thou, O my shield,
 Defert me thus forlorn?
 Why, hated and oppress'd,
 Thus bid me ceaseles mourn?
 To God I fly;
 In God I'll trus,
 When low in dust
 My head shall lie.
- Now to thy facred house With joy direct my feet, Where faints with morning vows In full affembly meet.

Thy power divine Shall there be shown, And from thy throne Thy mercy shine.

- 4. Oh fend thy light abroad!
 Thy truth with heavenly ray
 Shall lead my foul to God,
 And guide my doubtful way;
 I'll hear thy word
 With faith fincere,
 And learn to fear
 And praife the Lord.
- 5. There reach thy bounteous hand, And all my forrows heal; There health and firength divine Oh make my bofom feel! Like balmy dew, Shall Jefus' voice My bones rejoice, My ftrength renew.
- 6. Then in thy holy hill
 Before thine altar, Lord,
 My harp and fong shall found
 The glories of thy word.
 Henceforth to thee,
 O God of grace,
 A hymn of praise
 My life shall be.
- My foul, awake to joy, And triumph in the Lord, My health, my hope, my fong, And my divine reward.

Ye fears remove; No more I meurn, But bleft return To fing his leve,

PSALM XLIV. 1, 2, 3, 8, 15-26.

The church's compliant in perfecution.

- t. I ORD, we have heard thy works of old,
 I a Thy works of pow'r and grace,
 When to our ears our fashers told
 The wonders of their day:
- How rhou didft build thy churches here, And make thy gofpel known Among them did thine arm appear, Thy light and glory flone.
- In God they boafted all the day, And in a cheerful throng
 Did thoufands meet to praife and pray, And grace was all their fong.
- But now our fouls are feiz'd with shame, Confusion fills our face,
 To hear the enemy blascheme,
 And fools reproach thy grace.
- Yet have we not forgot our Cod, Nor falfely dealt with heav'n, Nor have our steps declin'd the road Of duty thou hast giv'n.
- Though dragons all around us roar
 With their deftructive breath,
 And thine own hand has bruis'd us fore
 Hard by the gates of death.

PAUSE.

- We are expos'd all day to die,
 As martyrs for thy taufe,
 As sheep for flaughter, bound we lie
 By sharp and bloody laws.
- 8. Awake, arife, almighty Lord! Why deeps thy wonted grace?

Why should we look like men abhorr'd, Or banish'd from thy face?

- 9. Wilt thou for ever caft us off, And fill neglect our cries? For ever hide thy heav'nly love From our afflicted eyes?
- 10. Down to the dust our souls are bow'd And die upon the ground; Rise for our help, rebuke the proud, And all their pow'rs consound.
- 21. Redeem us from perpetual shame Our Saviour and our God; We plead the honors of thy name, The merits of thy blood.

PSALM XLV. First Part. Short Metre.

The glory of Christ, the success of the gospel, and the Gentile church.

- 1. MY Saviour and my king, Thy beauties are divine; Thy lips with bleffings overflow, And ev'ry grace is thine.
- Now make thy glory known, Gird on thy dreadful fword, And ride in majeffy to fpread The conquefts of thy word.
- Strike through thy stubborn foes,
 Or melt their hearts t' obey,
 While justice, meckness, grace and truth,
 Attend thy glorious way.
- 4. Thy laws, O God, are right;
 Thy throne shall ever stand,
 And thy victorious gospel prove
 A sceptre in thy hand.

 Thy Father and thy God Hath, without measure, shed His Spirit, like a joyful oil, T' anoint thy facred head.

6. Behold at thy right-hand The Gentile church is feen, Like a fair bride in rich attire,

Like a fair bride in rich attire,

And princes guard the queen.]

- Fair bride, receive his love, Forget thy father's house;
 Forfake thy gods, thy idol gods, And pay thy Lord thy vows.
- 8. Oh let thy God and King
 Thy fweetest thoughts employ;
 Thy children shall his honours sing
 In palaces of joy.

PSALM XLV. First Part. Common Metre.
The personal glories and government of Christ.

z. T'LL fpeak the honors of my King;
His form divinely fair;
None of the fons of mortal race
May with the Lord compare.

Sweet is thy speech, and heav'nly grace
Upon thy lips is shed;
 Thy God with blessings infinite
Hath crown'd thy sacred head.

3. Gird on thy fword victorious Prince!
Ride with majestic sway;
Thy terror shall strike through thy social And make the world obey.

4. Thy throne, O God, for ever stands; Thy word of grace shall prove

E

A peaceful sceptre in thy hands, To rule thy faints by love.

 Justice and truth attend thee still, But mercy is thy choice;
 And God, thy God, thy soul shall fill With most peculiar joys.

PSALM XLV. First Part. Long Metre. The glory of Christ, and power of his gospel.

- 2. NOW be my heart inspir'd to fing
 The glories of my Saviour King,
 Jesus the Lord; how heavenly fair
 His form! how bright his beauties are!
- O'er all the fons of human race, He shines with a superiour grace, Love from his lips divinely flows, And blessings all his state compose.
- Drefs thee in arms, most mighty Lord!
 Gird on the terror of thy sword,
 In majesty and glory ride
 With truth and meekness at thy side.
- 4. Thine anger like a pointed dart
 Shill pierce the foes of flubborn heart;
 Or words of mercy kind and fweet
 Chall melt the rebels at thy feet.
- 5. Thy throne, O God, for ever flands; Grace is the feeptre in thy hands: Thy laws and works are just and right; Justice and grace are thy delight.
- 6. God, thire own God, his richly fied His oil of gladness on thy head, Ar i with his facred Spirit bloft His first-born Son above the rest.

PSALM XLV. Second Part. Long Metre.

Christ and his church ; or, The mustical marriage.

- I. THE King of faints how fair his face,
 Adorn'd with majefty and grace!
 He comes with bleffings from above,
 And wins the nations to his love.
- 2. At his right hand our eyes behold

 The queen array'd in pureft gold:

 The world admires her heav'nly drefs;

 Her robe of joy and righteouiness.
- He forms her beauties like his own, He calls and feats her near his throne; Fair ftranger, let thy heart forget The idols of thy native state.
- 4. So shall the King the more rejoice.
 In thee the fav'rite of his choice;
 Let him be lov'd, and yet ador'd,
 For he's thy Maker and thy Lord.
- O happy hour! when thou shalt rife
 To hie fair palace in the sties,
 And all thy sens (a num'rous train)
 Each like a prince in glory reign.
- Let endless honors crown his head;
 Let ev'ry age his praises spread;
 While we with cheerful songs approve
 The condescensions of his love.

PSALM XLVI. First Part.

The church's fifery and triumph among national def-

I. OD is the sefuge of his faints,
When florms of sharp diffress invade;
Ere we can offer our complaints
Behold him present with his aid-

- Let mountains from their feats be hurl'd Down to the deep, and buried there; Convulsions shake the folid world, Our faith shall never yield to fear.
- Loud may the troubled ocean roar, In facred peace our fouls abide While ev'ry nation, ev'ry fhore Trembles, and dreads the fwelling tide.
- 4. There is a fiream whose gentle flow
 Supplies the city of our God;
 Life, love, and joy ftill gliding through,
 And wat ring our divine abode.
- That facred fiream, thy holy word, Our grief allays, our fear controls;
 Sweet peace thy promifes afford, And give new firength to fainting fouls.
- 6. Sien enjoys her monarch's love, Secure against a threat ning how; Nor can her firm foundations move, Built on his truth, and arm'd with pow'r.

PSALM XLVI. Second Part.

God fights for his church.

- I. I ET Sion in her King rejoice,
 Though tyran's rage, and kingdoms rife;
 He utters his almighty voice,
 The nations melt, the tunult dies.
- 2. The Lord of old fer Jacob fought,
 And Jacob's God is still our aid:
 Behold the works his hand hath wrought,
 What desolations he hath made!
- From fea to fea through all the shores
 He makes the noise of battle cease;
 When from on high his thunder roars
 He awes the trembling world to peace

He breaks the bow, he cuts the fpear, Chariots he burns with heav'nly flame; Keep filence all the earth, and hear The found and glory of his name.

- 5. " Be still, and learn that I am God,
 " I'll be exalted o'er the lands.
 - " I will be known and fear'd abroad,
- " But fill my throne in Zion stands."

 6. O Lord of hosts, almighty King,
 While we so near thy presence dwell,
 Our faith shall fit fewer, and sing

Defiance to the gates of hell.

PIALM XI.VII

Christ assending and reigning.

- r. OH for a shout of sacred joy
 To God the sov'reign King!
 Let ev'ry land their tongues employ,
 And hymns of triumph sing.
- Jefus our God afcends on high; His heav'nly guards around Attend him rifing thro' the fky, With trumpet's joyfal found.
- While angels shout and praise their King, Let mortals learn their strains;
 Let all the earth his honors sing;
 O'er all the earth he reigns.
- Rehearfe his praife with awe profound, Let knowledge lead the fong, Nor mock him with a folemn found Upon a thoughtless tongue.
- In Ifrael flood his ancient throne, He lov'd that chosen race; But now he calls the world his own, And heathens taste his grace.

These western climes are all the Lord's;
 Here Abraham's God is known;
 While pow'rs and princes, shields and swords
 Submit before his throne.

PSALM XLVIII. 1-8. First Part.

The church is the bonor and fafety of a nation-

2. GREAT is the Lord our God,
And let his praife be great;
He makes his churches his abode,
His most delightful feat.

- 2. These temples of his grace
 How beautiful they stand?
 The honors of our native place,
 And bulwarks of our land.
- 3. In Sion God is known A refuge in diffrefs; How bright hath his falvation shore Through all her palaces!
- 4. When Kings against her join'd, And faw the Lord was there, In wild confusion of the mind They sled with hasty fear.
- 5. When navies tall and proud
 Attempt to fpoil our peace,
 He fends his tempest roaring loud,
 And finks them in the seas.
- 6. Oft have our fathers told,
 Our eyes have often feen,
 How well our God fecures the fold
 Where his own sheep have been.
- In ev'ry new distress
 We'll to his house repair,
 We'll think upon his wond'rous grace.
 And seek deliv'rance there.

PSALM XLVIII. 10-14. Second Parts

The beauty of the charth; or, Gaspel worship and order.

- r. FAR as thy name is known
 The world declares thy praife;
 by faints, O Lord, before thy throne
 Their fongs of honor raife.
- 2. With joy let Judah fland On Sion's cholen hill, Proclaim the wonders of thy hand, And counsels of thy will.
- Let firangers walk around The city where we dwell,
 Compets and view thy hely ground, And mark the building well;
- 4. The orders of thy house,
 The worship of thy court,
 The cheerful longs the klein vows,
 And make a fair report.
- 5. How detent and how wife!
 How glorious to beheld!
 Beyond the pomp that tharms the eyes.
 - And rites adern'd with gold.

 6. The God, we worthin now,
 Will guide us till we die,
- Will be our God while here below, And ours above the Ly.

PSALM XLIZ. 6-14. 13. P. rt. Com. Mitre.

Prile and death; or, The vanity of life and riber.

To infolence and pride,

To infolence and pride,

To fee his wealth and honorsflow

With ev'ry rifing tide?

Why doth he treat the poer with fcorn; Made of the relf-fame clay, And boaft as though his flesh were born Of better duft than they?

- Not all his treasures can procure
 His foul a short reprieve,
 Redeem from death one guilty hour,
 Or make his brother live.
- 4. (Life is a bleffing, can't be feld,
 The ranfom is too high;
 Justice will ne'er be brib'd with gold,
 That man may never dee.
- He fees the brutish and the wise,
 The tim'rous and the brave,
 Quit their possessions, close their eyes,
 And hasten to the grave.
- Yet'tis his inward thought and pride,
 My house shall ever stand:
 And that my name may long abide,
 "I'll give it to my land."
- Vain are his thoughts, his hopes are loft, How foon his mem'ry dies!
 His name is witten in the duft, Where his own carcafe lies.

PAUSE.

- This is the folly of their way;
 And yet their fons, as vain,
 Approve the words their fathers fay,
 And act their works again.
- Men void of wisdom and of grace,
 If honor raise them high,
 Live like the beast, a thoughtless sace,
 And like the beast they die.

[Laid in the grave like filly sheep, Death seeds upon them there, Till the last trumpet breaks their sleep In terror and despair.]

IALM XLIX. 14, 15. Second Part. Com. Metre.

Death and the resurrection.

Y L fons of pride that hate the just, And trample on the poor, When death has brought you down to dust, Your pomp shall rife no more.

The last great day shall change the scene; When will that hour appear? When shall the just revive, and reign O'er all that scorn'd them here?

God will my naked foul receive, When fep rate from the flesh; And break the prison of the grave, To raise my bones asresh.

Heav'n is my everlasting home, Th' inheritance is sure; Let men of pride their rage resume, But I'll repine no more.

PSALM XLIX. Long Metre.

The rich sinnner's death, and the faint's resurrection.

WHY do the proud infult the poor, And boast the large estates they have? How vain are riches to secure Their haughty owners from the grave.

They can't redeem one hour from death With all the wealth in which they trust; Nor give a dying brother breath, When God commands him down to dust

- There the dark earth and difmal shade Shall class their naked bodies round; That flesh so delicately fed Lies cold, and moulders in the ground.
- 4. Like thoughtless fleep the finner dies, Laid in the grave for worms to cut : . The faints shall in the morning rife, And find th' oppressor at their feet,
- His honors perith in the dust,
 And pomp, and beauty, birth and blood:
 That glorious day exaks the just,
 To full dominion o'er the proud.
- My Saviour shall my life restore, And raise me from my dark abode; My flesh and soul shall part no more; But dwell for ever near my God.

PSALM L. 1-6. First Part. Common Metr The last judgment: or, The faints rewarded.

- f. THE Lord, the judge, before his throne
 Bids the whole earth draw nigh,
 The nations near the rifing fun,
 And near the western sky.
- No more shall bold blasphemers say,
 " Judgment will ne'er begin;"
 No more abuse his long delay
 To impudence and fin.
- Thron'd on a cloud our God shall come, Bright flames prepare his way;
 Thunder and darkness, fire and storm Lead on the dreadful day.
- Heav'n from above his call shall hear, Attending angels come, And earth and hell shall know and fear His justice, and their doors.

"But gather all my faints (he cries)
"That made their peace with God
By the Redeemer's facrifice,

" And feal'd it with his blood.

heir faith and works brought forth to light.

" Shall make the world confess

My fentence of reward is right, " And heav'n adore my grace."

LM L. Ver. 10, 11, 14, 15, 23. Second Part.
Common Metre.

Obedience is better than facrifice.

THUS faith the Lord, "The spacious fields,
"And flocks and herds are mine;
O'er all the cattle of the hills

" I claim a right divine.

I alk no theep for facrifice,
"Nor bullocks burnt with fire,
To hope and love, to pray and praife,

" Is all that I require.

Call upon me when trouble's near,
"My hand shall fet thee free;
Then shall thy thankful lips declare

" The honor due to me.

" The man that offers humble praise,

" He glorifies me beit :

And those that tread my holy ways, "Shall my falvation tafte."

SALM L. 1, 5, 8, 16, 21, 22. Third Part, Common Metre.

The judgment of Hypocrites.

WHEN Christ to judgment shall descend, And saints surround their Lord, He calls the nations to attend, And hear his awful word.

- 2. " Not for the want of bullocks flain " Will I the world reprove :
 - " Alters and rites, and forms are vain "Without the fire of love.
- 3. " And what have hypocrites to do, " To bring their facrifice ?
 - "They call my statutes just and true, But deal in theft and lies.
- 4. " Could you expect to 'fcape my fight, " And fin without control?
 - " But I shall bring your crimes to light "With anguish in your foul."
- 5. Confider, ye that flight the Lord, Before his wrath appear;
 - If once you fall beneath his fword There's no deliv'rer there.

PSALM L. Third Part. Long Metre.

Hypocrify exposed.

- I. THE Lord, the judge, his churches war Let hypocrites attend and fear, Who place their hope in rites and forms But make not faith nor love their care.
- Vile wretches dare rehearse his name
 With lips of falsehood and deceit;
 A friend or brother they defame,
 And sooth and flatter those they hate.
- 3. They watch to do their neighbours wrong, Yet dare to feek their Maker's face; They take his cov'nant on their tongue, But break his laws, 'abufe his grace.
- 4. To heav'n they lift their hands unclean ;
 Defil'd with luft, defil'd with blood;

By night they practife ev'ry fin,
By day their mouths draw near to God.

And while his judgments long delay, They grow fecure, and fin the more, They think he fleeps as well as they, And put far off the dreadful hour.

O dreadful hour! when God draws near, And fets their crimes before their eyes! His wrath their guilty fouls shall tear, And no deliv'rer dare to rife.

PSALM L. To a new Tune.

The last judgment.

THE Lord, the fov'reign fends his fummons forth,

Calls the fouth nations, and awakes the north; From east to west the founding orders spread Through distant worlds and regions of the dead; No more shall Atheists mock his long delay; His vengeance sleeps no more: Behold the day!

Behold the Judge descends; his guards are Tempest and fire attendhim down the sky; [nigh. Heav'n, earth, and hell, draw near; let all things To hear his justice and the finner's doom; [come But gather first my faints (the Judge commands) Bring them, ye angels, from their distant lands.

 Can I be flatter'd with thy cringing bows,
 Thy solemn chatt'rings and fantastic vows,
 Are my eyes charm'd thy vestments to behold,
 Glaring in gems, and gay in woven gold?
 - 7. Unthinking wretch! how couldst thou hope to pleafe

 A God, a spirit, with such toys as these,

While with my grace and flatutes on thy tongue. Thou lov'st deceit, and dost thy brother wrong. In vain to pious forms thy zeal pretends,. Thieves and adult'rers are thy chosen friends.

8. Silent I waited with long-fuff'ring love;
But didft thou hope that I should ne'er reprove

And cherifh such an impious thought within,
That God the righteous would indulge thyfin i
Behold my terrors now; my thunders roll
And thy own crimes affright thy gulty foul.

 Sinners, awake betimes: ye fools, be wife; Awake before this dreadful morning rife; Change your vain thoughts, your crooked wor amend;

Fly to the Saviour, make the Judge your frien Lest like a lion his last vengeance tear Your trembling souls, and no deliv'rer near:

PSALM L. To the old proper tune.

The last judgment.

- THE God of glory fends his fummons forth,
 Callsthe fouth nations, and awakes the north;
 From east to west the sov'reign orders spread,
 Thro' distant worlds and regions of the dead.
 The trumpet sounds: bell trembles; beav'n rejoices;
 Lift up your heads, ye saints, with cheerful woices.
- 2. No more shall Atheists mock his long dalay;
 His vengeance sleeps no more: behold the day:
 Behold the Judge descends; his guards are nigh;
 Tempests and fire attend him down the sky.
 When God appears, all nature shall adore him.
 While sinners tremble, faints rejoice before him.
 - 3. " Heav'n, earth, and hell, draw near; let all things come

" To hear my justice and the finners doom;

" But gather first my saints; (the Judge commands)

"Bring them, ye angels, from their distant lands."
When Christ returns, wake every cheerful passion:
And shout, ye faints, he cames for your salvation.

 - " But didit thou hope that I should ne'er reprove;
 - "And cheral hech an implous thought within,
 - "That the All-holy would indulge thy fin? See, God appears; old nature joins & adore him; Judgment proceeds, and finners fall before him.
- 34. " Behold my terrors now; my thunders roll,
 - " And thy own crimes affright thy guilty foul;
 - 6 Now like a lien shall my vengeance tear 8 Thy bleeding heart, and no deliv'rer near.
 - "Thy bleeding heart, and no deliver near.

 Fulgment concludes; bell trembles; beso'n rejoices;

 Lift up your heads, ye failes, with cheerful voices.

EPIPHONEMA.

Sinners awake betimes; ye fools, be wife!
Awake before this dreadful morning rife;
Change your vain thoughts, your crooked works amend.

Fly to the Saviour, make the Judge your friend: Then join the faints; wake every cheerful passion, When Christ returns, he comes for your salvation.

PSALM LI. First Part. Long Metre.

A Penitent pleading for pardon.

1. SHEW pity, Lord, O Lord, forgive, Let a repenting rebel live;

H

Are not thy mercies large and free?
May not a finner trust in thee?

- 2. My crimes are great, but don't furpals
 The power and glory of thy grace:
 Great God, thy nature hath no bound,
 So let thy pard'ning love be found.
- 3. Oh wash my foul from every sin,
 And make my guilty confeience clean!
 Here on my heart the burden lies.
 And past offences pain mine eyes.
- 4. My lips with shame my sins confess
 Against thy law, against thy grace;
 Lord, should thy judgment grow severe,
 I am condemn'd, but thou art clear.
- 5. Should fudden vengeance feize my breath, I must pronounce thee just, in death; And if my foul were sent to hell, Thy righteous law approves it well.
- 6. Yet fave a trembling finner Lord,
 Whose hope, still hov'ring round thy word,
 Would light on some sweet promise there;
 Some sure support against despair.

PSALM LI. Second Part. Long Metre.

Original and actual fin confessed.

- T. ORD, I am vile, conceiv'd in fin, And born unholy and unclean; Sprung from the man whose guilty fall Corrupts his race, and taints us all.
- 2. Soon as we draw our infant breath,
 The feeds of fin grow up for death;
 Thy law demands a perfect heart;
 But we're defil'd in ev'ry part.
- Great God, create my heart anew, And form my fpirit pure and true;

Oh make me wife betimes, to fee My danger and my remedy.]

- 4. Behold I fall before thy face;
 My only refuge is thy grace:
 No outward forms can make me clean;
 The leprofy lies deep within.
- No bleeding bird, nor bleeding beaft,
 Nor hyffop branch, nor fprinkling prieft,
 Nor running brook, nor flood, nor fea,
 Can wash the dismal stain away.
- Jefus, my God, thy blood alone Hath pow'r fufficient to atone;
 Thy blood can make me white as fnow;
 No Jewith types could cleanfe me fo.
- While guilt differ be and breaks my peace, Nor fiefa nor four hath reft or cafe; Lord, let me hear thy pard'ning voice, And make my broken bones rejoice.

PSALM LI. Third Part. Long Metre.

The Backflider restored; or, Reference and Faith in the Blood of Corife.

- THOU, that hear'st when sinners cry,
 Though all my crimes before thee lye,
 Behold them not with angry look,
 But blot their mem'ry from thy book.
- 2. Create my nature pure within,
 And form my foul averfe to fin;
 Let thy good Spirit ne'er depart,
 Nor hide thy presence from my heart.
- I cannot live without thy light, Cast out and banish'd from thy sight; 'Thy holy joys, my God, restore, And guard me, that I fall no more.

- 4. Though I have griev'd thy Spirit, Lord, His help and comfort still afford:
 And let a wretch come near thy throne
 To plead the merits of thy Son.
- A broken heart, my God, my King, Is all the facrifice I bring; The God of grace will ne'er despite A broken heart for facrifice.
- 6. My foul lies humbled in the dust,
 And owns thy dreadful fentence just;
 Look down, O Lord, with pitying eye,
 And fave the foul condemn'd to die.
- 7. Then will I teach the world thy ways; Sinners shall learn thy sov'reign grace; I'll lead them to my Saviour's blood, And they shall prasse a pard ning God.
- Oh may thy love inspire my tongue?
 Salvation shall be all my song;
 And all my pow'rs shall join to bless
 The Lord, my strength and righteoniness.

PSALM LI. 1-13. First Part. Com. Metre.

Original and actual fin confessed and pardoned.

- I. ORD, I would fpread my fore diffress
 And guilt before thine eyes;
 Against thy laws, against thy grace,
 How high my crimes arise!
- Should'ft thou condemn my foul to hell,
 And crush my flesh to dust,
 Heav'n would approve thy vengeance well,
 And earth must own it just.
- I from the flock of Adam came, Unholy and unclean;
 All my original is fhame, And all my nature fin.

- Born in a world of guilt, I drew Contagion with my breath;
 And as my days advanc'd, I grew A juster prey for death.
- 5. Cleanse me, O Lord, and cheer my soul,
 With thy forgiving love;
 Oh make my broken spirit whole,
 And bid my pains remove.
- 6. Let not thy Spirit quite depart, Nor drive me from thy face; Create anew my vicious heart, And fill it with thy grace.
- Then will I make thy mercy known Before the fens of men;
 Backfliders shall address thy throne,
 And turn to God again.

PSALM LI. 14-17. Second Part. Com. Metre. Repentance and faith in the blood of Christ.

- My load of guilt remove;
 Break down this E-parating wall,
 That bars me from thy love.
 - 2. Give me the presence of thy grace, Then my rejoicing tongue Shall speak aloud thy righteousness. And make thy praise my fong.
 - No blood of goats, nor heifer flain For fin could e'er atone;
 The death of Christ shall still remain Sufficient and alone.
- A foul, opprest with sin's desert, My God will ne'er despise:
 A humble groan, a broken heart, Is our best facrifice.

PSALM LII. Long Metre.

- The pride, folly, and miserable end, of the Wicked;
- I. WHY do the wicked boaft of fin,
 And fleel their hearts againft the Lord!
 His goodness shall forever shine;
 Forever stand his holy word.
- 2 Their thoughts all fubtleties devife; Their tongues are edged like razors keen; Their fairest tales are flattering lies, By youth and innocence unseen.
- 3. Their hearts delight in guile and wrong, In truth perplex'd, and fouls o'erthrown, Hence scorn and falshood rule their tongue, And hence their feet to mischief run.
- 4. [Thy law and gospel they despise, Vain of their taunts, of madness proud; Too rich thy grace to seek, or prize, To bow too losty, even to God.
- 5. "From ancient days" with fcoffs they cry,
 "All things their fledfast course maintain;
 "We see no God in earth, or sky,
 "And find his boasted promise vain."*]
- 6. Like raging fire thy wrath shall burn;
 † Thy besom sweep them to the grave;
 Their branch, their root, thy hand o'erturn,
 And not a sciend be sound to save.
- 7. Their end the righteous shall behold, And say with an indignant finile, "These are the worshippers of gold, The sons of violence and guile."
- 3. " They plac'd their hopes in glittering dust, Chain'd to the earth, and glued to fin,

^{* 2} Pet. iii. 4. + See Biftop Horne's Commen!.

But form'd to make the Lord their trust, Nor form'd a wish for life divine."

- Down to the grave the wretches go, By worms confum'd, to ruin driven, Their fpirits hafte to endless woe, And find no entrance into heaven.
- 10. Then shall their joys revive no more
 Like dreams dissolv'd in sleeting air;
 Their flatteries and their boass, be o'er,
 And hopesall vanish in despair.]
- 11. But in thy courts will I be feen, Growing in faith, and hope, and love, Like olives fair, and fresh, and green, And ripening for the world above.
- 12. There will I learn thy glory, Lord, And fongs for all thy goodness raise; There will I wait to hear thy word, While listening faints approve the praise.

PSALM LIII. 4-6.

- Victory and deliverance from perfection.

 A RF all the foes of Sion fools,
 Who thus devour her faints?
 Do they not know her Saviour rules,
 And pities her complaints?
- 2. They shall be feiz'd with fad furprife; For God's avenging arm Scatters the bones of them that rife To do his children harm.
- In vain the fons of Satan boaft
 Of armies in array;
 When God has first dispers'd their host,
 They fall an easy pray.
- 4. Oh for a word from Sion's King, Her captives to reftore!

Jacob with all his tribes shall sing, And Judah weep no more.

PSALM LIII. Proper Metre. As the New 10th.

The last verse paraphrased together with several passages from Isaiah, Malachi and St. Paul.

Prayer for the latter-day Glory.

- Thy childrens voice with tender mercy hear;
 Bear thy bleft promife, fix'd as hills, in mind,
 And shed renewing grace on lost mankind;
 Oh let thy Spirit like fost dews descend;
 Thy Gospel run to earth's remotest end!
- 2. Let Zion's walls before thee ceafeless stand,
 Dear as thine eye, and graven on thy hand;
 From earth's far regions Jacob's sons restore,
 Oppress'd by man, and scourg'd by thee, no more,
 Enrich'd with gold, adorn'd with heavenly grace,
 Truth their sole guide, and all their pleasure praise.
- 3. Then Satan's kingdom shall from earth retire, Dead forms diffolve, and furious zeal expire; The beast's sell throne shall darkness dire surround; Mohammed's empire crumble to the ground; The dreams of Jesidels in smoke decay, And all the foes of heav'n shall sleet away.
- 4. In barren wilds shall living waters spring;
 Fair temples rife, and songs of transportring;
 The savage mind with sweet affections warm,
 And light, and love, the yielding bosom charm;
 From sin's oblivious sleep the soul arise,
 And grace, and goodness, shower from balmy skies.
- 5. Then shall mankind no more in darkness mourn; Then happy Nations in a day be born; From east to west thy glorious name be one, And one pure worship hail th' eternal Son;

Remotele realms one spotless faith unite, And o'er all regions beam the Gospei's light.

6. Then shall thy faints exult with joy divine; Their virtues quicken, and their lives refine; Their fouls improve, their fongs more grateful rife, And fweeter incense cheer the morning skies; Heaven o'er the world unfold a brighter day, And Jesus spread his reign from sea to sea.

PSALM LIV. Proper Metre. As the 122d

Prayer for deliverance from enemies.

T. MY God, preserve my foul; Oh make my spirit whole! To fave me let thy strength appear; Strangers my steps furround; Their pride and rage confound, And bring thy great falvation near.

2. Those that against me rise Are Aliens from the skies:

They have thy church and kingdom, Lord ! They mock thy fearful name : They glory in their shame,

Nor heed the wonders of thy word.

3. But O thou King divine, My chosen friends are thine, The men that still my foul fustain: Wilt thou my foes subdue, And form their hearts anew. And fnatch them from eternal pain.

4. Escap'd from every woe, Oh grant me, here below,

To praise thy name, with those I love; And, when beyond the skies Our fouls unbodied rife,

Unite us in the realms above.

PSALM LV. 1-8, 16, 17, 18, 22. Com. Metre.

Support for the afflicted and tempted foul.

- 3. GOD, my refuge, hear my cries, Behold my flowing tears; For earth and hell my hurt devise, And triumph in my fears
- Their rage is levell'd at my life,
 My fonl with guilt they load,
 And fill my thoughts with inward strife,
 To shake my hope in God.
- With inward pain my heart-strings found, I groan with ev'ry breath;
 Horror and sear befet me round, Among the shades of death.
- 4. Oh, were I like a feather'd dove, Soon would I firetch my wings, And fly, and make a long remove From all thefe reftlefs things.
- 5. Let me to fome wild defert go,
 And find a peaceful home,
 Where florms of malice never blow,
 Temptations never come.
- Vain hopes, and vain inventions all, To fcape the rage of hell!
 The mighty God on whom I call, Can fave me here as well.

PAUSE.

- By morning light I'll feek his face, At noon repeat my cry,
 The night shall hear me ask his grace, Nor will he long deny.
- 8. God shall preserve my soul from fear, Or shield me when asraid:

Ten thousand angels much appear, If he command their aid.

 I cash my burdens on the Lord, The Lord fustains them all;
 My courage rests upon his word, That faints shall never fall.

10. My higheft hopes shall not be vain, My lips shall spread his praise; While cruel and deceitful men, Scarce live out half their days.

PSALM LV. 15, 16, 17, 19, 22. Short Metre.

Dangerous prosperity; or, daily devotions encouraged.

I. ET finners take their courfe,
And chuse the road to death;
But in the worship of my God
I'll fpend my daily breath.

 My thoughts address his throne, When morning brings the light;
 I feek his blessing every noon, And pay my yows at night.

Thou wilt regard my cries,
 O my eternal God!
 While finners perish in surprise,
 Beneath thine angry rod.

Because they dwell at ease,
 And no sad changes feel,

 They neither fear nor trust thy name,
 Nor learn to do thy will.

5. But I with all my cares, Will lean upon the Lord, I'll cast my burdens on his arm, And rest upon his word,

6. His arm shall well sustain The children of his love; The ground on which their fafety stands, No earthly pow'r can move.

PSALM LVI.

Deliverance from oppression and falsebood; or, God's care of his people, in answer to faith and prayer.

- THOU whose justice reigns on high, And makes th' oppressor rease, Behold how envious sinners try To vex and break my peace.
- 2. The fons of violence and lies Join to devour me, Lord; But as my hourly dangers rife, My refuge is thy word.
- In God most holy, just, and true, I have repos'd my trust;
 Nor will I fear what flesh can do, The offspring of the dust.
- 4. They wrest my words to mischief still, Charge me with unknown faults; Mischief doth all their counsels fill, And malice all their thoughts.
- 5. Shall they escape without thy frown? Must their devices stand? Oh cast the haughty sinner down, And let him know thy hand.

PAUSE.

- God counts the forrows of his faints, Their groans affect his ears; Thou haft a book for my complaints, A bottle for my tears.
- When to thy throne I raife my cry,
 The wicked fear and flee;
 So fwift is pray'r to reach the fky,
 So near is God to me.

In thee, most holy, just, and true, I have repos'd my truft ; Nor will I fear what man can do, The offspring of the duft.

Thy folemn vows are on me, Lord, Thou shalt receive my praise; I'll fing, " How faithful is thy word,

" How righteous all thy ways."

o. Thou haft feeet'd my foul from death, On fet the pris ner free ! That heart and hand, and life or it breath May be employ'd me this.

PSALM LVII.

Praife for protection, grace and truth.

- MY God, in whom are all the springs Of boundless love and grace unknows, Hide me beneath thy spreading wings, "Till the dark cloud is overblown,
- 2. Up to the heav'ns I fend my cry, The Lord will my defire s perform ; He fends his angels from the fky, And laves me from the threat ning ftorm.
- 3. Be thou exalted, O my God ! Above the heav'r's where angels dwell; Thy pow'r on earth be known abroad, Let land to land thy wonders tell.
- 4. My heart is fix'd ; my fong shall raise Immortal honors to thy name; Awake, my tongue, to found his praife, My tongue, the glory of my frame.
- 5. High o'er the earth his mercy reigns, And reaches to the utmost fky ; His truth to endless years remains, When lower workls diffolve and die.

6. Be then exalted, O my God!
Above the heav'ns where angels dwell;
Thy pow'r on earth be known abroad,
And land to land thy wonders tell.

PSALM LVIII. As the 113th Pfalm.

Warning to Magistrates.

- I. JUDGES, who rule the world by laws,
 Will ye despise the righteous cause,
 When the oppres'd before you stands?
 Dare ye condemn the righteous poor,
 And let rich sinners scape secure,
 While gold and greatness bribe your hands?
- 2. Have ye forgot, or never known, God is your judge, and he alone? High in the heav'ns his justice reigns: Yet you invade the rights of God, And fend your bold decrees abroad, To bind the confeience in your chains.
- 3. A poison'd arrow is your tongue,
 The arrow sharp, the poison strong,
 And death attends where'er it wounds;
 You hear no counsels, cries or tears;
 So the deaf adder stops her ears
 Against the pow'r of charming sounds.
- 4. Break out their teeth, eternal God!
 Those teeth of lions dy'd in blood;
 And crush the serpents in the dust:
 As empty chass, when whirlwinds rise,
 Before the sweeping tempest sies,
 So let their hopes and names be lost.
- Th' Almighty thunders from the fky,
 Their grandeur melts, their titles die,
 As hills of fnow diffolve and run,
 Or fnails that perifh in their flime,

Or births that come before their time, Vain births, that never fee the fun.

Thus shall the vengeance of the Lord Safety and joy to faints affect;

And all that hear shall join and fay,

"Sure there's a God that rules on high,
"A God that hears his children cry,

" And will their fuff'rings well repay."

PSALM LIX. Proper Metre. Asthe 148th.

ogether with some passages of the 18th omitted by Doctor Watts.

Complaints against Unlest reces .

He fave thy Servants, Lee 1.1
Fulfil thy gracious word,
For evil nath againft us rife;
Caufeless our fouls they hate;
Againft our lives they wait.
And aim their malice at the skies.

In fin their hearts delight; In fin their hands unite; Eftrang'd, and evil, from

Eftrang'd, and evil, from the womb; With lies their tongues begin;

They grow in every fin.

'Till down they haften to the tomb.

3. Deaf to that charming voice, That bids the world rejoice,

The Gefrel found of pardoning love,

The calls of gentle peace, The hopes of life, and blifs,

And glory, in the world above

Blind to those truths divine,

That, fair and lovely, shine, And teach the Godhead there alone,

Tidings of peace refin'd,

And joy to all mankind, And mercy to a world undone;

5. They hate thy glory, Lord,
They mock thy holy word;
The finares of death their hands employ;
With flattery, and decert
For fouls they lie in wait,
And help the fowler to destroy.

PSALM LIX. Proper Metre. As the 122d. Sec-

Miserable end of the Wicked.

HEN God in wrath shall rife, T' avenge deceit and lies, What anguish shall the wicked tear, The men that slight thy name, That boast of fin and shame. And proudly cry, "What God shall hear?"

2. Thou hear'st, omniscient Lord, Each curse, and idle word, And all the scoss of lips profane; And when the night of death Shall stop their impious breath, Their souls shall seek for peace in vain.

3. Then shall the Judge deride Their malice, and their pride, And crush them with an iron rod; In vain shall fall their tears; In vain ascend their prayers; And they shall know the ruling God.

4. Just as th' untimely birth Returns to mouldering earth, Or streams in summer pass away, So all their dreams of peace, And promises of blis, Shall vanish in that dreadful day. O how will finners need
An Advocate to plead,
Accepted at thine awful throne!
How, in that folemn hour,
Will faith's transcendent power
Outweigh all things beneath the fun!

Yet fave their fouls, O Lord;
Subdue them by thy word,
Though all their powers oppose thy reign;
As scattered soes submit,
Bow them beneath thy feet,
Nor let them read thy wrath in vain.

PSALM LX. 1-5, 10-12.

On a day of bumiliation for disappointments in way.

ORD, hast thou cast the nation off?

Mast we for ever mourn?

Wilt thou indulge immortal wrath?

Shall mercy ne'er return?

The terror of one frown of thine, Melts all our strength away; Like men that totter, drunk with wine, We trembie in difmay.

. Thy people shake beneath thy stroke, And dread thy threat ning hand, Oh heal the nation thou hast broke, Confirm the way'ring land.

 Lift up a banner in the field, For those that fear thy name; Save thy beloved with thy shield, And put our soes to shame.

 Go with our armies to the fight, Like a confed rate God:
 In vain confed rate pow'rs unite Against thy lifted red. Our troops shall gain a wide renown, By thine affishing hand;
 Tis God that treads the mighty down, And makes the feeble stand.

PSALM LXI. 1-6.

Safety in God.

 WHEN overwhelm'd with grief, My heart within me dies, Helplefs and far from all relief, To heav'n I lift mine eyes.

Oh lead me to the Rock
 That's high above my head,
 And make the covert of thy winngs
 My shelter and my shade.

 Within thy prefence, Lord, For ever I'll abide;
 Thou art the tow'r of my defence, The refuge where I hide;

Thou givest me the lot
 Of those that sear thy name;
 endless life be their reward,
 I shall possess the same.

PSALM LXII. 5-12.

No trust in the creatures : or, Faith in the divine grave and power.

- I. MY foirit looks to God alone;
 My rock and refuge is his throne;
 In all my fears, in all my fraights,
 My foul on his falvation waits.
- 2. Trust him, ye faints, in all your ways, Pour out your hearts before his face: When helpers fail, and foes invade, God is our all-fusficient aid.

lie are the men of high degroe, baser fort are vanity; id in the balance both appear ght as a puff of empty air.

fake not increasing gold your trust, or set your hearts on glitt'ring dust; hy will ye grasp the steeting imoke, and not believe what God has spoke?

Ince hath his awful voice declar'd, nce and again my ears have heard, All pow'r is his eternal due; He must be fear'd and trusted too."

'or fov'reign pow'r reigns not alone, trace is a partner of the throne; 'hy grace and justice, mighty Lord, hall well divide our last reward.

PSALM LXIII. 1, 2, 5, 3, 4. First Pare.

The morning of a Lord's day.

EARLY, my God, without delay, I hafte to feek thy face; My thirsty spirit faints away, Without thy chearing grace.

So pilgrims on the foorching fand, Beneath a burning iky; Long for a cooling stream at hand, And they must drink or dic.

I've feen thy glory and thy pow'r,
Through all thy temple shine;
My God, repeat that heav'nly hour,
That vision so divine.

Not all the bleffings of a feast, Can please my soul so well, As when thy ricker grace I tafte, And in thy presence dwell.

- Not life itself, with all her joye, Can my best passions move, Or raise so high my cheerful voice, As thy forgiving love.
- Thus, till my last expiring day, I'll bless my God and King;
 Thus will I list my hands to pray, And tune my lips to sing,

PSALM LXIII. 6-10. Second Part. Com. M

Midnight thoughts recollected.

- I. 'TWAS in the watches of the night,
 I thought upon thy pow'r,
 I kept thy lovely face in fight,
 Amidst the darkest hour.
- My flesh lay resting on my bed, My foul arose on high;
 My God, my life, my hope, I said,
 Bring thy salvation nigh."
- 3. My fpirit labours up thy hill, And climbs the heav'nly road; But thy right hand upholds me still, While I pursue my God.
- Thy mercy firetches o'er my head The fhadow of thy wings;
 My heart rejoices in thine aid.
 My tongue awakes and fings.
- But the destroyers of my peace Shall fret and rage in vain;
 The tempter shall forever cease, And all my sins be stain.
- Thy fword shall give my foes to death, And send them down to dwell

the dark caverns of the earth, Or to the deeps of hell.

PSALM LXIII. Long Metre.

ing after God; or, The love of God better than life.

REAT God, indulge my humble claim, Thou art my hope, my joy, my rest; 'he glories that compose thy name tand all engag'd to make me blest.

Thou Great and Good, thou Just and Wise, hou art my Father and my God; and I am thine by facred ties; hy fon, thy fervant bought with blood.

With heart and eyes, and lifted hands or thee I long, to thee I lock, as travellers in thirfty lands 'ant for the cooling water-brook.

With early feet 1 love t' appear uniong thy faints, and feek thy face 1 If have I feen thy glory there, And felt the pow'r of fov'reign grace.

Not fruits nor wines that tempt our tafte, for all the joys our fenses know, Sould make me so divinely bleft, Or raise my cheerful passion so.

My life itfelf, without thy love, No taste of pleasure could afford; Twould but a tiresome burden prove, If I were banish'd from the Lord,

Amidst the wakeful hours of night, When busy cares affict my head, One thought of thee gives new delight, And adds refresament to my bed. I'll lift my hands, I'll raife my voice,
While I have breath to pray or praife:
This work shall make my heart rejoice,
And spend the remnant of my days.

PSALM LXIII. Short Metre.

Seeking God.

This joy, to call thee mine;
And let my early cries prevail
To taste thy love divine.

2. My thirsty, fainting foul Thy mercy does implore: Not travellers in defert lands Can pant for water more.

3. Within thy churches, Lord,
I long to find a place,
'Thy pow'r and glory to behold,
And feel thy quick'ning grace.

4. For life without thy love, No relish can afford;
No joy can be compar'd with this,
To ferve and pleafe the Lord.

 To thee I'll lift my hands, And praise thee while I live;
 Not the rich dainties of a feast Such food or pleasure give.

6. In wakeful hours of night,
I call my God to mind:
I think how wife thy counfels are,
And all thy dealings kind.

7. Since thou hast been my help,
To thee my spirit slies,
And on thy watchful previdence
My cheerful hope relies.

8. The fhadow of thy wings My foul in fafety keeps; I follow where my Father leads, And he supports my steps.

PSALM LXIV. Proper Metre. As the 122d. First Part.

A complaint against evil Companions; designed especially for Youth.

CAVE me from evil men,
 The impious and prophane,
 That feek the faithful to destroy;
 More keen than pointed swords,
 They dart their bitter words,
 To wound his name, his hope, and joy.

2. The pit and fecret fnare,'
Conjoin'd, their hands prepare,
And fay "What God fhall fee, or hear;"
The thoughtlefs, young, and gay
Who tread that dangerous way,
Shall find a fure destruction there.

3. Each wile their hearts combine,
To tempt the wretch to fin,
To curse and swear, to lie and steal,
Each crime with charms display,
And reason guilt away,
And strew with flowers the road to hell.

4. The child, to virtue given,
And train'd with care for heaven,
Their deep laid mischies lure astray;
With pangs a father views,
With tears a mother rues,
Herson, her darling, made a prey.

PSALM LXIV. Proper Metre. As the 122d. Second Part.

Mischiefs of Wicked Men the means of their own ruin: and of warning to others.

T. WHEN men of mischief rise
In secret 'gainst the skies,
Thy hand shall sweep them to the grave,
And O! beyond the tomb
How dreadful is their doom,
Where not a hand is reach'd to save!

2. Themfelves their wiles shall snare;
The pits, their hands prepare,
Before their feet destruction spread;
The slander they devise,
Their malice, and their lies,
Shall fall with vengeance on their head.

3. The world with awe shall hear;
In Zion rebels fear,
And stay their hands from guilt and sio.
To thee present their cry
To save them ere they die,
And mark, and know, thy hand diving.

4. With new born love and grace,
Increasing faith and praise,
Thy faints shall bid their songs ascend,
That truth and virtue find
In the all-ruling Mind
To them, and to their friends, a Friend.

PSALM LXV. 1-5. First Part. Long Metre.

Public prayer and praise.

r. THE praise of Zion waits for thee,
My God; and praise becomes thy house,
There shall thy saints thy glory see,
And there perform their public vowe.

- O thou whose mercy bends the skies
 To save, when humble sinners pray;
 All lands to thee shall bit their eyes,
 And islands of the Northern iea.
- Against my will my fins prevail,
 But grace shall purge away their stain;
 The blood of Christ will never fail
 To wash my garments white again.
- 4. Eleft is the man whom thou shalt choose, And give him kind access to thee: Give him a place within thy house, To take thy love divinely free.

PAUSE.

- 5. Let Babel fear when Sion prays; Babel, prepare for long diffres; When Sion's God himself arrays In terror and in righteoutness.
- With dreadful glory God fulfils What his afflicted faints request, And with almighty wrath reveals His love, to give his churches rest.
- Then shall the flocking nations run
 To Sion's hill, and own their Lord;
 The rifing and the fetting fun
 Shall fee the Saviour's name ador'd.

PSALM LXV. 5-13. Second Part. Long Metit:

Divine providence in air, earth and fea : or, The God of nature and grace.

1. THE God of our falvation hears
The grouns of the mind designs,
Yet when he comes with hind designs,
Thro' all the way his terror things,

- On him the race of man depends,
 Far as the earth's remotest ends,
 Where the Creator's name is known
 By nature's feeble light alone.
- 3. Sailors, that travel o'er the flood, Address their frighted souls to God, When tempests rage, and billows roar, At dreadful distance from the shore.
- 4. He bids the noify tempests cease;
 He calms the raging croud to peace,
 When a tumultuous nation raves,
 Wild as the winds, and loud as waves.
- Whole kingdoms, shaken by the storm, He settles in a peaceful form; Mountains establish'd by his hand, Firm on their old soundations stand.
- Behold his enfigns fiveep the fky,
 New comets blaze, and lightnings fly,
 The heathen lands, with fwift furprife,
 From the bright horrors turn their eyes.
- At his command the morning ray
 Smiles in the east and leads the day,
 He guides the fun's declining wheels
 Over the tops of western hills.
- Seafons and times obey his voice;
 The evining and the morn rejoice
 To fee the earth made foft with showers,
 Laden with fruit, and drest in flowers.
- "Tis from his wat'ry flores on high,
 He gives the thirfty ground fupply;
 He walks upon the clouds, and thence
 Doth his enriching drops difpenfe.
- 70. The defert grows a fruitful field, Abundant food the vallies yield;

The vallies shout with cheerful voice, And neighb'ring, hills repeat their joys,

- The pastures smile in green array;
 There lambs and larger cattle play;
 The larger cattle and the lamb,
 Each in his language speaks thy name.
- 12. Thy works pronounce thy pow'r divine;
 O'er every field thy glories fhine;
 Through ev'ry month thy gifts appear;
 Great God! thy goodness crowns the year.

PSALM LXV. First Paris Common Metre.

A prayer bearing God, and the Gentiles called.

- 1. PRAISE waits in Sion, Lord, for thee;
 There shall our yows be paid:
 Thou hast an ear when sinners pray,
 All flesh shall feek thine aid.
- 2. Lord, our iniquities prevail,

 But pard'ning grace is thine,

 And thou wilt grant us power and skill

 To conquer ev'ry fin.
- Blest are the men whom then wilt cheese To bring them near thy face;
 Give them a dwelling in thine house,
 To feast upon thy grave,
- 4. In answring what thy church requests, Thy truth and terror shine, And works of dreadful righteousness Fulfil thy kind design.
- 5. Thus shall the wondring nations see The Lord is good and just; And distant islands sly to thee, And make thy name their trust.
- 6. 'They dread thy glitt'ring tokens, Lord, When figns in heav'n appear;

But they shall learn thy holy word, And love as well as fear,

PSALM LXV. Second Part. Com. Metre. The providence of God in air, earth, and fea; or, The bleffing of rain.

i, 'I's by thy ftrength the mountains fland,
God of eternal pow'r;
The fea grows calm at thy command,
And tempelts ceale to roar.

 Thy morning light and evining shade Successive comforts bring;
 Thy plentcous fruits make harvest glad, Thy slowers adorn the spring.

 Seafons and times, and moons, and hours, Heav'n, earth, and air are thine;
 When clouds diffil in fruitful fhowers,
 The Author is divine.

4. 'Those wand'ring cisterns in the sky,
Borne by the winds around,
With watery treasures well supply
The surrows of the ground.

5. The thirsty ridges drink their fill And ranks of corn appear, Thy ways abound with bleffings still Thy goodness crowns the year.

PSALM LXV. Third Part. Common Metre.

The bleffings of the fpring ; or, God gives rain.

A Pfalm for the hufbandman.

I. OOD is the Lord, the heav'nly King,
Who makes the earth his care;
Wifits the pastures ev'ry spring,
And bids the grafs appear.

- The clouds, like rivers rais'd on high, Pour out, at thy command, Their watery bleffings from the fky, To cheer the thirfty land.
- The loften'd ridges of the field Permit the coun to fpring;
 The vallies rich provision yield, And the poor lab'rers fing.
- The little hills on ev'ry fide
 Rejoice at falling facew'rs;
 The meadows, drefs'd in all their pride,
 Perfume the air with flow'rs,
- The barren clods, refresh'd with rain, Promise a joyful crop;
 The parched grounds look green again, And raise the reaper's hope.
- 6. The various menths thy goodness crowns;
 How bounteous are thy ways!
 The bleating flocks spread o'er the downs,
 And sheethere's shout thy praise.

PSALM LXV. Proper Metre. As the 148th.

The Providence of God in the Seafons.

I. HOW pleasing is thy voice,
Oh Lord, our heavenly King,
That bids the frosts retire,
And wakes the levely spring!
The rains return,
The ice distils,
And plains and hills
Forget to mourn.

a. The lofty mountains stand, Establish'd by thine arm; Thy voice the ocean stills, The tumult, and the storm Through earth and fkies With terror spread, Thy tokens dread All lands surprise.

- 3. The morn, with glory crown'd,
 Thy hand arrays in fmiles;
 Then bidd'ft the eve deline,
 Rejoicing, o'er the hills.
 Soft funs afeend;
 The mild wind blows;
 And heavir glows
 To earth's far end
- 4. Thou mak's the pastures green;
 Thou call's the flocks abroad;
 The springing corn proclaims
 The southers of our God.
 Both bard and beast
 Parrake thy care,
 And, happy, sare.
 The general feast.
- y. Thy flowers make foir the fields;
 On every fide, behold
 The ripering harvells wave
 Their loads of richeft gold!
 The labourers fing
 With cheerful voice,
 And, bleft, rejoice
 In God, their King.
- 6. The thunder is his voice;
 His arrows blazing fires;
 He glows in ronder fun,
 And firmes in ftarry choirs.
 The bally breeze
 His breath perfumes;
 His beauty blooms,
 In flowers and trees

With life he clothes the fpring;
The earth with fummer warms;
He fpreads th' autumnal feaft,
And rides in wintry florms.
His gifts divine
Through all appear,
And round the year

His glories thine.

PSALM LXVI. First Part.

Coverning power and goodness; or, Our graces tried by afflictions.

1. SING, all ye not one to the Lord,
Sing with a joyful noife;
With melody of found record
His honors, and your joys.

- Say to the Pow'r that flakes the fky,
 How terrible art thou!
 Singers before thy prefence fly,
 - " Sinkers before thy prefence fly,
 " Or at thy feet they bow."
- [Come, fee the wonders of our God; How glerious are his ways! In Mofes' hand he puts his rod, And cleaves the frighted feas.
- He made the ebbing channel dry, While Ifrael pass d the flood;
 There did the church begin their joy, And triumph in their God.
- He rules by his refiftless might:
 Will rebel mortals dare
 Provoke th' Eternal to the fight,
 And tempt that dreadful war?
- Oh blefs our God, and never ceafe;
 Ye faints, fulfil his praife;
 He keeps our life, maintains our peace,
 And guides our doubtful ways.

Lord, thou hast provid our suff'ting fouls
To make our grates shine;
 So silver bears the burning coals,
 The metal to refine.

Through watery deeps and fiery ways
We march at thy command,
Led to poffefs the promis'd place
By thine unerrine hand.

PSALM LXVI. 13-20, Second Part

Praise to Gal for bearing prayer.

 NOW shall my folenm wows be paid To that almighty Pow'r, Who heard the long requests I made In my distressful hour.

My lips and cheerful beart prepare
 To make his mercies known:
 Come, ye that fear my God, and hear
 The wonders he hath done.

When on my head huge forrews fell,
 I fought his heav'nly aid;
 He fav'd my finking foul from hell,
 And death's eternal shade.

4. If fin lay cover'd in my heart
While pray'r employ'd my tongue,
The Lord had fhewn me no regard,
Nor I his praises fung.

But God (his name be ever oleft)
 Hath fet my spirit free,
 Nor turn'd from him my poor request,
 Nor turn'd his heart from me.

PSALM LXVII.

The nation's prosperity, and the church's increase.

x. S HINE on our land, Jehovah, shing, With beams of heav'nly grace!

Reveal thy pow'r through all our coasts, And shew thy smiling face.

- a. [Here fix thy throne exalted high, And, here, our glory fixed; And like a wall of guardian fire Surround thy fav rite land.]
- 3. When shall thy name from shore to shore Sound all the earth abroad, And distant nations know and love Their Saviour and their God!
- Sing to the Lord, ye diffant lands, Sing lond with folent a voice; Let thankful tongues exalt his praife, And thankful hearts rejoice.
- He, the great Lord, the fov'reign Judge, That fits enthron'd above,
 Wifely commands the worlds he made, In judice and in love.
- 6. Earth shall confess her maker's hand, And yield a full increase; Our God will crown his chosen land With fruitfulness and years.
- God the Redeemer feature round His choicest favors here,
 While the creation's utmost bound Shall fee, adore, and feat.

PSALM LXVIII. First Part. 1-6, 32,-85.

The vengeance and compassion of God.

z. LET God arife in all his might,
And put the troops of hell to a ght;
As fmod and at leught to cloud the ikies;
Exfore the rifing tempost flies.

63

- 2. [He comes array'd in burning flames; Justice and vengeance are his names; Behold his fainting foes expire Like melting wax before the fire.]
- 3. He rides and thunders through the fky;
 His name Jehovah founds on high;
 Sing to his name, ye fons of grace;
 Ye faints rejoice before his face.
- 4. The widow and the fatherlefs
 Fly to his aid in sharp distress!
 In him the poor and helplefs find
 A Judge that's just, a Father kind,
- He breaks the captive's heavy chain, And pris'ners fee the light again; But rebels, that difpute his will, Shall dwell in chains and darkness ftill.

PAUSE.

- 6. Kingdoms and thrones to God belong; Crown him, ye nations, in your fong; His wond'rous names and pow'rs rehearfe; His honors shall enrich your verse.
- 7. He shakes the heav'ns with loud alarms; How terrible is God in arms! In Israel are his mercies known, Israel is his peculiar throne.
- 3. Proclaim him King, pronounce him bleft, He's your defence, your joy, your rest: When terrors rife, and nations faint. God is the strength of ev'ry faint.

PSALM LXVIII. 17, 18. Second Part. Christ's ascension, and the gift of the Spirit.

z. I ORD, when thou didst ascend on high, Ten thousand angels fill'd the sky; Those heav'nly guards around thee wait, Like chariots that attend thy state,

- 2. Not Sinai's mountain could appear

 More glorious when the Lord was there;

 While he pronounc'd his dreadful law,

 And firuck the chofen tribes with awe.
- How bright the triumph none can tell, When the rebellious pow'rs of heli, That thousand fouls had captive made, Were all in chains like captives led.
- 4. Rais'd by his Father to the threne, He fent the promis'd Spirit down, With gifts and grace for rebel men, That God might dwell on earth again.

PSALM LXVIII. Third Part. 19, 9, 20, 21, 22.

Praise for temporal blessings; or, Common and special mercies.

- Who fills our hearts with jey and food;
 Who pours his bleffings from the skies,
 And loads our days with rich supplies.
- He fends the fun his circuit round,
 To cheer the fruits, to warm the ground;
 He bids the clouds, with plenteous rain,
 Refresh the thirsty earth again.
- 3. 'Tis to his care we owe our breath, And all our near escapes from death: Safety and health to God belong, He heals the weak, and guards the strong.
- 4. He makes the faint and finner prove
 The common bleffings of his love:
 But the wide difference that remains
 Is endless joy and endless pains.

- 5. The Lord that bruis'd the ferpent's head, On all the ferpent's feed shall tread, The stubborn sinner's hope confound, And smite him with a lasting wound.
- 6. But his right-hand his faints shall raise From the deep earth, or deeper seas; And bring them to his courts above; There shall they taste his special love.

PSALM LXIX. 1-14. 1f. Part. Com. Met.

The Sufferings of Christ fer our Salvation.

I. " SAVE me, O God, the fwelling floods " Break in upon my foul:

" I fink, and forrows o'er my head " Like mighty waters re'l.

2. " I cry 'till all my voice is gone,
" In tears I waste the day;

- " My God, behold my longing eyes, " And shorten thy delay.
- 3. " They hate my foul without a cause, " And still their number grows,

" More than the hairs around my head,
" And mighty are my foes.

4. " "Twas then I paid that dreadful debt

"That men could never pay,
"And gave those honors to thy law,

"Which finners took away."

Thus, in the great Meffiah's name,
 The royal prophet mourns;
 Thus he awakes our hearts to grief,
 And gives us joy by turns.

6. " Now shall the faints rejoice, and find " Salvation in my name,

" For I have borne their heavy load.
" Of forrow, pain and shame.

" Grief like a garment cloth'd me round,
" And fackcloth was my drefs,

" While I produc'd for naked fouls

" A robe of righteousness.

" Among my brethren and the Jews " I like a ftranger flood,

- " The 2 tranger Rood,

 " And bore their vile reproach, to bring

 " The Gentiles near to God.
- . " I came in finful mortals stead,
 - " To do my Father's will;
 " Yet when I cleans'd my Father's house,
 " They seandaliz'd my zeal.
- 10. " My falling and my holy grouns " Were made the drunkard's fong;
 - " But God from his celeffial throne
 " Heard my complaining tongue.
- rr. " He fav'd me from the develor larp,
 " Nor let my foul be drown'd;
 - " He rais'd and fix'd my finking feet " On well establish'd ground.
- 12. " 'Twas in a most accepted hour " My pray'r arole on high,
 - "And for my fake my God shall hear "The dying sinner's cry."

PSALM LXIX. 14-11, 26, 19, 32. Second Part. Common Metre.

The paffion and exaltation of Christ.

- 1. NOW let our lips with holy fear And mournful pleafure fing The fuff rings of our great High Priest, The forrows of our King.
- 2. He finks in floods of deep distress; How high the waters rise!

While to his heav'nly Father's ear He fends perpetual cries.

3. " Hear me, O Lord, and fave thy Son,
" Nor hide thy fhining face;

"Why should thy fav'rite look like one
"Forfaken of thy grace?

With rage they perfecute the man "That groans beneath thy wound,

"While for a facrifice I pour "My life upon the ground.

- They tread my honour to the duft,
 And laugh when I complain;
 Their sharp, infulting slanders add
 Fresh anguish to my pain.
- 6. " All my reproach is known to thee,
 "The fcandal and the shame;

"Reproaches break my bleeding heart,
"And lies defile my name.

"I look for pity but in vain;
 "My kindred are my grief;

" I ask my friends for comfort round,
"But meet with no relief.

With vinegar they mock my thirst,
 They give me gall for food;
 And, sporting with my dying groans,

"And, sporting with my dying groans "They triumph in my blood.

9. "Shine in to my distressed soul, "Let thy compassions save;

"And though my flesh sink down to death,
"Redeem it from the grave.

"And reign in worlds unknown,

"And thy falvation, O my God,

"Shall feat me on thy throne."

PSALM LXIX. Third Part. Common Metro.

brist's obedience and death : or, God glorished and finners faced.

FATHER, I fing thy wondrous grace,
I blefs my Saviour's name,
He bought falvation for the poor,
And bore the finner's fhame.

. His deep distress bath rais'd us high, His duty and his zeal

Fulfill'd the law which mortals broke, And finish'd all thy will.

t. His dying groans, his living fengs . Shall better please my God, Than harp's or trumpet's folemn found,

Than gozts' or bullecks' blocd.

4. This shall his humble followers see,
And set their hearts at rest;
They by his death draw pear to the

They by his death draw near to thee, And live forever bleft.

5. Let heav'n and all that dwell on high To God their voices raife, While lands and fear affed the fky, And join t'advence the praife.

Zien is thine most hely God;
 Thy Sen shall bless her gates;
 And giory, purchas'd by his blood,
 For thine own firnel waits.

PSALM I.XIX. First Fart. Long Metre. Chris's possion and sinner's falvation.

The deeper forrows of our Lord : Pehold the riling billows roll, To over whelm his hole foul.

- 2. In long complaints he fpends his breath,
 While hofts of hell, and pow'rs of death.
 And all the fons of makes join
 To execute their curs'd defigit.
- 3. Yet, gracious God, thy pow's and love Has made the curfe a bleffing prove; Those dreadful suffrings of the Son Aton'd for fins which we had done.
- 4. The pangs of our expiring Lord
 The honours of thy law reflor d:
 His forrows made thy justice knows.
 And paid for follies, not his own.
- 5. Oh for his fake our guilt forgive,
 And let the mourning fitnes live!
 The Lord will hear us in his name,
 Nor shall our hope be turn'd to frame.

PSALM LXIX. 7. &c. Second Part. Long Mette

Christ's Sufferings and zeal.

- The Jews, his brethren and his kin, Abus'd the man that check'd their fin: While he fulfill'd thy holy laws, They hate him, but without a cause.
- 2. ["My Father's house, said he, was made "A place for worship, not fer trade;" Then scart'ring all their gold and brass, He scourg'd the merchants from the place.]
- 4. [Zeal for the temple of his God Confum'd his life, exposed his blood; Reproaches at thy giory thrown Hofelt, and mourn'd them as his own]

His friends for look, his followers fled, While foes and arms for round his head; They curfe him with a fland rous tongue, And the falfe judge maintains the wong.]

His life they load with hateful lies. And charge his lips with blafphemics; They neil him to the shameful tree; There hung the man that died for me.

[Wretches with hearts as hard as stones Infult his piety and groans; Gall was the feed they gave him there, And mock'd his thirst with vinegar.]

Put God beheld; and from his throne Mark'd out the men that hate his Son: The hand that rais'd him from the dead, Shall your due vengeance on their head.

PSALM LXX. Long Metre.

raphrased together with several other passages of Scripture.

A prayer of the Church for the presence of Christ.

OH thou, whose hand the kingdom sways, Whom earth, and hell, and heaven obeys. To help thy chesen some appear, And shew thy power and glory here!

While stupid wretches, funk in sleep. Slide onward to the fiery deep, To sense, and sin, and madness, given, Believe no hell, and wish no heaven;

While fools deride, while foes oppress, And Zion mourns in deep diffres; Her friends withdraw, her foes grow bold, Truth fails, and love is waren cold;

Oh haste, with every gift inspir'd, With glory, truth, and grace, attir'd, Thou Star of heavens eternal morn; Thou Sun, whom beams divine adorn!

- Affert the honor of thy name;
 O'erwhelm thy foes with fear and fhame;
 Bid them beneath thy footfool lie,
 Nor let their fouls forever die.
- Saints shall be glad before thy face,
 And grow in love, and truth, and grace,
 Thy church shall blossom in thy fight,
 And fruits of peace, and pure delight.
 - 7. Oh hither, then, thy footsteps bend; Swift as a roe, from hills defcend; Mild as the sabbath's cheerful ray, 'Till life unfolds eternal day!

PSALM LXXI. 5-9. First Part.

The aged faint's reflection and bope.

- x. MY God, my everlasting hope,
 I live upon thy truth;
 Thy hands have held my childhood up,
 And firengthen'd all my youth.
- My flesh was fashion'd by thy pow'r With all these limbs of mine; And from my mother's painful hour I've been entirely thine.
- Still hath my life new wonders feen Repeated every year;
 Behold my days that yet remain, I trust them to thy care.
- 4. Cast me not off when strength declines,
 When hoary hairs arise;
 And round me let thy glory shine
 Whene'er thy servant dies.
- 5. Then in the hist'ry of my age, When men review my days,

ey'll read thy love in ev'ry page, In ev'ry line thy praise.

M LXXI. 15, 14, 16, 23. 22, 24. Second Part

Christ our Brength and righteoujness.

IY Saviour, my almighty Friend, When I begin thy praife, here will the growing numbers end, The numbers of thy grace?

nou art my everlading truft, Thy goodness ladare! id, fince I knew thy graces first, I speak thy glories more.

ly feet shall travel all the length Of the celestial road; ad march with courage in thy strength To see my Father God.

'hen I am fill'd with fore distress For some surprising sin, I plead thy perfect rightcousness, And mention none but thine.

ow will my lips rejoice to tell The vid'ries of my King! y foul, redeem'd from fin and hell, Shall thy falvation fing.

My tongue shall all the day proclaim My Saviour and my God, is death hath brought my foes to shame, And sav'd me by his blood.

wake, awake, my tuneful pow'ts With this delightful fong l entertain the darkeft hours, Nor think the feafon long. PSALM LXXI. 17-21. Third Part,

The aged Christian's prayer and fing; or, Old

- I. OD of my childhood, and my youth,
 The guide of all my days,
 I have declar'd thy beev'nly truth,
 And told thy wond'rous ways.
- 2. Wilt then forfake my hoary hairs, And leave toy fainting heart? Who shall fustain my finking years. If God, my strength, depart?
- Let me thy pow'r and truth proclaim
 To the furviving age,
 And leave a favour of thy name
 When I shall guit the stage.
- 4. The land of filence and of death
 Attends my next remove;
 Oh may these poor remains of breath
 Teach the wide world thy love!

PAUSE.

- 5. Thy righteoufness is deep and high. Unsearchable thy deeds: Thy glory spreads beyond the sky, And all my praise exceeds.
- Oft have I heard thy threat'nings roar, And oft endur'd the grief;
 But when thy hand hath press me fore, Thy grace was my relief.
- By long experience have I known Thy fov'reign pow'r to fave; At thy command I venture down Securely to the grave,
- 8. When I lie buried deep in dust, My flesh shall be thy care;

These withering limbs with thee I trust To raise them strong and fair.

PSALM LXXII. First Part.
The Kingdom of Christ.

REAT God, whose universal sway
The known and unknown worlds obey,
Now give the kingdom to thy Son,
Extend his pow's, exait his throne.

Thy feeptre well becomes his hands, All heav'n fubrits to his commands; His justice shall average the poor, And pride and rage preyast no more.

With pow'r he vindrates the just, And treass th' oppressor in the shall; His worship and his first field last, 'Till hours, and years, and time be past.

As rain on meadows newly mown, so shall be fend his influence down: His grace on fainting fouls diffils, Like heav'nly dew on thirfly hills.

The heathen lands, that lie beneath The fhades of overforeading death; Revive at his first dawning light, And deferts blossom at the fight.

The faints shall flourish in his days, Drest in the robes of joy and praise: Peace, like a river from his throne, Shall slow to nations yet unknown,

PSALM LXXII. Second Part.

Christ's kingdom among the Gentiles.

JESUS shall reign where'er the fun Does his successive journeys tun;

His kingdom stretch from shore to shore, 'Till moons shall wax and wane no more.

- 2. [Behold the islands with their kings. And Europe her best tribute brings; From North to South the princes meet To pay their homage at his feet.
- 3. There Perfia, glorious to belond.
 There India finnes in Eastern gold:
 And barb'rous nations at his word
 Submit, and bow, and own their Lord.
- 4. For him shall endless pray'r be mzde, And praises throng to crown his head; His name like sweet persume shall rise With ev'ry morning sacrifice.
- 5. People and realms of ev'ry tengue Dwell on his love with fweetest fong; And infant-voices shall proclaim Their early blessings on his name.
- Bleffings abound when er he reigns,
 The prisoner leaps to lose his chains,
 The weary find eternal rest,
 And all the sons of want are bleft.
- 7. [Where he displays his healing power, Death and the curie are known no more; In him the tribes of Adam Boast More bleflings than their father lost.
- 8. Let ev'ry creature rife and bring,
 Peculiar honors to our King;
 Angels defeend with fongs again,
 And earth repeat the loud Amen.]

PSALM LXXII. Proper Metre. As the new 50.

The glory of Christ, and of bis Kingdo. a.

1. OH thou whose sceptre earth and seas obey, Acciskies, and stars, & suns, confess thy swa Now to thy Son th' immortal kingdom give; In him command a ruin'd world to live; O'cr every realm his mighty fway extend, And bid o'er every throne his throne afcend.

O'er all created names his glories shine; Supreme his beauty, and his grace divine; Fairer than threnes, and powers, & feraphsbright, The realms of nature, and the world of light; The King of kings, the Prince to Angels given, Lord of the world, and Heir divine of heaven.

His glorious hand shall hold a righteous sway, Th' oppressor tremble, and the proud obey; The friendless poor immortal treasures know; Th' wearied bosom rest from every wee; The houseless wanderer find a blest abode, The soul a ransom, and the saint a God.

Fair as the tree of life his faints shall rife, Redeem'd from death, and violence, and lies, Lov'd by his foul, as precious fons are lov'd, Glorious as kings, as spotless priests approv'd: On joyful hilk shall truth and justice grow, And peace in spreading streams the world o'erflow.

Through endless years his glory shall extend; For him increasing prayers to heaven ascend; To heaven his name from every region rise, More sweetthan incense cheers the morning skies; To him all lands a song of rapture raise, And lisping infants join their artless praise.

5. As fpring's mild showers refresh the thirsty plain, As cloudless sums succeed the genial rain, So, shall his instuence earth's sad face renew; Where the feant seed his faithful labourers strew; Like towering groves, behold the harvest rife, Wave round like Lebanon, and reach the skies!

- 7. From shore to shore shall stretch his boundless with His boundless blessings show to every sea:
 See round his alters suppliant kings attend;
 Before his throne obedient Nations bend;
 To him their tribute distant realway unfold,
 Her spices India, and Peru her gold!
 - 8. See fprings of life in thirfty deferts flow, And favage tribes th' immortal Saviour know, Proftrate in duft, his humbled foes shall lie Or fend their hymns of transport to the fky; And each bleft land rehearfe his praises o'cr. "Till moons shall walk their evening round no more.
- G. In him the curse in boundless bliss shall end; From evil good, from darkness light, ascend; Diviner glories to mankind be given, A nobler nature and a fairer heaven: Let earth, let saints, that seek his bright abode Resound his praise, and bless their Father, God

PSALM LXXIII. First Part. Common Metre.

Afflicted Saints happy, and prosperous Sinners cursed.

- OW I'm convine'd, the Lord is kind To men of heart fincere;
 Yet once my foolish thoughts repin'd, And border'd on despair.
- 2. I griev'd to fee the wicked thrive, And spoke with angry breath,
 - "How pleasant and profane they live!
 "How peaceful is their death!
- 3. " With well fed flesh and haughty eyes "They lay their fears to fleep;

" Against the heav'ns their slanders rife, " While wints in slence weep.

In vain I life my hands to pray.
 And cleanfe my heart in vain,

" For I am chaffen'd all the day;
"The night renews my pain."

s. Yet, while my tongue induly'd complaints, I felt my heart repreve;

" Sure I fhall thus offend thy faints, " And grieve the men I love.

6. But still I found my doubts too hard, The conflict too fevere, 'Till I retir'd to fearch thy word,

And learn thy fecrets there.

- 7. There, as in some prophetic glass, I faw the finners feet High mounted on a flippery place Beside a fiery pit.
- 3. I heard the wretch profanely boaft, "Till at thy frown he fell; His honours in a dream were loft, And he awak'd in heil.
- 9. Lord, what an envious fool I was ! How like a thoughtless beaft ! Thus to fufnect thy promis'd grace, And think the wicked bleft.
- 10. Yet was lekent from full despair, Upheld by now'r unknown : That bleifed hand, that broke the fnare, Shall guide me to thy throne.

PSALM LXXIII. 23-28. Second Part. Common Metre.

God our portion here and hereafter.

OD, my supporter, and my hope, My help for ever near; Thine arm of mercy held me up, When fleking in depair.

M. Thy counfels, Lord, finall guide my feet, Through this dark wilderness;

Thy hand conduct me near thy feat, To dwell before thy face.

- Were I in heav'n without my God,
 ^{*}Twould be no joy to me;
 And while this earth is my abode,
 I long for none but thee.
- 4. What if the fprings of life were broke, And flesh and heart should faint, God is my soul's eternal rock, The strength of every faint.
- 5. Behold, the finners that remove Far from thy presence die; Not all the idol-gods they love, Can save them when they cry.
- But to draw near to thee, my God, Shall be my fweet employ;
 My tongue shall found thy works abroad;
 And tell the world my joy.
- ALM LXXIII. 22, 3, 6, 17-20. Long Mette The prosperity of sinners curfed.
- I. ORD, what a thoughtlefs wretch was 1,
 To mourn and murmur and repine,
 To fee the wicked plac'd on high,
 In pride and robes of honor thine!
- 2. But, O their end, their dreadful end!
 Thy fanctuary taught me so:
 On slipp'ry rocks I see them stand,
 And siery billows roll below.
- 3. Now let them boast how tall they rise,
 I'll never envy them again,
 There they may stand with haughty eyes,
 Till they plunge deep in endless pain.
- 4. Their Ancied joys, how fast they fice!
 Just like a dream when man awakes;
 Their fongs of fostest harmony;
 Are but a preface to their plagues.

5. Now I effect their mirth and wine, Too feet to purchase with my blood; Lord, 'the crough that thou are mine, My Lie, the portion, and my God

PSALLS LXXIII. Short Metre.

The maler of Providence unfolded.

1. SURE there's a righteous God, Nor is religion vain: Though men of vice may boast aloud, And men of grace complain.

2. I faw the wicked rife, And felt my heart repine, While haughty fools with formful eyes, In robes of honor fuine.

Pamper'd with wanton ease,
 Their flesh looks full and fair.
 Their wealth rolls in like flowing seas.
 And grows without their care.

4. Free from the plagues and pains
That pious fouls endure,
Through all their life of prefiton reigns,
And racks the humble poor.

 Their impieus tongues blafpheme The everlasting God:
 Their malice blass the good man's name, And spreads their lies abroad.

6. But I with flowing tears
Indulg'd my doubts to rife;
"Is there a God that fees or hears
" The things below the fkies?"

7. The tumults of my thought
Held me in hard fufpense,
Till to thy house my seet were brought,
To learn thy justice thence.

8. Thy word with light and pow'r Did my miftakes amend; I view'd the finner's life before, But here I learn'd their end.

9. On what a flipp'ry fleep The thoughtles wretches go; And, O that dreadful flery deep, That waits their fall below!

10. Lord, at thy feet I bow, My thoughts no more repine; I call my God my portion now, And all my pow'rs are thine.

PSALM LXXIV.

The shurch pleading with God under fore perfecutions

- 1. WILL God for ever cast us off?
 His wrath for ever smoke.
 Against the people of his love,
 His little, chosen flock?
- 2. Think of the tribes fo dearly bought
 With their Redeemer's blood;
 Nor let thy Sion be forgot,
 Where once thy glory flood.
- Lift up thy feet, and march in hafte;
 Aloud our ruin calls;
 See what a wide and fearful wafte
 Is made within thy walls.
- 4. Where once thy churches pray'd and fang,
 Thy foes profanely roar:
 Over thy gates their enfigns hang,
 Sad tokens of their pow'r.
- 5. How are the feats of worship broke! They tear the buildings down, And he that deals the heaviest strokes Procures the chief renewn.

- With flames they threaten to destroy Thy children in their nest;
 - " Come, let us burn at once they cry,
 " The temple and the priest."
- And flill to heighten our diffrefs,
 Thy prefence is withdrawn;
 Thy wonted figns of pow'r and grace,
 Thy pow'r and grace are gone.
- 8. No prophet fpeaks to calm our woes, The best, the wifest mourn; And not a friend, nor promise, shows The time of thy return.

PAUSE.

- 9. How long, eternal God, how long, Shall men of pride blafpheme! Shall faints be made their endless song, And bear immortal shame?
- To. Canft thou for ever fit and hear Thine holy name profan'd? And feill thy jealoufy forbear, And feill with-hold thine hand?
- II. What strange deliverance hast thou shown In ages long before? And now no other God we own, No other God adore.
- 12. Thou didft divide the raging fea
 By thy refifiless might,
 To make thy tribes a wondrous way,
 And then secure their flight.
- 13. Is not the world of nature thine.

 The darkness and the day?

 Didst thou not bid the morning shine,

 And mark the sun his way?
- 14. Hath not thy pow'r form'd ev'ry coast, And fet the earth its bounds,

With fummer's heat, and winter's frost, In their perpetual rounds?

15. And shall the sons of earth and dust That sacred pow'r blaspheme! Will not thy hand, that form'd them sirk. Avenge thine injur'd name!

16. Think on the cov'nant thou hast made, And all thy words of love; Nor let the birds of prey invade, And vex thy mourning dove.

17. Our foes would trium; h in our blood, And make our hope their jest; Plead thy own caufe, almighty God! And give thy children rest.

PSALM LXXV. Proper Metre. As the New 50th

Government from God aline.

A Pfalm for a General Election.

Thy prefer thank thy works of wonder flew,
Thy glorious works of wifdom, power and grace,
Thy fovereign bleflings to our favor'd race;
The ruling God our peace and freedom prove,
And the glad tidings of forgiving love.

2. While from thy hand our rulers take their power Give them thy greatness humbly to adore, With hearts sincere to hold a righteous sway, Bid justice triumph, and the proud obey, Defend the poor, debasing bribes disdain, Avenge bold wrongs, nor wield the sword in vain

3. While round all realms wide diffolution's roll'd Give them the pillars of the earth t' uphold, The meek, the wife, the faithful, and the just, And tread the vile oppressor in the dust;

To feek thy name, to love thy kingdom, Lord, And fpread through earth the victories of thy word.

- 4. Give them the public weal alone to prize,
 And each base purpose nobly to despise;
 To bid pure knowledge round our borders shine,
 And cheer the rising race with beams divine;
 Examples bright of piety display,
 And charm our sons to tread that lovely way.
- 5. Teach them, that greatness, power & place are thine, Gifts from thy hand, bestow'd for ends divine: Rulers, thy Stewards, to mankind are given To shower the good, and build the cause of heaven; From thee a rich reward the faithful knew;

The faithless hasten to distinguish'd woe.

6. Thou art the Judge; thy feepter rules the skies; At thy command the just to glory rife; Thy fearful vergeance guilty wretches share, Drink the last dregs, and plunge in deep despair; To thy great name our raptur'd songs shall raise A humble tribute of immortal praise.

PSALM LXXVI.

If all fixed, and the Affirians definoyed: or, God's wingcame against his enemies proceeds from his church.

- IN Judah, God of old was known;
 His name in Ifrael great;
 in Salem flood his holy throne,
 And Sion was his feat.
- Among the praifes of his faints;
 His dwelling there he choie;
 There he received the just complaints,
 Against their haughty soes.
- From Zion went his dreadful word, And broke the threat ning spear;

The bow, the arrows, and the fword, And crush'd th' Affyrian war.

- 4. What are the earth's wide kingdoms effe,
 But mighty hills of prey!
 The hill on which Jehovah dwells
 Is glorious more than they.
- 'T'was Zion's King that fropp'd the breath Of captains and their bands;
 The men of might flept fast in death, And never found their hands.
 - 6. At thy rebuke, O Jacob's God, Both horse and chariot fell; Who knows the terrors of thy rod? Thy vengeance who can tell?
- What pow'r can stand before thy fight
 When once thy wrath appears?
 When heav'n shines round with dreadful light,
 The earth lies still and fears.
- When God in his own fov'reign ways
 Comes down to fave th' oppress,
 The wrath of man shall work his praise,
 And he'll restrain the rest.
- [Yow to the Lord, and tribute bring, Ye princes fear his frown: His terror shakes the proudest king, And cuts an army down.
- To. The thunder of his fharp rebuke Our haughty foes shall feel; or Jacob's God hath not forfook, But dwells in Zion still.]

PSALM LXXVII. First Part.

Melancholy affaulting, and hope prevailing.

x. TO God I cry'd with mournful voice, I fought his gracious ear,

- In the fad day when troubles rose, And fill'd the night with fear.
- 2. Sad were my days, and dark my nights, My foul refus'd relief:

I thought on God, the just and wise, But thoughts increas'd my grief.

- Still I complain'd, and, still oppress, My heart began to break;
 My God, thy wrath forbade my rest, And kept my eyes awaka.
- My overwhelming forrows grew, Till I could fpeak no more; Then I within myfelf withdrew, And call'd thy judgments o'er.
- I call'd back years and ancient times
 When I beheld thy face;
 My fpair fearch'd for lecret crimes
 That might wichheld thy grace.
- 6. I call'd thy mercies to my mind Which I enjoy'd before; And will the Lord no more be kind? His face appear no more?
- 7. Will he for ever cast me off? And will his promise fail? Hath he forgot his tender love? Shall anger fail prevail?
- But I forbid this hopeless thought,
 This dark, despairing frame,
 Rememb'ring what they hand hath wrought a
 Thy hand is still the same.
- I'll think again of all thy ways, And talk thy wonders e'er, Thy wonders of recoving grace, When fieth could hope no more.

And men that love thy word

Have in thy fanctuary known

The counfels of the Lord.

PSALM LXXVII. Second Part.

Comfort derived from ancient providences: or, Ifrdel delivered from Egypt, and brought to Candan.

1. "HOW awful is thy chaft'ning rod?"
(May thy own children fay)
"The great, the wife, the dreadful God!
"How holy is his way!"

I'll meditate his works of old;
 The King that reigns above,
 I'll hear his ancient wonders told,
 And learn to truft his love.

- Long did the house of Joseph lie With Fgypt's yoke oppress:
 Long he delay'd to hear their cry, Nor gave his people rest.
- 4. The fons of good old Jacob feem'd.

 Abandon'd to their foes;

 But his almighty arm redeem'd.

 The nation that he chofe,
- Ifrael, his people and his fheep,
 Must follow where he calls;
 He bids them venture through the deep,
 And makes the waves their walls.
- The waters faw thee, mighty God!
 The waters faw thee come;
 Backward they fled, and frighted flood,
 To make thine arm ies room.
- Strange was thy journey through the fear Thy footheps, Lord, unknown;

- Terrors attend the wond'rous way, That brings thy mercies down.
- 8. [Thy voice, with terror in the found,
 Through clouds and darkness broke;
 All heav'n in lightning shone around,
 And earth with thunder shook.
- Thine arrows through the skies were hurl'd, How glorious is the Lord!
 Surprise and trembling seiz'd the world, And his own faints ador'd.
- 10. He gave them water from the rock; And fafe by Moses' hand, Through a dry desert led his slock Home to the promis'd land.

PSALM LXXVIII. First Part.

Providences of God recorded: or, Pious education and infruction of children.

- I. LET children hear the mighty deeds,
 Which God perform'd of old
 Which in our younger years we faw,
 And which our fathers told.
- He bids us make his glories known;
 His works of pow'r and grace;
 And we'll convey his wonders down
 Through ev'ry rifing race.
- 3. Our lips shall tell them to our sons,
 And they again to theirs,
 That generations yet unborn
 May teach them to their heirs.
- 4. Thus shall they learn in God alone
 Their hope securely stands,
 That they may ne'er forget his works
 But practise his commands.

PSALM LXXVIII. Second Part.

Ifract's rebellion and puniforment; or, The first and chaffifements of God's people.

- WHAT a ftiff, rebelieves home Was Jacob's ancient race!
 False to their own most solomn vows, And to their Maker's grace.
- They broke the cov'nant of his love,
 And did his laws defpife,
 Forgot the works he wrought to prove
 His pow'r befere their eyes.
- 3. They faw the plagues on Egypt light,
 From his avenging hand:
 What dreadful tokens of his might Spread o'er the flubborn land!
- 4. They faw him cleave the mighty sea, And march'd in fasety through, With watery walls to guard their way, "Till they had 'seap'd the foe.
- A wondrous pillar mark'd the road, Compos'd of shade and light;
 By day it prov'd a shelt'ring cloud,
 A leading fire by night.
- 6. He from the rock their thirst supplied;
 The gushing waters fell.
 And ran in rivers by their side,
 A constant miracle.
- Yet they provok'd the Lord most high, And dar'd distrust his hand:
 " Can he with bread our host supply

" Amidst this defert land?"

 The Lord with indignation heard, And caus'd his wrath to flame; His terrors ever frand prepar'd To vindicate his name.

PSALM LXXVIII. Third Part,

The puniforment of tracery and intemperance; or Chaf.

- 1. WHEN Ifruel fins, the Lord reproves,
 And all their hearts with dread;
 Yet he forgives the men he leves,
 And fends them heavinly bread.
- He fed them with a lib'ral hand, And made his treafures known;
 He gave the midnight cloud's command To pour provision down.
- The manna, like a morning show'r, Lay thick around their feet;
 The corn of heav'n, so light, so pure, As though 'twere angels meat.
- 4. But they in murm'ring language faid, " Manna is all our feaf ;
 - "We lothe this light, this airy bread; "We must have fiesh to taste.
- Ye shall have fiesh to please your last,"
 The Lord in wrath replied;
 And sent them quails, like sand or dust,
 Heap'd up from fide to side.
- He gave them all their own defire;
 And, greedy as they fed,
 His vengeance burnt with fecret fire,
 And in ote the rebels dead.
- When fome were flain, the rest return'd, And fought the Lord with tears;
 Under the rod they fear'd and mourn'd, But soon forgot their fears.
- Oft he chaftis'd and ftill forgave, "Till by his gracious hand
 The nation, he refolv'd to fave, Poffets'd the promis'd land.

PSALM LXXVIII. 32, &c. Fourth Part.

Backfliding and forgiveness; or, Sin punished and Saints saved,

- I. C REAT God, how oft did Ifrael prove
 By turns thine anger and thy love!
 There in a glass our hearts may see
 How sickle and how false they be.
- 2. How foon the faithless Jews forgot,
 The dreadful wonders God had wrought!
 Then they provoke him to his face,
 Nor fear his pow'r, nor trust his grace.
- The Lord confum'd their years in pain, And made their travels long and vain; A tedious march through unknown ways Wore out their ftrength, and fpent their days.
- 4. Oft, when they saw their brethren slain,
 They mourn'd and sought the Lord again;
 Cail'd him the Rock of their abode,
 Their high Redeemer and their God.
- 5. Their pray'rs and vows before him rife As flatt'ring words or folenm lies, While their rebellious tempers prove Falfe to his cov'nant and his love.
- 6. Yet did his fov'reign grace forgive
 The men who not deferv'd to live;
 His anger oft away he turn'd,
 Or elfe with gentle flame it burn'd.
- 7. He faw their flesh was weak and frail, He saw temptations still prevail; The God of Abraham lov'd them still, And led them to his holy bill.

PSALM LXXIX. Common Metre.

Complaint of a Nation, or of the Church against enemies.

Cod attend, while hosts of foes
Thy heritage invade;

Thy Salem is become a heap;
Thy house a ruin made.

- Thy fons, denied a peaceful grave, Become the vultures food;
 Their bodies wolves infatiate tear, And lions drink their blood.
- 3. Behold us, Lord, a remnant fad, Of peace and hope forlorn, Of every mouth the vile reproach, Of every eye the foorn.
- 4. How long that thy fience anger burn?
 How long delay thy grace?
 How long thy hap! is children mourn
 The hidings of thy face?
- 5. Thy vergeance shall find out our foes, Who mock thy fearful name, Who hate thy laws, deride thy word, And glory in their shame.
- While they thy choice flock devour, And all our cities waste;
 Forget our fine and folios past, And let thy mercy haste.
- Help, Lord of hofts, for Jefus' fake,
 The glory of thy name;
 Cleanfe us from guilt, our hearts renew,
 And wipe away our fhame.
- Why should our foes infulting cry,
 "Where is the God you boast,
 This sabled Lord of earth and heaven,
 Your triumph, and your trust?"
- Arife, O God, and let thy hand With awful glory shine;
 With terror make our haughty sees. Confess thy name divine.

- And with almighty power

 Refcue thy faints, condemn'd to die,
 And bid us fear no more,
- And wound with fevenfold fcorn;
 While we, thy flock, thy grace proclaim
 To ages, yet unborn.

PSALM LXXX.

The Church's prayer under affliction; or, The Vines yard of God wafed.

- t. GREAT Shepherd of thine Ifrael,
 Who didft between the cherubs dwell,
 And lead the tribes, thy chofen sheep,
 Safe through the defert and the deep.
- 2. Thy church is in the defert now,
 Shine from on high, and guide as through;
 Turn us to thee, thy love reflece,
 We shall be sav'd, and figh no more.
- 3. Great God, whom heav'nly hosts obey, How long shall we lament and pray, And wait in vain thy kind return? How long shall thy herce anger burn?
- 4. Inftead of wine and cheerful bread
 Thy faints with their own tears are fed;
 Turn us to thee, thy love reftore,
 We shall be fav'd, and figh no more.

PAUSE I.

f. Hast thou not planted with thy hands A lovely vine in Heathen lands? Did not thy pow'r defend it round, And heav'n'y dews enrich the ground?

- . How did the fpreading branches shoot, And blefs the nations with the fruit! Bit now, dear Lord, look down and fee Thy mourning vine, that lovely tree.
- Why is its beauty thus defac'd?
 Why hast thou laid her fences waste?
 Strangers and foes against her join.
 And ev'ry beast devours thy vine.
- Return, almighty God, return;
 Nor let thy bleeding vineyard mourn:
 Turn us to thee, thy love reftore,
 We shall be say'd, and sigh no more.

PAUSE II.

- y. Lord, when this vine in Canaan grew, Thou wait its strength and glory too! Attack'd in vain by all its foes, "Till the fair Branch of promise rose.
- re. Fair branch, ordain'd of old to shoot From David's flock, from Jacob's root; Himself a noble Vine, and we The lesser branches of the Tree:
- 11. 'Tis thy own Son; and he shall stand Girt with thy strength at thy right-hand; Thy first-born Son, adorn'd and blest With pow'r and grace above the rest.
- 12. Oh! for his fake attend our cry, Shine on thy churches, left they die; Turn us to thee, thy love restore, We shall be say'd, and sigh no more.

PSALM LXXXI. 1, 8-16.

- The warnings of Ged to his People: or, Spiritual bieffings and punishments.
 - I. SING to the Lord aloud, And make a joyful noise;

God is our strength, our Savieur God;
Let Israel hear his voice.

2. " From vile idolatry.

" Preferve my worthip clean;
" I am the Lord who fet thee free

" From flavery and fin.

3. " Stretch thy defires abroad,

"And I'll fupply them well;
"But if ye will refuse your God,
"If Ifrael will rebel,

II III aci wili i ebei,

4. " I'll leave them, faith the Lord,

" To their own lusts a prey,

" And let them run the dang'rous road,
" 'Tis their own chosen way.

5. " Yet Oh, that all my faints

" Would hearken to my voice!

" Soon I would eafe their fore complaints,
" And bid their hearts rejoice.

6. " While I destroy'd their foes, " I'd richly feed my flock,

" And they should taste the stream that flows

" From their eternal Rock."

PSALM LXXXII.

God the supreme governor; or, Magistrates worned.

- I. A MONG th' affemblies of the great,
 A greater ruler takes his feat;
 The God of heav'n as judge, furveys
 Those gods on earth and all their ways,
- 2. Why will ye then frame wicked laws?
 Or why support th' unrighteous cause?
 When will ye once defend the poor,
 That sinners vex the saints no more?
- 3. They know not, Lord, nor will they know; Dark are the ways in which they go;

Their name of earthly gods is vain,
For they shall fall and die like men.

Arife, O Lord, and let thy Son
Possessin in universal throne,
And rule the nations with his rod;
He is our Judge, and he our God.

PSALM LXXXIII.

A complaint against persecutor.

r. A ND will the God of grace Perpetual filence keep? 'he God of justice hold his peace, And let his vengeance sleep?

2. Behold what curfed inares
The men of mischief spread:
The men, that hate thy faints and thee,
List up their threat hing head.

3. Against thy hidden ones
Their counsels they employ;
And malice, with her watchful eye,
Pursues them to destroy.

4. The noble and the base Into thy pastures leap; The lion and the stupid ass Conspire to vex the sheep.

5. "Come let us join, they cry,
"To root them from the ground,
"Till not the name of faints remain,
"Nor mem'ry fhall be found."

6. Awake, almighty God!
And call thy wrath to mind;
Give them like forests to the fire,
Or stubble to the wind.

 Convince their madness, Lord, And make them feek thy name:
 Or else their stubborn rage confound, That they may die in shame.

2. Then shall the nations know
That glorious dreadful word,
Jehovah is thy name alone,
And thou the fov'reign Lord.

PSALM LXXXIII. Proper Metre. As the New 50th

A prayer of the Church against her enemies.

- THOU, the only good, & great, & wife, Father of men, and Lord of earth & fkies Thine awful filence break! from heaven's far end In countless myriads fee thy foes afcend; Lust, malice, pride, to waste thy kingdom: arm; Fierce swells the tumult, threatening roars the from!
- 2. See from all climes th' embattled nations roll; A world in arms, and fin th' infpiring foul! The North & South, the East & West combine; The prince and slave, the sage and savage, join; And power, & wealth, & kill, & fraud, unite The host to summon, and to arm the sight.
- 3. Whate'er ingenious mischief can devise,
 Or the tongue utter, train'd to arts and lies,
 Or envy wish, or malice fell prepare,
 Or atheist hope, or bold blasphemer dare, [try,
 They wish, they hope, they form, they dare, they
 And sound the trump to combat with the Sky.
- 4. "Unite," they cry, our "wisdom and our power;
 Now shall the name of God be heard no more;
 His word through earth become the butt offcora;
 His church expire; in dust his temples mourn;
 Lost in eternal night, Messah lie;
 His promise perish, and his glorydie."

• O thou great God, before whose awful ire The hills dissolve, and seas and skies expire, larn; Bow the high heavens; make bare th' avenging Awake thy thunders; rouse the sleeping storn; Thy lightnings summon to the dreadful day, Nor leave thy slock to ravening wolves a proy.

As empty chaff before the whirlwind flies, In flames to heaven as kindled forests rise; So shall the nations vanish from thine eye; Their cities sink; the scatter'd slands sly; [fall, The hard rocks cleave; the tottering mountains And death and terror rend the shrinking ball.

- . Throughall their deep laid counfels madness fend; sin their foul fource, and misery their end.

 Amaz'd, o'erthrown, to guilt a prey forlorn,
 Of shame the victims, and of truth the scorn,
 Their tears shall fall; to prayers their curies turn,
 And, sunk in dust, the wretched remnant mourn.
- I. So shall the kingdom to new glory rife;
 The children flaurith in indulgent lices;
 From shore to shore the worden triumphirum;
 In every land the name and uraic be one;
 And the wide world resound it wendering secures,
 "Supremee'er heavenend earth 1 s s ovan reigns."
 - * Ifaial lxiv. 1, 3. + Rev. xvl. 18-20.

PSALM LXXXIV. First Part. Long Metre.

The pleasure of public worship.

the HOW pleafant, how divinely fair,
O Lord of hofts, thy dwellings are I
With long defire my fpirit faints
To meet the affemblies of thy faints.

2. My flesh would sest in thine abode, My pasting heart cries out for God; My God, my King, why should I be So far from all my joys and thee?

- 3. The sparrow chooses where to reft,
 And for her young provides her nest;
 But will my God to sparrows grant
 That pleasure which his children want?
- 4. Bleft are the faints who fit on high Around thy throne of Majesty; Thy brightest glories shine above, And all their work is praise and love.
- 5. Bleft are the fouls that find a place and Within the temple of thy grace;
 There they behold thy gentler rays,
 And feek thy face, and learn thy praife.
- 6. Blest are the men whose hearts are set To find the way to Zion's gate;
 God is their strength; and through the road They lean upon their helper God.
- Cheerful they walk with growing strength,
 "Till all shall meet in heav'n at length,
 "Till all before thy face appear,
 And join in nobler worship there.

PSALM LXXXIV. Second Part. Long Metre.

God and his church ; or, Grace and Glory.

- I. CREAT God attend, while Zion fings.
 The joy, that from thy presence springs?
 To spend one day with thee on earth
 Exceeds a thousand days of mirth.
- Might I enjoy the meanest place
 Within thy house, O God of grace,
 Not tents of ease, nor thrones of pow'r,
 Should tempt my feet to leave thy door.
- 3. God is our fun, he makes our day; God is our shield, he guards our way

From all th' affaults of hell and fin, From foes without and foes within.

- All needful grace will God befrow, And crown that grace with glory too; He gives us all things, and with-holds No real good from upright fouls.
- . O God, our King, thy fov'reign fway The glorious hofts of heav'n obey, And devils at thy presence slee; Blest is the man that trusts in thee!

Psalm LXXXIV. 1, 4, 2, 3, 10. Paraphrafed in Common Metre.

Delight in ordinances of soorship; or, God present in bis churches.

- I. MY foul, how lovely is the place,
 To which thy God reforts!
 "Tis heav'n to fee his fmiling face,
 Though in his earthly courts,
- There the great monarch of the fkies
 His faving pow'r difplays,
 And light breaks in spon our cycs,
 With kind and quick hing rays.
- With his rich gifts the heav'nly Dove, Descends and fills the place, While Christ reveals his wondrous love, And sheds abroad his grace.
- 4. There, mighty God! thy words declare The fecrets of thy will; And fill we feek thy mercy there, And fing thy praifes ftill.

PAUSE.

5. My heart and flesh cry out for thee, While far from thine abode; When shall I tread thy courts, and fee My Saviour and my God?

- The fparrow builds herfelf a neft,
 And fuffers no remove;
 Oh make me like the fparrow bleft,
 To dwell but where I love.
- To fit one day beneath thine eye, And hear thy gracious voice, Exceeds a whole eternity, Employ'd in carnal joys.
- Lord, at thy threshold I would wait
 While Jesus is within,
 Rather than fill a throne of state,
 Or live in tents of fin.
- Oculd I command the fpacious land, And the more boundless sea, For one blest hour at thy right-hand I'd give them both away.

PSALM LXXXIV. As the 148th Pfalm.

Longing for the house of God.

- I. DORD of the worlds above,
 How pleafant and how fair
 The dwellings of thy love,
 Thy earthly temples are!
 To thine abode
 Mr heart afpires,
 With warm defires,
 To fee my God.
- 2. The sparrow for her young
 With pleasure seeks a nest,
 And wand ring swallows long
 To find their wented rest:
 My spirit faints
 With equal acal,
 To rise and dwell
 Among thy faints.

- 3. O happy fouls that pray Where God appoints to hear ! O happy men that pay Their conflant fervice there ! They praife thee ftill ? And happy they That love the way To Zion's hill.
- 4. They go from ftrength to ftrength, Through this dark vale of tears, "Fill each arrives at length, Till each in heaven appears. O glorious feat, When God our King Shall thither bring Our willing feet !

PAUSE.

- 5. To spend one facred day, Where God and faints abide. Affords diviner joy Than thousand days beside: Where God reforts. I love it more To keep the door Than thine in courts.
- 5. God is our fun and shield. Our light and our defence; With gifts his hands are fill'd, We draw our bleffings thence : He shall bestow On Jacob's race Peculiar grace, And glory too.
- 7. The Lord his people loves; His hand no good withholds From those his heart approves, From pure and pious fouls;

Thrice happy he,
O God of hofts,
Whofe fpirit trufts
Alone in thee!

PEALM LXXXV. 1-8. First Part.

Woiting for an answer to prayer: or, Deliverance begun and compleated.

- I. ORD, thou haft call'd thy grace to mind,
 Thou haft revers'd our heavy doom;
 So God forgave when Ifrael finn'd,
 And brought his wand'ring captives home.
- 2. Thou hast begun to set us free,
 And made thy fiercest wrath abate:
 Now let our hearts be turn'd to thee,
 And thy salvation be complete.
- 3. Revive our dying graces, Lord, And let thy faints in thee rejoice; Make known thy truth, fulfil thy word; We wait for praife to tune our voice.
- 4. We wait to hear what God will fay;
 He'll fpeak, and give his people peace a
 But let them run no more astray,
 Lest his returning wrath increase.

PSALM LXXXV. Ver. 9, &c. Second Parts

Salvation by Christ.

- ALVATION is for ever night.

 The fouls that fear and trust the Lord;

 And grace descending from on high

 Fresh hopes of glory shall afford.
- 2. Mercy and truth on earth are met,
 Since Christ the Lord came down from heav'n;
 By his obedience so complete
 Justice is pleas'd, and peace is giv'n.

- 3. Now truth and honour faul abound. Religion dwell on earth again,
 And heav'nly influence blefathe ground,
 In our Redeemer's gentle reign.
- 4. His righteoufnefs is gone before,
 To give us free accefs to God;
 Our wand'ring feet shall stray no more,
 But mark his steps, and keep the road.

PSALM LXXXVI. Ver. 8-13.

- A MONG the princes, earthly gods,
 There's none bath pow'r divine:
 Nor is their nature, inighty bord!
 Nor are their works like thine.
- 2. The nations thou half made, shall bring Their off rings round thy throne; For thou alone dost wondrous things. For thou art God alone.
- 3. Lord, I would walk with holy feet;
 Teach me thy heavinly ways,
 And my poor feather'd thoughts unite
 In God my Father's praise.
- 4. Great is thy mercy, and my tongue that those sweet wonders tell,

 How by thy grace my finking four the deeps of heli.

PSALM LXXXVII

- The church the birth-place of the fairtest or, Frans and Gentiles united in the Christian thursh.
- T. COD in his earthly semple lays

 Foundations for his heav'nly praise:

 He likes the tents of Jacob well,

 But still in Zion loves to dwell.

- A His mercy visits every house
 That pays its night and morning vows;
 But makes a more delightful stay.
 Where churches meet to praise and pray.
- 3. What glories were deferibed of old! What wonders are of Zion told! Thou city of our God below, Thy fame shall Tyre and Egypt know.
- Egypt and Tyre, the Greek and Jew, Shall there begin their lives anew: Angels and men shall join to sing The hill, where living waters spring.
- 5. When God makes up his last account Of natives in his holy mount, 'Twill be an honour to appear As one new-born or nourish'd there!

PSAIM LXXXVIII. First Part. Com. Metre.

The forrows of Christ.

- God of my falvation, hear?

 My daily cry attend!

 When shall I triumph o'er the grave?

 And when my forrows end?
- My life is number'd with the dead, That loft in filence lie;
 My ftrength decays; my fpirits droop, And all my comforts die.
- Forgotten in the lowest pit,
 In darkness and the deep,
 My heart, the light of hope forfakes,
 My weary eyelids, sleep.
- Shunn'd, as polluted victims are,
 Like lepers, that from men,
 My dearest friends my footsteps fly,
 Nor know my face again.

 Each day a mourner from my youth, My tears in anguish fall;
 No feeling heart partakes my pain;

No ear attends my call.

- Thy wrath hangs heavy o'er my head;
 Thy terrors round me burn;
 My feet are loft in forrow's waves,
 Nor find a path to turn.
- 7. To thee each morn I raise my cry; Thy suppliant hear and save! Oh let me see thy smiling face, And bring me from the grave!
- Though friend and lover, near and dear, In dark receffes hide;
 Though here I meet the darts of hate, And bear the ftofis of pride;
- I'll lift my hands, I'll raife infine eyes, For thy falvation, Lord;
 Thy hand shall fave me from my foes, And well fulfil thy word.

PSALM LXXXVIII. Second Part. Long Metre

Death not the end of our being.

Ver. 10, 11, 12. Paraphrased.

See Biscop Horns on these verses.

- 2. SHALL man, O God of light, and life,

 Forever moulder in the grave?

 Can'ft thou forget thy glorious work,

 Thy promife, and thy power, to fave?
- 2. In death's obscure, oblivious realms
 No muths are taught, nor wonders shown;

No mercy beams to warn the heart; Thy name unfung, thy grace unknown.

- 3. No lips proclaim redeeming love,
 With praife and transport in the found;
 The goivel's glory never shines,
 And hope and peace are never found.
- 4. But in thosefilent realms of night Shall peace and hope no more arise? No future morning light the tomb, Nor day-star gild the darksome skies?
- 5. Shall foring the faded world revive? Shall waning moons their light return? Again fhall cetting funs afcend, And the loft day anew be born?
- 6. Shall life revise dying worms,
 And spread the joyful infect's wing?
 And Oh shall man awake no more,
 'To see thy sace, thy name to sing?
- Ceafe, ceafe, ye vain, defponding fears:
 When Christ, our Lord, from darkness sprang,
 Death, the last foe, was captive led,
 And heaven with praise and wonder rang.
- 8. Him, the first fruits, his chosen sons
 Shall follow from the vanquish'd grave;
 He mounts his throne, the Kings of Kings,
 His church to quicken, and to save.
- r. Faith fees the bright, eternal doors Unfold, to make his children way; They shall be cloth'd with endless life, And shine in everlassing day.
- o. The trump shall found; the dust awake; From the cold tomb the slumberers spring; Through heaven with joy their myriads rise, And hail their Saviour, and their King.

PSALM LXXXVIII. Third Part. Long Metre.

Life the only accepted time.

- I. W Hill life prolongs its precious light, Mercy is found, and peace is given; But foon, ah foon! approaching night Shall blot out every hope of heaven.
- While God invites, hew blefs'd the day!
 How fweet the gofpel's charming found!
 "Come finners, hafte, oh hafte away,
 While yet a pardoning God he's found."
- 3. "Soon, borne on time's most rapid wing, Shall death command you to the grave, Before his bar your spirits bring, And none be sound to hear, or save."
- 4. "In that lone land of deep defpair, No Sabbath's heavenly light shall rife; No God regard your bitter prayer, Nor Saviour call you to the skies."
- 5. No wonders to the dead are shown,
 (The wonders of redeeming love;)
 No voice his glarious truth makes known,
 Nor sings the bliss of thmes above.
- 6. Silence, and folicide, and gloom, In these forgestal realms appear, Deep forrows fall the dismal tomb, And hope shall never enter there.

PSALM LXXXVIII. Forrib Part. Short Metec.

Solemn thoughts, after dangerous fickness.

z. S FRETCH'D on the bed of grief,
S in filence long I lay;
For fore difease and wasting pain
Had worse my fireagthraway.

2. Just o'er the grave I hung; No pardon met my eyes; As bleffings never greet the stain, And hope shall never rife.

3. Sweet mercy to my foul Reveal'd no charming ray; Before me rofe a long, dark night, With no fucceeding day,

4. I faw, beyond the tomb,
The awful Judge appear,
Prepar'd to fcan with firit account
My bleffings wasted here.

 His wrath, like flaming fire, Burn'd to the lowest hell,
 And in that hopeless world of woe He bade my spirit dwell.

 My friends, now friends no more, At nfinite remove,
 Left me, to gain their rich reward, And tafte forgiving love.

7. Then O how vain appear'd
The joys beneath the sky!
Like visions past, like flowers that blow,
When wintery storms are nigh.

 How mourn'd my finking foul The Sabbath's hours divine,
 The day of grace, that precious day, Confum'd in fenfe, and fin.

9. The work, the mighty work,
Of life, so long delay'd;
Repentance, yet to be begun,
Upon a dying bed!

CONSTRUCT IN A

20. Then to the Lord I pray'd, And rais'd a bitter cry-

" Hear me, O God, and fave my foul, Left I forever die."

11. He hear'd my humble cry;
He fav'd my foul from death;
'To him I'll give my heart and hande,
And confecrate my breath.

12. Ye finners, fear the Lord, While yet 'tis call'd to day; Soon will the awful voice of death Command your fouls away.

13. Soon will the harvest close;
The summer soon be o'er;
And soon your injur'd angry God
Will hear your prayers no more.

PSALM LXXXIX. First Part. Long Merre

The Covenant made with Christ; or, The true David.

FOR ever shall my fong record
 The truth and mercy of the Lord,
 Mercy and truth for ever stand
 Like heav'n establish'd by his hand.

- 2. Thus to his Son he fware, and faid
 - " With thee my cov'nant first was made;
 - " In thee shall dying finners live,
 - "Glory and grace are thine to give:
- 3. Be thou my Prophet, thou my Prieft;
 - "Thy children shall be ever blest;
 "Thou art my chosen King; thy throne

- 6. My first-born Son array'd in grace
 At my right-hand shall fit:

Beneath him angels know their place, And monarchs at his feet.

7. My cov'nant stands for ever fast,
My promises are strong;
Firm as the heav'ne his throne shall last,
His feed endure as long.

PSALM LXXXIX. 10, &c. Fifth Part.

The covenant of grace unchangeable; or, afflictions without rejection.

1. YET (faith the Lord) if David's race,
The children of my Son,
Should break my laws, abuse my grace,
And tempt mine anger down;

 Their fins I'll visit with the rod, And make their folly smart;
 But I'll not cease to be their God, Nor from my truth depart.

 My cov'nant I will ne'er revoke, But keep my grace in mind;
 And what eternal love hath fpoke, Eternal truth shall bind.

And pledg'd my holines,

To feal the facred promise fure

To David and his race.

PSALM XCH. 12, &c. Second Rart.

The Church is the Garden of God.

I. ORD, 'tis a pleasant thing to stand in gardens planted by thy hand;

Let me within thy courts be feen, Like a young cedar fresh and green.

There grow thy faints in faith and love, Bleft with thine influence from above; Not Lebanon with all its trees Yields fuch a comely fight as these.

The plants of grace shall ever live; (Nature decays, but grace must thrive) Time, that doth all things else impair, Still makes them slourish strong and fair.

Laden with fruits of age, they shew, The Lord is holy, just and true; None that attend his gates shall find A God unfaithful or unkind.

PSALM XCIII. 1st Metre.

The eternal and fovereign God.

JEHOVAH reigns: He dwells in light, Girded with majesty and might: The world, created by his hands, Still on its first soundation stands.

But ere this spacious world was made, Or had its first foundations laid, Thy throne eternal ages stood, Thy self the ever-living God.

- . Like floods the angry nations rife, And aim their rage against the skies; Vain floods, that aim their rage so high? At thy rebuke the billows die.
- For ever shall thy throne endure;
 Thy promise stands for ever fure;
 And everlasting holiness
 Ecomes the dwellings of thy grace.

PSALM XCIII. 2d Metre. As the old 50th Pfale

- I. THE Lord of glory reigns: he reigns on high
 His robes of flate are firength and majerty.
 This wide creation rofe at his command,
 Built by his word, and flabilith'd by his hand;
 Long flood his throne ere he began creation,
 And his own Godhead is the firm foundation.
- 2. God is th' eternal King: thy fore in vain
 Raife their rebellions to confound thy reign:
 In vain the florus, in in the floods arife,
 And roar, and tofs their waves against the skies;
 Foaming at heav'n they rage with wild commotion,
 But heav'ns high arches from the swelling ocean.
- 3. Ye tempests rage no more; ye floods be still,
 And the mad world submissive to his will;
 Built on his truth, his church must ever stand;
 Firm are his promises, and strong his hand;
 See his own sons, when they appear before him,
 Bow at his sootstool, and with sear adore him.

PSALM XCIII. 3d Metre. As the old 122d Pfalm

And royal state maintains.

His head with awful glories crown'd;

Array'd in robes of light,

Begirt with fov'reign might,

And rays of majesty around.

2. Upheld by thy commands
The world fecurely ftands,
And fkies and ftars obey thy word;
Thy throne was fix'd on high
Before the ftarry fky;
Eternal is thy kingdom, Lord.

3. In vair the noify crowd, Like billows flerce and loud, Against thine empire rage and row; in vain with angry faite
The furly nations light,
And dash like waves against the shore.

A Let floods and nations rage, And all their pow'rs engage, for fwelling tides affault the fky; The terrors of thy frown Shall beat their madnets down; Thy throne for ever frands on high.

5. Thy promifes are true,
Thy grace is ever new;
There fix'd, thy church shall ne'er remove;
Thy faints with holy fear

Shall in thy courts appear, And fing thine ever lafting love.

PSALM XCIV. 1, 2, 7-14. First Part.

Saints chaffifed, and finners defroyed: or, Infiret-

GOD, to whom revenge belongs, Proclaim thy wrath aloud; Let for reign pow'r redress our wrongs, Let justice smite the proud.

2. They fay, "The Lord nor fees nor hears;"
When will the fools be wife?
Can he be deaf, who form'd their ears?
Or blind, who made their eyes?

3. He knows their impious thoughts are vain, And they fhall feel his pow'r; His wrath shall pierce their fouls with pain In some surprizing hour.

A. But, if thy faints deferve rebuke, Thou haft a gentler rod; Thy providences and thy book Shall make them know their God.

- 5. Blest is the man thy hands chastise, And to his duty draw; Thy chastenings make thy children wise, When they forget thy law.
- But God will ne'er cast off his faints, Nor his own promise break;
 He pardons his inheritance
 For their Redeemer's sake.

PSALM XCIV. 16-23. Second Part.

God our Support and comfort; or, Deliverance from temptation and persecution.

- Y. WHO will arife and plead my right
 Against my num'rous foes,
 While carth and hell their force unite,
 And all my hopes oppose!
- Had not the Lord, my rock, my help, Suftain'd my fainting head,
 My life had now in filence dwelt,
 My foul among the dead.
- 3. " Alas! my fliding feet!" I cried, Thy promife was my prop; Thy grace flood conflant by my fide, Thy Spirit bore me up.
- 4. While multitudes of mournful thoughts Within my bosom roll, Thy boundless love forgives my faults, Thy comforts cheer my foul.
- 5. Pow'rs of iniquity may rife,
 And frame pernicious laws;
 But God, my refuge, rules the fkies,
 He will defend my caufe.
- 5. Let malice vent her rage aloud, Let bold blaiphemers feoff; The Lord our God shall judge the proud, And out the sinners off.

PSALM XCV. Common Metre.

A Pfalm before Prayer.

- x. SING to the Lord Jehovah's name,
 And in his strength rejoice;
 When his falvation is our theme,
 Exalted be our voice.
- With thanks approach his awful fight, And pfalms of honor fing; The Lord's a God of boundlefs might, The whole creation's King.
- Let princes hear, let angels know, How mean their natures feem, Those gods on high, and gods below, When once compar'd with him.
- 4. Earth, with its caverns dark and deep,
 Lies in his fpacious hand;
 He fix'd the fea what bounds to keep,
 And where the hills must stand.
- Come, and with humble fouls adore, Come, kneel before his face;
 Oh may the creatures of his pow'r Be children of his grace!
- Now is the time; he bends his ear,
 And waits for your request;
 Come, left he rouse his wrath, and swear,
 "Ye shall not see my rest."

PSALM XCV. Short Metre. A Pfalm before Sermon.

- x. COME, found his praise abroad,.
 And hymns of glory fing:
 Jehovah is the sovereign God,
 The universal King.
 - A. He form'd the deeps unknown;
 He gave the seas their bound;

The watery worlds are all his own.
And all the folid ground.

3. Come worship at his throne, Come bow before the Lord: We are his works, and not our own, He form'd us by his word.

4. To-day attend his voice,
Nor dare provoke his rod;
Come, like the people of his choice,
And own your gracious God.

5. But if your ears refuse
The language of his grace,
And hearts grow hard like stubborn Jews,
That unbelieving race.

6 The Lord in vengeance dreft Will lift his hand, and fwear, "You that despife my promis'd rest, "Shall have no portion there."

Psalm XCV. 1, 2, 3, 6—11. Long Metre

Canaan lost through unbelief; or, A warning to delaying Sinners.

- I. COME, let our voices join to raife
 A facred fong of folemn praife;
 God is a fov'reign King: Rehearfe
 His honor in exalted verfe.
- Come, let our souls address the Lord, Who fram'd our natures with his word; He is our shepherd; we the sheep His mercy chose, his pastures keep.
- 3. Come, let us hear his voice to-day,
 The counfels of his love obey;
 Nor let our harden'd hearts renew
 Thes ns and plagues that Ifrael knew.

- Lifrael, that faw his works of grace, Tempted their Maker to his face; Provok'd the vengeance of his rod, And tir'd the patience of their God.
- 5. Thus faith the Lord, "How faile they prove !
 "Forget my pow'r; abuse my love;
 "Since they despite my rest, I swear."

" Their feet shall never enter there."

- 6. (Look back, my foul, with holy dread; And view those ancient rebels dead; Attend the offer'd grace to-day, Nor lose the bleffing by delay.
- Seize the kind promife, while it waits, And march to Zion's heav'nly gates;
 Believe and take the promis'd reft: Ohey, and be for ever bleft.

PSALM XCVI. 1, 10, &c. Common Metre.

Christ's first and second coming.

- I. SING to the Lord, ye distant lands,
 Ye tribes of ev'ry tongue;
 His new discover'd grace demands
 A new and nobler fong.
- Say to the nations, Jefus reigns, God's own almighty Son:
 His power the finking world fultains, And grace furrounds his throne.
- Let heav'n proclaim the joyful day;
 Joy through the earth be feen;
 Let cities shine in bright array,
 And fields in cheerful green.
- 3. Let an unufual joy furprife
 The iflands of the fea:
 Ye mountains fink; ye vallies rife;
 Prepare the Lord his way.

- 5. Behold he comes! he comes to bless
 The nations as their God;
 To shew the world his righteousness,
 And send his truth abroad.
- 6. But when his voice shall raise the dead, And bid the world draw near, How will the guilty nations dread, To see their Judge appear!

PSALM XCVI. As the 113th Pfalm.

The God of the Gentiles.

- Te T'all the earth their voices raife,
 To fing the choiceft pfalm of praife,
 To fing and blefs Jehovah's name:
 His glory let the heathen know,
 His wonders to the nations flow,
 And all his faving works proclaim.
- 2. The heathen know thy glory, Lord;
 The wond ring nations read thy word.
 In these far climes Jehovah's known.
 Our worship shall no more be paid
 To gods which mortal hands have made;
 Our maker is our God alone.
- 3. He fram'd the globe, he built the fky,
 He made the fhining worlds on high,
 And reigns complete in glory there:
 His beams are majefty and light;
 His beauties how divinely bright!
 His temple how divinely fair!
- 4. Come, the great day, the glorious hour,
 When earth shall feel his faving pow'r,
 And barb'rous nations fear his name:
 Then shall the race of man confess
 The beauty of his holiness,
 And in his courts his grace proclaim.

PSALM XCVII. 1-5. First Part.

Christ reigning in beaven, and coming to Judgment.

- HE reigns; the Lord, the Saviour reigns!
 Praife him in evangelic strains;
 Lee the whole earth in sorgs rejoice.
 And distant islands join their voice.
- Deep are his counfuls and unknown,
 But grace and truth support his throne;
 Though gloomy clouds his way surround,
 Justice is their eternal ground.
- In robes of judgment, lo, he comes!
 Shakes the wide earth, and cleaves the tombs,
 Enforce him burns devouring fire,
 The mountains melt, the feas ratire.
- 4. His enemies, with fore difmay, Fly from the fight and flun the day; Then lift your heads, ye faints, on high, And fing, for your redemption's nigh.

PSALM XCVII. 6-9. Second Part.

- THE Lord is come; the heavins proclaim

 His birth; the dutions learn his name;

 An unknown that directs the road

 Of Eastern fages to their God.
- All ye bright armies of the kies,
 Go, weefing where the Saviour lies:
 Angels and kiegs before him bow,
 Those gods on high, and gods below.
- 3. Let idels 'enter to the ground, And their own worshippers confound: Let Judah shout, let Zion sing, And earth confess her sov'reign King.

PSALM XCVII. Third Part.

Grace and glory.

- Almighty reigns, exalted high
 O'er all the earth, o'er all the fky;
 Though clouds and darknefs veil his feet,
 His dwelling is the mercy feat.
- 2. O ye, that love his holy name,
 Hate ev'ry work of fin and shame:
 He guards the fouls of all his friends,
 And from the snares of hell defends.
- 3. Immortal light, and joys unknown, Are for the faints in darkness sown; Those glorious seeds shall spring and rise, And the bright harvest bless our eyes.
- 4. Rejoice, ye righteous, and record
 The facred honors of the Lord.
 None but the foul that feels his grace
 Can triumph in his holinefs.

PSALM XCVII. 1, 3, 5-7, 11. Com. Metro-

Christ's incarnation and the last judgment.

- TE nations round the northern fea, Rejoice, the Saviour reigns s
 His word like fire prepares his way, And mountains melt to plains.
- His presence sinks the proudest hills, And makes the vallies rise:
 The humble soul enjoys his smiles, The haughty sinner dies.
- The heav'ns his rightful pow'r proclaim;
 The idol-gods around
 Fill their own worshippers with shame,
 And totter to the ground.

4. Adoring angels at his birth Make the Redeemer known; Thus shall he come to judge the earth, And angels guard his throne.

5. His foes shall tremble at the fight, And hills and feas retire : His children take their unknown flight.

And leave the world on fire.

6. The feeds of joy and glory, fown For faints in darkness here, Shall rife and fpring in worlds unknown, And a rich harvest bear.

PSALM XCVIII. First Part.

Praise for the cospel. 1. TO our almighty Maker, God, New honors he addrest; His great falvation shines abroad, And makes the nations bleft.

2. He spake the word to Abraham first; His truth fulfils the grace; The Gentiles make his name their truft, And learn his righteoufnefs.

3. Let the whole earth his love proclaim With all het diff rent tongues ; And spread the honors of his name In melody and fongs.

PSALM XCVIII. Second Part.

The Meffrah's coming and kingdom.

2. JOY to the world; the Lord is come; Let earth receive her king; Let ev'ry heart prepare him room. And heav'n and nature fing.

- 2. Joy to the earth; the Saviour reigns;
 Let men their fongs employ;
 While fields and floods, rocks, hills and plains
 Repeat the founding joy.
- No more let fins and forrows grow, Nor thorns infeft the ground;
 He comes to make his bleffings flow Far as the curle is found.
- A. He rules the world with truth and grace,
 And makes the nations prove
 The glories of his righteoulness,
 And wonders of his love.

PSALM XCIX. First Parts

Christ's kingdom and majesty.

T. THE God, Jehovah, reigns, Let all the nations fear; Let finners tremble at his throne, And faints be humbled there.

- 2. Jesus the Saviour reigns, Let earth adore its Lord; Bright cherubs his attendants stand, And swift sulfil his word.
- In Zion is his throne;
 His honors are divine;
 His church shall make his wonders known,
 For there his glories shine.
- 4. How holy is his name!

 How terrible his praise!

 Justice and truth, and judgment join,

 In all his works of grace.

PSALM XCIX. Second Part.

A boly God wor shipped with reverence

x. EXALT the Lord our God, And worship at his feet : His ways are wildom, power and truth, And mercy is his feat.

2. When Ifrael was his church, When Aaron was his prieft, When Mofes cried, when Samuel pray'd

He gave his people reft.

3. Oft he forgave their fins,
Nor would destroy their race;
And oft he made his vengeance known
When they abus'd his grace.

4. Exalt the Lord our God; His grace is still the fame; Still he's a God of holine's, And jealous for his name.

PSALM C. First Metre. A plain Translation. Praise to our Creator.

- E nations round the earth, rejoice
 Before the Lord, your fov'reign king:
 Serve him with cheerful heart and voice,
 With all your tongues his glory fing.
- The Lord is God; 'tis he alone Doth life and breath, and being give; We are his work, and not our own; The sheep that on his pastures live.
- 3. Enter his gates with fongs of joy, With praifes to his courts repair; And make it your divine employ To pay your thanks and honors there.
- 4. The Lord is good, the Lord is kind, Great is his grace, his mercy fure; And the whole race of men shall find His truth from age to age endure.

PSALM C. Second Metre. A Paraphrafe:

- r. YE Sons of men in God rejoice,
 From land to land his name adore;
 Let earth, with one united voice,
 Refound his praife from every shore.
- Nations attend before his throne
 With folemn fear, with facred joy;
 Know that the Lord is God alone,
 He can create, and he deftroy.
- His fov'reign pow'r without our aid Made us of clay, and form'd us men;
 And when like wand'ring sheep we stray'd,
 He brought us to his fold again.
- 4. We are are his people, we his care, Our fouls, and all our mortal frame; What lasting honors shall we rear, Almighty Maker to thy name?
- 5. We'll crowd thy gates with thankful fongs, High as the heav'ns our voices raife; And earth with her ten thousand tongues Shall fill thy courts with founding praise.
- Wide as the world is thy command;
 Vaft as eternity thy love;
 Firm as a rock thy truth must stand,
 When rolling years shall cease to move.

PSALM C. Proper Metre. As the 148th.

A general fong of praise.

I. SING to the Lord most high;

Sing to the Lord most high;

With grateful voice make known His goodness and his power.

Let cheerful songs

Declare his ways,

And let his praise

Inspire your tongues.

- 2. Enter his courts with joy;
 With fear address the Lord;
 He form'd us with his hand,
 And quicken'd by his word.
 With wide command
 He spreads his sway
 O'er every sea,
 And every land.
- 3. His hands provide our food, And every bicfling give; We feed upon his care, And in his paftures live. With cheerful fongs Declare his ways, And let his praife Inspire your tongues.
- 4. Good is the Lord, our God,
 His truth and mercy fure;
 While earth and heaven shall last,
 His promises endure.
 With bounteous hand
 He spreads his sway
 O'er every sea,

And every land.

PSALM CI. Long Metre. The Magistrate's pfalm.

- . MERCY and judgment are my fong; And fince they both to thee belong, My gracious God, my rightcous King, To thee my fongs and vows I'll bring.
- 2. If I am rais'd to bear the fword,
 I'll take my counfels from thy word;
 Thy justice and thy heavinly grace
 Shall be the pattern of my ways.

- 3. Let wifdom all my actions guide,
 And let my God with me refide;
 No wicked thing shall dwell with me,
 Which may provoke thy jealousy.
- 4. No fors of flander, rage and strife, Shall be companions of my life; The haughty look, the heart of pride Within my doors shall ne'er abide.
- 5. [I'll fearch the land, and raife the just To posts of honor, wealth and trust: The men that work thy holy will Shall be my friends and fav'rites still.]
- In vain shall sinners hope to rife By flatt'ring or malicious lies; And while the innocent I guard. The bold offender snan't be spar'd.
- The impious crew (that factious band)
 Shall hide their heads, or quit the land
 And all, that break the public reft,
 Where I have pow'r fhall be fuppreft

PSALM Cl. Common Metre.

A pfalm for a master of a family.

- Thy grace and in grace I fing,
 And pay my God my vows:
 Thy grace and justice, heav'nly King,
 Teach me to rule my house.
- 2. Now to my tent, O God, repair,
 And make thy fervant wife:
 I'll fuffer nothing near me there,
 That shall offend thine eyes.
- 3. The man that doth his neighbour wrong
 By falshood, or by force,
 The fcornful eye, the stand rous tongue,
 I'll that I themfrom my doors.

4. I'll feek the faithful and the just,
And will their help enjoy;
These are the friends that I shall trust,
The fervants I'll employ.

5. The wretch, that deals in sly deceit,
I'll not endure a night:
The hiar's tongue I'll ever hate,
And banish from my sight.

6. I'll purge my family around,
And make the wicked slee;
So shall my house be ever found.
A dwelling sit for thee.

PSALN CH. 1-13, 20, 21. First Part.

A trayer for the afflicted.

TIEAR me. O God, nor hide thy face,
II. But answer, left I die:
Half thou not built a throne of grace
To hear when finners cry.

2: My days are wasted like the smoke
Dissolving in the air?

My Arengel, is dried, my heart is broke, And finking in despair.

My spirits flag, like with ring grass
Burnt with excessive heat;
 In secret grouns my minutes pass,
 And I sorget to eat.

4. As on fome lonely building's top The fparrow tells her moan, Far from the tents of joy and hope I fit and grieve alone.

My foul is like a wilderness,
Where beads of midnight howl;
There the fad raven finds her place,
And there the fereaming owl

- 6. Dark difmal thoughts and boding fears
 Dwell in my troubled breaft;
 While sharp reproaches wound my ears,
 Nor give my spirit rest.
 - My cup is mingled with my woes, And tears are my repait;
 My daily bread like afhes grows Unpleafant to my tafte.
- Sense can afford no real joy
 To souls that feel thy frown;
 Lord, 'twas thy hand advanc'd me high;
 Thy hand hath cast me down.
- My looks like wither'd leaves appear;
 And life's declining light
 Grows faint as ev'ning shadows are,
 That vanish into night.
- O my eternal God!

 Ages to come shall know thy name,
 And spread thy works abroad.
- Nor will my Lord delay

 Beyond th' appointed hour of grace,

 That long expected day.
- 72. He hears his faints, he knows their cry, And by mysterious ways Redeems the pris'ners doom'd to die, And fills their tongues with praise.

PSALM CII. 13-21. Second Part.

Prayer beard, and Zion restored.

I ET Zion and her fons rejoice,
Behold the promis'd hour:
Her God hath heard her mourning voice,
And comes t' exalt his pow'r.

Her dust and ruins that remain Are precious in our eyes; Those ruins shall be built again, And all that dust shall rife.

The Lord will raife Jerusalem, And stand in glory there: Nations shall bow before his name, And kings attend with fear.

"He fits a fov'reign on his throne, With pity in his eyes; He hears the dying pris'ners groan, And fees their fighs arife.

j. He frees the fouls condemn'd to death; And when his faints complain, It fhan't be faid, "That praying breath "Was ever fpent in vain."

 This shall be known when we are dead, And left on long record, That ages yet unborn may read, And trust, and praise the Lord.

PSALM CH. 23-28. Third Part.

Man's mertality, and Christ's eternity; or, Saints die, but Christ and the church live.

- IT is the Lord our Saviour's hand Weakens our firength amid the race: Difeafe and death at his command Arreft us, and cut fhort our days.
- Spare us, O Lord, aloud we pray, Nor let our fun go down at noon: Thy years are one eternal day, And must thy children die so soon?
- 3. Yet in the midft of death and grief, This thought our forrow shall assuage;

- " Our Father and our Saviour live : "1000
- " Christ is the same through ev'ry age.
- 4. 'Twas he this earth's foundation laid;
 Heav'n is the building of his hand:
 This earth grows old, these heav'ns shall fade,
 And all be chang'd at his command.
- 5. The starry curtains of the sky
 Like garments shall be laid aside;
 But still thy throne stands firm and high;
 Thy church for ever must abide.
- Before thy face thy church shall live, And on thy throne thy children reign; This dying world shall they survive, And the dead faints be rais'd again.

PSALM CIII. 1-7. First Part. Long Metre.

Biessing God for his goodness to foul and body.

- t. BLESS, O my foul, the living God;
 Call home thy thoughts that rove abroad;
 Let all the pow'rs within me join
 In work and worship so divine.
- 2. Bless, O my soul, the God of grace;
 His favours claim thy highest praise;
 Why should the wonders he hath wrought
 Be lost in silence, and forgot?
- 3. "Tis he, my foul, that fent his Son
 To die for crimes which thou hast done;
 He owns the ransom, and forgives
 The hourly follies of our lives.
- 4. The vices of the mind he heals,
 And cures the pains that nature feels,
 Redeems the foul from hell, and faves
 Our wasting life from threat'ning graves.

Our youth decay'd his pow'r repairs; His mercy crowns our growing years; He fatisfies our mouth with good, And fills our hopes with heav'nly food.

He sees th' oppressor and th' oppress, And often gives the suff'rers rest! But will his justice more display. In the last, great, rewarding day.

[His power he shew'd by Moses' hands, And gave to Israel his commands; But sent his truth and mercy down To all the nations by his Son.

Let the whole earth his pow'r confess; Let the whole earth adore his grace; The Gentile with the Jew shall join In work and worship so divine]

'SALM CIll. 8-18. Second Part. Long Metre.

God's gentle chastifement; or, His tender mercy to his people.

- THE Lord, how wond'rons are his ways!
 How firm his truth! how large his grace!
 He takes his mercy for his throne,
 And thence he makes his glories known.
- A. Not half so high his pow'r hath spread,
 The starry heav'ns above our head,
 As hisrich love exceeds our praise,
 Excerds the highest hopes we raise.
- Not half fo far hath nature plac'd
 The rifing morning from the west,
 As his forgiving grace removes
 The daily guilt of those he loves.
- How flowly doth his wrath arise!
 On swifter wings salvation flies;

And if he lets his anger burn, How foon his frowns to pity turn !

- Amidît his wrath compaffion shines;
 His strokes are lighter than our sins;
 And while his rod corrects his saints,
 His ear indulges their complaints.
- So fathers their young fons chastife, With gentle hands and melting eyes: The children weep beneath the smart, And move the pity of their heart.

PAUSE.

- The mighty God, the wife and just, Knows that our frame is feeble dust, And will no heavy loads impose Beyond the strength that he bestows.
- He knows how foon our nature dies, Blafted by ev'ry wind that flies;
 Like grafs we fpring, and die as foon, Or morning flow'rs that fade at noon.
- But his eternal love is fure
 To all the faints, and shall endure;
 From age to age his truth shall reign,
 Nor children's children hope in vain.

PSALM CIV. 1-7. First Part. Short Metre.
Praise for spiritual and temporal mercies.

1. OH blefs the Lord, my foul!

Let all within me join,

And aid my tongue to blefs his name,

Whose favours are divine.

2. Oh blefs the Lord, my foul;
Nor let his mercies lie,
Forgotten in unthankfulnefs;
And without praifes die.

"Tis he forgives thy fins;
"Tis he relieves thy pain;
s he that heals thy fickneffes,
And makes thee young again.

- He crowns thy life with love, When ranfom'd from the grave; that redeem'd my foul from hell, Hath foy'reign pow'r to fave,
- . He fills the poor with good, He gives the fuff rers rest; e Lord hath judgments for the proud, And justice for th' opprest.
- His wond'rous works and ways
 He made by Meles known;
 t fent the world his truth and grace,
 By his beloved Son.

SALM CIII. 8-18, Second Part. Short Metre.

bunding compassion of God; or, Mercy in the milit

- r. MY foul, repeat his praife
 Whose mercies are so great;
 hose anger is so slow to rise,
 So ready to abate,
- God will not always chide; And when his strokes are felt, (is strokes are fewer than our crimes, And lighter than our guilt.
- High as the heav'ns are rais'd Above the ground we tread, far the riches of his grace
 Our highest thoughts exceed.
 - 4. His pow'r fubdues our fins, And his forgiving love

Far as the East is from the West, Doth all our guilt remove,

5. The pity of the Lord
To those that sear his name
Is such as tender parents seel:
He knows our seeble frame.

6. He knows we are but dust, Scatter'd with ev'ry breath; His anger, like a rising wind, Can send us swift to death.

7. Our days are as the grass,
Or like the morning flow'r:
If one sharp blast sweep o'er the field,
It withers in an hour.

8. But thy compassions, Lord A
To endless years endure;
And children's children ever find
Thy words of promise sure.

PSALM CIII. 19-22. Third Part, Short Metre.

God's univerfal dominion; or, Angels praise the Lord.

1. THE Lord, the fov'reign King,

O'er all the heav'nly world he rules,
And all beneath the fky.

2. Ye angels great in might,
And fwift to do his will;
Blefs ye the Lord, whose voice ye hear?

Whose pleasure ye fulfil.

3. Let the bright hose who wait

The orders of their King,

And guard his churches when they pray,

Join in the praise they fing.

4. While all his wond'rous works
Through his vaft kingdom shew

neir Maker's glory, thou, my foul,3 Shalt fing his praifes too.

PSALM CIV.

The glory of God in creation and providence. 3.

MY foul, thy great Creator praise;
When, cloth'd in his celestrial rays,
He in full majesty appears,
And, like a robe, his glory wears

ste. This Pfa'm may be fing to the tune of the Old 112th or 127th Pfalm, by adding thefe two lines to every flanza, viz.

Great is the Lord; what tongue can frame An equal honour to his name?

Otherwise it must be fung as the 100 Pfalm.

The heavins are for his curtains spread, Th' unfathom'd deep he makes his bed: Clouds are his chariet, when he flies On winged storms a-cross the skies.

Angels, whom his own breath inspires, His ministers, are flaming fires; And swift as thought their armies move To bear his vengeance or his love.

The world's foundations by his hand:
Are pois'd, and shall forever stand:
He binds the ocean in his chain,
Lest it should drown the earth again.

When earth was cover'd with the flood, Which high above the mountains flood, He thunder'd and the ocean fled Confin'd to its appointed bed.

. The fwelling billows know their bounds, And in their channels walk their rounds; Yet thence convey'd by fecret veins, They fpring on hills, and drench the plains.

- He bids the cryftal fountains flow,
 And cheer the vallies as they go;
 Tame heifers there their thirft allay,
 And for the ftream wild affes bray.
- From pleafant trees which shade the brink;
 The lark and linnet light to drink;
 Their songs the lark and linnet raise,
 And chide our silence in his praise.

PAUSE L.

- God, from his cloudy ciftern, pours
 On the parch'd earth curiching show'rs:
 The grove, the garden, and the field,
 A thousand joyful blessings yield.
- 10. He makes the graffy food arife, And gives the cattle large fupplies; With herbs for man, of various pow'r, To nourifn nature, or to cure.
- Tr. What noble fruit the vines produce!

 The olive yields a shining juice;

 Our hearts are cheer'd with gen'rous wine;

 With inward joy our faces shine.
- 22. Oh blefs his name, ye nations! fed With nature's chief fupporter, bread: While bread your vital firength imparts, Serve him with vigour in your hearts.

PAUSE II.

- 13. Behold the flately cedar flands Rais'd in the forest by his hands; Birds to the boughs for shelter fly, And build their nests secure on high.
- 14. To craggy hills ascends the goat; And at the airy mountains foot

The feebler creatures make their cell; gives them wifdom where to dwell. It feets the fun his circling race, points the moon to change her face; d when thick darknefs veils the day, calls out wild beafts to hunt their prey-

- Fierce lions lead their young abroad,
 And roaring afk their meat from God;
 But when the morning beams arife
 The favage beaft to covert fires.
- 17. Then man to daily labour goes;
 The eight was made for his repose;
 Sleep is thy gift, that sweet relief
 From tiresome toil and washing grief.
- 18 How frange thy works! how great thy [kill]
 All lands thy boundies riches fill;
 Thy wildom round the world we fee;
 This fracious earth is full of thee.
 - 19. Nor lefs thy glories in the deep, Where fifth in millions twent and creep, With wond'rous motions fwift or frow, Still wand'ring in the paths below.
- 20. There ships divide their watery way, And flocks of scaly monsters play; There dwells the hoge Leviathan, And scams and sports in spite of man.

PAUSE III.

- ar. Vast are thy works, almighty Lord i All nature refis upon thy word, And the whole race of creatures stands, Waiting their portion from thy hands.
- 22. While each requives his diff'rent food, His cheerful looks pronounce it good;

Eagles and bears, and whales and worms.
Rejoice and praise in different forms.

- 23. But when thy face is hid they mourn. And dying to their dust return;
 Both man and beast their souls resign;
 Life, breath, and spirit, all are thine.
- 24. Yet thou canst breathe on dust again,
 And fill the world with beasts and men
 A word of thy creating breath
 Repairs the wastes of time and death.
- 25. His works, the wonders of his might,
 Are honour'd with his own delight?
 How awful are his glorious ways?
 The Lord is dreadful in his praise.
- 26. The earth stands wembling at thy stroke.
 And at thy touch the mountains smokes;
 Yet humble fouls may see thy face,
 And tell their wants to sov'reign grace.
- 27. In thee my hopes and withes meet,
 And make my meditations fweet;
 Thy praifes thall my breath employ.
 Till it expires in endless joy.
- 28. While haughty finners die accurft,
 Their glory buried with their duft,
 I to my God, my heavinly king.
 Immortal hallelujahs fing.

PSALM CIV. Proper Metre. Le the new 50th.

The glary of God in the works of creation and Providence.

x. TO heaven's high King, my foul, thy honours raife;
Great is his power, and wondrous are his ways;

Honour and majesty his throne surround,

Clad with pure light, with endiess glory crown'd, He rais'd the pillars of the realms on high, And hung the azure curtains of the sky.

2. O'er occan's fields he spreads his chambers far, And rolls through ether's wilds his cloudy car; On the wing'd whirlwind walks the boundies sky, And hids his Angel holts before him fly; Raptur'd through every world they spread his name,

Pure as the air, and active as the flame.

3. He built the earth; he fix'd the folid ground;
He bade the deep the mighty mass furround;
O'er the high hills the fwelling billows food;
He spoke; they hasten'd to their dark abode;
Dread thunders roll'd, and, down the mountains driven.

They swept the vales, and own'd the voice of Heaven.

4. There clos'd forever by the appointed shore,
Th' ambitious waves shall dreach the world no more.

But, form'd for nobler ends in springs shall flow, Refresh the hills, and cheer the ways below; There the wild heafts their feorching thirst allay;

There the herds wander, and the lambkins play.

3. There mid the groves shall build the feather drace, His bounty sing, and teach mankind to praise; The springing grass the useful ox sustain; The ripening corn suggest the race of man; Bread nerve the heart, with oil the aspect thine, And the glad bosom warm with electful wine.

6! On lofty Lebanon his cedars fland. Rear'd by his pow'r, and planted by his hand; There birds of fironger wing securely rest; High on the fir the flork creds her nest; O'er craggy mountains roams the browling flock, And feebler conies feek the sheltering rock.

7. He form'd for meafur'd months the changing

For cirtling days decreed the fleady fun:
Dun night ascends; the wild beast roams abroad;
Young lions roar, and ask their meat from God;
Aw'd by the morn, they sly their bloody spoil,
And man securely seeks his daily toil.

- 3. How vaft, how various, are thy wondrous ways!
 All plann'd by wisdom! all replete with praises
 Blest by thy bounty, earth with treasuresglows;
 Stor'd with thy riches, trensing ocean flows:
 There ships mysterious wind their watery way;
 There fealy nations swim, and monsters play,
- All nature's millions wait thy dread command, And take their timely portion from thy band, Each raftes the share, by thee on each beftow'd,
 And feasts, delighted, on sufficient good,
 Veil'd is thy sace; each drooping creature dies;
 Thy Spirit breathes, and new-born millions rife.
 - To thee my life hall be a life of praife;
 To memost sweet thy name, and works and ways:
 While the world shakes beneath thine awful eye,
 The touch'd hills burn, and haughty sinners die,
 Thy glory round the skies shall ever shine,
 And all thy creatures yield thee joy divine.

PSALM CV. Abriged.

God's conduct of Ifrael, and the plagues of Egypt.

- z. GIVE thanks to God, invoke his name,
 And tell the world his grace;
 Sound thro' the earth his deeds of fame,
 That all may feek his face.
- 2. His cov'nant, which he kept in min.
 For num'rous ages past,

To num'rous ages yet behind, In equal force shall last.

3. He fware to Abraham and his feed, And made the bleffing fure; Gentiles the ancient promife read, And find his truth endure.

4. "Thy feed shall make all nations blest,"
(Said the Almighty voice)

" And Canaan's land shall be their rest,
" The type of heav'nly joys."

5. [How large the grant! how rich the grace! To give them Canaan's land,
When they were strangers in the place,
A little, feeble hand!

6. Like prigrims thro' the countries round
Securely they remov'd;
And haughty kings, that on them frown'd,
Severely he reprov'd.

7. " Touch mine anointed, and my arm
" Shall foon revenge the wrong;

* The man that does my prophets harm, "Shall know their God is strong."

8. Then let the world forbear its rage,

Nor put the Churth in fear:

If rael must live through every age,

And he th' Almighty's care.

PAUSE I.

 When Pharaoh dar'd to vex the faints, And thus provok'd their God, Moses was sent at their complaints, Arm'd with his dreadful rod.

 He call'd for darkness, darkness came Like an o'erwhelming flood;
 He made each lake, and every fream, A lake, a stream, of bleed.

- The gave the fight, and no forme flies the state of the whole country spread; which had frogs, in croaking armies, rife had bout the monarch's bed.
- Through fields, and towns, and palaces.

 The ten-fold vengeance flew:

 Locusts in fwarms devour'd their trees,

 And hall their cattle flew.
- 13. Then by an aagels's midnight firoke, The flower of Egypt died; The firength of ev'ry house was broke, Their glory and their pride.
- 14. Now let the world forbear its rage;
 Nor put the church in fear:
 Ifrael must ineethrough ev'ry age,
 And he th' Almighty's care.

PAUSE IL

- 15. Thus were the tribes from bondage freed, And left the hated ground; Egyptian fpoils supplied their need, Nor was one feeble found.
- 46. The Lord himself chose out their way,
 And mark'd their journies right;
 Gave them a leading cloud by day,
 A fiery guide by night
- 17 They thirst; and waters from the rock.
 In rich abundance flow,
 And following still the course they took
 Ran all the defert through.
- 18. O wond'rous fiream ! O bleffed type
 Of ever-flowing grace!
 So Christ our rock maintains out life
 Through all this wilderness.
- 19. Thus guarded by th' Almighty's hand.
 The chosen tribes possess

Canaan the rich, the promis'd land,
And there enjoy'd their rest.

20. Then let the world for lear its rage,
The church renounce her fear:
If and must have through every age,
And be th' Almighty's care.

PSALM CVI. 1-5. Firft Part.

Praife to God ; or Communion with Salnta.

- I. To God the great, the ever bleft,
 Let fongs of honour he addreft
 His mercy firm for ever frands;
 Give him the thanks his love demands.
 - 2. Who knows the wonders of thy ways?
 Who shall suith thy boundless praise?
 Blest are the fouls that fear thee still,
 And pay their duty to thy will.
- Remember what thy mercy did For Jacob's race, thy chefen feed; And with the fame falvation blefs The meaned supplicant of thy grace.
- 4. O may I be thy cribes rejoice,

 And and their triumphs with my voice!

 This is my glory, Lord, to be

 Join'd to thy faints, and near to thee.

PSALM CVI. 7, 8, 12—14, 43—48 Second Part.

Ifrael penifest and pardored; or, God's unsbangeable

I. COD of eternal love, And yet how oft did bracel prove

Thy confiancy of grace!

2. They faw thy wonders wrought,
And then thy praise they f 1 : ;

But foon thy works of pow'r forgot; And murmur'd with their tongue.

3. Now they believ'd his word, While rocks with rivers flow; Now with their lufts provok'd the Lord, And he reduc'd them low.

4. Yet when they mourn'd their faulte, He hearken'd to their groans, Brought his own cov'nant to his thoughts, And call'd them ftill his fons.

5. Their names were in his book, He fav'd them from their focs: Oft he chastis'o, but ne'er forfook The people that he chose.

6. Let Ifrael bless the Lord,
Who lov'd their ancient race;
And Christians join the solemn word,
Amen, to all their praise.

PSALM CVII. First Part.

Ifrael led to Ganaan, and Ghristians to beaven.

- 2. OlVE thanks to God; he reigns above,
 Kind are his thoughts, his name is love,
 His mercy ages past have known,
 And ages long to come shall own.
- 2. Let the redeemed of the Lord.
 The wonders of his grace record,
 Ifrael the nation whom he chose,
 And rescued from their mighty foes.
- 3. [When God's almighty arm had broke
 Their fetters and th' Egyptian yoke,
 They trac'd the defert, wand'ring round
 A wild and folitary ground.
- 4. There they could find no leading road, Nor city for a fix'd abode;

Nor food, nor fountain, to affrage Their burning thirst, or hunger's rage.]

- 5. In their distress to God they try'd,

 God was their Saviour and their guide;

 He led their march far wand'ring round,

 Twas the right path to Canaan's ground.
- 6. Thus when our first release we gain
 From fin's old yoke, and Satan's chain,
 We have this defert world to pass,
 A dang'rous and a tiresome place,
- 7. H: feeds and clothes us all the way,
 He guides our footsteps lest we stray,
 He guards us with a pow'rful hand,
 And brings us to the heav'nly land.
- 8. Oh let the faints wich joy record!

 The truth and goodness of the Lord!

 How great his works! how kind his ways!

 Let ev'ry tongue pronounce his praide.

PSALM CVII. Second Part.

Correction for fin, and release by prayer.

- I. FROM age to age exalt his name,
 God and his grace are still the fame;
 He fills the hungry foul with food,
 And feeds the poor with ev'ry good.
- 2. But if their hearts rebel and rife Against the God that rules the skies. If they reject his heav'nly word, And slight the counsels of the Lord;
- 3. He'll bring their spirits to the ground,
 And no deliv'rer shall be found;
 Laden with grief they waste their breath
 In darkness and the shades of death.

- 4. Then to the Lord they raife their cries, He makes the dawning light arife, And featters all that difinal shade, That hung so heavy round their head.
- 5. He cuts the bars of brafs in two.
 And lets the finiling prishers through,
 Takes off the load of guilt and grief,
 And gives the lab'ring foul relief
- 5. Oh may the fons of men record
 The wond'rous goodness of the Lord!
 How great his works! how kind his ways!
 Let ev'ry tongue pronounce his praise.

PSALM CVII. Third Part.

Intemperance purified and pardonel; or, & plulm for the glutton and drunkard.

- Y AIN man, on foolish pleasures bent,
 Prepares for his own purishment:
 What pains, what lothesome maladies
 From luxury and lust arise!
- The drunkard feels his vitals waste,
 Yet drowns his health to please his taste;
 "Till all his active pow'rs are lost,
 And fainting life draws near the dust.
- The glutton groans, and lothes to eat, His foul abhors delicious meat; Nature with heavy loads oppress Would yield to death to be rokes?
- 4. Behold the frighted finners by To Godfor help with earnest cry! He hears their groans, prolongs their breath, And faves them from approaching death.
- 5. No med'cines could effect the cure So quick, fo easy, or so sure:

The deadly fentence God repeals, He fends his fov'reign word and heals.

6. Oh may the fons of men record
The wond'rens goodness of the Lord!
And let their thankful off rings prove
How they adore their Maker's love.

PSALM CVII. Fourth Fart. Long Metre.

Deliveren e from shorms and Siprereck; or, The four-

- I. WOULD you beheld the works of God, His worders in the world abroad, Go with the mariners, and trace
 The unknown regions of the fees.
- 2. They leave their native theres behind, And felze the favour of the wind; "Till God command, and tempefts rife, That heave the ocean to the fkies.
- 3. Now to the heavins they mount amain, Now fink to dreadful deeps again; What firange affight young fallers leek. And like a fraggeoing drunkard reel!
- 4. When land is far, and death is nigh, Loft to all hope, to God they cry: His mercy licars their lond address, And fends falvation in diffress.
- 5. He bids the avines their wrath affuage, The furious waves forget their rage; Tis calm; and failors fmile to fee The haven where they wish'd to be.
- 6. Oh may the fons of men record
 The wond'rous goodness of the Lord!
 Let them their private off rings bring,
 And in the church his glory fing.

PSALM CVII. Fourth Part. Common Metre.

The mariners pfalm.

THY works of glory, mighty Lord,

- THY works of glory, mighty Lord, Thy wonders in the deeps, The fons of courage shall record, Who trade in floating ships.
- At thy command the winds arife, And fwell th' tow'ring waves;
 The men aftanish'd mount the skies, And sink in gaping graves.
- [Again they climb the watery hills, And plunge in deeps again;
 Each like a tottering drunkard reels, And finds his courage vain.
- Frighted to hear the tempest roar, They pant with flattering breath, And hopeless of the distant shore, Expect immediate death.]
- Then to the Lord they raife their cries, He hears their loud request,
 And orders filence through the skies,
 And lays the floods to rest.
- Sailors rejoice to loofe their fears,
 And fee the storm allay'd:
 Now to their eyes the port appears;
 There let their vows be paid.
- 7. 'Tis God that brings them fafe to land;
 Let stupid mortals know,
 That waves are under his command,
 And all the winds that blow.
- Oh that the fons of men would praise
 The goodness of the Lord!
 And those that see thy wond rous ways
 Thy wond rous love record.

PSALM CVII. Loft Part

Colonies planted; or, Nations bleft and punified,

A Pfalm for New-England

- L. WHEN God, provok'd with daring crimesy Scourges the madness of the times, He turns their fields to barren fand, And dries the rivers from the land.
- 2. His word can raife the fprings again, And make the wither'd mountains green, Send show'ry blessings from the skies, And harvess in the defert rife.
- (Where nothing dwelt but beafts of prey, Ormen as fierce and wild as they; He bids th' opereft and poor repair, And builds them towns and cities there.
- 4. They fow the fields, and crees they plant, Whose yearly fruit supplies their want; Their race grows up from fruitful flocks, Their wearth increases with their flocks.
- 5/I has they are bleft; but if they fin, He lets the beathen nations in, A favage crew invades their lands, Their princes die by barb'rous hands.
- 6. Their captive fons, expos'd to fcorn, Wander unpitled and forlorn: The country lies unfene'd, untill'd, And defolation fpreads the field.
- Yet if the humbled nation mourns, Again his dreadful hand he turns; Again he makes their cities thrive, And bids the dying churches live.
- 8. The rightcous with a joyful fenfe, Admire the werks of previdence;

And tongues of atheifts shall no more Blaspheme the God that faints adore.

9. How few with pious care record
These wondrous dealings of the Lord!
But wise observers still shall find
The Lord is holy, just, and kind

PSALM CVIII. Long Metic.

Praise to God for his care of the Church.

- A GAIN, my tongue, thy filence break,
 My heart, and all my powers, awake;
 My tongue, the glory of my frame,
 Awake, and fing Jehovah's name.
- 2. Ye Saints rejoice; ye nations hear; While I your Maker's prasse declare; High o'er the clouds his truth ascends; Through earth, through heaven, his grace extends.
- 3. O'er heaven exalted is his throne; In every world his glory thown; The church, he loves, his hand theil fave From death, and forrow, and the grave.
- 4. Ye kingdoms, hear his awful voice!
 "In Zion shall my heart rejoice;
 This hand shall all her foes dismay,
 And make their scattered strength a prey."
- 5. "Mine are the fons of Zion, nine Their glory, grace, and truth divise; My scepter sames in Judan's hands. And still my strength in Ephraim stands."
- 6. "My foes to ruin shall be given,
 The shame of earth, the scorn of heaven;
 Their eyes sha'l see my church prevail;
 Their strength shall shrink, their courage fail."
 - 7. O thou, beneath whose sovereign sway Nations, and worlds, in dust decay,

Though thy fweet smile has been withdrawn, Thine aid denied, thy presence gone;

- 8. Yet wilt thou still with love return;
 With duty teach our hearts to burn;
 Our dying graces, Lord, revive,
 And bid thy fainting children live.
- 9. Sive us from Le, and fear, and wee,
 From every in se, and every foe,
 And keip us boldly to contend,
 Falthood refift, and truth defend.

PSALM CIX. Ver. 1-5, 31.

Lows to enemies from the example of Christ.

- The giory is my fong a
 Though finners ip ak against thy grace
 With a blatphening tongue.
- When in the feet to it mortal man.
 Thy Son or earth was found,
 With creed fluid as falls and vain,
 They compand thin around.
- 3. Their mistris his compation move, Their pass is be fill partiald: They render harred for his love, And cell for his good.
- Their malier rag'd without a cause, Yet wish his dying breath,
 He pray'd fer murd'rers on his cross,
 And blest his fees in death.
- Lord, shall thy bright example shineln vain before my eyes?
 Give me a foul a-kin to thine;
 To love mine enemies.

6. The Lord shall on my side engage, and an And in my Saviour's name;
I shall defeat their pride and rage
Who slander and condemn.

PSALM CX. First Part. Long Metre.

Christ exalted and multitudes converted; or, The fac-

THUS the eternal Father spake
To Christ the Son; "Ascend and sibon
Many right-hand, 'till I shall make
Thy foes submissive at thy feet.

2. " From Zion shall thy word proceed,

- "Thy word, the sceptre in thy hand, "I's Shall make the hearts of webels bleed."
- " And bow their wills to thy commandi 18!
- 3. " That day shall show thy pow'r is great, "When saints shall slock with willing minds,

" And finners croud thy tempie-gate,

" Where holiness in beauty shines."

What a large vietry shall ensue!

And converts who thy grace obey,

Exceed the drops of morning dew.

PSALM CX, Second Part. Long Metre.

The kingdom and priesthood of Christ.

1. THUS the great Lord of earth and fea Spake to his fon, and thus he fwore

" Eternal shall thy priesthood be,

" And change from hand to hand no more."

2. " Aaron and all his fons must die :

" But everlasting life is thine,

"To fave for ever those that fly
"For refuge from the wrath divine."

- 3. " By me Melchisedek was made
 - " On earth a king and priest at once;
 " And theu, my heav'nly Priest, small plead,"
 - " And thou, my King, thalt rule my fons."
- 4. Jefus the priest ascends his throne, While counsels of eternal peace, Between the Father and the Son, Proceed with honour and success.
- 5. Through the whole earth his reign shall spread;
 And crush the pow'rs, that dare rebel;
 Then shall he judge the rising dead,
 And send the guilty world to hell.
- Though while he treads his glorious way, He drinks the cup of tears and blood, The fuff'rings of that dreadful day. Shall but advance him near to God.

PSALM CX. Common Metre.

Christ's kingdom and priestbook.

- 2. JESUS, our Lord, afcend thy throne,
 And near thy Father fit:
 In Zion shall thy pow'r be known,
 And make thy foes submit.
- What wonders shall thy gospel do!
 Thy converts shall surpass
 The num'rous drops of morning-dew
 And own thy sov'reign grace.
- God hath pronounc'd a firm decree;
 Nor changes what he fwore;
 - " Eternal shall thy priesthood be, "When Aaron is no more.
- 4. " Melchifedek, that wond'rous priest, " That king of high degree,
 - " That holy man who Abraham ble?
 " Was but a type of thee."

- Jefus our priest for ever lives, To plead for us above;
 Jefus our king for ever gives
 The bleshings of his love.
- 6. God shall exait his glorious head
 His lofty throne maintain
 And strike the pow'rs and princes dead
 Who date oppose his reign.

PSALM CXI. First Parti

The wijdom of God in his works.

- I. SONGS of immortal praise belong
 To my almighty God:
 He hath my heart, and he my tongue,
 To fpread his name abroad.
- 2. How great the works his hand hath wrought !
 How glorious in our fight!
 And men in ev'ry age have fought
 His wonders with delight.
 - 3. How most exact is nature's frame !

 How wife th' Eternal mind!

 His counfels never change the scheme

 That his first thoughts design'd.
- 4. When he redeem'd his chosen sons,
 He fix'd his cov'nant fure:
 The orders that his lips pronounce
 To endless years endure.
- 5. Nature and time, and earth and fkies,

 Thy heav'nly fkill proclaim:

 What shall we do to make as wife,

 But learn to read thy name?
- 6. To fear thy pow'r, to trust thy grace,
 Is our divinest skill;
 And he's the wifest of our race
 Who best obeys thy will.

PSALM CXI. Second Parti. The perfections of God.

EREAT is the Lord, his works of might Demand our nobleft longs: Let his affembled faints unite Their harmony of tongues.

2. Great is the mercy of the Lord, He gives his children food; And ever mindful of his word,

And ever mindful of his word, He makes his promife good.

3. His Son, the great Redeemer, came To feal his cov nant fure: Holy and reviend is his name, His ways are just and place.

4. They that would grow divisely wife, Must with his fear begin;
Our fairest proof of knowledge sies
In hating ev'ry fin.

PSALM CXIL As the 113th Pfalm.

The bleffings of the liberal man.

THAT man is bleft, who shands in awa Of God, and loves his facred law:
His feed on earth shall be renown'd;
His honfe, the feet of wealth, shall be
An inexhausted treafury,
And with successive honours crown'd.

2. His lib'ral favours he extend: To some he gives, to others lends: A gen'rous pity fish his saind: Yet what his charity impairs He saves by prusence in affairs, And thus he's just to all mankind.

3. His hands, while they his alms beflow'd, His glory's future harvest few'd: The fweet remembrance of the just, Like a green root, revives and hears A train of bleffings for his heirs, When dying nature sleeps in dust.

4. Beset with threat'ning dangers round,
Unmov'd shall he maintain his ground a
His conscience holds his courage up;
The soul that's fill'd with virtue's light,
Shines brightest in afflictions' night:
And sees in darkness beams of hope.

PAUSE.

5. [Ill tidings never can furprife, His heart, that fix'd on God relies, Though waves and tempests roar around; Safe on the rock he sits, and fees The shipweck of his enemies, And all their hope and glory drown'd.

6. The wicked shall his triumph see,
And gnash their teeth in agony,
To find their expectations crost,
To see their envy, pride and spite,
Sink down to everlasting night,
And all their names in darkness lost.

PSALM CXII. Long Metre.

The bleffings of the pious and charitable.

- I. THRICE happy man, who fears the Lord,
 Loves his commands, and trufts his word;
 Honour and peace his days attend,
 And bleffings to his feed defeend.
- 2. Compassion dwells upon his mind,
 To works of mercy still inclin'd;
 He lends the poor some present aid,
 Or gives them, not to be repaid.
- 3. When times grow dark, and tidings fpread That fill his neighbours round with dread,

His heart is arm'd against the fear, For God, with all his pow'r, is there.

- 4. His foul, well fix'd upon the Lord,
 Draws heav'nly courage from his word;
 Amidit the darking's light shall rife,
 To cheer his heart, and blefs his eyes.
- He hath dispers'd his alms abroad,
 His works are still before his God;
 His name on earth shall long remain,
 While envious sinners fret in vain.

PSALM CXII. Common Metre. Liberality rewarded.

- HAPPY is he that fears the Lord, And follows he commands, Wholends the poor without reward, Or gives with lib ral hands.
- As pity dwells within his break To all the fons of need;
 So God shall answer his request.
 With blefings on his feed.
- No evil tidings shall surprife His well established mind, His foul to God, his refuge, slies, And leaves his fears behind.
- 4. In times of general diffress
 Some beams of light shall shine,
 'To shew the world his righteousness,
 And give him peace divine.
- 5. His works of picty and love Remain before the Lord': Honour on earth and joys above Shall be his fore reward.

PSALM CXIII. Proper Tone.

The majesty and condescension of Gods

- I. YE that delight to ferve the Lord.
 The honours of his name record.
 His facted name for ever bleds.
 Where or the circling fun displays
 His rising beams, or fetting rays,
 Let lands and feas his pew'r confels.
- 2. Not time, nor nature's narrow rounds,

 Can give his vaft der inion bounds;

 The heavens are far below his height:

 Let no created greatnefs dare

 With our eternal God compare,

 Arm'd with his uncreated might.
- 3. He bows his clorious head to view What the bright holes of Angels do, And bends his care to mortal things; it is few reign hand exaits the poor, He takes the needy from the door, And makes them company for kings.
- 4. When childless families despair,
 He sends the besting of an heir.
 To refue their expiring name;
 The mother, withe thankful voice,
 Froclaims his praises, and her joys.
 Let every age advance his same.

PSAIM CXIII. Long Metre.

Co. fovereign and gratious.

- 1. YE forwards of th' almigher King. In so'ry age his prailes hing; Where'er the fun fi all tile or fet, The nations field his praise repeat.
- 2. Above the earth, beyond the sky, ... Stands his high throne of majefy; ...

Nor time nor place his pow'r restrain Nor bound his universal reign.

- Which of the fons of Adam date, Or Angels with their God compare? His glories how divinely bright, Who dwells in uncreated light!
- 4. Behold his love, he floops to view
 What faints above and angels do;
 And condefeends yet more to know
 The mean affairs of men below.
- s. From duft and cottages obscure
 His grace exalts all chambic poor;
 Gives them the beavar of his sons,
 And fits them for their heavily thence.
- 6. [A worded his creating voice. Can make the barren house rejoice; Though Sarah's theory years were pair, The promised ided is born at last.
- 7. With joy the mother views her for.

 And tells the worlders God his done:

 Furth may grow firstig when smite defrairs:

 Though nature fails, the prognile beam him.

FRALM CXIV.

Misseles attending I will i woney.

- THEN Used from Pharach's hand, Lift the proof symmt and his land, The tribes with checkful homege own Their King, and Judahavas his throne.
- 2. Acrofs the deep their journey lay;
 The deep divides to make them way;
 fordan beheld their march, at I field
 With backwar i current to his head.
- 3. The mountains shook like frighted sheep, Like lambs the little hillocks leap;

Not Sinai on her base could stand, Conscious of sov'reign pow'r at hand.

- 4. What pow'r could make the deep divide?
 Or Jordan backward roll his tide?
 Why did ye leap, ye little hills?
 And whence the fright that Sinai feels?
- Let ev'ry mountain, ev'ry flood
 Retire and know th' approaching God,
 The King of Ifrael, fee him here;
 Tremble thou earth, adore and fear.
- He thunders, and all nature mourns,
 The rock to flanding pools he turns;
 Flints fpring with fountains at his word.
 And fires and feas confefs the Lord.

PSALM CXV. First Metre.

The true God our Refuge; or, Idolatry reproced.

- NOT to ourselves, who are but dust.
 Not to ourselves is glory due;
 'Tis thine, great God, the only just,
 The only gracious, wise, and true.
- 2. Shine forth in all thy dreadful name;
 Why should a Heathen's haughty tongue
 Insult us, and, to raile our sname,
 Say, "Where's the God you've serv'd so long!"
- 3. The God we ferve maintains his throne Above the clouds, beyond the ikies, Through all the earth his will is done, He knows our groans, he hears our cries.
- 4. But the vain idels they adore
 Are senseless shapes of stone and wood;
 At best a mass of glitt'ring ore,
 A filver saint, or golden god.
- 3. [With eyes and ears, they carve their head; Deaf are their ears, their eyes are blind;

In vain are costly off rings made, ... And yows are leatter'd in the wind.

- Their feet were never made to move, Nor hands to fave when mortals pray; Mortals, that pay them fear or love, Seem to be blind and deaf as they.]
- 7. O Ifrael! make the Lord thy hope, Thy help, thy refuge and thy reft; The Lord shall build thy ruins up, And bless the people and the priest.
- The dead no more can fpeak thy praife;
 They dwell in filence and the grave;
 But we shall live to sing thy grace,
 And tell the world thy pow'r to fave.

Psalm CXV. Second Metre. As the new tune of the 50th Pfalm.

Popifo idolatry reproved.

A Pialm for the 5th of November.

- 1. NOT to our names, thou only just and true,
 Not to our worthless names is glory due:
 Thy pow'r and grace, thy truth and justice claim
 Immortal honeurs to thy fov'reign Name.
 Shine thro' the earth from heav'n thy bleft abode,
 Nor let the Heathensfay, And where's your God?
- 2. Heav'n is thy higher court: There Rands thy throne,

And through the lower worlds thy will is done; Earth is thy work; the heavensthy wildom spread; But fools adore the gods their hands have made; The kneeling crowd, with looks devout, beheld Their silver-saviours, and their saints of gold.

3. [Vain are those artful shapes of eyes and ears; The molten image neither sees nor hears; Their helpless hands and feet can never move; They have no speech, nor thought, nor pow'r, nor love;

Yet fottish mortals make their long complaints. To their deaf idols, and their moveless faints.

- 4. The rich have statues well adorn'd with gold;
 The poor, content with gods of coarser mould,
 With tools of iron, carve the senseless stock,
 Lopt from a tree, or broken from a rock:
 People and priest drive on the solemn trade,
 And trust the gods, that saws and hammers made.]
- 5. Be heav'n and earth amaz'd! 'Tis hard to fay
 Which are more supid, or their gods, or they.
 O Israel! trust the Lord; he hears and sees;
 He knows thy forrows, and restores thy peace;
 His worship does a theusand comforts yield;
 He is thy help, and he thine heav'nly shield.
- 6. O Zion! trust the Lord: Thy foes in vain
 Attempt thy ruin, and oppose his reign;
 Had they prevail'd, darkness had clos'd our days.
 And death and silence had forbid his praise;
 But we are sav'd, and live; let songs arife,
 And faints adore the God, that built the skies.

PSALM CXVI. First Part

Recovery from sickness.

- x. I LOVE the Lord; he heard my cries,
 And pitied ev'ry groan;
 Long as I live, when troubles rife,
 I'll haften to his throne.
 - 2. I love the Lord; he bow'd his ear, And chas'd my griefs away; Oh let my heart no more despair, While I have breath to pray!
 - 3. My flesh declin'd, my spirits sell, ... And I drew near the dead,

While inward pangs, and fears of hell Perplex'd my wakeful head.

4. " My God, I cried, thy fervant fave,
" Thou ever good and just;
" Thy pow'r can rescue from the grave,

" Thy pow'r is all my trust."

5. The Lord beheld me fore diffred, He bade my pains remove; Return, my foul, to God, thy reft,

For thou hast known his love.

6. My God hath sav'd my soul from death,
And dried my falling tears;
Now to his praise!'ll spend my breath,
And my remaining years.

PSALM CXVI. 12, &c. Second Part.

Vews made in trouble, paid in the church; or, public thanks for private deliverance.

WHAT shall I render to my God;
For all his kindness shown?
My feet shall visit thine abode,
My fongs address thy throne.

2. Among the faints that fill thine house My off rings shall be paid; There shall my zeal perform the vows My soul in anguish made.

3. How much is mercy thy delight,
Thou ever-bleffed God!
How dear thy fervants in thy fight!
How precious is their blood!

4. How happy all thy fervants are!

How great thy grace to me!

My life, which thou hast made thy care,

Lord, I devote to thee.

 Now I am thine, for ever thine, Nor shall my purpose move; Thy hand hath loos'd my bonds of pain, And bound me with thy love.

6. Here in thy courts I leave my vow, And thy rich grace record; Witness, ye faints, who hear me now. If I forfake the Lord

PSALM CXVII. Common Metre.

Praise to God from all nations.

- 1. O All ye nations, praife the Lord, Each with a different tongue; In ev'ry language learn his word, And let his name be fung.
- His mercy reigns thro' ev'ry land;
 Proclaim his grace abroad;
 For ever firm his truth shall stand:
 Praise ye the faithful God.

PSALM CXVII. Long Metre.

- TROM all that dwell below the skies
 Let the Creator's praise arise :
 Let the Redeemer's name be sung
 Thro' ev'ry land, by ev'ry tongue.
- 2. Eternal are thy mercies, Lord;
 Eternal truth attends thy word:
 Thy praise shall found from shore to shore,
 'Vill suns shall rise and set no more.

PSALM CXVII. Short Metre.

- R. THY name, almighty Lord,
 Shall found through distant lands;
 Great is thy grace, and fure thy word;
 Thy truth for ever stands.
 - 2. Far be thine honour spread, And long thy praise endure.

"Till morning light and evening shade Shall be exchang'd no more.

PSALM CXVIII. 6-15. First Part

Deliverance from a tumult.

1. THE Lord appears my helper now, Nor is my faith afraid; Whate'er the fons of earth may do, Since heav'n affords its aid.

2. "Tis fafer, Lord, to hope in thee, And have my God my friend, Than trust in men of high degree, And on their truth depend.

3. Like bees my foes befet me round,
A large and angry fwarm;
But I shall all their rage confound
By thine almighty arm.

4. 'Tis through the Lord my heart is firting; In him my lips rejoice; While his falvation is my fong, How cheerful is my voice!

Like angry bees they girt me round;
 When God appears, they fly:
 So burning thorns with crackling found,
 Make a fierce blaze, and die.

Joy to the faints, and peace belongs;
 The Lord protects their days:
 Let Ifrael tune immortal fongs
 To his almighty grace.

PSALM CXVIII. 17-21. Second Part.

Public praise for deliverance from death.

And rescued from the grave,

Now shall he live; (for none can die, If God resolve to save.)

52. Thy praife, more conftant than before, Shall fill his daily breath; Thy hand, that bath chaftis'd him fore, Defends him fill from death.

3. Open the gates of Zion now,
For we shall worship there,
The house where all the righteous go,
Thy mercy to declare.

Among th' affemblies of thy faints
 Our thankful voice we raife;
 There we have told thee our complaints,
 And there we speak thy praise.

PSALM CXVIII. Ver. 22, 23. Third Part.

Christ the foundation of bis Church.

BEHOLD the fure foundation Stone
Which God in Zion lays,
To build our heav'nly hopes upon,
And his eternal praife.

 Chosen of God, to sinners dear, How glorious is his name, Saints trust their whole salvation here, Nor shall they suffer shame.

The foolish builders, scribe and priest, Reject it with disdain: Yet on this Rock the church shall rest, And envy rage in vain.

What though the gates of hell withstood, Yet must this building rise; 'Tis thy own work, almighty God, And wond'rous in our eyes. PSALM CXVIII. 24, 25, 26. Fourth Part.

Hosana; the Lird's day; or, Christ's Refurrection and our fabration.

t. THIS is the day the Lord hath made,
He calls the hours his own.
Let heav'n rejoice, let earth be glad,
And praise surround the throne.

To-day he rose, and left the dead;
 And Satan's empire sell;
 To-day the saints his triumph spread,
 And all his wonders tell.

 Hofanna to th' anointed King, To David's holy Son:
 Help us, O Lord, descend, and bring Solvation from thy throne.

 Blest be the Lord who comes to men With messages of grace;
 Who comes in God his Father's name
 To save our finful race.

5. Hosanna in the highest strains The church on earth can raise; The highest heav'ts in which he reigns, Shall give him nobler praise.

PSALM CXVIII. 22, 27. Short Metre.

An Hasanna for the Lord's day; or, A new song of salvation by Christ.

 SEE what a living Stone
 The builders did refuse!
 Yet God hath built his church thereon in spite of envious Jaws.

2. The feribe and argry priest Reject thine only Son; Yet on this rock shall Zion rest, As the chief Corner-stone. 3. The work, O Lord, is thine, And wond'rous in our eyes; This day declares it all divine, This day did Jefus rife.

4. This is the glorious day
That our Redeemer made;
Let us rejoice, and fing, and pray;
Let all the church be glad.

5. Hofanna to the King
Of David's royal blood;
Blefs him ye faints; he comes to bring
Salvation from your God.

6. We blefs thy holy word Which all this grace difplays; And offer on thine altar, Lord, Our facrifice of praife.

PSALM CXVIII. 22, 27, Long Metre.

An hofanna for the Lord's day; or, a new fong of falvation by Christ.

- The Jewish builders did refuse;
 But God hath built bis church thereos,
 In spite of envy, and the Jews.
- 2. Great God! the work is all divine,
 The joy and wonder of our eyes;
 'This is the day that proves it thine,
 'The day that faw our Saviour rife.
- Sinners rejoice, and faints be glad;
 Hofanna! let his name be bleft;
 A thoufand honours on his head,
 With peace, and light, and glory reft!
- 4. In God's own name he comes to bring Salvation to our dying race;

Let the whole church address their King With hearts of joy, and songe of praise.

PSIALM CXIX.

I have collected and disposed the most useful verses of this Pfalm under eighteen different heads, and formed a divine song upon tach of them. But the verses are much transposed, to attain some degree of connection.

In some places instead of the words, law, commands, judgments, tylimonies, I have used gospel, word, green, truth, pranifes, to as more agreeable to the New Testament, and the common language of Christians; and it equally answers the design of the Pfalmist, which was to recommend the holy scriptures.

PSALM CXIX. First Part.

The Vistodies of Saints, and misery of Sinners

Ver. 1, 2, 3.

- B LEST are the undefil'd in heart, Whose ways are right and clean; Who never from thy law depart, But fly from ev'ry fin.
- Bleft are the men that keep thy word, And practife thy commands;
 With their whole heart they feek the Lord, And ferve thee with their hands.

Ver. 165.

 Great is their peace who love the law, How firm their fouls abide!
 Nor can a bold temptation draw Their fleady feet afide.

M 2

Ver. 6.

4. Then shall my heart have inward joy,
And keep my face from shame,
When all thy statutes I obey,
And honour all thy name.

Ver. 21, 118.

But haughty finners God will hate.
 The proud shall die accurst;
 The fons of falshood and deceit.
 Are trodden to the dust.

Ver. 119, 155.

Vile as the drofs the wicked are;
 And those that leave thy ways
 Shall fee falvation from afar,
 But never taste thy grace.

PSALM CXIX. Second Part.

Secret devotion and spiritual-mindedness; or, Constant converse with God.

Ver. 147, 55.

In thee, before the dawning light,
My gracious God, I pray;
I meditate thy name by night,
And keep thy law by day.

Ver. 81.

... My fpirit faints to fee thy grace, Thy promife bears me up; And, while falvation long delays, Thy word supports my hope.

Ver. 164.

Seven times a day I lift my hands, And pay my thanks to thee: Thy righteous providence demands Repeated praise from me.

Ver. 62.

4. When midnight darkness veils the skies, I call thy works to mind; My thoughts in warm devotion rise, And sweet acceptance find.

PSALM CXIX. Third Part.

Proficions of fincerity, repentance and obedience.

Ver. 57, 60.

1. THOU are my portion. O my God;
I Soon as I know thy way,
My heart makes hafte t' obey thy word,
And fuffers no delay.

Ver. 30, 14.

 I choose the path of heav'nly truth, And glory in my choice:
 Not all the riches of the earth Could make me fo rejoice.

3. The testimonies of thy grace, I set before mine eyes; Thence I derive my daily strength, And there my comfort lies.

Ver. 59.

4. If once I wander from thy path, I think upon my ways, Then turn my feet to thy commands, And trust thy pard'ning grace.

Ver. 94, 114.

5. Now I am thine, for ever thine, Oh fave thy fervant, Lord! Thou art my shield, my hiding-place, My hope is in thy word.

Ver. 112.

Thou hast inclin'd this heart of mine,
 Thy statutes to fulfil:
 And thus 'till mortal life shall end
 Would I perform thy will.

PSALM CXIX. Fourth Part. Instruction from scripture.

Ver. 9.

I. HOW shall the young secure their hearts,
And guard their lives from fin?
Thy word the choicest rules imparts
To keep the conscience clean.

Ver. 130.

2. When once it enters to the mind, It spreads such light abroad, The meanest fouls instruction find, And raise their thoughts to God.

Ver. 105.

Tis like the fun, a heav'nly light
 That guides us all the day:
 And through the dangers of the night,
 A lamp to lead our way.

Ver. 99, 100.

4. The men that keep thy law with care, .
And meditate thy word,
Grow wifer than their teachers are,
And better know the Lord.

Ver. 104, 113.

5. Thy precepts make me truly wife ;
I hate the finner's road;

I hate my own vain thoughts that rife, But love thy law my God.

Ver. 89, 90, 91.

- 6. [The starry heav'ns thy rule obey, The earth maintains her place: And thesethy servants night and day Thy skill and pow'r express.
- But still thy law and gospel, Lord, Have lessons more divine;
 Nor earth stands firmer than thy word, Nor stars so nobly shine.

Ver. 160, 140, 9, 116.

8. Thy word is everlafting truth;
How pure is ev'ry page!
That hely book shall guide our youth,
And well support our age.

PSALM CXIX Fifth Part.

Delight in foripture : or, the word of God develling in us.

Ver. 97.

1. O HOW I love thy holy law!
Tis daily my delight:
And thence my meditations draw
Divine advice by night.

Ver. 148.

My waking eyes prevent the day
 To meditate thy word:
 My foul with longing melts away
 To hear thy gofpel, Lord.

Ver. 3, 13, 54.

3. How doth thy word my heart engage ! How well employ my tongue ! And in my tirefome pilgrimage Yields me a heav aly fong.

Ver. 19, 103.

Am I a stranger, or at home,
'Tis my perpetual feast;
Not honey dropping from the combSo much allures the taste.

Ver. 72, 127.

5. No treasures so enrich the mind, Nor shall thy word be fold For loads of silver well refin'd, Nor heaps of choicest gold.

Ver. 28, 49, 175.

6. When nature finks, and fpirits droop.
Thy promifes of grace
Are pillars to support my hope,
And there I write thy praise.

PSALM CXIX. Sixth Pari.

Holiness and comfort from the award.

Ver. 128.

X. I ORD, I esteem thy judgments right,
And all thy statutes just;
Thence I maintain a constant fight
With ev'ry flatt'ring lust.

Ver. 97, 9.

2. Thy precepts often I furvey;
I keep thy laws in fight,
Through all the business of the day,
To form my actions right.

Ver. 62.

3. My heart in midnight filence cries, "How sweet thy comforts be;"

My thoughts in holy wonder rife, And bring their thanks to thee.

Ver. 162.

4. And when my spirit drinks her fill,
At some good word of thine,
Not mighty men that share the spoil
Have joys compar'd to mine.

PSALM CXIX. Seventh Part.

Imperfection of nature, and perfection of feripture.

Ver. 96. Paraphrased.

- If T all the heathen writers join,
 To form one perfect book,
 Great God! if once compared with thine,
 How mean their writings look!
- Not the most perfect rules they gave Could shew one fin forgiv'n,
 Nor sead a step beyond the grave;
 But thine conduct to heav'n.
- I've feen amend of what we call Perfection here below;
 How short the pow'rs of nature fall, And can no farther go.
- 4. Yet men would fain be just with God,
 By works their hands have wrought;
 But thy commands exceeding broad,
 Extend to every thought.
- In vain we boaft perfection here, While fin defiles our frame, And finks our virtues down fo far, They fearce deferve the name.
- 5. Our faith and love, and ev'ry grace, Fall far below thy word;

But perfect truth and righteousness Dwell only with the Lord.

PSALM CXIX. Eighth Part.

The word of God is the faints portion: or, The excellency and variety of scripture.

Ver. 111. Paraphrased.

- I. L ORD, I have made thy word my choice,
 My lafting heritage;
 There shall my noblest pow'rs rejoice,
 My warmest thoughts engage.
- 2. I'll read the histories of thy love, And keep thy laws in fight, While through thy promifes I rove, With ever fresh delight.
- 'Tis a broad land of wealth unknown, Where fprings of life arife, Seeds of immortal blifs are fown, And hidden glory lyes:
- 4. The best relief that mourners have; It makes our forrows blest; Our fairest hope beyond the grave, And our eternal rest.

PSALM CXIX. Ninth Part.

Defire of knowledge, or, The teaching of the Spirst with the word.

Ver. 64, 68, 18.

I. THY mercies fill the earth, O Lord,
How good thy works appear!
Open mine eyes to read thy word,
And fee thy wonders there.

Ver. 73, 125.

2. My heart was fashion'd by thy hand, My fervice is thy due, Oh make thy fervant understand The duties he must do!

Ver. 19.

 Since I'm a stranger here below, Let not thy path be hid;
 But mark the road my feet should go, And be my constant guide.

Ver. 26.

When I confest'd my wand'ring ways,
 Thou heard'st my soul complain;
 Grant me the teachings of thy grace,
 Or I shall stray again.

Ver. 33, 34.

 If God to me his statutes snew, And heav'nly truth impart, His work for ever I'll pursue, His law snall rule my heart.

Ver. 50, 71.

 This was my comfort when I bore Variety of grief;
 It made me learn thy word the more, And fly to that relief.

Ver. 31.

In vain the proud deride me now;
 I'll ne'er forget thy law,
 Nor let that bleffed gospel go,
 Whence all my hopes I draw.

Ver. 29, 171.

When I have learn'd my Father's will,
 I'll teach the world his ways;

My thankful lips inspir'd with zeal Shall loud pronounce his praise.]

PSALM CXIX. Tenth Part.

Pleading the Promifes.

Ver. 38, 49.

Remember and confirm thy word,

For all my hopes are there.

Ver. 41, 58, 107.

 Hast thou not writ salvation down, And promis'd quick'ning grace?
 Doth not my heart address thy throne? And yet thy love delays.

Ver. 123, 42.

Mine eyes for thy falvation fail
 Oh bear thy fervant up!

 Nor let the fcoffing lips prevail,
 Who dare reproach my hope.

Ver. 49, 74.

Didft thou not raife my faith, O Lord !
 Then let thy truth appear;
 Saints shall rejoice in my reward,
 And trust as well as fear.

PSALM CXIX. Eleventh Part

Breathing after bolinefs.

Ver. 5, 33.

To keep his flattites ftill!

Oh that my God would grant me grace

To know and do his will!

Ver. 29.

Oh fend thy Spirit down to write Thy law upon my heart! Nor let my tongue indulge deceit, Nor act the har's part.

Ver. 37, 36.

From vanity turn off my eyes; Let no corrupt defign, Nor covetous defires arife Within this foul of mine.

Ver. 133.

Order thy footsteps by my word, And make my heart sincere; Let sin have no dominion. Lord, But keep my conscience clear.

Ver. 176.

My foul hath gone too far aftray, My feet too often flip: Yet fince I've not forgot thy way, Restore thy wand'ring sheep.

Ver. 35.

 Make me to walk in thy commands, 'Tis a delightful road;
 Nor let my head, or heart, or hands, Offend against my God.

PSALM CXIX. Twelfth Part.

Breathing after comfort and deliverance.

Ver. 153.

MY God, confider my diftress, Let mercy plead my cause: Though I have sinn'd against thy grace, I can't forget thy laws.

Ver. 39, 116.

 Forbid, forbid the fharp reproach, Which I to juftly fear;
 Uphold my life, uphold my hopes, Nor let my fhame appear.

Ver. 122, 135.

 Be thou a furety, Lord, for me, Nor let the proud oppress;
 But make thy waiting fervant see The shinings of thy face.

Ver. 82.

My eyes with expectation fail
 My heart within me cries,
 When will the Lord his truth fulfil,
 And make my comforts rife?

Ver. 132.

J. Look down upon my forrows, Lord, And shew thy grace the same, As thou art eyer wont t'afford To those that love thy name.

> PSALM CXIX. Thirteenth Part. Holy fear, and tenderness of conscience.

> > Vcr. 10.

 WITH my whole heart I've fought thy fa Oh let me never stray
 From thy commands, O God of grace, Nor tread the finners way!

Ver. 11.

Thy word I've hid within my heart
 To keep my confcience clean,
 And be an everlafting guard
 From every rifing fin.

Vendy 7000

I'm a companion of the first Who fear and love the Lord My forows rife, me nature factor, When men transgress thy word

Ver. 161, 163

While finners do thy gospel wrong, My spirit stands in awe; My soul abhors a lying tongue, But loves thy righteous law.

Ver. 161, 120.

My heart with facred rev'rence hears
The threat'nings of thy word;
My flesh with holy trembling fears
The judgments of the Lord.

Ver. 166, 174.

My God, I long, I hope, I wait For thy falvation (till; While thy whole law is my delight, And I obey thy will.

PSALM CXIX. Fourteenth Part.

Benefit of afflictions, and support under them.

Ver. 153, 81, 82.

CONSIDER all my forrows, Lord, And thy deliv'rance fend; My foul for thy falvation faints; When will my troubles end?

Ver. 71.

yet I have found 'tis good for me To bear my Father's rod; Afflictions make me learn thy law, And live upon my God.

Ver. 50.

3. This is the comfort I enjoy
When new distress begins;
I read thy word, I run thy way,
And hate my former fins.

Ver. 92.

4. Had not thy word been my delight When earthly joys were fled, My foul, oppreft with forrow's weight, Had funk among the dead.

Ver. 75.

5. I know thy judgments, Lord, are right, Tho' they may feem fevere:
The sharpest suff'rings I endure
Flow fro a thy faithful care.

Ver. 67.

Before I knew thy chaft'ning rod
 My feet were apt to ftray;
 But now I learn to keep thy word,
 Nor wander from thy way.

PSALM CXIX. Fifteenth Part.

Holy refolutions.

Ver. 93.

1. OH that thy flatutes ev'ry hour Might dwell upon my mind! Thence I derive a quick'ning pow'r, And daily peace I find.

Ver. 15, 16.

2. To meditate thy precepts, Lord,
Shall be my fweet employ;
My foul shall ne'er forget thy word;
Thy word is all my joy.

Ver. 32.

3. How would I run in thy commands, Should'st thou my heart discharge From sin, and Satans hateful chains, And set my seet at large?

Ver. 13, 46.

My lips with courage shall declare
 Thy statutes and thy name;
 Pil speak thy word, though kings should hear,
 Nor yield to sinful shame.

Ver. 61, 69, 70.

c. Let bands of perfecutors rife To rob me of my right, Let price and malice forge their lies, Thy law is my delight.

Ver. 115.

6. Depart from me, ye wicked race Whose hands and hearts are ill: I love my God, I love his ways, And must obey his will.

PSALM CXIX. Sixteenth Part.

Prayer for quickening grace. Ver. 25. 37.

I. MY foul lies cleaving to the duft;
Lord give me life divine:
From vain defires and ev'ry luft
Turn off there eyes of mine.

2. I need the influence of thy grace To fpeed me in thy way, Left I should loiter in my race, Or turn my feet aftray.

Ver. 107.

3. When fore afflictions press me down,
I need thy quick'ning pow'rs;

Thy word that I have rested on Shall help my heaviest hours.

Ver. 156, 40.

4. Are not thy mercies fov'reign still
And thou a faithful God?
Wilt thou not grant me warmer zeal
To run the heav'nly road?

Ver. 159, 40.

5. Does not my heart thy precepts love, And long to fee thy face? And yet how flow my fpirits move, Without enliv'ning grace!

Ver. 93.

 Then shall I love thy gospel more, And ne'er forget thy word, When I have felt its quick'ning pow'r To draw me near the Lord.

PSALM CXIX. Seventeenth Part.

Courage and perseverance under persecution; or, Grace
Spining in difficulties and trials.

Ver. 143, 28.

I. WHEN pain and anguish seize me Lord,
All my support is from thy word:
My soul dissolves for heaviness,
Uphold me with thy strength'ning grace.

Ver. 51, 69, 110.

2. The proud have fram'd their fcoffs and lies,
They watch my feet with envious eyes,
And tempt my foul to fnares and fin,
Yet thy commands I ne'er decline.

Ver. 161, 78.

3. They hate me, Lord, without a caule, They hate to see me love thy laws;

But I will trust and fear thy name, 'Till pride and malice die with shame.

PSALM CXIX. Laft Parts

Sandified affections: or, Desight in the word of God.

- T. FATHER, I blefs thy gentle hand;
 How kind was thy chaffifing rod.
 That fore'd my confeience to a fland,
 And brought my wand ring foul to Ged!
- Foolish and vain I went astray,
 Ere I had felt thy scourges, Lord,
 I left my guide, and lost my way;
 But now I love and keep thy word.

Ver. 71.

'Tis good for me to wear the yoke.
 For pride is apt to rife and fwell:
 "Tis good to bear my Father's stroke.
 That I might learn his statutes well.

Ver. 72.

4. The law that iffues from thy mouth Shall raife my cheerful paffions more Than all the treasures of the South, Or Western hills of golden ore.

Ver. 73.

Thy hands have made my mortal frame.
 Thy Spirit form'd my foul within;
 Teach me to know thy wond rous name.
 And guard me fafe from death and fin.

Ver. 74.

6. Then all that love and fear the Lord At my falvation shall rejoice. For I have hoped in thy word And made thy grace my only choice.

PSALM CXX.

Complaint of quarrelfome neighbours; or, A decoust wish for peace.

- 1. THOU God of love, thou ever bleft,
 Pity my fuffring state;
 When wist theu set my soul at rest
 From lips that love deceit?
- 2. Hard lot of mine! my days are caft Among the fons of strife, Whose never-ceasing brawlings waste My golden hours of life.
- 3. Oh, might I fly to change my place, How would I choose to dwell In some wide, lonesome wilderness, And leave these gates of hell!
- 4. Peace is the bleffing that I feek;
 How lovely are its charms!
 I am for peace; but, when I fpeak,
 They all declare for arms.
- 5. New paffions still their fouls engage, And keep their malice strong, What shall be done to curb thy rage, O thou devouring tongue?
- 6. Should burning arrows finite thee through,
 Strict justice would approve;
 But I would rather spare my soe,
 And melt his heart with love.

PSALM CXXI. Long Metre.

Divine protection.

x. UP to the hills I lift mine eyes, Th' eternal hills beyond the skies; Thence all her help my foul derives; There my Almighty refuge live:

- He lives; the everlasting God,
 That built the world, that spread the flood;
 The heav'ns with all their hosts he made;
 And the dark regions of the dead.
- 3. He guides our feet, he guards our way; His morning-finiles blefs all the day: He spreads the evining veil, and keeps The filent hours while Ifrael sleeps.
- 4. Ifrael, a name divinely bleft;
 May rife secure, securely rest;
 Thy holy Guardian's wakeful eyes
 Admit no slumber, nor surprise.
- 5. No fun shall finite thy head by day; Nor the pale moon with fickly ray Shall blast thy couch; no baleful star Dart his malignant fire so far.
- 6. Should earth and hell with malice but, Still thou shalt go, and still return Safe in the Lord; his heav'nly care Defends thy life from ev'ry snare.
- On thee foul spirits have no pow'r;
 And in thy last, departing hour,
 Angels, that trace the airy road,
 Shall bear thee homeward to thy God.

PSALM CXXI. Common Metre.

Preservation by day and night.

- TO heav'n I lift my waiting eyes;
 There all my hopes are laid;
 The Lord, that built the earth and ikics,
 Is my perpetual aid.
- 2. Their feet shall never slide, nor fall, Whom he designs to keep;

His ear attends the foftest call; His eyes can never sleep.

- He will fustain our weakest pow'rs
 With his almighty arm,
 And watch our most unguarded hours
 Against surprising harm.
- Ifrael rejoice, and reft-fecure;
 Thy keeper is the Lord;
 His wakeful eyes employ his pow'r
 For thine eternal guard.
- Nor fcorching fun, nor fickly-moon, Shall have his leave to finite;
 He shields thy head from burning noon, From blasting damps at night.
- He guards thy foul, he keeps thy breath, Where thickest dangers come;
 Go and return, secure from death, "Till God command thee home.

PSALM CXXI. As the 148th Pfalm: God our preferent.

- The God that built the skies,
 And earth and nature made;
 God is the tow'r
 To which I sly;
 His grace is nigh
 In ev'ry hour.
- 2. My feet shall never slide,
 Nor fell in fatal fnares,
 Since God, my guard and guide,
 Defends me from my fears.
 Those wakeful eyes,
 That never sleep,
 Shall strael keep
 When dangers rife.

No burning heats by day, Nor blafts of evining air Shall take my health away, If God be with me there: Thou art my fun, And thou my fhade, To guard my head

By night or noon.

4. Haft thou not giv'n thy word
To fave my foul from death?
And I can trust my Lord
To keep my mortal breath.
I'll go and come,
Nor fear to die,
"Fill from on high
Thou call me home.

PSALM CXXII. Common Metre:

Going to Church.

- I. HOW did my heart rejoice to hear My friends devoutly fay,
 "In Zion let us all appear,
 "And keep the folenm day!"
- 2. I love her gates, I love the road:
 The church adorn'd with grace
 Stands like a palace built for God
 To shew his milder face.
- 3. Up to her courts with joys unknown
 The holy tribes repair;
 The Son of David holds his throne,
 And fits in judgment there.
- 4. He hears our praises and complaints!

 And while his awful voice

 Divides the finners from the faints,

 We tremble and rejoice.

5. Peace be within this facred place,
And joy a constant guest!
With holy gifts and heav'nly grace
Be her attendants blest!

6. My foul shall pray for Zion still,
While life or breath remains;
There my best friends, my kindred dwell;
There God, my Saviour, reigns.

PSALM CXXII. Proper Tune.

Going to Church.

1. HOW pleaf'd and bleft was I,
To hear the people cry,
Come, let us feek our God to-day:
Yes, with a cheerful zeal
We hafte to Zion's hill,
And there our yows and honours pay.

2. Zion, thrice happy place!
Adorn'd with word'rous grace,
And walls of firength embrace thee round:
In thee our tribes appear
To pray, and praife, and hear
The facred gospel's joyful found.

3. There David's greater Son Has fix'd his royal throne; He fits for grace and judgment there; He bids the faint be glad, He makes the finner fad, And humble fouls rejoice with fear.

4. May peace attend thy gate, And joy within thee wait To blefs the foul of ev'ry gueft; The man that feeks thy peace, And wifnes thine increase, A thousand bleffings on him reft4 5. My tongue repeats her vows;
"Peace to this facred house!"
For here my friends and kindred dwell;
And fince my glerious God
Makes thee his bleft abode,
My foul shall ever love thee well.

PSALM CXXIII.

Pleading with fubmiffion.

- Thou, whose grace and justice reign Enthron'd above the skies, To thee our hearts would tell their pain, To thee we lift our eyes.
- As fervants watch their mafter's hand, And fear the angry stroke;
 Or maids before their mistress stand, And wait a peaceful look:
- 3. So for our fins we justly feel
 Thy difcipline, O God;
 Yet wait the gracious moment still
 "Til thou remove thy rod.
- These, that in wealth and pleasure live, Our daily groans deride,
 And thy delays of mercy give Fresh courage to their pride.
- Our foes infult us, but our hope In thy compassion lies;
 This thought shall bear our spirits up, That God will not despite.

PSALM CXXIV.

A fong for public deliverance from great calamities.

I. HAD not the Lord, may Ifrael fay, Had not the Lord maintain'd our fide,

When men, to make our lives a prey, Rose like the swelling of the tide;

- The fwelling tide had fropt our breath, So fiercely did the waters roll, We had been fwallow'd deep in death; Proud waters had o'erwhelm'd our foul.
- 3. We leap for joy, we flout and fing, Who just escap'd the fatal stroke; So flies the bird with cheerful wing, When once the fowler's foure is broke.
- 4. For ever blessed be the Lord,
 Who broke the fow er's cursed snare,
 Who say'd us from the murd'ring sword.
 And made our lives and souls his care.
- 5. Our help is in Jehovah's name,
 Who form'd the earth, and built the tkies;
 He that upholds that wond'rous frame,
 Guards his own church with watchful eyes.

PSALM CXXV. Common Mitetre.

The faints trial and fafety.

- 2. UNSHAKEN as the facred hill, And fix'd as mountains be, Firm as a rock the foul shall rest That leans, O Lord, on thee.
- Not walls, not hills, could guard to well Old Salem's happy ground, As those eternal arms of love, That ev'ry faint furround.
- While tyrants are a finarting fcourge, To drive them near to God, Divine compassion still allays The fury of the rod.
- And lead them fafely on

To the bright gates of paradife, Where Christ, their Lord, is gone.

5. But if we trace those crooked ways
Which the old serpent drew,
The wrath that drove him first to hell
Shall smite his followers too.

PSALM CXXV. Short Metrc.

The faints trial and Safety; or, Moderated affillions.

1. I TRM and unmey'd are they
That rest their fouls on God;
Fix'd as the mount where David dwelt,
Or where the ark abode.

 As mountains flood to guard The city's facred ground,
 God and his almighty love Embrace his faints around.

3. What tho' the Father's rod
Drop a chaftifing ftroke,
Yet, left it wound their fouls too deep.
Its fury fhal. be broke.

4. Deal gently, Lord, with those Whose faith and pious sear, Whose hope and love, and ev'ry grace, Proclaim their hearts sincere.

 Nor shall the tyrant's rage Too long oppress the faint;
 The God of Israel will support His children, left they faint.

6. But if our flavish fear Will chuse the road to hell, We must receive our portion there, Where bolder sunners dwell.

PSALM CXXVI. Long Metre.

Surprizing deliverance.

Joy was our fong, and grace our theme;

A grace beyond our hopes fo great, That joy appear'd a painted dream.

2. The fcoffer owns thy hand, and pays Unwilling honours to thy name; While we with pleafure thout hy praise, With cheerful notes thy love proclaim.

- 3. When we review'd our difmal fears,
 'Twas hard to think they'd vanish'd to;
 With God we left our flowing tears,
 He makes our joys like rivers flow.
- 4. The man, that in his furrow'd field, His featter'd feed with fadness leaves, Will shout to fee the harvest yield A welcome load of joyful sheaves.

Paalm CXXVI. Common Metre.

The joy of a remarkable conversion; or, Melancholy removed.

- x. WHEN God reveal'd his gracious name, And chang'd my mournful state,
 My rapture seem'd a pleasant dream,
 The grace appear'd so great.
- The world beheld the glorious change, And did thy hand confess;
 My tongue broke out in unknown firains, And fung furprizing grace.
- 3. "Great is the work," my neighbours cried, And own'd thy pow'r divine;

"Great is the work," my heart replied,

" And be the glory thine."

300

- 4. The Lord can clear the darkeft fkics, Can give us day for night; Make drops of facted forrow rife To rivers of delight.
- 5. Let those that sow in fadness wait.
 "Till the fair harvest come;
 They shall confess their sheaves are great.
 And shout the bleffings home.
- 6. Though feed lie buried long in dust, it shan't deceive their hope!

 The precious grain can ne'er be lost, For grace insures the crop.

PSALM CXXVII. Long Metre.

The bleffing of God on the bufness and comforts of life

- I. If God faceced not, all the cost
 And pains to build the house are lost;
 If God the city will not keep,
 The watchful guards as well may sleep.
- a. What though you rife before the fun,
 And work and toil when day is done,
 Careful and fparing car your bread,
 To thun that poverty you dread;
- 'Tis all in vain, 'till God hath bleft; He can make rich, yet give us reft; Children and friends are bleffings too, If God, our fov'reign, make them fo.
- 4. Happy the man to whom he fends Obedient children, faithful friends; How fweet our faily comforts prove When they are feafon'd with his love!

PSALM CXXVII. Common Metre.

God all in all.

1. If God to build the house deny, The builders work in vain;

And towns, without his wakeful eye, An ufeless watch maintain.

- Before the morning-beams arife, Your painful work renew, And 'till the stars afcend the stress Your tirefome toil pursue.
- Short be your fleep, and coarse your fare;
 In vain, till God has blest;
 But if his smiles attend your care,
 You shall have food and rest.
- Nor children, relatives, nor friends, Shall real bleffings prove,
 Nor a lithe earthly joys he fends,
 If fent without his love.

PSALM CXXVIII.

Family bloffing .

- 1. O HAPPY man, whose soul is fill'd With zeal and rev'rend awe!
 Whose lips to God their honours yield,
 Whose life adorns the law.
- A careful providence shall stand, And ever guard thy head, Andon the labours of thy hand Its kindly blessings shed.
- Thy wife shall be a fruitful vine;
 Thy children round thy board,
 Each like a plant of honour shine,
 And learn to fear the Lord.
- 4. The Lord shall thy best hopes fulfil For months and years to come; The Lord who dwells on Zion's hill Shall send the bleffings home.
- 5. This is the man whose happy eyes Shall see his house increase,

Shall fee the finking church arise, And leave the world in peace.

PSALM CXXIX.

Persecutors punished.

- I. UP from my youth, may Ifrael fat.
 Have I been nurs'd in tears;
 My griefs were conftant as the day,
 And tedious as the years.
- 2. Up from my youth libore the rage, Of all the lons of ftrife; Oft they affail'd my riper age, But not destroy'd my life.
- Their cruel plough had torn my flesh,
 With furrows long and deep,
 Hourly they vex'd my wounds afresh,
 Nor let my forrows sleep.
- The Lord grew angry on his throne, And with impartial eye,
 Meafur'd the mifchiefs they had done, Then let his arrows fly.
- How was their infolence furpriz'd,
 To hear his thunders roll!
 And all the foes of Zion feiz'd
 With horror to the foul.
- 6. Thus shall the men that hate the faints,
 Be blasted from the sky;
 Their glory sades, their courage faints,
 And all their projects die.
 - [What though they flourish tall and fair,
 They have no reet beneath;
 Their growth shall perish in despair,
 And lie despis'd in death.]
 - 8. [So corn, that on the house-top stands, No hope of harvest gives;

The reaper ne'er shall fill his hands, Nor binder fold the sheaves:

9. It fprings and withers on the place;
No traveller beftows
A word of bleffing on the grass,
Nor minds it as he goes.

PSALM CXXX. Common Metre.

Pardoning grace.

- Y. OUT of the depths of long diffress, The borders of despair, I sent my cries to seek thy grace, My grouns to move thine ear.
- 2. Great God! fhould thy feverer eye.
 And thine imparrial hand,
 Mark and revenge iniquity,
 No mortal fielh could frand.
- 3. But there are pardons with my God
 For crimes of high degree;
 Thy Son has bought them with his blood,
 To draw us near to thee.
- 4. [I wait for thy falvation, Lord, With strong defires I wait; My foul, invited by thy word, Stands watching at thy gate.]
- 5. [Just as the guards that keep the night
 Long for the morning skies,
 Watch the first beams of breaking light,
 And meet them with their eyes:
- So waits my foul to fee thy grace, And, more intent than they, Meets the first op'nings of thy face, And finds a brighter day.]
- 7. Then in the Lord let Ifrael trust; Let Ifrael seek his face;

The Lord is good as well as just, And plenteous in his grace.

There's full redemption at his throng
For finners long enflav'd;
 The great Redeemer is his Son;
 And Ifrael shall be fav'd.

PSALM CXXX. Long Metre.

Pardoning graces

- 2. FROM deep diffress and troubled thoughts,
 To thee, my God, I rais'd my cries:
 If thou severely mark our faults,
 No flesh can stand before thine eyes.
- 2. But thou hast built thy throne of grace, Free to dispense thy pardons there, That sinners may approach thy face, And hope, and love, as well as sear.
- 3. As the benighted pilgrims wait, And long and wish for breaking day, So waits my foul before thy gate; When will my God his face display?
- 4. My trust is fix'd upon thy word, Nor shall trust thy word in vain; Let mourning souls address the Lord, And find relief from all their pain.
- 5. Great is his love, and large his grace, Through the redemption of his Son; He turns our feet from finful ways, And pardons what our hands have done.

PSALM CXXXI.

Humility and Submission.

I. Is there ambition in my heart? Search, gracions God, and lee;

Or do I act a haughty part? Lord, I appeal to thee.

- I charge my thoughts, be hamble still, And all my carriage mild, Content, my Father, with thy will, And quiet as a child.
- The patient foul, the lowly mind Shall have a large reward:
 Let faints in forrow lie refign'd And truft a faithful Lord.

PSALM CXXXII. 5, 13-18. Long Metre.

At the settlement of a church; or, The ordination of a Minister.

- Y. WHERE shall we go, to seek and find A habitation for our God, A dwelling for th' eternal Mind Among the sons of slesh and blood?
- 2. The God of Jacob chose the hill Of Zion for his ancient rest; And Zion is his dwelling still, His church is with his presence blest.
- 3. Here will I fix my gracious throne, And reign for ever faith the Lord; Here shall my pow'r and love be known, And blessings shall attend my word.
- A. Here will I meet the hungry poor, And fill their fouls with living bread; Sinners that wait before my door With fweet provision shall be fed.
- Girded with truth, and cloth'd with grace, My priefts, my ministers shall shine: Not Aaron, in his costly dress Made an appearance so divine.

- The faints unable to-contain
 Their inward joy shall shout and sing;
 The Son of David here shall reign
 And Zion triumph in her King.
- [Jefus shall fee a num'rous feed Born here, t' uphold his glorious name; His crown shall flourish on his head, While all his foes are cloth'd with shame.

PSALM CXXXII. 4, 5, 7, 8, 15-17. Com. Met.

A church established.

- z. [N O fleep nor flumber to his eyes
 Good David would afford,
 'Till he had found below the flees
 A dwelling for the Lord.
- The Lord in Zion plac'd his name, His ark was fettled there:
 To Zion the whole nation came, To worthip thrice a year.
- But we have no fuch lengths to go, Nor wander far abroad;
 Where er thy faints aftemble now There is a house for God.

Parist.

- 4. Arife, O King of grace, arife,
 And enter to thy reft,
 Lo! thy church waits with longing eyes,
 Thus to be own'd and bleft.
- Enter with all thy glorious train, Thy Spirit and thy word: All that the ark did once contain Could no fuch grace afford.
- 6. Here, mighty God! accept our vows, Here let thy praise be spread;

Bless the provisions of thy house, And fill thy poor with bread.

- 7. Here let the Son of David reign, Let God's Anointed fine; Juftice and truth his court maintain, With love and pow'r divine.
- Here let him hold a lafting throne, And as his kingdom grows,
 Fresh honours shall adorn his crown, And shame confound his foes.

PSALM CXXXIII. Common Metre.

Brotherly love.

- L O, What an entertaining fight Are brethren that agree, Brethren, whose cheerful hearts unite, In bands of piety!
- 2. When streams of love from Christ, the spring, Descend to every foul, And heav'nly peace with balmy wing Shades and bedews the whole:
- 3. 'Tis like the oil divinely fweet On Aaron's rev'rend head; The trickling drops perfum'd his feet, And o'er his garments fpread.
- 4. 'Tis pleasant as the morning dews That fall on Sion's hill, Where God his mildest glory shews, And makes his grace distil.

PSALM CXXXIII. Short Metre.

Communion of faints; or, Love and Worship in a Family.

x. BLEST are the fons of peace, Whose hearts and hopes are one,

Whose kind designs to serve and please Thro' all their actions run.

2. Bleft is the pious house
Where zeal and friendship meet,
Their songs of praise, their mingled vows
Make their communion sweet.

3. Thus when on Aaron's head They pour the rich perfume, 'he oil through all his raiment spread, And pleasure fill'd the room.

4. Thus, on the heavenly hills The faints are bleft above, Where joy like morning dew diffils, And all the air is leve.

. PSALM CXXXIII. As the 122d Pfalm

The b'effings of Friendship.

a. HOW pleasant 'tis to see

Kindred and friends agree.

Each in his proper station move,

And each fulfil his part

With sympathiung heart,

In all the cares of life and love.

2. 'Tis like the ointment shed
On Aaron's sacred head,
Divinely rich, divinely sweet;
The oil thro' all the room
Diffus'd a choice persume,
Ran thro' his robes, and blest his feet,

3. Like fruitful fhowers of rain
That water all the plain,
Defcending from the neighbouring hills;
Such streams of pleasure roll
Thro' every friendly soul,
Where love like heavenly dew distils.

Repeat the first Stanza to complete the Tune-

PSALM CXXXIV:

Daily and Nightly devotion.

- r. YE that obey th' immortal King,
 Atend his holy place;
 Bow to the glories of his power,
 And blefs his wondrous grace.
- Lift up your hands by morning light,
 And fend your fouls on high;
 Raife your admiring thoughts by night
 Above the starry sky.
- 3. The God of Sion cheers our hearts,
 With rays of quickening grace;
 The God that fpread the heavens abroad
 And rules the swelling seas.

PSALM CXXXV. 1-4, 14, 19-21. First Part. Long Metre.

The Church is God's House and Care.

- 1. PRAISE ye the Lord exalt his name,
 While in his earthly courts ye wait,
 Ye faints that to his house belong,
 Or stand attending at his gate.
- Praise ye the Lord, the Lord is good;
 To praise his name is sweet employ:
 Is all the chose of old, and still
 His church is his peculiar joy.
- 3. The Lord himself will judge his saints;
 He treats his servants as his friends:
 And when he hears their fore complaints,
 Repents the forrows that he fends.
- 4. Through every age the Lord declares
 His name, and breaks th' oppressor's red;
 He give his suffering fervants rest,
 And will be known th' Almighty God.

PSALM CXXXXV.

People and Priefts evalt has have.

Among his faints he ever the His church is his jerufalett.

PSALM CXXXV. 5-1 . COST FAM.

The works of creation, providence, release to fine

- REAT is the Lord, exalted here.

 Above all pow'rs and ev'r, threse Whate'er he pleas'd in earth or fea,

 Or heav'n, or hell, his hand hath done.
- 2. At his command the vapours rife,
 The lightnings flash, the thunders roar;
 He pours the rain, he brings the wind,
 And tempest from his airy store.
- Twas he those dreadful tokens fent,
 Egypt, thro' thy stubborn land;
 When all thy first-born, beasts and men,
 Fell dead by his avenging hand.
- 4. What mighty nations, mighty kings
 He flew, and their whole country gave
 To Ifrael, whom his hand redeem d,
 No more to be proud Pharoah's flave.
- 5. His pow'r the fame, the fame his grace, That faves us from the hofts of hell: And heav'n he gives us to posses, Whence these apostate angels fell.

PSALM CXXXV. Common Metre.

Praise due to God, not to Idels.

A WAKE, ye faints, to praife your King Your fweetest passions raise, Your pious pleasure, while you fing, Increasing with the praise.

2. Great is the Lord; and works unknown
Are his divine employ:

But still his faints are near his throne, His treasure and his joy.

- 3. Heav'n, earth and fea, confess his hand;
 He bids the vapours rise;
 Light'ning and storm at his command.
 Sweep thro' the sounding skies.
- 4. All pow'r, that gods or kings have claim'd, ... Is found with him alone;
 But Heathen-gods should ne'er be nam'd
 Where our Jehovah's known.
- 5. Which of the flocks or flones they truft
 Can give them flow'rs of rain?
 In vain they worship wood or dust.
 And pray to gold in vain.
- 6. [Their gods have tongues that cannot talk; Such as their makers gave; Their feet were ne'er defign'd to walk, Nor hands have pow'r to fave.
- Blind are their eyes, their ears are deaf, Nor hear when mortals pray;
 Mortals, that wait for their relief, Are blind and deaf as they.]
- O Zion, trust the living God, Serve him with faith and fear;
 He makes thy courts his blest abode, And claims thine honours there.

PSALM CXXXVI. Common Metre

- God's awonders of creation, providence, redemption

 If rael, and Salvation of his people...
- x. GIVE thanks to God, the fov'reign Lord,

And be the King of kings ador'd, " His truth is eyer fure."

2. What wonders hath his wisdom done!

" How mighty is his hand !" Heav'n, earth and fea, he fram'd alone :

" How wide is his command!"

3. The fun supplies the day with light : " How bright his counsels shine !" The moon and Aars adorn the night: " His works are all divine."

4. [He struck the sons of Egypt dead : " How dreadful is his rod !" And thence with joy his people led ::

" How gracious is our God !"

5. He eleft the fwelling fea in two; " His arm is great in might ;" And gave the tribes a paffage through; " His pow'r and grace unite."

6. But Pharaoh's army there he drown'd; " How glorious are his ways !" And brought his faints through defert ground:

" Eternal be his praise."

7. Great monarchs fell beneath his hand; " Victorious is his fword;" While Ifrael took the promis'd land: " And faithful is his word."]

3. He faw the nations dead in fin : " He felt his pity move :" How fad the state the world was in! " How boundless was his love!"

q. He fent to fave us from our woe; " His goodness never fails;" From death, and hell, and ev'ry foe; " And still his grace prevails."

ro. Give thanks to God the heav'nly king;
"His mercies still endure,"

Let the whole earth his praises sing;
"His truth is ever sure."

PSALM CXXXVI. As the 148th Pfalm.

- I. O IVE thanks to God most high,
 The universal Lord;
 The fov'reign King of kings;
 And be his grace ador'd.
 - " His pow'r and grace
 - " Are still the same ;
 - " And let his name " Have endless praise.
 - 2. How mighty is his hand! What wonders bath he done! He form'd the earth and feas, And spread the heav'ns alone.
 - "Thy mercy, Lord, "Shall fill endure:
 - " And ever fure
 - " Abides thy word.
 - 3. His wifdom fram'd the fun To crown the day with light; The moon and twinkling stars, To cheer the darkfome night.
 - " His pow'r and grace
 - " Are still the same;
 - " And let his name
 - " Have endless praise.
 - 4. [He fmote the first-born sons, The flow'r of Egypt, dead; And thence his chosen tribes With joy and glory led.
 - " Thy mercy, Lord,
 - " Shall still endure; " And ever fure
 - " Abides thy word,

: His pow's and lifted rod Cleft the red-fea in two; And for his people made A wond'rous saffage through,

" His pow'r and grace

- " Are ftill the fame .
- " And let his name
- " Have endless praise.
- 6. But cruel Pharaoh there
 With all his hoft he drown'd,
 And brought his Ifrael fafe
 Through a long defert ground.
 - " Thy mercy. Lord,
 - " Shall ftill endure ;
 - " And ever fure " Abides thy word.

PAUSE.

- The kings of Canaan fell Beneath his dreadful hand;
 While his own fervants took Poffeil on of their land.
 - " His pow'r and grace
 - " Are still the same; " And let his name
 - " Have endless praise.]
 - He faw the nations lie All perishing in fin, And pitied the fad state The ruin'd world was in.
 - " Thy mercy, Lord,
 - " Shall still endure;
 - " And ever fure
 " Abides thy word.
 - He fent his only Son To fave us from our woe,

From Satan, fin, and death, And ev'ry hurtful foe.

" His pow'r and grace " Are feill the fame :

" And let his name

" Have endless praise.

To. Give thanks aloud to God, To God the heav'nly King; And let the spacious earth His works and glories fing.

" Thy mercy, Lord, " Shall still endure ;

" And ever fure

" Abides thy word.

PSALM CXXXVI. Abriged. Long Metre.

GIVE to our God immortal praise:

Mercy and truth are all his ways; " Wonders of grace to God belong,

" Repeat his mercies in your fong.

2. Give to the Lord of lords renown, The King of kings with glory crown:

" His mercies ever shall endure

" When lords and kings are known no more.

3. He built the earth, he fpread the fky, And fix'd the starry lights on high :

" Wonders of grace to God belong, " Repeat his mercies in your fong.

4. He fills the fun with morning light, He bids the moon direct the night : " His mercies ever shail endure.

" When funs and moons shall shine no mores

5. The Jews he freed from Pharaoh's hand, And brought them to the promis'd land ; " Wonders of grace to God belong,

"Repeat his mercies in your fong.

6. He faw the Gentiles dead in fin, And felt his pity work within:

" His mercies ever shall endure,

- " When death and fin shall reign no more.
- 7. He fent his Son with pow'r to fave From guilt, and darknefs, and the grave :

" Wonders of grace to God belong,

- " Repeat his mercies in your fong.
- 3. Through this vain world he guides our feet, And leads us to his heav'nly feat :

" His mercies ever shall endure.

" When this vain world faall be no more.

PSALM CXXXVII. Long Metre. Fire Particular

The forrows of Ifrael in the Baly onifb Captivity.

- T. DY Babel's streams the Captives fate, D And wept for Zion's haples fate; Useless, their harps on willows hung While foes requir'd a facred fong.
- 2. With taunting voice, and scornful eve,
 - " Sing us a fong of heaven," they cry. " While foes deride our God, and King,
 - " How can we tune our harps or fing?"
- 3. " If Zion's woes our hearts forget,
 - " Or ceafe to mourn for Ifrael's fate,
 - " Let ufeful skill our hands forfake : " Our hearts with hopeless forrow break."
- 4. " Thou, ruin'd Salem, to our eyes

" Each day in fad remembrance rife !

- " Should we e'er cease to feel thy wrongs,
- " Lost be our joys, and mute our tongues.
- 5. " Remember, Lord, groud Edom's fons,

" Who cried, exulting at our groans, " While Salem trembled to her base,

" Rase them; her deep soundations rase."

- 6. While thus they fung, the mourners view'd;
 Their foes by Cyrus' arm fabdued,
 And faw his glory rife, who fpread
 Their fareets, and fields, with hosts of dead.
- Pleas'd, they forefaw the bleft decree,
 That fet their tribes from bondage free,
 Renew'd the temple, and reftor'd
 The facred worship of the Lord.

PSALM CXXXVII. Second Part. Long Metre.

The Church's Complaint.

- L ORD, in these dark and dismal days,
 We mean the hidings of thy face.;
 Proud enemies our path surround,
 To level Zion with the ground.
- Her fongs, her wership, they deride,
 And his thy word with tongues of pride,
 And cry, t' infult our humble prayer,
 "Where is your God, ye Christians, where?"
 - 3. Frrors, and fins, and follies grow;
 Thy faints bow down in deepeft woe;
 Their love decays, their zeal is o'er,
 And thousands walk with Christ no more.
- 4. To happier days our bosoms turn;
 Those days but teach us how to mourn:
 The God, who bade his mercy flow,
 In wrath withdraws his bleffing now.
- The bleffing from thy truth's withdrawn;
 Its quickening, faving influence gone:
 Unwarn'd, unwaken'd, finners hear;
 Nor fee their awful danger near.
- In dews unfeen, or feanty showers,
 Thy spirit shed his healing powers;
 The thirsty ground is parch'd beneath,
 And all is barrenness, and death.

- Yet faill, thy name be ever bleft,
 On thee our hope shall safely rest;
 Zion her Cyrus soon shall see
 Array'd to set his strael free.
- Jefus, with vengeance arm'd, fhall come To crush his foes, and feal their doom, The mystic Babel whelm in dust, Her pomp, her idols, power and trust.
- Then shall thy faints exuit, and sing ;
 The matchless glories of their King;
 Nations before his citar bend,
 And peace from realm to realm extend.

PSALM CXXXVII. Short Metre. Third Part-

Leve to the Church.

I. I LOVE thy kingdom, Lord,
The house of thine abode,
The church, our blest Redeemer say'd
With his own precious blood.

2. I love thy Church, O God! Her walls before thee fland, Dear as the apple of thine eye, And graven on thy hand.

If e'er to blefs thy fons
 My voice, or hands, deny,
 Thefe hands let ufeful skill forfake,
 This voice in filence die.

4. If e'er my heart forget Her we'fare, or her wos, Let every joy this heart forfake, And every grief o'erflow.

5. For her my tears shall fall; For her my prayers ascend; To her my cares and toils be given, 'Till toils and cares shall end. Beyond my highen joy

 I prize her heavenly ways,

 Her fweet communion, folemn vows,

 Her hymns of love and praife.

7. Jefus, thon Friend divine, Our Saviour, and our King, Thy hand from every fnare and foe Shall great deliverance bring.

8. Sure as thy truth shall last,
To Zion shall be given
The brightest glories, earth can yield,
And brighter bliss of heaven.

PSALM CXXXVIII.

Restoring and preserving grace.

- [1. WITH all my pow'rs of heart and tongue I'll praife my Maker in my fong: Angels shall hear the notes I raife, Approve the fong, and join the praife.
- Angels that make thy church their care, Shall witness my devotion there; While holy zeal directs mine eyes To thy fair temple in the skies.]
- I'll fing thy truth and mercy, Lord, I'll fing the wonders of thy word; Not all thy works and names below So much thy pow'r and glory show.
- 4. To God I cried when troubles rofe;
 He heard me, and fubdu'd my foes;
 He did my rifing fears controul,
 And ftrength diffus'd through all my foul.
- 5. The God of heav'n maintains his state,
 Frowns on the proud, and scorns the great:
 But from his throne descends, to see
 The sons of humble poverty.

- Amidft a thoufand finares I fland, Upheld and guarded by thy hand; Thy words my fainting foul revive, And keep my dying faith alive.
- Grace will compleat what grace begins, To fave from forrows and from fins: The work, that wifdom undertakes, Eternal mercy ne'er forfakes.

PSALM CXXXIX. First Part. Long Metre.

The all-feeing God.

- L ORD, thou hast fearch'd and feen me through,
 Thine eye commands with piercing view
 My rifing and my resting hours,
 My heart and flesh with all their pow'rs.
- My thoughts, before they are my own, Are to my God diffinelly known; He knows the words I mean to fpeak, Ere from my op'ning lips they break.
- Within thy circling pow'r I fland;
 On ev'ry fide I find thy hand:
 Awake, afleep, at home, abroad,
 I am furrounded fill with God.
- 4. How awful is thy fearching eye!
 Thy knowledge, O how deep! how high!
 My foul, with all the pow'rs I beaft
 Is in the boundless prospect lost.
- 5. " Oh may these thoughts possess my breast,
- " Where'er I rove, where'er I rest !
 - " Nor let my weaker paffions dare
 - " Confent to fin, for God is there."

PAUSE I.

Could I fo false, fo faithless prove,
 To quit thy service and thy love,

- Where, Lord, could I thy presence shun, Or from thy dreadful glory run?
- 7. If up to heav'n I take my flight,
 "Tis there thou dwell'st enthron'd in light;
 Or dive to hell, there vengeance reigns,
 And Satan groans beneath thy chains.
- If mounted on a morning ray
 I fly beyond the Western Sea,
 Thy swifter hand would first arrive,
 And there arrest thy sugitive.
- Or should I try to shun thy sight Beneath the spreading veil of night, One glance of time, one piercing ray, Would kindle darkness into day.
- 1Q. " Oh may these thoughts pessels my break,
 - " Where'er I rove, where'er I rest!
 - " Nor let my weaker passions dare "Consent to sin, for God is there.

PAUSE II.

- II. The veil of night is no difgrife,
 No fereen from thy all-feeing eyes;
 Thy hand can feize thy foes as foon
 Thro' mid-night shades as blazing noon.
- 72. Mid-night and noon in this agree, Great God, they're both alike to thee; Not death can hide what God will fpy, And hell lies naked to his eye.
- 23. " Oh may these thoughts possess my breast,
 - " Where'er I rove, where'er I rest!
 " Nor let my weaker passions dars
 - " Consent to fin, for God is there.

PSALM CXXXIX. Second Part. Long Metre.

The avonderful formation of man.

- t. TWAS from thy hand, my God, I came,
 A work of luch a curious frame;
 in me thy fearful wonders faine,
 An i each proclaims thy faill divine.
- a. Thins eyes Ed all my limbs fervey, Which yet in dark confesse by; Then taw'n the daily growth they took, Form'd by the model of thy book.
- By the my growing parts were nam'd. And what thy low reign countels fram'd.
 The breathing lungs, the beating heart)
 Was expliced with unerring art.
- At k ft. to fnew my maker's name, God framp'd his image on my frame, And in fonce unknown mement join'd 'The finish'd members to the mind.
- I here the young feeds of thought began, And all the palliens of the man: Great God our infant-nature pays Immortal tribute to thy praife,

PAUSE.

- Lord, fince in my advancing age
 I've acted on life's bufy flage,
 Thy thoughts of love to me furmount
 The pow'r of numbers to recount.
 - I could furvey the ocean o'er
 And count each fand that makes the fnore,
 Before my fwiftest thoughts could trace
 The num'rous wonders of thy grace,
- 8. These on my heart are still imprest, With these I give my eyes to rest;

And at my waking hour I find God and his love possess my mind.

PSALM CXXXIX. Third Part. Long Metre.

Sincerity professed and grace tried; or, The heartfearching God.

- MY God, what inward grief I feel
 When impious men transgress thy will
 I mourn to hear their lips prosume,
 Take thy tremendous name in vair.
- 2. Does not my foul detelt and hate
 'The fons of malice and deceit?'
 Those that oppose thy laws and thee,
 I count them energies to me.
- 3. Lord, fearch my foul, try ev'ry thought;
 Tho' my own heart accuse me not
 Of walking in a false disguise,
 I beg the trial of thine eyes.
- 4. Doth fecret mischief lurk within?
 Do I indulge some unknown sin?
 Oh turn my feet whene'er I stray,
 And lead me in thy perfect way.

PSALM CXXXIX. Fief Part. Com. Met ...

God is every where.

- I. IN all my vaft concerns with thee
 In vain my foul would try
 To flun thy prefence, Lord, or fice
 The notice of thine eye.
- Thy all-furrounding fight furveys
 My rifing and my reft,
 My publick walks, my private ways,
 And fecrets of my breaft.
- 3. My thoughts lie open to the Lord Before they're form'd within ;

And ere my lips pronounce the word He knows the fenfe I mean.

4. O word'rous knowledge, deep and high!
Where can a creature hide?
Within thy circling arms I lie,
Befet on ev'ry fide.

 So let thy grace furround me ftill, And like a bulwark prove, To guard my foul from ev'ry ill, Secur'd by fov'reign love.

PAUSE.

6. Lord, where shall guilty souls retire Forgotten and unknown? In hell they meet thy dreadful fire, In heav'n thy glorious throne.

Should I suppress my vital breath
 To 'scape the wrath divine,
 Thy voice would break the bars of death,
 And make the grave resign.

If wing'd with beams of morning light,
 I fly beyond the West,
 Thy hand, which must support my flight,
 Would foon betray my rest.

9. If o'er my fins I think to drew
The curtains of the night,
Those flaming eyes that guard thy law
Would turn the shades to light.

To. The beams of noon, the mid-night hour
Are both alike to thee:

O may I ne'er provoke that pow'r From which I cannot flee.

PSALM CXXXIX. Second Part. Common Metre,

The wissom of God in the formation of man.

I. WHEN I with pleasing wonder stand,
And all my frame survey,

Lord, 'tis thy work; I own, thy hand Thus built my humble clay.

- Thy hand my heart and reins possest, Where unborn nature grew;
 Thy wisdom all my features trac'd, And all my members drew.
- 3. Thine eye with niceft care furvey'd
 The growth of ev'ry part:
 'Till the whole scheme thy thoughts had laid
 Was copied by thine art.
- 4. Heav'n, earth, and fea, and fire, and wind, Shew me thy wond'rous fkill; But I review myfelf, and find

Diviner wonders still.

 Thine awful glories round me fhine, My flesh proclaims thy praise;
 Lord, to thy works of nature join Thy miracles of Grace.

PSALM CXXXIX. 14, 17, 18. Third Part.

Common Metre.

The mercies of God innumerable,

An Eveniug Pfalm.

- F. I ORD, when I count thy mercies o'er,
 They firike me with furprife;
 Not all the fands that spread the shore
 To equal numbers rife.
- 2. My flesh with fear and wonder stands, The product of thy skill, And hourly blessings from thy hands Thy thoughts of love reveal.
- 3. These on my heart by night I keep; How kind, how dear to me! Oh may the hour that ends my steep. Still find my thoughts with thee.

PSALM CXL. First Part Long Metre,

A prayer against public enemies.

- I. O LORD, the God of heaven and earth,
 From men of violence defend,
 That cherish mischief from their birth;
 Thy suppliants save; thy mercy send.
- By night they form th' accurs'd defign, And lie in wait against our peace;
 By day their bands in war combine, Thy faints to slaughter, and oppress.
- 3. In fields of blood their fouls delight, In waste and plunder, death and pain; Against thy Church, and thee, unite, Alike the soes of God, and man.
- 4. O thou preserver of mankind,
 Our hope, our shield, our strength, our God?
 Thou hast an ear to prayer inclin'd;
 Our cries have reach'd thy dread abode.
- g. Our cause thy justice will maintain, Avenge th' oppress'd, and guard the poor; Ne'er shall thy children ask in vain, And our proud soes shall boast no more.
- 6. Their banded hofts shall fly, or fall;
 A shaking leaf their thousands chase;
 Our God shall hear our nation's call;
 We shall be sav'd, and sing his praise.

PSAIM CXL. Second Part. Short Metre,

A complaint against personal enemies.

1. MY God, while impious men,
With make in their heart,
My peace defitor, my life defame,
Thy guardian grace impart.

2. With poifon in their lips,
And with a ferpents tongue,
They fling my fainting foul to death,
And make my name their fong.

Ceafeless they lie in wait
My footsteps to betray;
 They hide their snare, they set their gin,
Beside my peaceful way.

4. Oh hear my humble cry!
Their fondest hopes destroy;
Their arts confound, their plots disclose,
And blast their envious joy.

On their own heads shall fall
 The mischiefs, they devise;
 Thy hand shall take them in their net,
 Their slanders, and their lies.

6. As coals the wood confume,
As pits receive the flain,
So shall the men of malice fink,
And never rife again.

 The Lord, who hates the proud, Shall fcoreh the flanderous tongue, Shall hunt the wicked from the earth, And well requite their wrong.

8. Thou wilt fustain the poor, And bid th' afflicted fing; Before thee shall thy children dwell, Their Father, and their King.

Psalm CXLI. 2, 3, 4, 5.
Watchfulness and brotherly reproof.
A morning or Evening Psalm.

I. MY God, accept my early vows, Like morning incense in thine house, And let my nightly worship rise Sweet as the ev'ning facrifice.

- 2. Watch o'er my lips, and guard them, Lord, .
 From ev'ry rafh and heedlefs word;
 Nor let my feet incline to tread
 'The guilty path where finners lead.
- Oh may the righteous, when I ftray, Smite and reprove my wand'ring way! Their gentle words, like ointment fled, Shall never bruife, but cheer my head.
- 4. When I beheld them preft with grief,
 I'll cry to leav'n for their relief;
 And by my warm petitions prove
 How much I proze their faithful love.

PEALM CXLII.

Ged is the hope of the helplefs.

- I O God I made my forrows known, .

 From God I fought relief;
 In long complaints before his throne
 I wour'd out all my grief.
- 2. Lly had was overwhelm'd with woes, a har hear began to break:
 If y third what il my burdens knows,
 have every way I take.
- 2. On ever he fireft mine eye, And found my helpers gone, While hier deard frangers pass me by f Fightful ar anknown.
- And call'd rules "order cry, And call'd thy mercy near, "Thou ert say portion when I die, " Is then any rulage here."
- j. Lord, I am biolight exceeding low; s New let talke on extends.

And make my foes who vex me know, I've an Almighty Friend.

6. From my fad prison set me free, Then shall I praise thy name; And holy men shall join with me, Thy kindness to proclaim.

PSALM CXLIII.

Complaint of heavy afflictions in mind and body.

- 1. MY righteous Judge, my gracious Ged!
 Hear when I fpread my hands abroad,
 And cry for fuccour from thy throne,
 Oh make thy truth and mercy known!
- Let judgment not against me pass;
 Behold thy servant pleads thy grace:
 Should justice call us to thy lar,
 No living man is guiltless there.
- Look down in pity, Lord, and fee
 The mighty woes that burden me;
 Down to the dust my life is brought,
 Like one long buried and forget.
- I dwell in darkness and unseen, My heart is desolate within; My thoughts in musing silence trace. The ancient wonders of thy grace.
- 5. Thence I derive a glimple of hope To bear my finking spirits up; I stretch my hands to God again, And thirst, like parched lands, for rain.
- 6. For thee I thirst, I pray, I mourn; When will thy smiling face return? Shall all my joys on earth remove! And God forever hide his love?
- 7. My God, thy long delay to fave, Will fink thy pris ner to the grave;

My heart grows faint, and dim mine eye; Make hafte to help before I die.

- 8. The night is witness to my tears,
 Distressing pains, distressing sears;
 O, might I hear thy morning voice,
 How would my wearied pow'rs rejoice!
- In thee I truft, to thee I figh, And lift my heavy foul on high; For thee fit waiting all the day, And wear the tirefome hours away.
- Io. Break off my fetters, Lord, and show Which is the path my feet should go; If snares and foes beset the road I slee to hide me near my God.
- Teach me to do thy holy will, And lead me to thy heav'nly hill; Let the Good Spirit of thy love Conduct me to thy courts above.
- 12. Then shall my foul no more complain, The tempter then shall rage in vain; And slesh, that was my foe before, Shall never vex my spirit more.

PSALM CXLIV. First Part. 1, 2.

Affifiance and victory in the Spiritual warfare.

- I. FOR ever bleffed be the Lord, My Saviour and my Bield; He fends his Spirit with his word, To arm me for the field,
- When fin and hell their force unite, He makes my foul his care, Inftructs me to the heav'nly fight, And guards me through the war.

 A friend and helper fo divine Does my weak courage raife;
 He makes the glorious vict'ry mine And his fhall be the praife.

PSALM CXLIV. Second Part. 3, 4, 5, 6.
The vanity of man, and condefention of God.

- I. ORD, what is man, poor feeble man Born of the earth at first?

 His life a shadow, light and vain,

 Still hast'ning to the dust.
- 2. O what is feeble dying man, Or any of his race, That God should make it his concern To visit him with grace!
- 3. That God, who darts his lightnings down, Who shakes the worlds above, While mountains tremble at his frown, How wond'rous is his love!

PSALM CXLIV. Third Part. 12-15 Grace above riches; or, The happy nation

- HAPPY the city, where their fons
 Like pillars round a palace fet,
 And daughters, bright as polish'd stones,
 Give strength and beauty to the state.
- 2. Happy the country, where the sheep, Cattle, and corn, have large increase; Where men securely work, or sleep, Nor sons of plunder break their peace.
- 3. Happy the nation thus endow'd:
 But more divinely bleft are those,
 On whom the all-fufficient God
 Himself with all his grace bestows.

PSALM CXLV. Long Metre.

The greatness of God.

- T. MY God, my King, thy various praife Shall fill the remnant of my days: Thy grace employ my humble tongue 'Till death and glory raife the feng.
- The wings of ev'ry hour shall bear Some thankful tribute to thine ear; And ev'ry setting sun shall see New works of duty done for thee.
- 3, Thy truth and justice I'll proclaim, Thy bounty flows, an endless fiream Thy mercy swift; thine anger flow, But dreadful to the stubborn soc.
- 4. Thy works with for reign glory fhine, And fpeak thy majesty divine: Let Sion in her courts proclaim The found and honour of thy name.
- Let diftant times and nations raife The long fuccession of thy praise; And unborn ages make my song The joy and labour of their tongue.
- But who can fpeak thy wond'rous deeds?
 Thy greatness all our thoughts exceeds;
 Vast and unsearchable thy ways;
 Vast and immortal be thy praise.

PSALM CXLV. 1-7, 11, 13. First Part.

The greatness of God.

 ONG as I live I'll blefs thy name, My King, my God of love; My work and joy shall be the same, In the bright world above.

- 2. Great is the Lord, his pow'r unknown,
 And let his praise be great:
 I'll sing the honours of thy throne,
 Thy works of grace repeat.
- 3. Thy grace shall dwell upon my tongue;
 And while my lips rejoice,
 The men that hear my facred song
 Shall join their cheerful voice.
- 4. Fathers to fons shall teach thy name,
 And children learn thy ways:
 Ages to come thy truth proclaim,
 And nations found thy praise.
- 5. Thy glorious deeds of ancient date Shall through the world be known: Thine arm of pow'r, thy heav'nly state, With public splendor shown.
- The world is manag'd by thy hands,
 Thy faints are rai'd by love;
 And thine eternal kingdom flands,
 Though rocks and hills remove.

PSALM CXLV. Second Part. 7, &c.

The goodness of God.

- S'WEET is the mem'ry of thy grace,
 My God, my heav'nly King:
 Let age to age thy righteoufnefs
 In founds of glory fing.
- God reigns on high, but not confines
 His goodness to the skies;
 Through the whole earth his bounty shines,
 And ev'ry want supplies.
- With longing eyes thy creatures wait On thee for daily food,
 Thy lib'ral hand provides their meat,
 And fills their meuths with good

4. How kind are thy compassions, Lord!

How slow thine anger moves!

But soon he fends his pard'ning word

To cheer the souls he loves.

Creatures, with all their endless race,
 Thy pow'r and praise proclaim;
 But faints that rafte thy richer grace
 Delight to bless thy name.

PSALM CXLV. 14, 17, &c. Third Part.

Mercy to fufferers ; or, God hearing prayer.

I. LET ev'ry tongue thy goodness speak,
Thou sov'reign Lord of all;
Thy strength'ning hands uphold the weak,
And raise the poor that fall.

 When forrow bows the fpirit down, Or virtue lies diffrest
 Beneath fome proud oppresser's frown, Thou giv'st the mourners rest.

4. The Lord supports our tott'ring days, And guides our giddy youth: Holy and just are all his ways, And all his words are truth.

4. He knows the pain his fervants feel, He hears his children cry, And their best wishes to fulfil His grace is ever nigh.

5. His mercy never shall remove From men of heart sincere; He saves the souls, whose humble love Is join'd with holy sear.

6. [His stubborn foes his sword shall slay, And pierce their hearts with pain; But none that serve the Lord shall say, "They sought his aid in vain."] [My lips shall dwell upon his praife, And spread his same abroad; Let all the sons of Adam raise The honours of their God.]

PSALM CXLV. Proper Metre. As the new 50th

The Kingdom and Perfections of God.

1. To bless the Lord let every land combine;
Your hearts & minds, your harps & voices join.

Each opening dawn shall hear my songs arise; Each evening wast its incense to the skies: All praise, all love, his boundless glories claim, The praise of Saints, the Seraphs facred slame.

- 2. Thy kingdom fills duration's endless rounds,
 And, with immensity, it knows no bounds;
 O'er earth, o'er heaven, o'er hell, extends thy sway
 Angels, Archangels, thrones and powers obey
 All seenes, all worlds, confess thy hand divine
 And seas, and skies, and stars, and suns are thine.
- 3. How vaft thy works! how various are thy ways! What themes divine of rapture, and of praife! What countlefs wonders in creation blend! What wonders through thy providence extend! Surpaffing every bound of space and time; Great beyond thought; beyond the heavens sublime.
 - 4. How just thy ruling hand! thine empire round,
 No stain, we fault, no error can be found:
 Divinely pure all purity above.
 Unfolding wisdom, and inspiring love:
 'Thy love, thy wisdom, shall my songs inspire,
 And listening nations catch the facred fire.
- 5. The world's wide frame thy mighty hand upholds:
 What glories there preserving power unfolds!
 What order, harmony, and beauty, shine!
 Peace all thy kingdom! all thy rule divine!

Thy haughty foes are scatter'd at thy nod, And suffering faints, sustain'd, confess their God

All worlds, all beings, in thy presence live, And taste the good, thy coaseless bouncies give. Each day, each hour, ascend their waiting eyes; Each passing moment yields them fresh supplies: Thy sun illumes, delights, supperts with good, And timely seasons shower the plenteous sood.

Thy hands upraise the fall'n; defend the poor;
Avenge bold wrongs; invaded rights secure;
Thy wendrous acts each race of man declares;
We to our fons, and they again to theirs;
The heart, the song, thy goodness shall infpire,
When heavens grow dark, and earth dissolves in fire.

2. But chief thy Children Lnow thy tender care Feaft on thy grace, and boundless pity share: To anger flow, in mercy swift to hear, Each silial cry shall find a Father sear, A faithful Friend, to love, to bless, to save. In life, in death, and woulds beyond the grave.

Through allthy works thy pure perfections fine, In beauty, grandeur, power, and grace, divine; From all, thy hand unmeafur'd blifs shall bring, From evil good, from darkness glory, spring, Angels and faints proclaim thy spotless ways. And earth's wide regions hymn immortal praise.

PSALM CXLVI. Long Metre.

Praise to God for Lie goodness and truth.

PRAISE ye the Lord, my heart shall join In work to pleafant, so divine; Now while the slesh is mine abode, And when my soul ascends to God.

Praife shall employ my noblest pow're, While immortality endures;

My days of praise shall ne'er be past, While life, and thought, and being last.

- Why should I make a man my trust?
 Princes must die and turn to cust;
 Their breath departs, their pomp and pow'r,
 And thoughts all vanish in an hour.
- 4. Happy the man, whose hopes rely
 On Ifrael's God: he made the sky,
 And earth and seas, with all their train;
 And none shall find his promise vain.
- His truth for ever stands secure;
 He saves th' opprest, he seeds the poor;
 He sends the lab'ring conscience peece,
 And grants the pris'ner sweet release.
- The Lord hath eyes to give the blind;
 The Lord supports the finking mind;
 He helps the stranger in diffress,
 The widow and the fatherless.
- He loves his faints, he knows them well, But turns the wicked down to hell;
 Thy God, O Zion, ever reigns;
 Praife him in everlasting strains.

Psalm CXLVI. As the 113th Pfalm.

Praise to God for his goodness and truth.

- I. I'LL praife my Maker with my breath;
 And when my voice is left in death
 Praife shall employ my nobler pow'rs;
 My days of praife shall ne're be pail.
 While life, and thought, and being last,
 Or immortality endures.
- 2. Why should I make a man my trust?
 Princes must die and turn to dust,
 Vain is the help of siesh and blood,

'Their breath departs, their pomp and pow'r,
And thoughts all vanish in an hour,
Nor can they make their promise good.

3. Happy the man whose hopes rely On Brael's God; he made the sky, And earth and seas, with all their train; His truth for ever flands secure; He faves th' oppress, he feeds the poor, And none shall find his promise vain.

4. The Lord hath eyes to give the blind;
The Lord supports the finking mind;
He fends the labring confeience peace,
He helps the stranger in distress,
The widow and the fatherless,
And grants the pris'ner sweet release.

g. He loves his faints, he knows them well,
But turns the wicked down to hell;
Thy God, O Zon, ever reigns:
Let ev'ry tougue, let ev'ry age
In this exalted work engage;
Prade him in everlating firains.

6. I'll praise him while he lends me breath, And when my voice is loft in death, Praise shall employ my nobler pow'rs; My days of praise shall ne'er be past, While life, and thought, and being last, Or immortality endures.

PSALM CXLVII. Firft Part.

The divine nature, providence, and grace.

r. PRAISE ye the Lord: 'tis good to raife
Our hearts and voices in his praife;
His nature and his works invite
To make this duty our delight,

- The Lord builds up Jerufalem, And gathers nations to his name: His mercy melts the flubborn foul, And makes the broken spirit whole.
- 3. He form'd the flars, those heav'nly flames,
 He counts their numbers, calls their names
 His wisdom's vast, and knows no bound,
 A deep where all our thoughts are drown'd...
- 4. Great is our Lord, and great his might;
 And all his glories infinite:
 He crowns the meek, rewards the just,
 And treads the wicked to the the dust.

PAUSE.

- 5. Sing to the Lord, exalt him high,
 Who fpreads his clouds around the fky:
 There he prepares the fruitful rain,
 Nor lets the drops defcend in vain.
- 6. He makes the grafs the hills adorn,
 And clothes the finiling fields with corn;
 The beafts with food his hands fapply,
 And the young ravens when they cry.
- 7. What is the creature's skill or force? The sprightly man, the warlike horse, The nimble wit, the active limb? All are too mean delights for him.
- 8. The faints are lovely in his fight:
 He views his children with delight:
 He fees their hope, he knows their fear,
 And looks, and loves his image there.

PSALM CXLVII. Second Part.

Summer and Winter.

1. DLESS, O thou Western World, thy God, And make his honors known abroad;

He bids thee sea before thee flow; Not bars of brass could guard the so.

- Thy children are fecure and bleft,
 Thy shores have peace, thy cities rest:
 He feeds thy sons with finest wheat,
 And adds his blefting to their meat.
- Thy changing feafons he ordains,
 Thine early and thy latter rains;
 His flakes of fnow like wool he fends,
 And thus the fpringing corn defends.
- 4. With hoary frost he strews the ground;
 His hail descends with clart'ring found:
 Where is the man, so vainly bold,
 That dares defy his dreadful cold?
- 5. He bids the fouthern breezes blow:
 The ice diffolves, the waters flow:
 But he hath nobler works and ways
 To call thy children to his praife.
- 6. To all thy fons his laws are fhown; His gospel through the nation known: He hath not thus reveal'd his word To ev'ry land: Praise ye the Lord.

PSALM CXLVII. 7-9, 13-18. Com. Meta.

The Seasons of the year.

- WITH fongs and honours founding loud?

 Address the Lord on high;

 Over the heav'ns he spreads his cloud,

 And waters veil the sky.
- 2. He fends his show'rs of blessings down .

 To cheer the plains below;

 He makes the grass the mountains crown, .

 And corn in valleys grow.
- 3. He gives the grazing ox his meat, He hears the ravens cry;

But man, who taftes his finest wheat, Should raise his honours high.

- His fleady counfels change the face
 Of the declining year;
 He bids the fun cut thort his race,
 And wintery days appear.
- 5. His hoary frost, his sleecy snow, Descend and clothe the ground: The liquid streams forbear to flow, In icy fetters bound.
- When from his dreadful flores on high He pours the rattling hail.
 The wrotch that dures his God defy, Shall find his courage fail.
- He fends his word, and melte the fnow;
 The fields no longer mourn;
 He calls the warmer gales to blow,
 And bids the fpring return.
- 8. The changing wind, the flying cloud, Obey his mighty word: With fongs and honours founding loud Praife ye the fov'reign Lord.

PSALM CXLVIII. Proper Metre.

Praise to God from all creatures.

I. YE tribes of Adam, join
With heav'n and earth and feas,
And offer notes divine
To your Creator's praife.
Ye holy throng
Of angels bright
In worlds of light
Begin the fong.

2. Thou fun with dazzling rays, And moon that rul'st the night, Shine to your Maker's praife, With stars of twinkling light. His pow'r declare, Ye floods on high, And clouds that fly In empty air.

- The fining worlds above In glorious order frand.
 Or in fwift courfes move
 By his fupreme command.
 He fpake the word,
 And all their frame
 From nothing came
 To praife the Lord.
- 4. He mov'd their mighty wheels
 In unknown ages paft,
 And each his word fulfils
 While time and nature laft.
 In diff'rent ways
 His works proclaim
 His wond'reus name,
 And speak his praise.

PAUSE.

- 5. Let all the earth-born race, And monsters of the deep, The fish that cleave the feas, Or in their bosom sleep, From fea and shore Their tribute pay, And still display Their Maker's pow'r.
 - Ye vapours, hail and flow, Praife ye th' aimighty Lord, And flormy winds that blow To execute his word. When lightnings shine, Or thunders roar,

Let earth adore His hand divine.

- 7. Ye mountains near the fkies, With lofty cedars there, And trees of humbler fize, That fruit in plenty bear; Beafts wild and tame, Birds, flies, and worms, In various forms, Exalt his name.
- 8. Ye kings, and judges, fear
 The Lord, the fov reign King;
 And, while you rule us here,
 His heav'nly honours fing:
 Nor let the dream
 Of pow'r and ftate
 Make you forget
 His pow'r fupreme.
- 9. Virgins, and youths, engage To found his praife divine, While infancy and age Their feebler voices join; Wide as he reigns His name be fung By ev'ry tongue In endlefs ftrains.

To. Let all the nations fear
The God that rules above;
He brings his people near,
And makes them tafte his love;
While earth and fky
Attempt his praife,
His faints shall raife
His honours high.

PSALM CXLVIII. Paraphrafed. Long Metre.

Univerful praise to God.

z. L OUD hallelujahs to the Lord,
From diffant worlds where creatures dwell;
Let heav'n begin the folenn word,
And found it dreadful down to hell.

Note. This Pfulm may be fung to the tune of the old 112th, or 127th Pfulm, if these two lines be added to every stanza, viz.

Fach of his works his name displays, But they can ne'er fulfil his praise.

Otherwife it must be fung to the usual tunes of the Long Metre.

- The Lord, how absolute he reigns!
 Let ev'ry angel bend the knee;
 Sing of his love in heav'sly strains:
 And speak how fierce his terrors be.
- 3. High on a throne his glories dwell, An awful throne of thining blifs! Fly thro' the world, O fun! and tell How dark thy beams compar'd to his.
- 4. Awake, ye tempests, and his same In sounds of dreadful praise declare: Let the sweet whisper of his name Fill every gentler breeze of air.
- Let clouds, and winds, and waves agree
 To join their praife with blazing fire s
 Let the firm earth and rolling fea,
 In this eternal fong confpire.
- 6. Ye flow'ry plains, proclaim his fkill-; Vallies hie low before his eye; And let his praife from ev'ry hill Rife tunefui to the neighb'ring fky.

- 7. Ye stubborn oaks, and stately pines
 Bend your high branches and adore:
 Praise him, ye beasts, in different strains;
 The lamb must bleat, the lion roar.
- Birds, ye must make his praise your theme, Nature demands a song from you: While the dumb sish that cut the stream Leap up, and mean his praises too.
- 9. Mortals, can you refrain you tongue, When nature all around you fings? Oh for a shout from old and young, From humble swains and lofty kings!
- 10. Wide as his vast dominion lies
 Make the Creator's name be known;
 Loud as his thunder shout his praise,
 And sound it losty as his throne.
- II. Jehovah! 'tis a glerious word!
 Oh may it dweil on ev'ry tongae!
 But faints, who best have known the Lord,
 Are bound to raise the noblest song.
- 12. Speak of the wonders of that love, Which Gabriel plays on ev'ry chord; From all below, and all above, Loud hallelujahs to the Lord!

PSALM CKLVIII. Short Metre,

Universal Praise.

I. LET ev'ry creature join
To praise th' eternal God;
Ye heav'nly hosts the song hegin,
And sound his name abroad.

2. Thou fun with golden beams, And moon with paler rays, Ye ftarry lights, ye twinkling flumes, Shine to your Maker's rraife. 3. He built those worlds above, And fix'd their wond'rous frame; By his command they stand, or move, And ever speak his name.

4. Ye vapours, when ye rife, Or fail in show'rs, or snow, Ye thunders, murm'ring round the skies, His pow'r and glory show.

5. Wind, hail, and flashing fire, Agree to praise the Lord, When ye in dreadful florms conspire To execute his word.

6. By all his works above His honours he exprest; But faints, that taste his faving love, Should fing his praises best.

PAUSE I.

7. Let earth and ocean know, They owe their Maker praife; Praife him, ye watry worlds below, And monfters of the feas.

8. From mountains near the fky
Let his high praife refound,
From humble fhrubs and cedars high,
And vales and fields around.

 Ye lions of the wood, And tamer beafts that graze,
 Ye live upon his daily food, And he expects your praise.

10. Ye birds of lofty wing, On high his praifes bear; Or fit on flow'ry boughs, and fing Your Maker's glory there.

r 2

11. Ye creeping ants and worms, His various wifdom show, And slies in all your shining swarms, Praise him that drest you so.

12. By all the earth-born race
His honours be exprest,
But faints that know his heav'nly grace
Should learn to praise him best.

PAUSE II.

13. Monarchs of wide command, Praife ye th' eternal King; Judges adore that fov'reign hand, Whence all your honours fpring.

14. Let vig'rous youth engage
To found his praifes high;
While growing babes and withering age
Their feebler voices try.

15. United zeal be shown
His wond'rous same to raise;
God is the Lord; his rame alone
Deserves our endless praise.

16. Let nature join with art,
And all pronounce him bleft,
But faints that dwell fo near his heart
Should fing his praifes beft.

PSALM CXLIX.

Praife God, all his faints; or, The faints judging the

I. A LL ye that love the Lord rejoice
And let your fongs be new;
Amid the church with cheerful voice
His later wonders fhew.

2. The Jews, the people of his grace, Shall their Redeemer fing;

- And Gentile nations join the praise, While Zion owns her King.
- The Lord takes pleafure in the juft, Whom finners treat with foorn;
 The meek, that lie defpis'd in duft, Salvation shall adorn.
- 4. Saints shall be joyful in their King,
 Ev'n on a dying bed:
 And like the fouls in glory fing,
 For God shall raife the dead.
- Then his high praife shall fill their tongues, Their hand shall wield the sword; And vengeance shall attend their songs, The vengeance of the Lord.
- 6. When Chrift the judgment-feat afcends, And bids the world appear; Thrones are prepar'd for all his friends Who humbly lov'd him here.
- Then shall they rule with iron rod Nations that dar'd rebel;
 And join the sentence of their God On tyrants doom'd to hell.
- .8. The royal finners bound in chains New triumphs shall afford; Such honour for the faints remains: Praise ye, and love the Lord.

PSALM CI. 1, 2, 6.

- A fong of praise.
- 1. IN God's own house pronounce his praise,
 His grace he there reveals;
 To heav'n your joy and wonder raise,
 For there his glory dwells.
- 2. Let all your facred passions move While you rehearse his deeds;

But the great work of faving love Your highest praise exceeds.

 All that have motion, life and breath Proclaim your Maker bleft;
 Yet when my voice expires in death, My foul shall praise him best.

PSALM CL. Proper Metre. As the 148th.

Universal Praise to God.

I. IN Zion's facred gates
Let hymns of praife begin,
Where aets of faith and love
With ceafelefs beauty fhine.
In mercy there
While God is known,
Before his throne

With fongs appear.

2. In heaven, his house on high, Ye Angels, lift your voice; Let heavenly harps resound, And happy faints rejoice.

The playies fing.

The glories fing, That ever shine, With pomp divine, Around your King.

3. His wondrous acts demand,
His wifdom and his grace,
The labours of our hands,
And transports of our praise.
Rehearse his name
To every shore,
Where'er his power
His works proclaim.

4. Let the trump's martial voice, The timbrel's fofter found, The organ's folemn peal, United praise resound. To fwell the fong, With highest joy, Let man employ His tuneful tongue.

The CHRISTIAN DOXOLOGY.

Long Metre.

TO God the Father, God the Son, And God the Spirit, Three in One, Be honor, praise, and glory giv'n By all on earth, and all in heav'n.

Common Metre.

L ET God the Father, and the Son, And Spirit be ador'd, Where there are works to make him known, Or faints to love the Lord,

Common Metre.

Where the tune includes two flanzas.

I.

THE God of mercy be ador'd, Who calls our fouls from death. Who faves by his redeeming word, And new-creating breath.

· II.

To praise the Father, and the Son-And Spirit all divine, The One in Three, and Three in one, Let faints and angels join.

Short Metre.

YE angels round the throne, And faints that dwell belows Worship the Father, praise the Son, And bless the Spirit too.

As the 113th Pfalm.

NOW to the great and facred Three,
The Father, Son, and Spirit be
Eternal praise and glory giv'n,
Thro' all the worlds where God is known,
By all the angels near the throne,
And all the faints in earth and heav'n.

As the 148th Pfalm.

To God the Father's throne
Perpetual honours raife;
Glory to God the Son,
To God the Spirit praife;
With all our pow'rs,
Eternal King,
Thy name we fing,
While faith adores.

SPIRITUAL SONGS.

HYMN I. Proper Metre. As the 148th Pfalm. Dr. WATTS.

The divine perfections.

I. THE Lord Jehovah reigns;
His throne is built on high:
The garments he affumes,
Are light and majefty;
His glories finne
With beams to bright,
No mortal eye
Can bear the fight.

In thunders of his hand

The thunders of his hand
Keep the wide world in awe;
His wrath and justice frand
To guard his hely law;
And where his love
Resolves to bless,
His truth confirms
And seals the grace.

3. Thre' all his ancient works
Surpring wifdom shines,
Confounds the pow'rs of hell,
And breaks their curs'd designs;
Strong is his arm,
And shall fulfil
His great decrees,
His fov'reign will.

4. And can this mighty King
Of glory condefeend?
And will he write his name,
My Father and my Friend?
I love his name,
I love his word;
Join all rry pow'rs,
And praife the Lord.

HYMN II. Dr. WATTS.

God incomprehensible and sovereign

The CAN creatures, to perfection.* find The eternal, uncreated mind?

Or can the largest stretch of thought Measure and search his nature out?

- "T's high as heav'n, 'tis deep as hell;
 And what can mortals know, or tell?.
 His glery ipreads beyond the fky,
 And all the fhining worlds on high.
- But man, vain man, would fain be wife, Born, like a wild young celt, he flies Thro' all the follies of his mind, And fmells and fnuffs the empty wind.]
- God is a King of pow'r unknown,

 Firm are the orders of his throne;

 If he refolve, who dare oppose,

 Or ask him why, or what he does?
- 5. He wounds the heart, and he makes whole; He canns the tempest of the soul; When he shuts up in long despair, Who can remove the heavy bar?
- 6. †He frowns, and darkness vails the moor,
 The fainting fun grows dim at noon;
 † The pillars of heaven's starry roof
 Tremble and start at his reproof.
- . Job xi. 7, &c. + Job xxv. 51 + Job xxvi. 11, &c.

He gave the vaulted heav'n its form, The crooked ferpent and the worm; He breaks the biliows with his breath, And finites the fons of pride to death.

These are a portion of his ways; But who shall dare describe his sace? Who can endure his light, or stand To hear the thunders of his hand.

IYMN III. C. M. Dr. WATTS'S LYRIC POEMS

Nivine fovereignty; or, God's Dominion and Decrees

K EEP filence all created things,
And wait your Maker's nod:
My foul itands trembling, while the fings
The honors of her God.

- Life, death, and hell, and worlds unknown Hang on his firm decree: He fits on no precarious throne, Nor borrows leave to be.
- Chain'd to his throne, a Volume lies.
 With all the fates of men,
 With every Angel's form and fize,
 Drawn by th' eternal pen.
- His Providence unfolds the book,
 And makes his counfels thine;
 Each opening leaf, and every firoke
 Fulfile fome deep defign.
- 5. Here, he exalts neglected worms
 To feeptres and a crown;
 And there, the following page he turns,
 And treads the monarch down.
- Not Gabriel alks the reason why, Nor God the reason gives;
 Nor dares the savourite Angel pry Between the folded leaves.

- My God, I would not long to fee
 My fate with curious eyes,
 What gloony lines are writ for me,
 Or what briefit feenes may rife.
- 8. In thy fair book of life and grace,
 O may I find my name,
 Recorded in fome humble place,
 Beneath my Lord the Lamb!

HYMN IV. Dr. WATTS.

God far above all creatures: or, Man vain and mortal, Job iv. 17-21,

- I. SHALL the vile race of flesh and blood Shall mortal worms presume to be More holy, wife, or just, than he?
- 2. Behold he puts his trust in none Of all the spirits round his throne; Their natures, when compar'd with his, Are neither holy, just, nor wife.
- 3. But how much meaner things are they
 Who fpring from duft, and dwell in clay!
 Touch'd by the finger of thy wrath,
 We faint and vanish like the moth.
- 4. From night to day, from day to night, We die by thoulands in thy fight; Buried in duft whole nations lie, Like a forgotten vanity.
- 5. Aimighty Power, to the we bow; How frail are we! how glorious thou! No more the iens of earth shall dare With an eternal God compare.

HYMN V. Dr. WATTS.

God's eternity.

I. ISE, rife, my foul, and leave the ground,
Stretch all thy thoughts abroad,

And rouse up ev'ry tuneful sound To praise th' eternal God.

Long ere the lofty skies were spread, Jehovah fill'd his throne; Or Adam form'd, or Angels made, The Maker liv'd alone.

His boundless years can ne'er decrease, But fill maintain their prime:

Eternity's his dwelling-place, And ever is his time.

While like a tide our minures flow, The prefent and the past.

He fills his own immertal NOW, And fees our ages wafte.

 The sea and sky must perish too, And vast deteruction come: The creatures—look how old they grow, And wait their firry doom.

 Well, let the fea first all away, And flatters rule down the fixes, My God field live on endless day, When this creation dies.

HYMN VI. Dr. WATTS.

God our preserver.

z. ET others boast how strong they be,
Nor death nor danger fear;
While we confess, O Lord, to thee,
What see ble things we are.

2. Fresh as the grass our bodies stand,
And slourish bright and gay:
A blasting wind sweeps o'er the land

A blafting wind sweeps o'er the land, And sades the grass away.

3. Our life contains a thousand springs, And dies if one be gone; Strange! that a harp of thousand firings Should keep in tune so long.

- 4. But 'tis our God supports our frame,

 The God that form'd us first;

 Salvation to th' almighty Name

 That rear'd us from the dust.
- 5. He fpoke, and ftraight the heart and brain In all their motions rofe, Let blood, faid he, flow round each wein, And round each yein it flows.
- 6. While we have breath, or life, or tongues,
 Our Maker we'll adore:
 His Spirit moves our heaving lungs,
 Or they would breathe no more.

HYMN VII. L. M. BEDDOME.

The wisdom of God.

- 1. W AIT, O my foul, thy Makers will,
 Tomultuous passions, all be still!
 Not let a murmuring thought arise,
 His ways are just, his counsels wise.
 - He in the thickeft darkness dwells, Performs his work, the cause conceals;
 But the his methods are unknown, Judgment and truth support his throne.
- 3. In Heaven, and earth, and air, and feas, He executes his firm decrees; And by his faints it flands confest, That what he does is ever best.
- 4. Wait then, my foul, submissione wait, Prostrate before his awful feat; And 'mid the terrors of his rod Trust in a wife and gracious God.

HYMN VIII. Dr. WATTS .. .

Divine wrath and mercy : from Nahum i. 1, 2, 3, &c.

1 DORE and tremble, for our God * Heb. mi. 29. I Is a *confuming fire; His jealous eyes his wrath inflame,

And raife his vengeance higher.

Almighty vengeance, how it burns ; How bright his fury glows!

Vaft magazines of plagues and ftorms Lie treafur'd for his foes.

3. Those heaps of wrath, by flow degrees, Are forc'd into a flame :

But kindled, Oh! how fierce thy blaze! And rend all nature's frame.

4. At his approach the mountains flee, And f th a wat'ry grave; The frighted fea makes hafte away, And thrinks up every wave.

5. Through the will tirthe weighty rocks Are fwife as hall-france hart'd : Who cares comeet his fiery rage, That shakes the folid world?

5. Yet, mighty God! thy fov'reign grace. Sits regent on the throne. The refuge of the chosen race

When wrath comes ruthing down. 7. Thy hand shall on rebellious kings, A fery ten pelt pru.,

White we beneath thy shelt'ring wings Thy rightcous hand adore.

> HYMN IX. Dr. WATTS. Col's saud-joenfron to buman offsirs.

JP to the Lord, who reigns on high, And views the nations from afar,

284

Let everlasting praises fly, And tell how large his bounties are.

- [2. He that can shake the worlds he made, Or with his word, or with his rod! His goodness, how divinely great! What condescension in our God.
- [3. God, that must stoop to view the skies, And how to see what Angels do, Down to our earth he casts his eyes, And hends his footsteps downward too.
- 4. He over-rules all mortal things,
 And manages our mean affairs;
 On humble fouls the King of kings
 Bestows his counsels and his cares.
- .5 Our forrows and our tears we pour into the bosom of our God; He hears us in the mournful hour, And helps to bear the heavy load.
- 6. In vain might lofty princes try
 Such condescention to perform;
 For worms were never rais'd so high
 Above their meanest fellow-worm.
- O could our thankful hearts devife
 A tribute equal to thy grace,
 To the third heav'n our fongs fhould rife,
 And teach the golden harps thy praife.

HYMN X. Dr. WATTS.

God my only bappiness. Psal. luxiii. 23.

- I. NY God, my portion, and my love,
 My everlafting all,
 I've none but thee in heav'n above,
 Or on this earthly ball.
- [2. What empty things are all the fkies, And this inferior clod!

There's nothing here deferves my joys, There's nothing like my God.]

[3. In vain the bright, the burning fun Scatters his feeble light: "Tis thy fweet beam creates my noon;

If thou withdraw, 'tis night.

4. And while upon my refiles bed,

Among the shades I roll,
If my Redeemer shows his head,
This morning with my sould

5. To thee we owe our wealth, and friends, And health, and fafe abode: Thanks to thy name for meaner things; But they are not my God.

6. How vain a toy is glittering wealth,
If once compared to thee!
Or what's my falety, or my health,
Or all my friends, to me!

 If I possess's the spacious earth, And call'd the frare mine own; Without thy graces, and thyself I were a wretch undone.

 Let others firetch their arms like feas, And grafe in all the shore.
 Grant me the visits of thy face, And I define no more.

HYMN XI. Dr. WATTS.

God holy, just, and sowereign. Job ix. 2-10.

HOW should the form of Adam's race
 He pure before their God?
 If he contend in righteouspess,
 We fall beneath his rod.

2. To vindicate my words and thoughts
Pil, make no more pretence;

Not one of all my thousand faults Can bear a just defence.

- 3. Strong is his arm, his heart is wife,
 What vain profumers dare
 Against their Maker's hand to rife,
 Or tempt th' unequal war?
- [4. Mountains by his alwighty wrath From their old feats are torn; He shakes the earth, from South to North, And all her pillars mourn.
- 5: He bids the fun forbear to rife;
 The obedient fun forbears;
 His hand with fackcloth fpreads the fkies—
 And feals up all the ftars.
- 6. He walks upon the reging fea;
 And rides the stormy wind;
 There's none can trace his won! rous way.
 Or his dark footseps find.

HYMN XII. Dr. WATTS.

Preferving grace, Jude 24, 25.

1. To God the only wife,
Our Saviour and our King,
Let all the faints below the thies
Their humble praises bring.

- 2. Tis his almighty love.

 His counfel and his care,

 Preferves us fafe from fin and death,

 And ev'ry hurtful fnare.
- 3. He will prefent our fouls
 Unblemish'd and compleat,
 Before the glory of his face,
 With joys divinery great.
 - 4. Then all the chosen seed Shall meet around the throne,

Shall blefs the conduct of his grace, And make his wonders known.

5' To our Redeemer-God, Wifdom and pow'r belongs, Immortal crowns of majesty, And everlasting fongs.

HYMN XIII. Dr. WATTS.

God dwells with the humble and penitent, Ifa.

THUS faith the high and lofty One,
"I fit upon my holy throne;

" My name is God, I dwell on high,

" And fill my own eternity.

2. " But I descend to worlds below,
" On earth I have a mankon too;

"And never from the contrite heart-

" And humble foul will I depart.

3. " The broken spirit I revive,

"I bid the mourning finner live;
"Heal all the broken hearts I find,

" And ease the forrows of the mind.

[4. " When I contend against their sin,

" I make them know how vile they've been ;

" But should my wrath for ever fincke,

"Their fouls would fink beneath my firoke."

5. O may thy pard'ning grace be nigh. Left we should faint, despair and die! Thus shall our better thoughts approve The methods of thy chastening love.]

HYMN XIV. C. M. STEELE.

The goodness of God. Nahum i. 7.

J. Y E humble fouls, approach your God, With fongs of facred praise,

For he is good, immensely good, And kind are all his ways.

- 2. All nature owns his guardian care, In him we live and move; But nobler benefits declare The wonders of his love
- 3. He gave his Son, his only Son,
 To ranfom rebel worms;
 "Tis here he makes his goodness known
 In its diviner forms.
- 4. To this dear refuge, Lord, we come,
 "Tis here our hope relies;
 A fafe defence, a peaceful home,
 When forms of trouble rife.
- 5. Thine eye beholds, with kind regard,
 The fouls who trust in thee;
 Their humb's hope thou wilt reward,
 With bliss divinely free.
- Great God, to thy Almighty love, What honors shall we raise? Not all the raptur'd songs above, Can render equal praise.

HYMN XV. C. M. Dr. WATTS'S Sermons.

The Dostrine of the Trinity, and the Use of it, Eph. ii. 18.

- TATHER of glory, to thy name,
 Immortal praife we give,
 Who doft an act of grace proclaim,
 And bid us rebels live.
- 2. Immortal honor to the Son,

 Who makes thine anger cease;

 Our lives he ransom'd with his own,

 And died to make our peace.

- 3. To thy almighty Spirit be Immortal glory given, Whose influence brings us near to thee, And trains us up for heaven.
- Let men, with their united voice, Adore th' eternal God,
 And spread his honors, and their joys, Through nations far abroad.
- Let faith, and love, and duty join,
 One general fong to raife;
 Let faints in heaven and earth combine
 In harmony and praife.

HYMN XVI. C. M. MEDLEY.

The incarnation of Christ. Luke ii. 14.

- MORTALS, awake, with Angels join, And chant the folemn lay; Joy, love and gratitude combine To hail th' aufpicious day.
- In heaven the rapturous fong began, And fweet feraphic fire Thro' all the shining legions ran, And strung and tun'd the lyre.
- 3. Swift thro' the vaft expanse it flew,
 And loud the echo roll'd;
 'The theme, the song, the joy was new,
 'Twas more than heaven could hold.
- 4. Down thro' the portals of the sky
 The impetuous torrent ran;
 And Angels slew with eager joy
 To bear the news to Man.
- 5. [Wrapt in the filence of the night
 Lay all the Eastern World,
 When bursting, glorious, heavenly light.
 The wondrous scene unfurl'd.]

6. Hark! the Cherubic armies shout,
And glory leads the fong:
Good-will and peace are heard throughout.
The harmonious, Aprel-throng.

 [O for a glance of heavenly love Our hearts and fongs to raife;
 Sweetly to bear our fouls above,
 And mingle with their lays!

8. With joy the chorus we'll repeat,
"Glory to God on high:

"Good-will and peace are now complete,
"Jefus was born to die."

Hail, prince of flife, for ever hail!
 Redeemer, brother, friend!
 Tho' earth, and time, and life fhould fail,
 Thy praife shall never end.

HYMN XVII. TATE & BRADY.

For the nativity of our bloffed Lord and Saviour.
Luke il. 8—15.

. W HILE frepherds watch'd their flocks by night,
All feated on the ground,

The argel of the Lord came down, And glory shone around.

"Fear not," faid he, for mighty dread Had feiz'd their troubled mind;

" Glad tidings of greatjoy I bring " To you, and all mankind.

"To you, in David's town, this day
"Is born of David's line,

" The Saviour, who is Christ the Lord; And this shall be the fign:

" The Heav'nly babe you there shall find, ...
" To human view display'd,

- " All meanly wrapp'd in fwathing bands, " And it a manger laid."
- 5. Thus fpake the Seraph, and forthwith Appear'd a fhining throng Of Angels, praifing God, and thus Addrefs'd their joyful fong:
- 6. " All glory be to God on high, " And to the earth be peace:
 - "Good will, henceforth, from heav'n to men
 "Begin, and never ceafe."

HYMN XVIII. Dr. WATTS.

The deity and humanity of Christ, John i. 1, 3, 14. and Col. i. 16. and Eph. iii. 9, 10.

- 1. RE the blue heav'ns were firetch'd abroad,
 From everlasting was the Word!
 With God he was; the word was God,
 And must divinely be ador'd.
- By his own pow'r were all things made;
 By him supported all things hand;
 He is the whole escation's head,
 And angels fly at his command.
- 3. Ere fin was born, or Satan fell,
 He led the host of morning stars;
 (His generation who can tell,
 Or count the number of thy years?)
- 4. But lo, he leaves those heav'nly forms, The word descends, and dwells in clay, That he may converse held with worms, Dress'd in such feeble flesh as they.
- 4. Mortals with joy behold his face, Th' eternal Father's only Son; How full of truth! how full of grace! When thro' his eyes the Godhead shone!

6. Archangels leave their high abole.

To learn new mystries here, and tell

The loves of our defeending God,

The glories of Immanuel.

HYMN XIX. Dr. WATTS.

The nativity of Christ. Luke i. 30, &c. Luke ii. 10, &c.

The promife is fulfil'd,
Mary, the wond'rous virgin, bears,
And Jefus is the child.

[2. The Lord, the highest God, Calls him his only Son; He bids him rule the lands abroad, And gives him David's throne.

3. O'er Jacob shall he reign
With a peculiar sway;
The nations shall his grate obtain,
His kingdom ne'er decay.]

4. To bring the glorious news,
A heavenly form appears:
He tells the shepherds of their joys,
And banishes their fears.

5. Go, humble favains, faid he
To David's city fly;
The promis'd Infant born to-day,
Doth in a manger bye.

6. With looks and hearts ferene
Go wifit Christ your King;
And fire the flaming troop was feen;
The shepherds heard them fing;

7. Glory to God on high!

1. the new 'nly peace on earth,

Good-will to men, to Angels joy,

At the Redeemer's birth.

8. [In worship so divine Let saints employ their tongues, With the celestial hosts we join, And loud repeat their songs.

Glory to God on Ligh!
 And beavinly peace on earth,
 Good-will to men, to Angels joy,
 At our Redeemer's birth.

HYMN XX. C. M. STEELE.

The Incarnation. John i. 14.

- 1. A WAKE, awake the facred fong To our incarnate Lord; Let every heart and every tongue Adore the eternal Word.
- a. That awful Word, that fovereign Power, By whom the worlds were made; (O happy morn! shuftrious hour!) Was once in flesh array d!
- Then shone almighty power and leve In all their glorious forms;
 When Jesus less this throne above To dwell with finful worms.
- 4. To dwell with mifery below,

 The Saviour left the fkies;

 And funk to wretchedness and woe,

 That worthless Man might rife.
- Adoring Angels tun'd their fengs
 To hail the joyful day;
 With rapture then, let mortal tongues
 Their grateful worship pay.
- What glory, Lord, to thee is due!
 With wonder we adore;
 But could we fing as Angels do,
 Our highest praise were poor.

HYMN XXI. C. M. RIPPON.

The Redeemer's Meffage, Luke iv. 18, 19.

- r, TTARK, the glad found, the Savior comes, The Savior promis'd long! Let every heart prepare a throne, And every voice a fong.
- On him the Spirit, largely pour'd Exerts his facred fire;
 Wifdom and might, and zeel and love His holy breaft inspire.
- He comes the prisoners to release, In Satan's bondage held,
 The gates of brass before him burst,
 The iron setters yield.
- 4. He comes, from thickest films of vices
 To clear the mental ray;
 And on the eyes appress with night,
 To pour celedial day.
- 5. He comes, the broken heart to bind, The bleeding foul to cure; And with the treasures of his grace, T'inrich the humble poor.
- 6. Our glad Hojannus, Prince of Peace, Thy welcome shall proclaim; And heaven's eternal arches ring With thy beloved name.

HYMN XXII. Dr. WATTS

Redemption by Christ.

- T. WHEN the first parents of our race Rebell'd, and lost their God, And the infection of their fin Had tainted all our blood!
- 4. Infinite pity touch'd the heart of the eternal Sop,

Descending from the heav'nly court, He left his Father's throne.

- Afide the Prince of glory threw
 His most divine array,
 And wrapt his Godhead in a veil
 Of our inferior clay.
- His living pow'r and dying love, Redeem'd unhappy men,
 And rais'd the ruins of our race To life and God again.
- 5. To thee, dear Lond, our flesh and soul
 We joyfully resign:
 Bless'd Jesus, take us for thy own,
 For we are doubly thine.
- 6. Thine honour faall forever be
 The business of our days,
 For ever shall our thankful tongues,
 Speak thy deserved praise.

HYMN XXIII. Proper Metre. Dr. WATTS

The offices of Christ.

- I. JOIN all the glorious names
 Of wifdom, love, and pow'r
 That ever mortals knew,
 That angels ever bore:
 All are too niean
 To fpeak his worth,
 Too mean to fet
 My Saviour forth.

 2. But, O what gentle terms,
- 2. But, O what gentle terms,
 What condescending ways
 Doth our Redeemer use,
 To teach his heav nly grace!
 Mine eyes with joy
 And wonder see

What forms of love He bears for me.

[3. Array'd in mortal flesh, He like an angel stands, And holds the promises, And pardons in his hands: Commission'd from His Father's throne; To make his grace To mortals known.]

[4. Great Prophet of my God,
My tongue would bless thy name;
By thee the joyful news
Of our falvation came;
The joyful news
Of fins forgiv'n,
Of hell fubfu'd

And peace with heav'n.]

[5. Be thou my Courfiller, My pattern and my guide; And thro' this defert land Still keep me near thy fide. O let my feet

Ne'er run astray, Nor rove, nor seek The crooked way!]

[3. I love my Shepherd's voice, His watchful eyes shall keep My wand'ring foul among The thousands of his sheep:
He feeds his flock
He calls their names,
His bosom bears
The tender lambs.]

7. To this dear Surety's hand Will I commit my cause;

He answers and fulfils
His Father's broken laws.
Behold my foul
At freedom fet!
My Surety paid

The dreadful debt.]

8. Fefus, my great High Prieft,
Offer'd his blood and died;
My guilty confcience feeks
No facrifice befide.
His powerful blood

Did once atone; And now it pleads Before the throne.

My Advocate appears,
 For my defence on high;
 My Father, bows his ear,
 And lays his thuunder by.

Not all that hell
Or fin can fay,
Shall turn his heart,
And love away.

o. My dear almighty Lord, My Conqu'ror, and my King, Thy feeptre and thy fword, Thy reigning grace I fing. Thine is the pow'r;

Behold I fit In willing bonds
Beneath thy feet.

1. Now, let my foul arife, And tread the tempter down; My Captain leads me forth To conquest and a crown.

A feeble faint Shall win the day, Tho' death and hell Obstruct the way. 22. Should all the hofts of death,
And powers of hell unknown,
Put their most dreadful forms
Of rage and mischief on:
I shall be safe,
For Christ displays
Superior power
And guardian grace.

HYMN XXIV. Dr. WATTS.

The offices of Christ.

- Z. WE bless the prophet of the Lord,
 That comes with truth and grace;
 Jesus, thy Spirit, and thy word
 Shall lead us in thy ways.
- We rev'rence our High-Priest above, Who offer'd up his blood, And lives to carry on his love, By pleading with our God.
- 3. We honour our exalted King;
 How fweet are his commands!
 He guards our fouls from hell and fin,
 By his almighty hands.
- 4. Hofanna to his glorious name,
 Who faves by different ways:
 His mercies lay a foverign claim
 To our immortal praise.

HYMN XXV. Dr. WATTS.

Christ the wisdom of God. Prov. viii. 1, 22-23.

I. SHALL wisdom cry aloud,
And not her speech be heard?
The voice of God's eternal Word,
Deserves it no regard?

1 A 126 (123) 12 12 13

2. "I was his chief delight,
"His everlasting Son,
Refore the first of all his work

Before the first of all his works, " Creation was begun.

- (2. "Before the flying clouds,
 "Before the folid land,
 Before the fields, before the floods,
 "I dwelt at his right hand.
- 4. "When he adorn'd the fkies,
 "And built them, I was there,
 To order when the fun fhould rife,
 "And marfiel ev'ry flar.

- Then come, receive my grace,
 Ye children and be wife;
 Happy the man that keeps my ways,
 The man that fruns them dies."

HYMN XXVI. Dr. WATTS.

Christ our wisdom and regbteousness.

HOW heavy is the night
 That hangs upon our eyes,
 ill Christ with his reviving light
 Over our fouls arise!

2. Our guilty spirits dread
To meet the wrath of heav'n;
But in his righteousness array'd
We see our fins forgiv'n.

3. Unholy and impure
Are all our thoughts and ways;
His hands infected nature cure
With fanctifying grace.

To hold our fouls in vain;

He fets the fons of bondage free,

And breaks the curfed chain.

3. Lord, we adore thy ways,
To bring as near to God,
Thy fov'reign pow'r, thy healing grace,
And thine atoning blood.

HYMN XXVII. Dr. WATTS.

The example of Christ.

- Y dear Redeemer, and my Lord!
 I read my duty in thy word;
 But in thy life the law appears,
 Drawn out in living characters.
- 2. Such was thy truth, and fuch thy zeal,
 Such def'rence to thy Father's will,
 Thy love and meckness so divine,
 I would transcribe, and make them mine.
- 3. Cold mountains, and the midnight air,
 Witness'd the fervour of thy pray'r:
 The defert thy temptations knew,
 'Thy conflict, and thy vict'ry too,
- 4. Be thou my pattern; make me bear
 More of thy gracious image here;
 Then God, the Judge, shall own thy name
 Among the followers of the Lamb.

HYMN XXVIII. Dr. WATTS.

God reconciled in Christ.

DEAREST of all the names above, My Jefus, and my God, Who can refult thy heav'nly love, Or trifle with thy blood?

Tis by the merits of thy death
The Father fmiles again;
Tis by thine interceding breath
The Spirit dwells with men.

'Till God in human flesh I fee,
My thoughts no comfort find;
The holy, just, and facred Three
Are terrors to my mind.

But if Immanuel's face appear, My hope, my joy begins; His name forbids my flavish fear, His grace removes my fins.

While Jews on their own law rely,
And Greeks of wifdom boaft,
I love th' incarnate mystery,
And there I fix my trust.

HYMN XXIX. Dr. WATTS.

rist appearing to his Church, Sol. Song ii. 8, 9, 10,

THE voice of my beloved founds Over the rocks and rifing grounds; O'er hills of guilt, and feas of grief. He leaps, he flies, to my relief.

Now thro' the vail of flesh I see, With eyes of love he looks at me; Now in the gospel's clearest glass He shows the beauties of his face.

- 3. Gently he draws my heart along,
 Both with his beauties and his tongueRife. faith my Lord, make hafte arway,
 No mortal joys are worth thy flay.
- A. The Fewiß wint'ry flate is gone, The mists are sted, the spring comes on, The sacred turtle-dove, we hear, Proclaims the new, the joyful year.
- 5. Th' immortal vine, of heavenly root, Bloffoms and buds, and gives her fruit. Lo, we are come to taste the wine: Our fouls rejoice, and bless the vine.
- And when we hear our Jefus fay, Rife up my Lord, make bafte arway, Our hearts would fain out-fly the wind, And leave all earthly loves behind.

HYMN XXX. Dr. WATTS.

The coronation of Christ, and espousals of the church Sol. Song iii. 2.

- DAUGHTERS of Sion, come, behold
 The crown of honour and of go'd,
 Which the glad church, with joys unknown,
 Plac'd on the head of Solomon.
- 2. Jefus, thou everlafting King!
 Accept the tribute which we bring,
 Accept the well deferv'd renown,
 And wear our praifes as thy crown.
- Let ev'ry act of worship be
 Like our espousals, Lord, to thee;
 Like the dear hour, when from above
 We first receiv'd thy pledge of love.
- 4. The gladness of that happy day!
 Our hearts would wish it long to stay;

Nor let our faith forfake its hold, Nor comfort fink, nor love grow cold.

Each following minute, as it flies, Increase thy praise, improve our joys, Till we are rais'd to sing thy name, At the great supper of the Lamb.

Oh that the months would roll away, And bring that coronation-day! The King of grace shall fill the throne, With all his Father's glories on.

HYMN XXXI. Dr. WATTS.

Glory and grace in the person of Christ.

NOW to the Lord a noble fong!

Awake, my foul; awake, my tongue,

Hofanna to th' eternal name,

And all his boundlefs love proclaim.

See where it shines in Jesus' face, The brightest image of his grace; God, in the person of his Son, Has all his mightiest works outdone.

The spacious earth and spreading flood, Proclaim the wife and pow'rful God, And thy rich glories from afar sparkle in ev'ry rolling star.

But in his looks a glory stands, The noblest labour of thine hands of the pleasing lustre of his eyes Jutshines the wenders of the skies.

Grace! 'tis a fweet, a charming theme;

My thoughts rejoice at Jesus' name!
'e angels, dwell upon the found;
le heav'ns, reslect it to the ground!

Ih, may I live to reach the place ! There he unveils his lovely face !

Where all his beauties you behold, And fing his name to harps of gold!

HYMN XXXII. Dr. WATTS.
God the Son equal with the Father.

- BRIGHT King of glory, dreadful God to Our spirits bow before thy seet;
 To thee we lift an humble thought,
 And worship at thine awful seet.
- [2. Thy pow'r hath form'd, thy wifdom fways
 All nature with a fov'reign word:
 And the bright world of stars obeys
 The will of their superior Lord.]
- [3. Mercy and truth unite in one,
 And finiling fit at thy right hand;
 Eternal justice guards thy throne.
 And vecageance waits thy dread command.
- 4. A thousand seraphs strong and bright Stand round the glorious Deity;
 But who amongst the sons of light,
 Pretends comparison with thee?
- 5. Yet there is one of human frame,
 Jefus, array'd in flesh and blood,
 Thinks it no robbery to claim
 A full equality with God.
- 16. Their glory shines with equal beams;
 Their effence is for ever one,
 Tho' they are known by different names,
 The Father God, and God the Son.
- 7. Then let the name of Christ our King With equal honours be ador'd;
 His praise let ev'ry angel fing,
 And all the nations own the Lord page.

HYMN XXXIII. Dr. WATTS.

Ibrist's Humiliation and exaltation, Rev. v. 12.

WHAT equal honours shall we bring
To thee, O Lord our God, the Lamb,
When all the notes that angels sing,
Are far inferior to thy name?

Worthy is he that once was flain, The Prince of Peace that groan'd and died, Worthy to rife, and live and reign At his Almighty Father's fide.

Pow'r and dominion are his due, Who ftood condenn'd at Pilate's bar ; Wifdom belongs to Jefus too, Tho' he was charg'd with madnefs'here.

All riches are his native right, let he fustain'd amazing loss; To him aferibe eternal might, Who left his weakness on the cross.

Honour immortal must be paid, nstead of scandal and of scorn; While glory shines around his head, and a bright crown without a thorn.

Bleffings for ever on the Lamb, Who bore the curfe for wretched men: Let angels found his facred name, And every creature fay, Amen.

HYMN XXXIV. Dr. WATTS.

racles in the life, death, and resurrection of Christ,

BEHOLD, the blind their fight receive!

Behold, the dead awake, and live;
The dumb fpeak wonders, and the lame
Leap like the hart, and blefs his name!

- 2. Thus doth th' eternal Spirit own
 And feal the muffion of the Son;
 The Father vindicates his caufe,
 While he hangs bleeding on the crofs.
- 3. He dies; the heav'ns in mourning Road;
 He rifes, and appears a God:
 Behold the Lord afcending high,
 No more to bleed, no more to die:
- 4. Hence and for ever from my heart.

 I bid my doubts and fears depart;

 And to those hands my foul resign,
 Which bear credentials so divine.

HYMN XXXV. L.M. Dr. WATTS'S MISCELL

The Humiliation, Exaltation, and Triumphs of Chris

- I. THE mighty frame of glorious grace,

 That brighter monument of praife
 That e'er the God of Love defign'd,

 Employs and fills my labouring mind.
- 2. Begin, my Soul, the heavenly fong, A burden for an Angel's Tongue: When Gabriel founds these awful things, He tures and summons all his strings.
- 3. Proclaim inimitable love, Jefus, the Lord of worlds above, Puts off the beams of bright array, And veils the God in mortal clay.
- 4. He that distributes crowns and thrones Hangs on a tree, and bleeds and grouns: The Prince of Life resigns his breath, The King of Glory bows to death.
- 5. But fee the wonders of his power, He triamphs in his dying hour, And, while by Satan's rage he fell, He dash'd the rising hopes of hell.

- Thus were the hofts of death fubdu'd, And fin was drown'd in Jefus's blood: Then he arofe; he reigns above, And conquers finners by his love.
- 7. Who shall sussile this boundless song?
 The theme surmounts an Angel's Tongue;
 How low, how vain are mortal airs,
 When Gabriel's nobler harp despairs!

HYMN XXXVI. 148th Dr. DoddRidgs.

The resurrection of Christ, Luke xxiv. 34.

YES, the Redeemer rofe;
The Saviour left the dead;
And o'er our hellish foes
High rais'd his conquering head:
In wild diffury
The guards around
Fall to the ground,
And sish away:

Lo I the Angelic bands
In full affembly meet,
To walt his high commands,
And worthip at his fect:
Joyfui they come,
And wire their way
From realins of day
To Jefus' comb.

Then back to heaven they fly,
The joyful news to bear:
Hirk! as they four on high,
What mufic fills the air!
Their anthems fay,

" Jeius who bled

" Hath left the dead;

ss. He role to-day:"

4. Ye Mortels, catch the Sound, Redeem'd by him from hell; And fend the echo round The globe, on which you dwell; Transported erv.

" Jefus who bled
" Hath left the dead,
" No more to die."

3. All hail, triumphant Lord,
Who fav'ft us with thy blood!
Wide be thy name ador'd,
Thou rifing, reigning God!
With thee we rife,
With thee we reign,
And empires gan

Beyond the ikies,

HYMN XXXVII. 148th. RIPTON. The kingdom of Chris, Phil. iv. 4.

- LEJOICE, the Lord is King,
 Your God and King adore;
 Mortals, give thanks, and fing,
 And triumph evermore!
 Lift up the heart, lift up the voice,
 Rejoice aloud, ye faints, rejoice.
- 2. Rejoice, the Saviour reigns,
 The God of truth and love:
 When he had purg'd our stains,
 He took his feat above:
 Lift up the heart, lift up the voice,
 Rejoice aloud, ye faints, rejoice.
- 3. His kingdom cannot fail,
 He rakes o'er earth and heaven;
 The keys of death and hell
 Are to our Jefus given:
 Lift up the heart, lift up the voice,
 Rejoice aloud, ye faints, rejoice.

- 4. He all his foes shall quell, Shall all our sins destroy; And every bosom swell With pure, seraphic joy: List up the heart, list up the voice, Rejoice alond, ye faints, rejoice.
- c. Rejoice in glorious hope, Jefus, the Judge, fhell come, And take his fervants up To their eternal home:

We foon shall hear th' Archangel's voice, The trump of God shall found, rejoice.

HYMN NXXVIII. L. M. STEELE.

The interession of Christ, Heb. vii. 25.

- 1. The lives, the great Redeemer lives, Land (What joy the bleft affurance gives!)
 And tow, before his Father God,
 Pleads the fall merit of his blood.
- Repeated crimes awake our fears, And judice arm'd with frowns appears; But in the Savicur's levely face.
 Sweet Mercy Imiles, and all is peace.
- Honce then ye black, despairing thoughts, Above our sears, above our saults, His powerful intercessions rise And guilt recedes, and terror dies.
- 4. In every dark, distressful hour,
 When Sin and Satau join their power;
 Let this dear hope repel the dart,
 That Jesus bears us on his heart.
 - 5. Great Advocate, almighty Friend— On him our humble hopes depend: Our cause can never, never fail, For Jesus pleads, and must prevail

S

HYMN XXXIX. Dr. WATTS.

A new Song to the Lamb that was fixin, Rev. v. 6.

- 2. BEHOLD the glories of the Lamb.
 Amid'it his Father's throne:
 Prepare new honours for his name,
 And longs before unknown.
- Let elders worship at his feet, The church adore around, With vials full of odours fweet, And harps of sweeter sound.
- These are the prayers of the fainte.
 And these the hymns they raise:
 Jesus is kind to our complaints,
 He loves to hear our praise.
- [4. Reernal Father, who shall look Into thy secret will? Who but the Son shall take that book, And open ev'ry seal?
- He shall fulfil thy great decrees, The Son deferves it well;
 Le in his hand the sov'reign keys Of heav'n, and death, and hell!
- 6. Now to the Lamb, that once was flain, .

 Be endless blessings paid;
 Salvation, glory, joy, remain

 For ever on thy head.
- Thou hast redeem'd our fouls with blood,"
 Hast fet the pris'ners free.
 Hast made us kings and priests to God,"
 And we shall reign with thee,
- 8. The worlds of nature and of grace Are put beneath thy power; Then fnorten these delaying days, And bring the promis'd hour.

HYMN XL. Dr. WATTS.

Christ Jesus the Lamb of God worshipped by all the Creation, Rev. v. 11, 12, 13.

- 1. COME, let us join our cheerful fongs
 With Angels round the throne,
 Ten thousand thousand are their tongues,
 But all their joys are one.
- 2. Worthy the Lamb that died, they cry, .

 To be excited thus:

 Worthy the Lamb, our Epsreply,

 For he was flain for us.
- 3. Jefus is worthy to receive

 Honour and pow'r divine;

 And bleffings more than we can give,

 Be, Lord, for ever thine.
- 4. Let all that dwell alone the fky, And air, and earth, and feas, Confpire to lift thy glories high, And speak thine endless praise.
- 5. The whole creation join in one, To blass the faced Name Of him that fits upon the thrope, And to adore to Lamb.

HYMR XLL Dr. WATTS,

The glory of Christ in beaven.

- r. O THE delights, the heavinly joys,
 The glories of the place,
 Where Jufus shees the brightest beams
 Of his o'erslowing grace!
- 2. Sweet majefty and awful love
 Sit finding on his brow,
 And all the glorious ranks above
 At humble diffance bow.

- [3. Princes to his imperial name

 Bend their bright fceptres down;

 Dominions, thrones, and pow'rs rejoice

 To fee him wear the crown.
- 4. Archangels found his lofty praife
 Thro' ev'ry heav'nly ftreet,
 And lay their highest honours down
 Submissive at his feet.
- 3. This is the Man, th' exalted Man, Whom we, unfeen, adore; But when our eyes behold his face, Our hearts shall love him more.

HYMN XI.II. Dr. WATTS ...

The creation of the avorld, Gen. i.

- 1. NoW let a spacious world arise,
 Said the Creator-Lord;
 At once th' obedient earth and skies
 Rose at his fovereign word.
- [2. Dark was the deep: the waters lay
 Confus'd and drown'd the land:
 He call'd the light: the new-born day
 Attends on his command.
- 3. He bids the clouds afcend on high;
 The clouds afcend and bear
 A wat'ry treasure to the fky,
 And float on foster air.
- 4. The liquid element below

 Was gather'd by his hand;

 The rolling feas together flow

 And leave the folid land.

- g. With herbs and plants (a flow'ry birth)
 The naked globe he crown'd,
 Ere there was rain to blefs the earth,
 Or fun to warm the ground.
- 6. Then he a form'd the upper skies;
 Behold the fun appears;
 The moon and stars in order rise,
 To mark out months and years.
- 7. Out of the deep th' Almighty King Did vital beings frame, The painted fowls of ev'ry wing, And fish of ev'ry name.
- 3. He gave the lion and the worm At once their wond rous birth, And grazing beafts of various form Rofe from the teeming earth.
- Adam was fram'd of equal clay, Tho' fov'reign of the reft,
 Defign'd for nobler ends than they.
 With God's own image blefs'd.
- Thus glorious in the Maker's eye
 The young creation food;
 He faw the building from on high;
 His word pronounc'd it good.
- TI. Lord, while the frame of nature stands.

 Thy praise snall fill my tongue;

 But the new world of grace demands

 A more exalted song.

HYMN LXIII. C. M. Dr. WATTS'S LYRIC

A fong to creating Wiflem.

I. ETERNAL wildom, thee we praise,...
Thee the creation lings:

With thy lov'd name, rocks, hills, and feas, "!

And heaven's high palace rings.

- 2. Thy hand, how wide it forced the sky!

 How glorious to behold!

 Ting'd with a blue of heavenly dye,
- And ftarr'd with sparkling gol w
 3. Thy glories blaze all nature round,
 And firike the gazing fight,
- And firike the gazing fight,
 Thro' ikies and feas, and folid ground,
 With terror and delight.
- Infinite frength, and equal skill Shine thro' the worlds abroad;
 Our feels with vall amazement fill,
 And speak the builder God.
- 5. But still the wonders of thy grace
 Our foster passions move;
 Pity divine in Jesus' face
 We see, adore and love:

HYMN XLIV. L. M. DR. DODDRIDGE.

God's Goodnessto the Children of Men, Pfalm cvii. 31.

- TE Sons of Men, with joy record
 The various wonders of the Lord;
 And let his power and goodness found
 Thro' all your tribes the earth around.
- Let the high Heavens your longs invite,
 Those spacious fields of brilliam light;
 Where sun, and moon, and planets roll,
 And stars that glow from pole to pole.
- 3 Sing, Earth, in verdant robes array'd; Its herbs and flowers, its fruits and shades; Peopled with life of various forms, Of fish, and fowl, and beasts, and worms.
- 4. View the broad Sea's majestic plains, - And think how wide its maker reigns:

That band remotest nations joins, and it is at all.

- 6. Thither, my foul, with rapture fear There in the land of praife adore; The theme demands an Angel's lay, Demands an everlatting day.

HYMN XLV. C. M. STEELE.

Greation and Presidence.

- I. ORD, when our raptur'd thought furveys
 Creation's beauties o'er,
 All nature joins to teach thy praife,
 And bid our fouls adore.
- 2. Where'er we turn our gazing eyes,
 Thy radiant footsteps shine;
 Ten thousand pleasing wonders rife
 And speak their source divine.
- 3. The living tribes of countiefs forms,
 In earth, and fea, and air:
 The meanest flies, the smallest worms
 Almighty power declare.
- 4. Thy wisdom, power and goodness Lord, In all thy works appear: And, O! let Man thy praise record, Man, thy ditinguish'd Care!
- From thee the breath of life he drew;
 That breath thy power meintains;
 Thy tender mercy, ever new,
 His brittle frame fultains.
- 6. Yet nobler favours claim his praife, . . . Of reafon's light posses'd;

By Revelation's brightest rays, Still more divinely bles'd.

- Thy Providence, his conflant guard, When threat'ning woes impend;
 Or will th' impending dangers ward,
 Or timely fuccours lend.
- 8. On us that Providence has shone
 With gentle, smiling rays;
 Oh may our lips and lives make know:
 Thy goodness and thy praise!

HYMN XLVI, C. M. ADDISON

The Traveller's Plaim.

- 1. HOW are thy Servants blefs'd, O Lord.
 How fure is their defence!
 Eternal wifdom is their guide,
 Their help omnipotence.
- In foreign realms and lands remote, Supported by thy care, Thro' burning climes they pass unhurt, And breathe in taintedlair.
- When by the dreadful tempest borne, High on the broken wave,
 They know thou art not slow to hear, Nor impotent to fave.
- 4. The from is laid, the winds retire,
 Obedient to thy will:
 The fea, that roars at thy command,
 At thy command is flill.
- In 'midit of dangers, fears and deathe, "
 Thy goodness we'll adore,
 We'll praise thee for thy mercies past,

And humbly hope for more.

8. Our life, while thou prefery'st that life, a and Thy facrifice shall be;
And death, when death shall be our los,
Shall join our fouls to thee.

HYMN XLVII, C. M. STEELE."

Praise for the Bieffings of Providence and Graces

A LMIGHTY Father, gracious Lord,
 Kind Guardian of my days,
 Thy mercies let my heart record
 In fongs of grateful praife.

In life's first dawn, my tender frame
 Was thy indulgent care,
 Long ere I could pronounce thy name,
 Or breathe the infant prayer,

3. [Around my path what dangers role! What fnares spread all my road! No power could guard me from my fores. But my Preserver, God.

4. How many bleffings round me shone,
Where'er I turn'd my eye!
How many past almost unknown,
Or unregarded, by!]

5. Each rolling year new favours brought From thy exhaustless store; But ah! in vain my labouring thought Would count thy mercies o'er.

While fweet reflection, thro' my days
 Thy bounteous hand would trace;
 Still dearer bleffings claim thy praife,
 The bleffings of thy grace.

7. Yes, I adore thee, gracious Lord,
For favours more divine;

That I have known thy facred Word, Where all thy glories shine.

 Lord, when this mortal frame decays, And every weakness dies,
 Complete the wonders of thy grace, And raise me to the skies.

 Then shall my joyful powers unite, In more exalted lays, And join the happy fons of light In everlasting praise.

HYMN XLVIII. Dr. WATTS.

Original fin : or, the first and second Adam, Rom. v. 12, &c. Plal. li. 5. Job xiv. 4.

1. PACKWARD with humble shame we look
On our original;
How is our nature dash'd and broke in our first father's fall!

A. To all that's good averfe, and blind,
But prone to all that's ill;
What dreadful darkness veils our mind!
How obtinate our will!

[3. Conceiv'd in fin (O wretched flate)

Before we draw our breath,

The first young pulse begins to beat
Iniquity and death.

4. How firong in our degen'rate blood
The old corruption reigns,
And mingling with the crooked flood,
Wanders through all our veins!

[5. Wild and unwholefome as the root, Will all the branches be; How can we hope for living fruit From fuch a deadly tree?

and according to the grant

- 6. What mortal pow'r from things unclean Can pure productions bring? Who can command a vital fiream From an infected fpring?
- 7. Yet, mighty God, thy wond'rous love Can make our nature clean, While Christ and grace prevail above The tempter, death and fin.
 - 8. The fecond Adam shall restore
 The ruins of the first;
 Hosanc to that sov'reign pow'r
 That new-creates our dust!

HYMN XLIX. C. M. Dr. S. STENNETT.

Induvolling fin lamented.

- WITH tears of anguish I lament, Here at thy feet, my God, My Passion, Pride, and Discontent, And vile Ingratitude.
- Sure there was no'er a heart to bale So falfe as mine has been;
 So faithlefs to its promifes,
 So prone to every fin!
- My reason tells me thy commands
 Are holy, just, and true;
 Tells me whate'er my God demands
 Is his most righteous due.
- 4. Reafon I hear, her counfels weigh, And all her words approve: But still I find it hard t' obey, And harder yet to love.
- 5. How long, dear Saviour, shall I feel These struggles in my breast? When wilt thou bow my stubborn will, And give my conscience rest?

6. Break, fov'reign grace, O break the charm,
And fet the captive free:
Reveal, Almorhty God, thing arm.

And haste to rescue me.

HYMN L. Dr. WATTS:

The diffemper, folly, and madness of fin,

- S IN, like a venomous difeafe,
 Infects our vital blood:
 The only balm is fov reign grace,
 And the physician God.
- Our beauty and our firength are fled, And we draw near to death;
 But Chrift, the Lord, recalls the dead With his almighty breath.
- 3. Madnefs, by nature, reigns within, The paffions burn and rage, Till God's own Son with skill divine The inward fire affuage.
- [4. We lick the dust, we grasp the wind, And folid good despise: Such is the folly of the wind, 'Till Jesus makes us wife.
- 5. We give our fouls the wounds they feel,
 We drink the pois'nous gall,
 And rufh with fury down to hell;
 But heav'n prevents the fall.
- 6. The man, roffefs'd, among the tombs
 Cuts his own fiefh, and cries:
 He foams and raves, till Jefus comes,
 And the foul spirit files.

HYMN LI. Dr. WATTS.

An unconverted flate : or, Converting grave

[1. GREAT king of glory and of grace! We own, with hemble chame,

- How vile is our degen'rate race, And our first father's name.]
- From Adam flows our tainted blood,
 The poifon reigns within,
 Makes us averfe to all that's good,
 And willing flaves to fin.
- [3. Daily we break thy holy laws, And then reject thy grace; Engag'd in the old ferpent's cause, Against our Maker's face.]
- 4. We live estrang'd afar from God,
 And love the distance well;
 With haste we run the dang'rous road
 That leads to death and hell.
- And can fuch rebels be reftor'd ?
 Such natures made divine?

ie Gospel is the power of God to Salvation, Rom. i. 16-

WHAT shall the dying Sinner do, That seeks relief for all his woe? Where shall the guilty conscience find Ease for the torment of the mind?

How shall we get our crimes forgiven, Or form our natures sit for heaven? Can fouls, all o'er dessi'd with sin, Make their own powers and passions clean?

In vain we fearch, in vain we try, Fill Jefus brings his Gofpel nigh; Tis there that power and glory dwell That fave rebellious fouls from hell.

This is the pillar of our hope, That bears our fainting spirits up; We read the grace, we trust the word, And find salvation in the Lord.

Let men or angels dig the mines Where nature's golden treasure shines? Brought near the doctrine of the cross, All nature's gold appears but dross.

Should vile blaiphemers, with difdain, Pronounce the truth of Jefus vain, We'll meet the feandal and the fliame, And fing, and triumph in his name.

IMN LXI. C. M. Dr. WATTS'S SERMONS.

A rational defence of the Gofpel.

SHALL Atheifer dare infult the cross of our incarnate God?

Shall Infidels revile his truth,

And trample on his blood!

- 2. What if he choose mysterious ways
 To cleanse us from our faults?
 May not the works of sovereign grace
 Transcend our seeble thoughts?
- 3. What if his Gospel bids us strive With flesh, and self, and sin? The prize is most divinely bright, That we are call'd to win.
- 4. What if the men, defpis'd on earth, ...
 Still of his grace partake?
 This but confirms his truth the more,
 For so the prophet spake.
- Do fome that own his facred truth,
 Indulge their fouls in fin?

 None should reproach the Saviour's name,
 His laws are pure and clean.
- Then let our faith be firm and strong, Our lips profess his word;
 Nor ever shun those holy men, Who fear and love the Lord.

My filial piety and love!
Whilft all my brethren clearly trace
Their Father's likenefs in my face.

HYMN LXXXV. C. M. COWPER,

Walking with God, Gen. v. 24.

- OH for a closer Walk with God, A calm and heavenly frame;
 And light to thine upon the Road That leads me to the Lamb!
- 2. Where is the bleffednefs I knew When first I faw the Lord! Where is the foul-refreshing view Of Jesus, and his word?
- What peaceful hours I then enjoy'd!
 How fweet their memory ftill!
 But now I find an aching void,
 The world can never fill,
- 4. Return, O holy Dove, return,
 Sweet mellenger of reft!
 I hate the Sins that made thee moure,
 And drove thee from my breaft.
- The dearest ideal I have known, Whate'er that ideal be, Help me to tear it from thy throne, And worship only thee.

Yet Noah, humble, happy faint, Surrounded with the choicn few, Sat in his ark, secure from fear, And sang the grace that steer'd him thro.

So I may fing, in Jefus fafe, While storms of vengeance round me fall, Confcious how high my hopes are fix'd, Beyond what shakes this earthly ball.

Enter thine ark, while patience waits, Nor ever quit that fure retreat; Then the wide flood, which buries earth, Shall waft thee to a fairer feat.

Nor wreck nor ruin there is seen;
There not a wave of trouble rolls;
But the bright rainbow round the throne
Seals endless life to all their souls.

Influence of the Spirit.

A S showers on meadows newly mown, Jetus shell shed his blessings down, Crown't with whose life-infusing drops, Earth shall renew her blissful crops,

Lands, that beneath a burning fky Have long been defolate and dry, Th' effusions of his love shall share, And sudden greens and herbage wear.

The dews and rains, in all their store, Drenching the pastures o'er and o'er, Arc not so copious as that grace Which sanctifies and saves our race.

As in foft filence vernal showers
Descend and cheer the fainting flowers,
So in the secrecy of love,
Falls the sweet influence from above.

That heavenly influence let me find in holy filence of the mind, While every grace maintains its bloom, Diffufing wide its rich perfume.

moidion of fin by the law, Rom. vii. 8, 9, 14, 24

ORD, how fecure my confcience was,
And felt no inward dread!
I was alive without the law,
And thought my fins were dead.

My hopes of heav'n were firm and bright,
But fince the precept came
With a convincing pow'r and light,

I find how vite I am.

. My guilt appear'd but small before, Till terribly I saw

How perfect, holy, just, and pure, Was thine eternal law.

Then felt my foul the heavy load,.
My fins reviv'd again,
I had provok'd a dreadful God,

And all my hopes were flain.

I'm like a helples captive fold,

Under the pow'r of fin;

I cannot do the good I would,

Nor keep my confeience clean.

My God, I cry with every breath'

For fome kind pow'r to fave,

To break the yoke of fin and death,

And thus redeem the flave:

Love to God.

HAPPY the heart, where graces reign,
 Where love infpires the breaft:
 Love is the brigheft of the train,
 And ftrengthens all the reft.

- Knowledge, alas! 'tis all in vain.
 And all in vain our fear:
 Our stubborn fins will fight and reign,
 If love be absent there.
- Tis love that makes our cheerful feet
 In fwift obedience move;
 The devils know, and tremble too,
 But devils cannot love.
- 4. This is the grace that lives and fings, When faith and hope shall cease; 'Tis this shall strike our joyful strings In the sweet realms of bliss.
- Defore we quite forfake our clay, Or leave this dark abode,
 The wings of love bear us away
 To fee our fmiling God.

Love and Clarity, 1 Cor. xiii. 2-7-12.

- I. L ET Pharifces of high efteem Their faith and zeal declare, All their religion is a dream, If love be wanting there.
- Love fuffers long with patient eye, Nor is provok'd in hafte;
 She lets the prefent injury die, And long dergets the paft.
- [3 Malice and rage, those fires of hell, She quenches with her tongue; Hones and believes, and thinks no ill, Tho' she endures the wrong.]
- [4. She ne'er defires nor feeks to know The feandals of the time; Nor looks with pride on thefe below, Nor envies those that climb.]
- 5. She lays her own advantage by, To teck her neighbour's good; So Ged's own Son came down to die, And bought our lives with blood.
- Love is the grace that keeps her pow'r, In all the realms above;
 There faith and hope are known no more, But faints for ever love.

HYMN CXVI. Dr. WATTS.

We walk by faith, not by fight.

i. 'TIS by the faith of joys to come
We walk thro' defarts dark as night,
Till we arrive at heav'n, our home;
Faith is our guide, and faith our light.

- The want of fight the well supplies, She makes the pearly gates appear; Far into distant worlds the pries, And brings eternal glories near.

 My mem'ry can retain;
 - [3. My hope my portion and my God, How little art thou known By all the judgments of thy rod, And bleffings of thy throne!]
 - [4. How cold and feeble is my love! How negligent my fear! How low my hope of joys above! How few affections there!
 - Great God! thy fov'reign pow'r impart,
 To give thy word fuccefs:
 Write thy falvation in my heart,
 And make me learn thy grace.

Shew my forgetful feet the way
 That leads to joys on high;
 There knowledge grows without decay,
 And love shall never die.

HYMN CXVIII. C. M. Dr. Doppridge.

Being in the fear of God all the day long, Prov. xxiii. 17.

- THRICE happy Souls, who, born of Heaven; While yet they fojourn here, Humbly begin their days with God, And fpend them in his fear!
- So may our eyes with holy zeal Prevent the dawning day;
 And turn the facted pages o'er, And praise thy name and pray!
- 3. Midft hourly cares may love prefent Its incense to thy throne; And, while the world our hands employe, Our hearts be thine alone!
- 4. As fanctified to nobleft ends, Be each refreshment fought; And by each various providence Some wife infiruction brought!
- y. When to laborious cuties call'd, Or by temptations try'd, We'll feek the shelter of thy wings, And in thy strength confide.
- As different formers of life arife, Our grateful hearts would be With thee, amidft the focial hand, In folitude with thee.
- At night we lean our weary heads
 On thy paternal breaft;
 And, fafely folded in thine arms,
 Renge our powers to reft.

 In folid pure delights, like thefe, Let all my days be paft;
 Nor shall I then impatient wish, Nor shall I fear the last

HYMN CXIX. L. M. Dr. WATTS'S SERMONS.

Gravity and Decency.

- BEHOLD the Sons, the Heirs of God.
 So dearly bought with Jefus' blood!
 Are they not born to heavenly joys;
 And faall they ftoop to earthly toys?
- a, Can Laughter feed th' immortal mind?
 Were fpirits of celeftial kind
 Made for a jeft, for fport and p'ay,
 'To wear out time, and waste the day?
- 3. Doth vain discourse, or empty mirth,
 Well suit the honours of their birth?
 Shall they be fond of gay attire,
 Which children love, and fools admire?
- 4. What if we wear the richest vest,
 Peacocks and slies are better dress;
 This slesh, with all its gaudy forms,
 Must drop to dust, and feed the werms.
- Lord, raife our hearts and passions higher;
 Touch our vain fouls with facred five;
 Then, with a Heaven directed eye.
 We'll pass these glittering trifles by.
- 6. We'll look on all the toys below With fuch difdain as Angels do; And wait the call that bids us rife 'To mansions promis'd in the skies.

HYMN CXX. L. M. RIPPON.

Liberality; or, the duty and Pleafures of benevolence.

E. O WHAT stupendous Mercy shines Around the majesty of Heaven!

Rebels he deigns to call his fons, Their Souls renew'd, their Sins forgiven.

- 2. Go, imitate the grace divine, The grace that blazes like a fun; Hold forth your fair, tho' feeble light, Thro' all your Lives let Mercy run:
- Upon your bounty's willing wings Swift let the great falvation fly;
 The hangry first, the naked clothe,
 To pain and fiching help apply.
- 4. Pity the washing wilew's wee, And be her real filter and flay; Adopt the farberle's and freeth To ufeful, happy life his way.
- Let age with wart and weakness bow'd, Your bowels of compession move Let e'en your evenies be bless'd Their harred recompens'd with love,
- 6. When all is done, renounce your deeds, Renounce felf-righteoutness with feorm; Thus will you glerify your God, And thus the Christian name adorn.

HYMN CXXI. C. M. Dr. Doddridge.

Love to our Neighbour; or, the good Samaritan, Luke x. 29-37.

- J. FATHER of Mercies, fend thy grace,
 All-powerful from above,
 To form, in our obedient fouls,
 The image of thy love.
- O may our fympathizing breafts
 That generous pleafure know;
 Kir dy to fnare in others jay,
 And weep for others woe.

- 3. When the most helpless fons of grief In low distress are laid, Soft be our hearts their pains to feel, And swift our hands to aid.
- A. So Jesus look'd on dying man,
 When thron'd above the skies;
 And, 'midst the embraces of his God,
 He felt compassion rife.
- On wings of love the Saviour flew
 To raife us from the ground;
 And fled the richest of his blood,
 A Balm for every wound.

HYMN CXXII. S. M. FAWCETT.

Love to the brethren.

BLEST be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian Love;
The Fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

- 2. Before our Father's throne
 We pour our ardent prayers;
 Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
 Our comforts and our cares.
- 3. We share our mutual woes; Our mutual burdens bear; And often for each other flows The sympathizing tear.
- 4. When we afunder part,
 It gives us inward pain,
 But we shall still be join'd in heart,
 And hope to meet again.
- 5. This glorious hope revives
 Our courage by the way ;]
 While each in expectation lives,
 And longs to fee the day.

 From forrow, toil and pain, And fin, we shall be free;
 And perfect love and friendship reigh Through all eternity.

HYMN CXXIII. S. M. BEDDOME.

Christian Love, Gal. iii. 28.

z. TET Party-Names no more
The Christian World o'erspread;
Gentile and Jew, and Bond and Free,
Are one in Christ their head.

 Among the faints on earth, Let mutual love be found;
 Heirs of the fame inheritance, With mutual bleffings crown'd.

Let envy, child of hell!
 Be-banith'd far away;
 Those should in strictest friendship dwell,
 Who the same Lord obey.

 Thus will the church below Refemble that above,
 Where ftreams of pleafure ever flow, And every heart is love.

HYMN CXXIV. Dr. WATTS.

Love and batred, Phil. ii. 2. Eph. iv. 30, &c.

- z. NOW, by the bowels of my God,
 His fharp diftrefs, his fore complaints,
 By his last groans, his dying blood,
 I charge my foul to love the faints.
- Clamour, and wrath, and war begone, Envy and spite for ever cease, Let bitter words no more be known, Amongst the faints, the sons of peace.

- 3. The Spirit, like a peaceful dove,
 Flies from the realms of noise and strife,
 Why should we vex and grieve his love,
 Who seals our souls to heavinly life?
- 4. Tender and kind be all our thoughts,
 Through all our lives let mercy run:
 So God forgives our num'rous faults.
 For the dear fake of Christ his Son.

HYMN CXXV. L. M. Dr. S. STENNETT

Pride lamented.

- r. OFT have I turn'd my eye within,
 And brought to light fome latent fin;
 But pride, the vice I most detest,
 Still lurks socurely in my breast.
- 2. Here with a thousand arts she tries
 To dress me in a fair disguise,
 To make a guilty wretched worm
 Put on an Angels brightest form.
- She hides my follies from mine eyes, And lifts my virtues to the skies; And while the specious tale she tells, Her own deformity conceals.
- Rend, O my God, the vail away, Bring forth the monster to the day; Expose her hideous form to view, And all her restless power subdue
- 5. So shall humility divine
 Again possess this heart of mine;
 And form a temple for my God,
 Which he will make his lov'd abode.

HYMN CXXVI. C. M. NEWTON

Remembrance of happier days.

SWEET was the time when first I felt The Saviour's pardoning blood Apply'd, to cleanse my soul from guilt, And bring me home to God.

- Soon as the morn the light reveal'd,
 His praifes tun'd my tongue;
 And when the evening shades prevai.'d
 His love was all my fong.
- In vain the tempter fpread his wiles, The world no more could charm;
 I liv'd upon my Saviour's fmiles, And lean'd upon his arm.
- 4. In prayer my foul drew near the Lord, And faw his glory finite; And when I read his holy Word, I call'd each promife mine.
- Then to his faints I often spoke,
 Of what his love had done;
 But now my heart is almost broke,
 For all my joye are gone.
- Now when the evening shade prevails, My foul in darkness mourns;
 And when the morn the light reveals.
 No light to me returns.
- My prayers are now an empty noil.,
 For Jefus hides his face;
 I read, the promife meets my eyes.
 But will not reach my cafe.
- 6. Now Satan threatens to prevail, And make my foul his prey; Yet, Lord, thy mercies cannot fail, O come without delay.

HYMN CXXVII. Dr. WATTS.

The pilgrimage of the faints : or, earth and heaven.

f. L ORD! what a wretched land is this,
That yields us no fupply,

No cheering fruits, no wholesome trees, Nor streams of living joy?

2. But piercing thorns through all the ground,
And mortal poisons grow,
And all the rivers that are found,
With dang your waters flow.

3. Yet the dear path to thine abode
Lies thro' this weary land;
Lord! we would keep that heavn'ly road,
And run at thy command.

[4. Our fouls shall tread the defart thro'
With undiverted feet;
And faith and slaming zeal subdue
The terrors that we meet.]

[5. A thousand savage beasts of prey Around the forest roam; But Judah's lion guards the way, And guides the strangers home.]

[6. Long nights and darkness dwell below,
With scarce a twinkling ray;
But the bright world to which we go,
Is everlasting day.]

[7. By glimm'ring hopes, and gloomy fears, We trace the facred road, Thro' difmal deeps and dang'rous fnares, We make our way to God.]

 Our journey is a thorny maze, But we march upward fill, Forget these troubles of the way, And reach at Sion's hill.

[9. See the kind angels at the gates, Inviting us to come! There Jefus the forerunner waits, To welcome travellers kome!]

- vo. There on the hills of life and peace Our raptur'd fouls shall dwell, Our toils recount, our Saviour blefs, And all his triumphs tell.
- [11. No vain discourse shall fill our tongue, Nor trifles vex our ear; Infinite grace shall be our song, And God rejoice to hear.]
- 12. Eternal glory to the King
 That brought us fafely through;
 Our tongue shall never cease to sing,
 And endless praise renew.

HYMN CXXVIII. Dr. WATTS.

Backflidings, and returns; or, the inconstancy of our love.

- I. WHY is my heart fo far from thee,
 My God, my chief delight?
 Why are my thoughts no more by day,
 With thee, no more by night?
- [2. Why should my foolish passions rove? Where can such sweetness be, As I have tasted in thy love, As I have found in thee?]
- When my forgetful foul renews
 The favour of thy grace,
 Fondly I hope I ne'er shall lose
 The reliss all my days.
- 4. But ere one flecting hour is paft,
 The flatt'ring world employs
 Some fenfual bait to feize my tafte,
 And to pollute my joys.
- [5. Trifles of nature, or of art, With fair deceitful charms, Intrude into my thoughtless heart, And thrust me from thy arms.]

- 6. Then I repent and year my foul,
 That I should leave thee fo;
 Where will shofe wild affections roll
 That let a Saviour go?
- [7. Since promis'd joys are turn'd to pain, And I am drown'd in grief; But my dear Lord returns again, He flies to my relief:
- Seizing my fool with fweet furprife,
 He draws wish loving bands;
 Divine compassion in his eyes,
 And proton in his hands]
- [9] Wrotch that I am, to wander thus,
 In chase of faile delight!
 Let me be falten'd to thy crofs,
 Rather than lose thy fight.]
- (10. Make hafte, my days, to reach the goal.

 And bring my heart to reft

 On the dear centre of my foul,

 My God, my Saviour's breaft.

HYMN CXXIX. Dr. WATTS.

Prefumption and defpair: or, Satan's various temptations.

- T HATE the tempter and his charms,
 I hate his flutt'ring breath;
 The ferpent takes a thousand forms,
 To cheat our fouls to death.
- He feeds our hopes with airy dreams, Or kills with flavish fear;
 And holds us fail in wide extremes, Prefumption or despair.
- 3. Now he persuades, how easy 'tis To walk the read to heav'n:

Anon he swells our fins, and cries, They cannot be forgion.

[4. He bids young finners, yet forbear To think of God or death; For prayer and devotion are But melanolisty treath.

5. He wills the aged, they must die, And 'tis to late too pray; In main for mercy now they cry, For they have helt their day.]

 Thus he supports his cruel throne By mischief and deceit, And drags the sons of Adam down To darkness and the pit.

 Almighty God, cut fibrt his pow'r, Let him in darkrefs dwell;
 And, that he wex the earth no more, Confine him down to hell.

HIMN CXXX. Dr. WATTS,

Lowe to the creatures is dangerous.

- HOW vain are all things here below!
 How falle, and yet how fair!
 Each pleafure hath its poison too,
 And every sweet a snare.
 - The brightest things below the sky Give but a flatt'ring light;
 We should suspect some danger nigh,
 Where we possess delight.
- Our dearest joys, and nearest friends, The partners of our blood, How they divide our wav'ring minds, And leave but half for God.
- 4. The fondness of a creature's love How strong it strikes the sense !

Thither the warm affections move, Nor can we call them thence.

 Dear Saviour! let thy beauties be My foul's eternal food;
 And grace command my heart away From all created good.

HYMN CXXXI. Dr. WATTS.

Comfort under forrows and pains.

- r. NOW let the Lord my Saviour finile, And fhew my name upon his heart; I would forget my pains awhile, And in the pleasure lose the fmart.
- But oh! it fwells my forrows high,
 To fee the bleffed Jefus frown;
 My fpirits fink, my comforts die,
 And all the fprings of life are down.
- 3. Yet why, my foul, why these complaints in Still while he frowns, his bowels move; Still on his heart he bears his faints, And feels the r forrows, and his love.
- 4. My name is printed on his breaft;
 His book of life contains my name:
 I'd rather have it there impress'd,
 Than in the bright records of fame.
- 5. When the last fire burns all things here, Those letters shall securely stand, And in the Lamb's sair book appear, Writ by th' eternal Father's hand.
- Now shall my minutes smoothly run, Whilst here I wait my Father's will; My rising and my setting sun Roll gently up and down the hill.

HYMN CXXXII. Dr. WATTS.

Redemption and protection from spiritual enemies.

- A RISE, my foul, my joyful pow'rs,
 And triumph in my God;
 Awake, my voice, and loud proclaim
 His glorious grace abroad.
- He rais'd me from the deeps of fin, The gates of gaping hell, And fix'd my flanding more fecure Than 'twas before I fell.
- The arms of everlafting love Beneath my foul he plac'd, And on the Rock of ages fet My flipp'ry footfleps fafe,
- 4. The city of my blefs'd abode Is wall'd around with grace a Salvation for a bulwark francs To shield the facred place.
- Satan may vent his fharpest spite, And all his legions rear;
 Almighty mercy guards my life And bounds his raging pow'r.
- Arife, my foul, awake, my voice, And tunes of pleafure fing;
 Loud Hallelujabe shall address
 My Saviour and my King.

HYMN CXXXIII. Dr. WATTS

The world's three chief temptations.

I. WHEN in the light of faith divine
We look on things below,
Honour and gold, and fenfual joy,
How vain and dang'rous too?

W

- [2. Honour's a puff of noify breath; Yet men expose their blood, And venture everlasting death, To-gain that airy good.
- While others starve the nobler mind,
 And feed on shining dust,
 They rob the serpent of his food,
 T' indulge a fordid lust.
- 4. The pleafures that alluse our fense
 Are dang rous fnares to fouls;
 There's but a drop of flattering fweet,
 And dash'd with bitter bowls.
- 5. God is my all-fufficient good, My portion and my choice; In him my vast desires are sill'd, And all my pow'rs rejoice.
- 6. In vain the world accosts my ear,
 And tempts my heart anew;
 I cannot buy your blifs fo dear,
 Nor part with heaven for you.

HYMN CXXXIV. Dr. WATTS.

God's presence is light in darkness.

- MY God! the fpring of all my jeys,...
 The life of my delights,
 The glory of my brightelt days,
 And comfort of my nights.
- In darkest shades if he appear,
 My dawning is begun!
 He is my foul's sweet morning-star,
 And he my rising-fun.
- The op'ning heav'ns around me shine
 With beams of facred blifs,
 While Jesus ship heart is mine.
 And whispers, I am bis!

- 4. My foul would leave this heavy clay
 At that transporting word,
 Run up with joy the shining way
 T' embrace my dearest Lord.
- Fearless of hell and ghairly death, I'd break thro' ev'ry foe: The wings of love, and arms of faith Should bear me conqu'ror through.

HYMN CXXXV. Dr. WATTS.

Doubts Scattered : or, Spiritual joys restored.

- HENCE from my foul fad thoughts be gone,
 And leave me to my joys:
 My tongue shall triumph in my God,
 And make a joyful noife.
 - 2. Darkness and doubts had veil'd my mind, And drown'd my head in tears, 'Till fov'reign grace with shining rays, Dispell'd my gloomy sears.
 - Oh, what immortal joys I felt, And raptures all divine, When Jefus told me I was his, And my beloved mine!
 - 4. In vain the tempter frights my foul,
 And breaks my peace in vain;
 One glimpfe, dear Saviour, of thy face
 Revives my joys again.

HYMN CXXXVI. C. M. Dr. S. STENNETT

Pleading with God under affliction.

T. WHY should a living man complain
Of deep distrets within,
Since every sigh, and every pain
Is but the fruit of sin?

- 2. No, Lord, I'll patiently fabrit,
 Nor ever dare robel;
 Yet fure I may, here at thy feet,
 My painful feelings tell.
- Thou feeft what floods of forrow rife, And beat upon my foul:
 One trouble to another cries, Billows on billows roll.
- From fear to hope, and hope to fear, My shipwreck'd Soul is tost;
 Till I am tempted in despair To give up all for lost.
- 5. Yet thro' the flormy clouds I'll look
 Once more to thee, my God:
 O fix my feet upon a rock,
 Beyond the gaping flood.
- One look of mercy from thy face, Will fet my heart at case:
 One all-commanding word of grace Will make the tempest cease.

HYMN CXXXVII. C.M. Dr. Doddridez.

- Cod freaking peace to his people, Pfalm boxxv. 8.

 I. UNITE, my roving thoughts, unite
 In filence foft and freet:
- And thou, my foul, fit gently down
 At thy great Sovereign's feet.
- Jehovah's awful voice is heard, Yet gladly 1 attend;
 For lo! the everlafting God Proclaims himfelf my Friend.
- Harmonious accents to my foul.
 The founds of peace convey a The tempest at his word subsides.

 And winds and seas obey.

E. By a... it joys. I thank my neart, To grieve his love no more; But, charm'd by melody divine, To give its follies o'er.

HYMN CXXXVIII, C. M. BEDDOME.

Exhortations to confidence in God.

- YE trembling Souls, difmifs your Fears:
 Be mercy all your theme;
 Mercy, which like a river flows.
 In one continued fiream.
- Fear net the powers of earth, and hell, God will these powers restrain;
 His mighty arm their rage repel, And make their efforts vain.
- Fear not the want of outward good, He will for his provide;
 Grant them supplies of daily food, And give them Heaven beside.
- A. Fear not that he will e'er ferfake, Or leave his work undone; He's faithful to his promifes, And faithful to his Son.
- 5. Fear not the terrors of the grave, Or death's tremendous string; He will from endless wrath preserve, To endless glory bring.
- You in his wisdom, power and grace, May confidently trust;
 His wisdom guides, his power protects, His grace rewards the just.

HYMN CXXXIX. Dr. WATTS.

The triumph of faith: cr. Christ's unchangeable love, Rom. viii. 33. &c.

- THO shall the Lord's elect condemn?
 "Tis God that justifies their fouls,
 And mercy, like a mighty stream,
 O'er all their fins divinely rolls.
- 2. Who shall adjudge the faints to hell?

 'Tis Christ that suffer'd in their stead;
 And the salvation to sulfil,
 Behold him rising from the dead.
- 3. He lives! he lives! and fits above,
 For ever interceding there:
 Who shall divide us from his love,
 Or what should tempt us to despair?
- Shall perfecution or diffrefs,
 Famine, or fword, or nakednefs?
 He that hath lov'd us, bears us through,
 And makes us more than conqu'rors too.
- 5. Faith hath an overcoming pow'r, It triumphs in the dying hour; Christ is our life, our joy, our hope, Nor can we sink with such a prop.
- 6. Not all that men on earth can do, Nor pow'rs on high, nor pow'rs below, Shall cause his mercy to remove, Or wean our hearts from Christ our love.

HYMN CXL. Dr. WATTS.

Our own weakness, and Christ our strength, 2 Cor.

I. I ET me but hear my Saviour fay,

Strength shall be equal to the day:

Then I rejoice in deep distress,

Leaning on all-sufficient grace.

- 2. I glory in infirmity,
 That Christ's own pow'r may rest on me;
 When I am weak, then am I strong,
 Grace is my shield, and Christ my song.
- I can do all things, or can bear All fuff rings, if my Lord be there;
 Sweet pleafures mingle with the pains, While his left-hand my head fuftains.
- 4. But if the Lord be once withdrawn,
 And we attempt the work alone,
 When new temptations spring and rife,
 We find how great our weakness is.
- 5. So Sampson, when his hair was loft Met the Philistines to his cost; Shook his vain limbs with sad surprise, Made feeble fight, and lost his eyes.

HYMN CXLL, Dr. WATTS.

The examples of Christ and the faints.

- 1. CIVE me the wings of faith, to rife
 Within the vail, and fee
 The faints above, how great their joys,
 How bright their glories be.
- Once they were mourning here below, And wet their couch with tears; They wrestled hard, as we do now, With fins, and doubts, and sears.
- I alk them whence their vict'ry came?
 They with united breath,
 Afcribe their conqueft to the Lamb,
 Their triumph to his death.
- They mark'd the footsteps that he trod, (His zeal inspir'd their breast:)
 And following their incarnate God, Postes'd the promis'd rest.

 Our glorious leader claims our praife, For his own pattern giv'n, While the long croud of witneffes Shew the same path to heav'n.

HYMN CXLIL Dr. WATTS.

The safety and protection of the Church, Isa. xxvi.

1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6.

HOW honourable is the place,
Where we adoring fland,
Zion the glory of the earth,
And beauty of the land!

2. Bulwarks of mighty grace defend The city where we dwell; The walls, of ftrong falvation made, Defy th' affaults of hell.

3. Lift up the everlasting gates, The doors wide open sling; Enter ye nations, that obey The statutes of our King.

4. Here shall you take unmingled joys,
And live in persect peace;
You that have known Jehovah's name,
And ventur'd on his grace.

Trust in the Lord, for ever trust,
 And banish all your fears:
 Strength in the Lord Jehovah dwells,
 Eternal as his years.

 What the 'the rebels dwell on high, His arm shall bring them low; Low as the caverns of the grave 'Their lofty heads shall bow.

On Babylon our feet shall tread,
 In that rejoicing hour;
 The ruins of her walls shall spread
 A pavement for the poor.

A vision of the kingdom of Christ among men, Rev. XXI. I, 2, 3, 4.

t. L O, what a glorious fight appears
To our believing eyes, The earth and feas are pass'd away, And the old rolling skies.

2. From the third heav'n, where God refides, That holy, happy place, The New-Jerusalem comes down, Adorn'd with faining grace.

3. Attending angels shout for joy, And the bright armies fing, " Mortals behold the facred feat " Of your descending King.

4 The God of glory down to men " Removes his blefs'd abode; " Men the dear objects of his grace, " And he the loving God.

5. " His own kind hand shall wipe the tears " From ev'ry weeping eye,

" And pains, and groans, and griefs, and fears,

" And death itself thall die."

6. How long, dear Saviour, O how long? Shall this bright hour delay ? Fly swifter round ye wheels of time, And bring the welcome day.

HYMN CXLIV. Dr. WATTS.

The beatitudes, Matt. v. 2-12.

[1. BLESS'D are the humble fouls that fee Their emptiness and poverty; Treasures of grace to them are giv'n ; And crowns of joy laid up in heaven.]

- [2. Blcfs'd are the men of broken heart, Who mourn for fin with inward finant; The blood of Christ divinely flows, A healing balm for all their woes.]
- [3. Blefs'd are the meek who ftand afar From rage and paffion, noise and war; God will secure their happy state, And plead their cause against the great.]
 - 4. Blefs'd are the fouls that thirst for grace, Hunger and long for righteoniness; They shall be well supply'd and fed. With living streams and living breed.
- [5. Blefs'd are the men whose bowels move, Ard melt with fympathy and love; From Christ, the Lord, shall they obtain Like fympathy and love again.]
- [6. Blefs'd are the pure whose hearts are clean From the desiling pow'r of fin; With endless pleasure they shall see A God of Fotless purity.
- [7. Blefs'd are the men of peaceful life, Who quench the coals of growing strife; They shall be call'd the heirs of blifs, 'The fons of God, the God of peace.]
- [8. Blefs'd are the fuff'rers who partake Of pain and fhame for Jefus' fake; Their fouls shall triumph in the Lord, Glory and joy are their reward.]

- Who bring falvation on their tongues, And words of peace reveal!
- 2. How charming is their voice How fweet the tidings are! "Zion, behold thy Saviour-King, He reigns and triumphs here."
- 3. How happy are our ears,
 That hear this joyful found,
 Which kings and prophets waited fot,
 And fought; but never found!
- 4. How bleffed are our eyes,
 That fee this heavenly light;
 Prophets and kings defir'd it long,
 But dy'd without the fight.
- 5. The watchmen join their voice, And tuneful notes employ; Jerufalem breaks forth in fongs, And deferte learn the joy.
- 6. The Lord makes bare his arm'
 Thro' all the earth abroad;
 Let every nation now behold
 Their Saviour and their God.

HYMN CXLVI. Dr. WATTS.

The pleasures of a good conscience.

- T. ORD, how feeter and bleft are they
 Who feel the jeys of pardon'd fin!
 Should froms of wrath finke earth and fea,
 Their minds have heav'n and peace within.
- The day glides fwiftly o'er their heads, Made up of innocence and love; And foft and filent as the fiades Their nightly minutes gently move.
- [3. Quick as their thoughts their joys come on, But fly not half to fwift away;

Their fouls are ever bright as noon, And calm as fummer evinings be.

- 4. How oft they look to heav'nly hills, Where streams of living pleasures flow, And lenging hopes and chearful smiles Sit undisturb'd upon their brow.]
- 5. They fcorn to feek our golden toys, But spend the day, and share the night, In numb'ring o'er the richer joys That heav'n prepares for their delight.
- While wretched we, like werms and moles,
 Lie groveling in the dust below,
 Almighty grace renew our fouls,
 And we'll aspire to glory too.

HYMN CXLVII. Dr. WATTS.

Salvation.

- 1. SALVATION! O, the joyful found;

 A fov'reign balm for ev'ry wound,

 A cordial for our fears.
- 2 Bury'd in forrow and in fin,
 At hell's dark door we lay:
 But we arife by grace divine,
 To fee a heav'nly day.
- Salvation! Let the echo fly
 The spacious earth aroun!,
 While all the armies of the sky
 Conspire to raise the sound.

HYMN CXLVIII. Dr. WATTS.

Heavenly joys on earth.

[1. COME, ye that love the Lord, And let our joys be known;

Join in a fong with fweet accord, And thus furround the throne.

2. The forrows of the mixd Be banish'd from this place! Religion never was defign'd To make our pleasures less.]

3. Let those refuse to sing, That never knew our God, But fav'rites of the heav'nly King May speak their joys abroad.

[4. The God that rules on high.
And thunders when he please,
That rides upon the stormy sky,
And manages the seas.]

5. This awful God is ours,
Our Father and our love,
He shall fend down his heav'nly powersTo carry us above.

6. There shall we see his face,
And never, never sin;
There, from the rivers of his grace,
Drink endless pleasures in.

7. Even now before we rife
To that immortal state,
The thoughts of such amazing blife
Should constant joys create.

[8. The men of grace have found Glory begun below, Celestial fruits on earthly ground From faith and hope may grow.]

[9. The hill of Sion yields
A thousand facred sweets,
Before we reach the heav'nly fields,
Or walk the golden streets.

xo. Then let our fongs abound,
And ev'ry tear be dry;
We're marching thro' Immanuel's ground
To fairer worlds on high.

HYMN CXLIX, C. M. STEELE.

Mappy poverty; or the poor in Spirit bleffed, Matt.

- I. YE humble Souls, complain no more, Let faith furvey your future ftore; How happy, how divinely bleft, The facred words of truth atteft.
- 2. When confcious grief laments fincere,
 And pours the penitential tear;
 Hope points to your dejected eyes,
 The bright reversion in the skies.
- In vain the fons of wealth and pride Despite your lot, your hopes deride: In vain they boast their little stores, Tristes are theirs, a Kingdom yours:
- 4. A Kingdom of immenfe delight,
 Where health, and peace, and joy unite;
 Where undeclining pleafures rife,
 And every wish hath full supplies:
- 5. A Kingdom which can ne'er decay,
 While time fweeps earthly thrones away;
 The flate which power and truth fustain,
 Unmov'd for ever must remain.
- 6. There shall your eyes with rapture view The glorious Friend that dy'd for you; That dy'd to ransom, dy'd to raise To crowns of joy, and songs of praise.
- 7. Jefus, to thee I breathe my prayer, Reveal, confirm my interest there: Whate'er my humble lot below, This, this my foul desires to know!

 O let me hear that voice divine Pronounce the glerious Meffing mine! Enroll'd among thy happy poor, My largest wishes ask no more.

HYMN CL. L. M. DR. DODDRIDGE,

Rejeiving in God, Jer. ix. 23, 24.

- THE righteous Lord, fupremely great,
 Maintains his univerfal state;
 O'er all the earth his pow'r extends,
 All Heaven before his footstool bends.
- Yet Justice still with power presides,.
 And mercy all his empire guides;
 Mercy and truth are his delight,
 And faints are lovely in his fight.
- 3. No more, ye Wife, your wifdom boaft, No more, ye Strong, your valour truft; No more, ye Rich, furvey your store, Elate with heaps of shining ore.
- 4. Glory, ye faints, in this alone, That God, your God, to you is known; That you have own'd his fovereign fway, That you have felt his cheering ray.
- Our Wifdom, Wealth, and Power we find, In one Jehovah all-cembin'd;
 On him we fix our roving eyes, And all our fouls in raptures rife.
- 6. All elfe, which we our treasure call,
 May in one fatal moment fall;
 But what their happiness can move,
 Whom God the biested deigns to love?

HYMN CLI. S. M. DR. DODDRIDGE;

Rejoicing in the ways of God, Pfalm cxxxviii. 5.

I. NOW let our voices join To form a facied long;

Ye Pilgrims, in Jehovah's ways With music pass along.

2. How straight the path appears, How open and how fair! No lurking gins t'entrap our feet; No fierce destroyer there.

3. But flowers of Paradife In rich profusion spring; The sun of glory gilds the path, And dear companions sing.

4. See Salem's golden spires
In beauteous prospect rife;
And brighter crowns than mortals wear,
Which sparkle thro' the skies.

5. All honour to his Name, Who marks the fining way; To him, who leads the wanderers on To realms of endless day.

HYMN CLU. Dr. WATTS.

Sinai and Sion, Heb. xii. ver. 18, &c.

2. NOT to the terrors of the Lord, The tempest, fire and smoke; Not to the thunder of that word

Which God on Sinai fpoke;

2. But we arecome to Sion's hill,
The city of our God,
Where milder words declare his will,
And Spread his love abroad.

Behold the innumerable hoft
Of angels cloth'd in light;
Behold the fpirits of the just,
Whose faith is turn'd to fight!

4. Behold the blefs'd affembly there,
Whose names are writ in heav'n;

And God, the Judge of all, declares Their vilest fins forgiv'n.

 The faints on earth, and all the dead, But one communion make;
 All join in Christ, their living head, And of his grace partake

In fuch fociety as this
 My weary foul would reft:
 The man that dwells where Jefus is
 Muft be for ever bless'd.

HYMN CLIH. Dr. WATTS.

The hope of beaven our support under trials on earth.

. W HEN I can read my title clear
To manfions in the lkies,
I bid farewell to every fear,
And wipe my weeping eyes.

 Should earth against my foul engage, And hellish darts be hurl'd, Then I can finile at Satan's rage, And face a frowning world.

 Let cares like a wild deluge come, And storms of forrow fall, May I but fafely reach my home, My God, my heav'n, my all:

 There shall I bathe my weary sould In seas of heavinly rest.
 And not a wave of thouble roll Across my peaceful breast.

HYMN CLIV. Dr. WATTS.

Triumph over death, Job xix. 25, 26, 27.

GREAT God, I own thy sentence just,

I yield my body to the dust, To dwell with fellow-clay.

- 2. Yet faith may triumph o'er the grave, And trample on the tombs; For Jefus, my Redeemer lives, My God, my Saviour comes.
- The mighty conqu'rer shall appear High on a royal feat, And death, the last of all his focs, Lie vanquish'd at his feet.
- 4. The greedy worms devour my fkin;
 And gnaw my wasting flesh,
 When God shall build my bones again,
 He clothes them all afresh:
- Then shall I fee thy lovely face With firing immortal eyes.
 And feast upon thy unknown grace With pleafure and furprise.

HYMN CLV. Dr. WATTS.

Freedom from fin and mifery in beaven.

- I. OUR fins, clas! how firong they be?

 And, like a raging fea,

 They break our duty, Lord, to thee,

 And hurry us away.
- 2. The waves of trouble, how they rife?

 How loud the tempests roar!

 But death shall land our weary fouls
 Safe on the heav'nly shore.
- There to fulfil his fweet commands, Our fpeedy feet shall move;
 No fin shall clog our winged zeal Or cool our burning love.
- 4. There shall we sit, and sing and tell; The wonders of his grace,

"Fill heav'nly raptures fire our hearts, And smile in ev'ry face.

For ever his dear facred name Shall dwell upon our tongue, And Jetus and falvation be The close of every fong.

HTMN CLVI. L. M. STEELE.

The presence of Christ the joy of his people.

THE wondering nations have beheld The facred prophecy fulfill'd, And Angels hail'd the glorious morn, That shew'd the great Mossiah born;

The prince! the Saviour! long defir'd, Whom men foretold, by Heaven infpir'd, And raptur'd faw the blifsful day Rife o'er the world with healing ray.

Oft, in the temples of his grace, His faints behold his fmiling face; And oft have feen his glory fhine, With power and majeffy divine:

But foon, alas! his absence mourn, And pray and with his kind return: Without his life-inspiring light, "Tis all a scene of gloomy night.

Come, dearest Lord, thy Children cry, Our graces droop, our comforts die; Return, and let thy glories rife Again to our admiring eyes;

Till fill'd with light, and joy, and love, Thy courts below, like those above, Triumphant Hallelujahs raise, And heaven and earth resound thy praise. HYMN CLVII. 148th. Dr. Doddeidge.

At the forming a Church.

Maich lvi. 6, 7. Matt. xxi. 13. and Eph. ii. 13, 17

I. GREAT father of mankind,
We blefs that wondrous grace,
Which could for Gentiles find
Within thy courts a place:
How kind the care
Our God difplays,

Our God displays, For us to raise A house of prayer!

2. The' once estranged far,
We now approach'd the throne a
For Jesus brings us near,
And makes our cause his own:
Strangers no more,
To thee we come,
And find our home,
And rest secure.

3. To thee our foals we join,
And love thy facred name;
No more our own, but thine,
We triumph in thy claim;
Our Father King,
Thy covenant grace
Our fouls embrace,
Thy titles fing.

4. Here in thy house we feast
On dainties all divine;
And, while such sweets we taste,
With joy our faces shine:
Incense shall rife
From flames of love,
And God approve
The facrifice.

. May all the nations throng To worship in thy house; And thou attend the song, And smile upon their vows; Indulgent still, 'Till earth censpire To join the choir On Zion's hill.

HYMN CLVIII. C. M. Dr. Doddridon.

Relieving Christ in his members, Matt. xxv. 40.

JESUS, my Lord, how rich thy grace f.
Thy bounties how complete!
How shall I count the matchless sum?
How pay the mighty debt?

. High on a throne of radient light Dost thou exalted shine; What can my poverty bestow, When all the worlds are thine?

But thou hast brethren here below, The partners of thy grace; And wilt confess their humble names Before thy Father's face.

. In them thou may'ft be cloth'd and fed, And vifited and cheer'd; And in their accepts of diffrefs, My Saviour's voice is heard.

. Thy face, with rev'rence and with leve, We in thy poor would fee;

O let us rather beg our bread Than keep it back from thee.

HYMN CLIX. L. M. Dr. GIBBONS.

The beneficence of Christ for our imitation, Ads x. 38.

When Jesus dwelt in mortal clay, What were less works from day to day, But miracles of power and grace, That fpread falvation through our race ?

- 2. Teach us, O Lord, to keep in view Thy pattern, and thy freps purfue; Let alms beftow'd, let kindnefs done Be witnefs'd by each rolling fun.
- 3. That man may last, but never lives,
 Who much receives, but nothing gives,
 Whom none can love, whom none can thank;
 Creation's blot, creation's blank:
- 4. But he, who marks from day to day, In generous acts his radiant way, Treads the fame path his Saviour trod, The path to glory and to God.

HYMN CLX. L. M. STEELE.

To whom shall we go but unto thee? or, life and safet in Christ alone, John vi. 67-69.

- 1. THOU only Sovereign of my heart,
 My Refuge, my almighty Friend—
 And can my foul from thee depart,
 On whom alone my hopes depend?
- 2. Whither, ah! whither shall I go, A wretched wanderer from my Lord? Can this dark world of sin and woo One glimpse of happiness afford?
- 3. Eternal life thy words impart, On these my fainting spirit lives; Here sweeter comforts cheer my heart Than all the round of nature gives.
- 4. Let earth's alluring joys combine,
 While thou art near, in vain they call;
 One finile, one bliffful finile of thine,
 My dearest Lord, outweighs them alle

- 5. Thy name my inmost powers adore, Thou art my life, my joy, my care: Depart from thee—'tis death,—'tis more 'Tis endless ruin, deep despair!
- Low at thy feet my foul would lie, Here fafety dwells, and peace divine; Still let me live beneath thine eye, For life, eternal life is thine.

HYMN CLXI, L. M. DR. DODDRIDGE,

The institution of a gospel ministry from Christ, Eph. iv. 8, 11, 12.

- I. FATHER of mercies in thy house
 Smile on our homage, and our yows;
 While with a greteful heart we share
 These pledges of our Saviour's care.
- The Saviour, when to heaven he role
 In splendid triumph o'er his fees,
 Scatter'd his gifts on men below,
 And wide his royal bounties flow.
- 3. Hence forung th' Apoliles honour'd name,
 Sacred beyond heroic fame;
 In lowlier forms to blefs our eyes,
 Pallors from hence, and Teachers rife.
- 4. From Christ their varied gifts derive, And fed by Christ their graces live. While, guarded by his potent hand, 'Midst all the rage of hell they stand,
- 5. So shall the bright fuccession run Thro' the last courses of the sun; While unborn churches by their care Shall rise and flourish large and fair.
- Jefus our Lord, their hearts shall know,
 The Spring, whence all these bleffings flow
 Passers and People shout his praise
 Thro' the long round of endless days.

Hymn CLXII. Rippon.

Prayer for Missionaries.

- t. CREAT God, the nations of the earth
 And in thy works by all beheld,
 Thy radiant glories shine.
- 2. But, Lord, thy greater love has fent Thy gospel to mankind, Unveiling what rich stores of grace Are treasur'd in thy mind.
- Lord, when shall these glad tidings spread
 The spacious earth around,
 Till every tribe, and every soul
 Shall hear the joyful sound:
- 4. O when shall Afric's fable sons Enjoy the heavenly word, And vassals long-enslav'd become The freemen of the Lord?
- When shall th' untutor'd Heathen Tribe
 A dark, bewilder'd race,
 Sit down at our Immanuel's feet,
 And learn and see his grace?
- 6. Hafte, fovereign mercy, and transform
 Their cruelty to love:
 Soften the tyger to a lamb,
 The vulture to a dove!
- 7. Smile, Lord, on each divine attempt To fpread the gofpel's rays, And build on fin's demolish'd throne The temples of thy praise!

HYMN CLXIII. L. M. Dr. Doddridge.

Retirement and Meditation, Pfalm iv. 4.

RETURN, my roving heart, return,
And chase these shadowy forms no more;

Seek out some solitude to mourn, And thy forsaken God implore.

- O thou, great God, whose piercing eye Distinctly marks each deep recess; In these sequestered hours drawnigh, And with thy presence sill the place.
- Thro' all the windings of my heart, My fearch let heavenly wifdom guide; And fill its radiant beams impart, "Till all be fearch'd and purify'd.
- 4. Then, with the vifits of thy love, Vouchfafe my inmost foul to cheer; "Till every grace shall join to prove That God hath fix'd his dwelling there.

HYMN CLXIV. L. M. BEDDOME.

Reading the Scriptures.

- I. OREAT God, oppress'd with grief and fear,
 I take thy Book, and hope to find
 Some gracious, word of promise there,
 To feeth the forrows of my mind:
- I turn the facred volume o'er, And fearch with care from page to page; Of threatenings find an ample store. But nought that can my grief affuage.
- 3. And is there nought? forbid, dear Lord, So base a thought should e'er arise; I'll search again, and while I search, O may the scales fall off mine eyes!
- 4. 'Tis done: and with transporting joy,
 I read the Heaven-inspired lines;
 There mercy spreads its brightest beams,
 And truth with dazzling lustre shines.

5. Here's heavenly food for hungry fouls,
And mines of gold to enrich the poor:
Here's healing balm for every wound,
A falve for every festering fore.

HYMN CLXV. L. M. PRESIDENT DAVIES.

- I. WHAT ftrange perplexities arife?
 What anxious fears and jealoufies?
 What crowds in doubtful light appear?
 How few, alas, approv'd and clear!
- And what am I?—My foul, awake, And an impartial furvey take: Does no dark fign, no ground of fear, In practice or in heart appear?
- 3. What image does my spirit bear!
 Is Jesus form'd, and living there?
 Say, do his lineaments divine
 In thought, and word, and action shine?
- 4. Searcher of hearts, O fearch me ftill;
 The fecrets of my foul reveal;
 My fears remove, let me appear
 To God, and my own confeience clear.
- 3. Scatter the clouds which o'er my head
 Thick glooms of dubious terrors fpread;
 Lead me into celeftial day,
 And to myfelf, myfelf difplay.
- 6. May I at that blefs'd world arrive, Where Christ thro' all my foul shall live, And give full proof that he is there, Without one gloomy doubt or fear!

HYMN CLXVI. L. M. STEELE.

The Christian's noblest resolution, Joshua xxiv. 15:

A H wretched fouls, who strive in vain, Slaves to the world, and slaves to fin! A nobler toil may I sustain, A nobler satisfaction win.

- May I refolve with all my heart, With all my powers to ferve the Lord, Nor from his precepts e'er depart, Whose service is a rich reward.
- O be his fervice all my joy, Around let my example fhine, Till others love the blefs'd employ, And join in labors fo divine.
- Be this the purpose of my soul, My solemn, my determin'd choice, To yield to his supreme control, And in his kind commands rejoice.
- O may I never faint nor tire, Nor wandering leave his facred ways, Great God, accept my foul's defire, And give me &rength to live thy praife.

HYMN CLXVII. L. M. DR. DODDRIDGE.

Family Religion, Gen. xviii. 19.

- I. FATHER of all, thy care we blefs,
 Which crowns our Fimilies with peace;
 From thee they fpring, and, by thy hand
 They have been, and are fill fuffain'd.
- To God, most worthy to be prais'd, Be our domestic Altars rais'd; Who, Lord of Heaven, scorns not to dwell With faints in their obscurest cell.
- To thee may each united house, Morning and night, present its vows; Our servants there, and rising race Be taught thy precepts, and thy grace.
- 4. O may each future age proclaim

 The honors of thy glorious name;

While pleas'd and thankful, we remove To join the family above.

HYMN CLXVIII. Dr. WATTS.

The Lord's day : or, the refurrestion of Christ.

- I. B LESS'D morning, whose first opening rays
 Bekeld our rising God,
 That saw him triumph o'er the dust,
 And leave his last abode!
- 2. In the cold prison of a tomb
 The dead Redeemer lay,
 Till the revolving skies had brought
 The third, th' appointed day.
- Hell and the grave usite their force
 To hold our Lord in vain;
 The fleeping conqueror arsfe.
 And burft their facble chain.
- To thy great name, almighty Lord, Thefe facred hours we pay, And loud Hefannas shall proclaim The triumph of the day.
- [5. Salvation and immortal praife
 To our victorious King;
 Let heav'n, and earth, and rocks, and feas,
 With glad Hefannas ring.]

HYMN CLXIX. L. M. J. STENNETT.

The Sabbath.

- A NOTHER fix days' work is done,
 Another fabbath is begun;
 Return, my foul, enjoy thy reft,
 Improve the day thy God has blefs'd.
- 2. Come, blefs the Lord, whose love assigns So sweet a rest to wearied minds;

Provides an Antepast of Heaven, And gives this day the food of seven.

- O that our thoughts and thanks may rife, As grateful incense, to the skies; And draw from Heaven that sweet repele. Which none, but he that feels it knows.
- 4. This heavenly calm, within the breast.

 Is the dear pledge of glorious rest,
 Which for the Church of God remains,
 The end of Cares, the end of pains.
- 5. With joy, great God, thy works we view, In various scenes both old and new; With praise, we think on mercies past, With hope, we future pleasures taste.
- 6. In holy duties let the day, In holy pleasures pass away; How sweet, a Sabbath thus to spend, In hope of one that ne'er shall end!

HTMN CLXX. 148th. RIPPON.

A Hymn for Lora's day morning.

- I. A WAKE, our drowfy fouls,

 The wonders of this Day
 Our nobleft fongs demand.

 Aufpicious morn! thy biliful rays,
 Bright Scraphs hail in fongs of praife.
- 2. At thy approaching dawn,
 Reluctant Death refigrad
 The glorious Prince of Life,
 Its dark domains confiad:
 Th' angelic hoft around him bends,
 And 'midft their shouts the God ascends.
 - 3. All hail, triumphant Lord, Heaven with Hofannas rings;

While Earth, in humbler ftrains, Thy praife responsive sings: Worthy art thou, who once wast slain, Thro' endless years to live and reign.

- 4. Gird on, great God, thy fword,
 Afcend thy conquering car,
 While justice, truth, and love
 Maintain the glorious war:
 Victorious thou, thy foes sha't tread,
 And sin and hell in triumph lead.
- 5. Make bare thy potent arm, And wing th' unerring dart, With falutary pangs, To each rebellious heart: Then dying fouls for life shall sue. Numerous as drops of morning dew.

HYMN CLXXI. C. M. B-

A Hymn for the Evening of the Lord's Day.

- t. FREQUENT the Day of God returns
 To shed its quickening beams;
 And yet how flow devotion burns!
 How languid are its flames!
- Accept our faint attempts to love, Our frailties, Lord, forgive; We would be like thy faints above, And praife thee while we live.
- 3. Increase, O Lord, our faith and hope, And fit us to ascend, Where the assembly ne'er breaks up, 'The Sabbath ne'er shall end:
- 4. Where we shall breathe in heavenly air,
 With heavenly lastre shine;
 Before the throne of God appear,
 And feast on love divine;

 Where we, in high feraphic ftrains, Shall all our powers employ;
 Delighted range the etherial plains, And take our fill of joy.

HYMN CLXXII. Dr. WATTS.

The Lord's day; Or, delight in ordinances.

- That faw the Lord arife,
 Welcome to this reviving breaft,
 And thefe rejoicing eyes!
- The King himfelf comes near, And feafts his faints to-day;
 Here we may fit, and fee him here, And love, and praife, and pray.
- One day amidit the place Where my dear God hath been, Is fweeter than ten thousand days Of pleasurable sin.
 - 4. My willing foul would flay In fuch a frame as this, And fing and bear herfelf away 'To everlasting blifs.

HYMN CLXXIII. S. M. Dr. S. STENNETT

The pleasures of Social worship.

 H OW charming is the place, Where my Redeemer God Unveils the beauties of his face, And sheds his love abroad!

2. Not the fair palaces
To which the great refort,
Are once to be compar'd with this,
Where Jefus holds his court.

3. Here on the mercy-feat,
With radicat glory crown'd
Our joyful eyes behold him fit,
And fmile on all around.

4. To him their prayers and cries
Each humble foul prefents:
He liftens to their broken fighs,
And grants them all their wants.

5. To them his fov'reign will He graciously imparts: And in return accepts with smiles, The tribute of their hearts.

6. Give me, O Lord, a place
Within thy bleft abode,
Among the children of thy grace,
The fervants of my God.

HYMN CLXXIV. Dr. WATTS.

The benefit of public ordinances.

- WAY from ev'ry mortal care,
 Away from earth, our fouls retreat;
 We leave this worthlefs world afar,
 And wait and worship near thy feat.
- 2. Lord, in the temple of thy grace,
 We fee thy feet, and we adore;
 We gaze upon thy lovely face,
 And learn the wonders of thy pow'r.
- 3. While here our various wants we mourn, United groans aftend on high; And prayer beats a quick return Of bleffings in variety.
- [4. If Satan rage, and fin grow firong, Here we receive fome cheering word: We gird the gospel-armour on, To fight the battles of the Lord.

- J. Or if our spirit faints and dies (Our conscience pain'd with inward stings) Here doth the righteous fun arise, With healing beams beneath his wings.]
- 6. Father ! my foul would ftill abide Within thy temple, near thy fide; But if my feet muit hence depart, Still keep thy dwelling in my heart.

HYMN CLXXV. S. M. Dr. WATTS's LYRIG.

Forme vain without Religion.

A LMIGHTY Maker, God! How wondrous is thy Name! Thy glories how diffus'd abroad Thro' the creation's frame.

2. Nature in every drefs Her humble homage pays, And finds a thousand ways t'express Thine undiffembled praise.

3. My foul would rife and fing To her Creator too, Fain would my tongue adore my King, And pay the worship due.

4. [But pride, that bufy fin, Spoils all that I perform, Curs'd pride, that creeps fecurely in, And fwells a haughty worm.]

5. Create my foul anew, Elfe all my worship's vain; This wretched heart will ne'er be true, Until 'tis form'd again.

6. Let joy and worship spend The remnant of my days,

And to my God, my foul ascend In sweet persumes of praise.

HYMN CLXXVI. L. M. RIPPON.

Ezekiel's Vision of the dry bones, Ezek. xxxvii. 3:

- I. LOOK down, O Lord, with pitying eye;
 Sin spreads its trophies o'er the ground,
 And scatters slaughter'd heaps around.
- 2. And can these mouldering corpses live?
 And can these perish'd bones revive?
 That, mighty God, to thee is known;
 That wondrous work is all thy own.
- 3 Thy Ministers are fent in vain To prophefy upon the slain; In vain they call, in vain they cry, 'Till thine Almighty aid is nigh.
- 4. But if thy Spirit deign to breathe,
 Life fpreads thro' all the realms of Death;
 Dry Bones obey thy powerful voice;
 They move, they waken, they rejoice:
- So when thy trumpet's awful found Shall shake the Heavens and rend the ground, Dead faints shall from their tombs arife, And spring to life beyond the skies.

HYMN CLXXVII: RIPPON

Duties and Privileges, Jude 20, 21.

- r. W HILE finners, who prefume to bear
 The Christians' facred name,
 Throw up the reins to every lust,
 And glory in their shame;
- 26 Ye faints preferv'd in Christ and call'd,.
 Detest their impious ways,

And on the basis of your faith An heavenly temple raise.

Upon the spirit's promis'd aid
 Depend from day to day,
 And, while he breatles his quickening gale,
 Adore, and praise, and pray.

4. Preserve unquench'd your love to God,
And let the flame arife,
And higher and still higher blaze,
Till it ascends the skies.

With a transporting joy expect
 The grace your Lord shall give,
 When all his faints shall from his hands
 Their crowns of life receive.

HYMN CLXXVIII. 143th. B. FRANCIS.

On opening a place of worftip.

I. IN fweet exalted firains
The King of Glory praife;
O'er heaven and earth he reigns,
Thro' everlasting days:
He, with a ned, the world controuls,
Sustains or finks the distant poles.

2. To earth he bends his throne,
His throne of grace divine;
Wide is his bounty known,
And wide his glories shine:
Fair Salem, still his chosen rest,
Is with his smiles and presence blest.

3. Then, King of Glory, come,
And with thy favor crown
This temple as thy dome,
This people as thy own:
Beneath this roof, O deign to show,
How God can dwell with men below,

- 4. Here, may thine carsattend
 Our interceding cries,
 And grateful praife afcend
 All fragrant to the fkies:
 Here may thy word melodious found,
 And spread the joys of heaven around.
 - 5. Here, may th' attentive throng
 Imbibe thy truth and love,
 And converts join the fong
 Of Seraphin above.
 And willing crowds furround thy board
 With facred joy and fweet accord.
 - 6. Here, may our unborn Sons
 And Daughters found thy prolife,
 And finise like polifi, d flonce,
 Thro' long fucceeding days:
 Here, Lord, display thy faving power,
 While temples fland, and men adore.

HYMN CLXXIX. DR. WATTS.

Baptism, Matth. xxviii. 19. Acts ii. 38.

- I. 'TWAS the commission of our Lord,

 Go teach the nations and beptize.

 The nations have received the word

 Since he ascended to the ikies.
- He fits upon th' eternal hills,
 With grace and pardon in his hands,
 And fends his cov'naut, with the feals,
 To blefs the diftant heathen lands.
- 3. Repent, and be baptiz'd, he faith,
 For the remission of your fine;
 And thus our feele affilts our faith,
 And shews us what his gospel means.
- 4. Our fouls he washes in his blood. As water makes our bodies clean;

And the good spirit from our God Descends like purifying rain.

5. Thus we engage ourfelves to thee, And feal our cov'nant with the Lord; O may the great Eternal Three In heav'n our folemn yows record!

Children devoted to God, Gen. xvii. 7, 10. Acis xvi. 14, 15, 33.

(For these who practise infant-baptism.)

I. THUS faith the mercy of the Lord,
I'll be a God to thee;
I'll blefs thy num'rous race, and they
Shall be a feed for me.

 Abrah'm believ'd the promis'd grace, And gave his fon to God;
 But water feals the bleffing now, That once was feal'd with bleod.

3. Thus Lydia fanctify'd her house, When she receiv'd the word; Thus the believing jailor gave His houshold to the Lord.

4. Thus later faints, eternal King!
Thine ancient truths embrace;
To thee their infant offspring bring,
And humbly claim the grace.

HYMN CLXXXI. Dr. WATTS.

Circumcifion and Beptifm.

(Written only for these who pradifethe baptism of infante)

I. THUS did the fons of Abrah'm pais.

Under the bloody feal of grace;
The young disciples bore the yoke,
Till Christ the painful bondage broke,

- 2. By milder ways doth Jesus prove His Father's cov'nant, and his love: He feals to faints his glorious grace, And not forbids their infant-race.
- Their feed is fprinkled with his blood, Their children fet apart for God; His Spirit on their offspring fhed, Like water pour'd upon the head.
- 4. Let ev'ry faint with cheerful voice In this large covenant rejoice; Young children, in their early days, Shall give the God of Abrah'm praife.

HYMN CLXXXII. Dr. WATTS.

Believers buried with Christ in Baptism, Rom. vi. 3,

- 1. DO we not know that folems word,
 That we are bury'd with the Lord;
 Baptiz'd into his death, and then
 Put off the body of our fin.
- 2. Our fouls receive diviner breath,
 Rais'd from corruption, guilt, and death;
 So from the grave did Christ arise,
 And lives to God above the skies.
- 2. No more let fin or Satan reign Over our mortal flesh again: 'The various lusts we serv'd before Shall have dominion now no more.

HYMN CLXXXIII. Dr. WATTS.

Faith affifted by Sense: or, preaching, haptism, and the Lord's supper.

I. MY Saviour-God, my fov'reign prince, Reigns far above the skies! Put brings his graces down to fense, And helps my faith to rife.

 My eyes and ears shall blefs his name, They read and hear his word:
 My touch and taste shall do the fame, When they receive the Lord.

3. Espuismal water is design'd
To feal his cleansing grace,
While at his feast of bread and wine
He gave his faints a place;

4. But not the waters of a flood Can make my flesh so clean, As by his Spirit and his blood He'll wash my foul from sin.

 Not choicest meats, or roblest wines, So much my heart refresh,
 As when my faith goes thro' the figns,
 And feeds upon his flesh.

 I love the Lord, that floops so low, To give his word a feal:
 But the rich grace his hands bestow, Exceeds the figures fill.

HYMN CLXXXIV. C. M. Dr. Doddridge.

A practical improvement of Baptism, Col. iii. I ..

A TTEND, ye Children of your God;
 Ye H its of glory hear;
 For accents, fo divine as thefe,
 Might charta the dulleft ear.

 Baptia'd into your Saviout's death, Your fouls to fin must die;
 With Christ your Lord, ye live anew With Christ ascend on high.

3. There by his Pather's fide he fits, . Enthron'd divinely fair;

- Yet owns himfelf your Brother still, And your Forerunner there,
- 4. Rife from these earthly trifles, rife
 On wings of faith and love;
 Above your choicest treasure lies,
 And be your hearts above.
- But earth and fin will drag us down,
 When we attempt to fly;
 Lord, fend thy frong attractive power
 To raife and fix us high.

HYMN CLXXXV. Dr. WATTS.

The Lord's Supper instituted, I Cor. xi. 23, &c.

- 1. 'TWAS on that dark, that doleful night,
 When pow'rs of earth and hell arofe
 Against the Son of God's delight,
 And friends betray'd him to his focs:
- 2. Before the mournful frene began
 He took the bread, and bless'd, and brake;
 What love thro' all his actions ran!
 What wond'rous words of grace he spake!
- 3. This is my body broke for fin,
 Receive and eat the living food;
 Then took the cup, and blefs'd the wine;
 'Tis the new cov'nant in my blood.
- [4. For us his flesh with nails was torn, He bore the scourge, he felt the thorn; And justice pour'd upon his head Its heavy veng'ance, in our stead.
- For us his vital blood was fpilt,
 To buy the pardon of our guilt,
 When for black crimes of greatest fize,
 He gave his foul a facrifice.
- 6. Do this (he cry'd) till time shall end, In mem'ry of your dying friend:

Meet at my table, and record The love of your departed Lord.

[7. Jesus, thy feast we celebrate, We shew thy death, we sing thy name, Till thou return, and we shall eat The marriage-supper of the Lamb.]

HYMN CLXXXVI. C. M. STEELE.

An invitation to the gospel feast, Luke xiv. 22.

- E Wretched, hungry, starving Poor, Behold a royal feast! Where Mercy spreads her bounteous store, For every humble Guest.
- See, Jefus stands with open arms;
 He calls, he bids you come;
 Guilt holds you back, and fear alarms;
 But fee, there yet is room—
- Room in the Saviour's bleeding heart;
 There love and pity meet;
 Nor will he bid the foul depart,
 That trembles at his feet.
- In him the Father reconcil'd Invites your fouls to come; The rebel shall be call'd a child, And kindly welcom'd home.
- O come, and with his children tafte The Bleffings of his love;
 While hope attends the fweet repaft Of nobler joys above.
- There, with united heart and voice, Before th' eternal throne,
 Ten thousand thousand souls rejoice, In ecstasies unknown.
- 7. And yet ten thousand thousand more, Are welcome still to come:

Ye longing fouls, the grace adore; Approach, there yet is room

CLXXXVII. C. M. Dr. J. STENNETT.

A Sacramental Hymn.

- I. ORD, at thy Table I behold.
 The wonders of thy grace:
 But most of all admire that I
 Should find a welcome place:—
- I that am all defil'd with fin, A rebel to my God;
 I that have crucified his Son, And trampled on his blood.
 - What strange surprising grace is this, That such a soul has room!
 My Saviour takes me by the hand, My Jasus bids me come.
 - 4. "Eat, O my friends," the Saviour cries,
 " The feaft was made for you:
 " For you I groan'd, and bled, and died,
 " And rofe, and triumph'd too."
 - 5. With trembling faith, and bleeding hearts, Lord, we accept thy love:

 "Tis a rich banquet we have had, What will it be above?
 - Ye faints below, and hofts of heaven, Join all your praifing powers:
 No theme is like redeeming love, No Saviour is like ours.
 - Had I ten thouland hearts, dear Lord,
 I'd give them all to thee:
 Had I ten thouland tongues, they all
 Should join the harmony.

HYMN CLXXXVIII. L. M. STEELE.

Communion with Christ at bis table.

TO Jefus our exalted Lord,
(Dear name, by Heaven and Earth ador'd!)
Fain would our hearts and voices ruife
A cheerful fong of facred praife.

But all the notes which mortals know, Are weak and languifning and low; Far, far above our humble fongs. The theme demands immortal tongues. Yet while around his Board we meet.

Yet while around his Board we me And humbly worship at his seet; O let our warm affections move, In glad returns of grateful love!

Let faith our feeble fenfes aid, To fee thy wondrous love difplay'd, Thy broken flesh, thy bleeding veins, Thy dreadful agonizing pains.

Let humble penitential woe, With painful, pleafing anguish, flow; And thy forgiving smiles impart Life, hope, and joy to every heart.

HYMN CLXXXIX. Dr. WATTS.

mmunion with Christ, and with faints. 1 Cor. X. 16,13.

[r. JESUS invites his faints
To meet around his board;
ere pardon'd rebels fit, and hold
Communion with their Lord.

2. For food he gives his flesh;
He bids us drink his blood;
mazing favour! matchless grace
Of our descending God!]

3. This holy bread and wine Maintains our fainting breath,

By union with our living Lord And int's est in his death.

A. Our heav'nly Father calls Christ and his members one; We the young children of his love. And he the first-born Son.

5. We are but feveral parts Of the fame broken bread : One body hath its fev'ral limbs, But Jefus is the head.

6. Let all our pow'rs be join'd. His glorious name to raife : Pleafure and love fill ev'ry mind. And ev'ry voice be praife.

HYMN CXC. Dr. WATTS.

The new testament in the blood of Christ; Or, the new covenant Sealed.

I. THE promise of my Father's love Shall fand forever good ; He faid, and gave his foul to death, And feal'd the grace with blood.

2. To this dear cov'nant of thy word, I fet my worthless name ; I feal th' engagement to my Lord, And make my humble claim.

3. The light, and strength, and pard'ning grace, And glory, shall be mine; My life and foul, my heart and flesh, And all my pow'rs are thine.

4. I call that legacy my own, Which Jesus did bequeath ; . 'Twas purchas'd with a dving groan,

And ratify'd in death.

Sweet is the mem'ry of his name,
Who blefs'd us in his will,
And to his testament of love.
Made his own life the seal.

HYMN CXCI. Dr. WATTS.

Corif the bread of life, John vi. 31, 35, 39.

LET us adore th' eternal word,
'Tis he our fouls hath fed;
Thou art ou: living stream, O Lord,
And thou th' immortal bread.

The manna came from lower skies,
 But Jesus from above,
 Where the fresh springs of pleasure rise,
 And rivers flow with love.

 The Jews, the fathers, dy'd at last, Who are that heav'nly bread;
 But these provisions which we taste, Can raise us from the dead.

4. Blefs'd be the Lord, that gives his fiefn To nourifh dying men: And often spreads his table fresh, Best we should faint again.

Our fouls shall draw their heav'nly breata,
 Whilst Jesus sinds supplies:
 Nor shall our graces sink to death,
 For Jesus never dies.

; [6. Daily our mortal flesh decays, But Christ, our life, shall come ; His unresisted pow'r shall raise Our bodies from the tomb.

HYMN CXCII. Dr. WATTS.

The memorial of our absent Lord, John xvi. 16.
Luke xxii. 19. John xiv. 3.

z. JESUS is gone above the fkies,
Where our weak fenses reach him not;

And carnal objects court our eyes, To thrust our Saviour from our thought.

- 2. He knows what wand'ring hearts we have, Apt to forget his lovely face; And, to refresh our minds, he gave These kind memorials of his grace.
- The Lord of life this table fpread With his own fiesh and dying blood;
 We on the rich provision feed,
 And taste the wine, and bless the God.
- 4. Let finful fweets be all forgot.

 And earth grow lefs in our effects;

 Christ and his love fill ev'ry thought,

 And faith and hope be fix'd on him.
- While he is absent from our fight,
 "Tis to prepare our souls a place,
 That we may dwell in keavinly light,
 And live for ever near his face.
- [6. Our eyes look upwards to the hills, Whence our returning Lord shall come; We wait thy chariot's awful w'eels, To setch our longing spirits home.]

HYMN CXCIII. L. M. D. TURNER.

- Set bim above all principalities and powers—worthy the lamb that was stain to reserve glory and bleshing Ephes. i. 21. Rev. v. 12.
- r. NOW far above these starry skies,
 Our Jesus fills his brighter throne,
 Invisible to nortal eyes,
 But not to humble faith unknown.
- 2. [The countless hosts that round him stand,
 The subjects of his sovereign power;
 Fly thro' the world at his command,
 Or prostrate at his seet adore.

- Satan and all his rebel crew
 That rag'd to pull his kingdom down;
 Crush'd by his hand, in ruin now
 Lie trembling at his awful frown.
- 4. His name above all creatures great,
 He all fuftains and all controuls;
 Yet from his high exalted flate,
 Looks kindly down on humble fouls.]
- Tho' in the glories he posses'd,
 Long ere this world, or time began,
 He shines the Son of God confes'd,
 Yet owns himself the son of man,
- 6. Here once in agonies de dy'd,
 Now in the heaven he ever lives;
 Of Joy there pours th' eternal tide,
 Here faves the finner who believes.
- 7. All hail! thou great Immanuel, hail! Ten thousand bleffings on thy name! While thus thy wondrous love we tell, Our bosoms feel the facred fiame.
- Come, quickly come, immortal King!
 On earth thy regal honors raife,
 The full falvation promis'd, bring,
 Then every tongue shall sing thy praise!

HYMN CXCIV. Dr. WATTS.

Christ crucified, the wisdom and power of God.

- To fpread her Maker's praise abroad,
 And ev'ry labor of his hands
 Shews something worthy of a God;
- But in the grace that refcu'd man,
 His brightest form of glory shines;
 Here on the cross, 'tis fairest drawn
 In precious blood, and crimson lines.

- [3. Here his whole name appears complete; Nor man can guess, nor reason prove, Which of the letters best is writ, 'The pow'r, the wisdom, or the love.]
- 4. Here I behold his inmost heart,
 Where grace and vengeance strangely join,
 Piercing his Son with sharpest finart,
 To make the purchas'd pleasures mine.
- O! the fweet wonders of that crofs, Where God the Saviour lov'd, and dy'd! Her nobleft life my spirit draws From his dear wounds, and bleeding side.
- I would for ever fpeak his name, In founds to mortal ears unknown; With angels join to praife the Lamb, And worship at his Father's throne.

HYMN CXCV. Dr. WATTS.

Divine love making a feaft, and calling the guests, Luke xiv. 17, 22, 23,

- r, HOW fweet and awful is the place,
 With Christ within the doors;
 While everlasting love displays
 The choicest of her stores!
- Here in the language of a God
 Divine compaffion rolls;
 Here peace and pardon bought with blood,
 Is food for dying fouls.
- While all our hearts, and all our fongs, Join to admire the feaft,
 Each of us cry, with thankful tongues,
 "Lord, why was I a gueft?
- 4. "Why was I made to hear thy voice,
 "And enter while there's room;
 "When thousands make a wretched choice,

" And rather starve than come?"

- 5. "Twas the same love that spread the feast,
 That sweetly forc'd us in;
 Else we had still refus d to taste,
 And perish'd in our fin.
- [6. Pity the nations, O our God! Confirmin the earth to come; Send thy victorious word abroad, And bring the strangers home.
- We long to fee thy churches full,
 That all the chofen race
 May with one voice, and heart, and foul,
 Sing thy redeeming grace.]

HYMN CXCVI. Dr. WATTS.

The Song of Simeon Luke ii. 28: or, A fight of Christ makes death eafy.

- NOW have our hearts embrac'd our God, We would ferget all earthly charms, And with to die, as Simeon would, With his young Saviour in his arms.
- Our lips should learn that joyful seng,
 Were but our hearts prepar'd like his;
 Our fouls still willing to be gone,
 - " And at thy word depart in peace.
- 3. " Here we have feen thy face, O Lord, "And view'd falvation with our eyes,
 - " Tafted and felt the living word,
 - " The bread descending from the skies.
- 4. "Thou hast prepar'd this dying Lantb,
 "Hast fet his blood before our face,
 "To teach the terrors of thy name,
 - " And shew the wonders of thy grace,
- 5. " He is our light; our morning-flar " Shall fhine on nations yet unknown;

"The glory of thine Ifr'el here,

" And joy of spirits near thy throne."

HYMN CXCVII. Dr. WATTS.

Divine glories and graces.

- T. HOW are thy glories here display'd, Great God! how bright they shine, While, at thy word, we break the bread, And pour the flowing wine!
- Here thy revenging justice stands, And pleads its dreadful cause;
 Here saving mercy spreads her hands, Like Jesus on the cross.
- Thy faints attend with ev'ry grace
 On this great facrifice;
 And love appears with cheerful face,
 And faith with fixed eyes.
- Our hope in waiting posture fits, To heav'n directs her fight; Here ev'ry warmer passion meets, And warmer pow'rs unite.
- Zeal and revenge perform their part, And rifing fin deftroy;
 Repentance comes with aching heart, Yet not forbids our joy.
- Dear Saviour, change our faith to fight, Let fin forever die;
 Then shall our fouls be all delight, And ev'ry tear be dry.

HYMN CXCVIII. Dr. WATTS.

A Morning Hymn, Pfal. xix. 5, 8, and lxxiii. 24, 25

z. GOD of the morning, atwhose voice
The cheerstel sun makes haste to rise,

And like a giant doth rejoice To run his journey thro' the skies.

- 2. From the fair chambers of the East
 The circuit of his race begins,
 And without weariness or rest,
 Round the whole earth he slies and shines.
- 3. Oh, like the fun, may I fulfil
 Th' appointed duties of the day,
 With ready mind, and active will,
 March on, and keep my heav'nly way.
- 4. But I shall rove, and lose the race,
 If God, my fun, should disappear,
 And leave me in this world's wild maze,
 To follow ev'ry wand'ring star.
- 5. Lord, thy commands are clean and pure, Enlight'ning our beclouded eyes; Thy threat'nings just, thy promise fure, Thy gospel makes the simple wise.
- Give me thy counfel for my guide, And then receive me to thy blifs;
 All my defires and hopes befide Are faint and cold, compar'd with this.

HYMN CXCIX. Dr. WATTS.

An Evening Hymn, Pfal. iv. 3. and iii. 5, 6, and cxliii. 8.

- THUS far the Lord has led me on, Thus far his pow'r prolongs my days And ev'ry ev'ning shall make known Some fresh memorial of his grace.
- Much of my time has run to waste, And I perhaps am near my home; But he forgives my fellies past, He gives me strength for days to come.

- 3. I lay my body down to fleep, Peace is the pillow for my head; While well-appointed angels keep Their watchful flations round my bed.
- 4. In vain the fors of earth or hell Tell me a thousand frightful things; My God in fasety makes me dwell Beneath the shadow of his wings.
- [5. Faith in his name forbids my fear: O may thy prefence ne'er depart! And in the moraing make me hear The love and kindness of thy heart.
- 6. Thus when the night of death shall come, My flesh shall rest beneath the ground, And wait thy voice to rouse my tomb, With sweet salvation in the sound.]

HYMN CC. Dr. WATTS.

A morning Song.

- T. ONCE more, my foul, the rifing day
 Salutes thy waking eyes;
 Once more, my voice, thy tribute pay
 To him that rules the skies.
- Night unto night his name repeats,
 The day renews the found,
 Wide as the heav'n on which he fits,
 To turn the feafons round.
 - Tis he fupports my mortal frame, My tongue shall speak his praise; My fins would rouse his wrath to flame, And yet his wrath delays.
- [4. On a poor worm thy pow'r might tread, And I could ne'er withstand: Thy justice might have crush'd me dead, But mercy held thine hand,

- 5. A thousand wretched souls are fied Since the last setting sun, And yet thou length'nest out my thread, And yet my moments run.
- 6. Great God, let all my hours be thine,
 Whillt I enjoy the light;
 Then shall my fun in Imiles decline,
 And bring a pleasant night.

HYMN CCI Dr. WATTS.

An evening Song.

- [1. DREAD for reign let my evening fong Like holy incenfe rife;
 Affifthe off rings of my tongue
 Toreach the lofty fkies.
 - 2. Thro' all the dangers of the day
 Thy hand was still my guard,
 And still to drive my wants away
 Thy mercy stood prepar'd.]
 - 3. Perpetual bleffings from above Incompass me around, But O how sew returns of love Hath my Creator found!
 - 4. What have I done for him that died To fave my wretched foul? How are my follies multiplied, Fast as the minutes roll!
 - Lord with this guilty heart of mine,
 To thy dear cross I flee,
 And to thy grace my foul refign,
 To be renew'd by thee.
 - Sprinkled afresh with pard'ning blood,
 I lay me down to rest,
 As in th' embraces of my God,
 Or on my Saviour's breast.

HYMN CCII. Dr. WATTS.

A fong for morning and evening, Lam. iii. 23.

- 7. MY God, how endless is thy love!
 Thy gifts are ev'ry ev'ning new;
 And morning mercies from above,
 Gently distil like early dew.
- 2. Thou fpread'ft the curtains of the night, Great guardian of my fleeping hours; Thy fov'reign word restores the light. And quickens all my drowfy pow'rs.
- I yield my pow'rs to thy command, To thee I confecrate my days, Perpetual bleflings from thine hand Demand perpetual fongs of praife.

HTMN CCIII. Dr. WATTS.

A bymn for morning and evening.

- H OSANNA, with a cheerful found, To God's upholding hand; Ten thoufand fnares attend us round, And yet fecure we ftand.
- 2. That was a most amazing pow'r
 That rais'd us with a word,
 And ev'ry day, and ev'ry hour
 We lean upon the Lord.
- 3. The ev'ning refts our weary head, And angels guard the room; We wake, and we admire the bed That was not made our tomb.
- 4. The rifing morning can't affure
 That we shall end the day;
 For death stands ready at the door
 To take our lives away.

Our breath is forfeited by fin
 To God's avenging law;
 We own thy grace, immortal King!
 In ev'ry gafp we draw.

6. God is our fun, whose daily light Our joy and safety brings; Our feeble sless lies safe at night Beneath his shady wings.

HYMN CCIV. S. M. S-

A Morning Fymn.

1. SEE how the mounting fun Purfues his shining way; And wide proclaims his Maker's praise, With every brightening ray.

2. Thus would my rifing foul Its heavenly Parent fing; And to its great Original The humble tribute bring.

3. Serene I laid me down Beneath his guardian care; I flept, and I awoke, and found My kind preferver near!

4. Thus does thine arm support
This weak defenceless frame;
But whence these favours, Lord, to me,
All worthless as I am?

5. O! how shall I repay
The bounties of my God?
This feeble Spirit pants beneath
The pleasing, painful load.

6. Dear Saviour, to thy cross
I bring my facrifice;
Cleans'd by thy blood, it shall ascend
With fragrance to the skies.

7. My life I would anew
Devote, O Lord, to thee;
And in thy fervice I would fpend
A long eternity.

HYMN CCV. L. M. RIPPON.

An Evening Hymn.

- r. GREAT God, to thee my evening fong,
 With humble gratitude I raife,
 O let thy mercy tune my tongue.
 And fill my heart with lively praife.
- 2. My days unclouded, as they pass,
 And every gentle rolling hour,
 Are monuments of wondrous grace,
 And witness to thy love and power.
- 3. And yet this thoughtlefs, wretched heart,
 Too oft regardlefs of thy love,
 Ungrateful, can from thee depart,
 And foul of trifles vainly rove.
- 4. Seal my forgiveness in the blood Of Jesus: his dear name alone I plead for pardon, gracious God, And kind acceptance at thy throne.
- Let this bleft hope mine eye-lids close, With fleep refresh my feeble frame;
 Safe in thy care may I repose,
 And wake with praises to thy name.

HYMN CCVI. RIPPON.

Summer-an Harvest Hymn.

- 1. To praife the ever bounteous Lord,
 My foul, wake all thy powers:
 He calls, and at his voice come forth
 The finiting Harvest hours.
 - 2. His covenant with the earth he keeps;
 My tongue his goodness sing;

- Summer and winter know their time, His hervest crowns the spring.
- Well pleas'd the teiling swains behold The waving yellow crop:
 With joy they bear the sheaves away, And sow again in hope.
- 4. Thus teach me, gracious God, to faw
 The feeds of righteousness:
 Smile on my bul, and with thy beams
 The ripening harvest bless.
- 5. Then, in the hall great harvest, I Shall reap a glorious crop: The harvest shall by far exceed What I have fow'd in hope.

HTMN CCVII. C. M. STEELE.

Winter .

- I. STERN Winter throws his fey chains
 Sencircling nature round:
 How bleak, how comfortless the plains,
 Late with gay verdure crown'd!
- The fun withdraws his vital beams, And light, and warmth depart; And drooping, lifeless rature feems An emblem of my heart.
- My heart, where mental winter reigns
 In night's dark mentle clad,
 Confin'd in cold inactive chains,
 How defolate and fad!
- Return, O bliffful Sun, and bring Thy foul reviving ray;
 This mental winter shall be spring, This darkness cheerful day.

- O happy state, divine abode, Where spring eternal reigns;
 And perfect day, the smile of God, Fills all the heavenly plains.
- 6. Great Source of light, thy beams display,
 My drooping joys restore,
 And guide me to the seats of day,
 Where winter frowns no more.

HYMN CCVIII. L. M. RIPPON.

The Seafons crowned with goodness, Pfalm lxv. 11.

- I. FTERNAL Source of every joy!
 Well may thy praise our lips employ,
 While in thy temple we appear
 To hail thee, Sovereign of the Year.
- 2. Wide as the wheels of nature roll,

 Thy hand supports and guides the whole;

 The Sun is taught by thee to rise,

 And Darkness when to veil the skies.
- 3. The flowery Spring, at thy command,
 Perfumes the air and paints the land;
 The Summer rays with vigeur filine
 To raife the corn and cheer the vine.
- 4. Thy hand, in Antumn, richly pours
 Thro'all our coafts redundant flores;
 And Winters, foften'd by thy care,
 No more the face of horror wear.
- Seasons, and months, and weeks, and days Demand successive songs of praise;
 And be the grateful homage paid,
 With morning light and evening shade.
- 6. Here in thy house let incense rise, And circling Sabbaths bless our eyes, "Till to those losty heights we foar, Where days and years revolve no more.

HYMN CCIX. L. M. RIPPON.

Help obtained of God, Acts xxvi. 22. New-Year's Day.

- The Opening Year thy mercy shews:

 Let mercy crown it till it close.
- 2. By day, by night, at home, abroad, Still we are guarded by our God; By his inceffant bounty fed, By his unerring counfel led.
- With grateful hearts the past we own;
 The future, all to us unknown,
 We to thy guardian care commit,
 And peaceful leave before thy feet.
- In fcenes exalted or depres'd,
 Be thou our joy, and thou our rest;
 (Thy goodness all our hopes shall raise,
 Ador'd thro' all our changing days.
- When death shall interrupt these songs, And seal in silence, mortal tongues, Our Helper-God, in whom we trust, In better worlds our souls shall boast.

HYMN CCX, Dr. WATTS.

- Life the day of grace and hope, Eccl. ix. 4, 5, 6, 10-
- I. If E is the time to ferve the Lord,
 The time t'infure the great reward,
 And while the lamp holds out to burn,
 The vilest finner may return.
- [2. Life is the hour that God hath giv'n
 To 'scape from hell, and fly to heav'n;
 The day of grace, and mortals may
 Secure the bleffings of the day.]

- The living know that they must die, But all the dead forgotten lie; Their mem'ry and their fense is gone, Alike unknowing and unknown.
- [4. Their hatred and their love is loft,
 Their eavy buried in the duft;
 They have no share in all that's done
 Beneath the circuit of the sun.]
- Then what my thoughts defign to do, My hands, with all your might purfue, Since no device, nor work is found, Nor faith, nor hope, beneath the ground.
- 6. There are no acts of pardon past In the cold grave, to which we haste: But darkness, death, and long despair, Reign in eternal filence there.

HYMN CCXI. Dr. WATTS.

Youth and Judgment, Eccl. xi. 9.

- E. YE fons of Adam, vain and young,
 Indulge your eyes, indulge your tongue,
 Taite the delights your fouls defire,
 And give a loofe to all your fire.
- 2. Purfue the pleafares you defign
 And cheer your hearts with fongs and wine;
 Enjoy the day of mirth, but know,
 There is a day of judgment too.
- God from on high beholds your thoughts, His book records your fecret faults; The works of darkness you have done, Must all appear before the fun.

The vengcance to your follies due Should strike your hearts with terror thro's How will ye stand before his face, Or answer for his injur'd grace? Almighty God, turn off their eyes
From these alluring vanities,
And let the thunder of thy word
Awake their souls to sear the Lord.

HYMN CCXII. Dr. WATTS.

Advice to youth: Or, Old age and death in an unconverted flate, Eccl. xii. 1, 7. Ifa. lxv. 20.

- I. NOW in the heat of youthful blood Remember your Creator, God:
 Behold the months come hast ning on,
 When you shall fay, My joys are gone.
- 2. Behold the aged finner goes,
 Laden with guilt and heavy woes,
 Down to the regions of the dead,
 With endless curses on his head.
- 3. The dust returns to dust again;
 The foul, in agonies of pain
 Ascends to God; not there to dwell,
 But hears her doom, and finks to hell.
- 4. Eternal Kipg! I fear thy name,
 Teach me to knew how frail I am;
 And when my foul must hence remove,
 Give me a mansion in thy love.

HYMN CCXIII. Dr. WATTS.

The shortness of life and the goodness of God.

- I. TIME! what an empty vapour 'tis,
 And days how fwift they are!
 Swift as the archer's arrow flies,
 Or like a fhooting flar.
- [2. The present moments just appear, Then finde away in haste, That we can never say, They're bere, But only say, They're past.]

- [3. Our life is ever on the wing,
 And death is ever nigh;
 The moment when our lives begin,
 We all begin to die.]
- 4. Yet, mighty God! our fleeting days
 Thy lasting favours share,
 Yet with the bounties of thy grace,
 Thou load'ft the rolling year.
- 'Tis fov'reign mercy finds us food, And we are cloath'd with love; While grace flands pointing out the road, That leads our fouls above.
- 6. His goodness runs an endless round;
 All glory to the Lord!
 His mercy never knows a bound;
 And he his name ador'd.
- Thus we begin the lasting fong:
 And when we close our eyes,
 Let the next age thy praise prolong
 Till time and nature dies.

HYMN CCXIV. L. M. Dr. S. STENNETT.

Early Piety, Matt. xii. 20.

- x. HOW foft the words my Saviour speaks!

 How kind the promises he makes!

 A bruised reed he never breaks,

 Nor will he quench the smoking flax.
- The humble Poor he won't despise,
 Nor on the contrite sinner frown:
 His ear is open to their cries,
 He quickly sends falvation down.
- 3. When piety in early minds,
 Like tender buds begins to shoot,
 He guards the plants from threat'ning winds
 And ripens blossoms into fruit.

- 4. With humble fouls he bears a part In all the forrows they endure: Tender and gracious is his heart, His promife is for ever fure.
- 5. He fees the struggles that prevail
 Between the powers of grace and sin;
 He kindly listens while they tell
 The bitter pangs they feel within
- 6. The pres'd with fears on ev'ry fide, They know not how the strife may end; Yet he will soon the cause decide, And judgment unto vici'ry send.

Hymn CCXV. C.M. Dr. Doddridge.

The encouragement young persons have to seek Christ, Prov. viii. 17.

- I. Y E hearts, with youthful vigor warm, In fmiling crowds draw near, And turn from every mortal charm, A Savjour's voice to hear.
- H:, Lord of all the worlds on high, Stoops to converfe with you; And lays his radiant glories by, Your friendship to purfue.
- 3. "The foul, that longs to fee my face,
 "Is fure my love to gain;
 "And that that early feel my grace

"And those that early feek my grace, "Shall never feek in vain."

- 4. What object. Lord, my foul should move if once compar'd with thee? What beauty should command my love, Like what in Christ I see?
- Away, ye falle delative toys, Vain tempters of the mind!
 Tis here I fix my lafting choice, For here true blifs I find.

HYMN CCXVI. L. M. Dr. WATTS'S SERMONS.

A lovely youth falling fort of Heaven, Mark x. 21.

- I. MUST all the charms of nature then,
 So hopeless to salvation prove?
 Can hell demand, can heaven condemn
 The man whom Jesus desens to love?—
- 2. The n who fought the ways of truth, Paid friends and neighbors all their due; A modest, fober, lovely Youth, Who thought he wanted nothing now?
- 3. But mark the change: thus fpake the Lord, "Come part with earth for heaven to-day!"
 The Youth, aftonish'd at the word,
 In silent sadness went his way.
- 4. Poor virtues, that he boafted fo, This test unable to endure, Let Christ, and grace, and glory go, To make his land and money sure.
- 5. Ah foolish choice of treasures here!
 Ah fatal love of tempting gold!
 Must this base world be bought so dear?
 And life and heaven so cheaply fold?
- 6. In vain the charms of nature shine,
 If this vile passion governs me;
 Transform my soul, O love divine!
 And make me part with all for thee.

HYMN CCXVII. Dr. WATTS.

Frail life, and succeeding eternity

2. THEE we adore, eternal name!
And humbly own to thee,
How feeble is our mortal frame,
What dying worms are we!

- [2. Our wasting lives grow shorter still, As months and days encrease; And ev'ry beating pulse we tell, Leaves the small number less.
- The year rolls round, and steals away
 The breath that first it gave;
 Whate'er we do, whate'er we be,
 We're travelling to the grave.]
- Dangers stand thick thro' all the ground, To push us to the tomb;
 And serce diseases wait around, To hurry mortals home.
- Great God! on what a flender thread Hang everlasting things!
 Th' esernal state of all the dead Upon life's feeble strings.
- 6. Infinite joy or endlefs wee
 Attends on ev'ry breath;
 And yet how unconcern'd we go
 Upon the brink of death!
- Waken, O Lord, our droufy fenfe, To walk this dangerous road: And if our fouls are hurried hence, May they be found with God.

HYMN CCXVIII. S. M. FAWCETT.

How shall a young man cleanse bis way, Pialm cxix. 9.

- 1. WITH humble heart and tongue, My God, to thee I pray;
- O make me learn whilft I am young, How I may cleanfe my way.
 - 2. Now in my early days, Teach me thy will to know;

O God, thy fanctifying grace Betimes on me bestow.

3. Make an unguarded Youth
The object of thy care;
Help me to choose the way of truth,
And fly from every snare.

4. My heart, to folly prone, Renew by power divine; Unite it to thyself alone, And make me wholly thine.

5. O let thy word of grace
My warmest thoughts employ;
Be this thro' all my following days,
My treasure and my joy.

6. To what thy laws impart
Be my whole foul inclin'd;
O let them dwell within my heart,
And fanctify my mind.

 May thy young fervant learn, By thefe to cleanfe his way;
 And may I here the path differn That leads to endlefs day.

HYMN CCXIX. L. M. PRESIDENT DAVIES.

National Judgments depresated, and national mercies pleaded, Amos iii. 1-6.

z. WHILE o'er our guilty land, O Lord,
We view the terrors of thy fword;
Oh! whither shall the helples fly;
To whom but thee direct their cry?

The helpless finner's cries and tears
 Are grown familiar to thine ears;
 Oft has thy mercy fent relief,
 When all was fear and hopeless grief.

On thee our guardian God, we call, Before thy throne of grace we fall; And is there no deliverance there? And must we perish in despair?

See, we repent, we weep, we mourn, To our forsaken God we turn; O spare our guilty country, spare The church which thou hast planted here.

We plead thy grace, indulgent God; We plead thy Son's atoning blood; We plead thy gracious promifes, And are they unavailing pleas?

These pleas, presented at thy throne, Have brought ten thousand blessings down, On guilty lands in helpless woe; Let them prevail to save us too.

HYMN CCXX. L. M. STEELE.

Praise for national peace, Pfalm xlvi. 9.

GREAT Ruler of the earth and skies, A word of thy Almighty breath Can fink the world, or bid it rife: Thy smile is life, thy frown is death.

When angry nations rush to arms, And rage, and noise, and tumult reign, And war resounds its dire alarms, And slaughter spreads the hossile plains;

Thy fovereign eye looks calmly down, And marks their course, and bounds their pow'r, Thy word the angry nations own, And noise and war are heard no more.

Then peace returns with balmy wing, (Sweet peace, with her what bleffings fled!) Glad plenty laughs, the vallies fing, Reviving commerce lifts her head.

- Thou good, and wife, and righteous Lord, All move fubfervient to thy will; And peace and war await thy word, And thy fublime decrees fulfil.
 - 6. To thee we pay our grateful fongs,
 Thy kind protection ftill implore;
 O may our hearts, and lives, and tongues,
 Confess thy goodness and adore.

HYMN CCXXI. C. M. RIPPON.

Thanksgiving for Victory over our Enemics.

- TO thee, who reign's fupreme above,
 And reign's fupreme below,
 Thou God of wissom, power, and love,
 We our successes owe.
- 2. The thundering horfe, the martial band, Without thine aid were vain; And victory flies at thy command To crown the bright campaign.
- Thy mighty arm unfeen was nigh, When we our foes affail'd;
 'Tis thou haft rais'd our honours high, And o'er their hofts prevail'd.
- 4. Their mounds, their camps, their lofty towers,
 Into our hands are given,
 Not from defert or strength of ours,
 But thro' the grace of heaven.
- What tho' no columns lifted high Stand deep inferib'd with praife,
 Yet founding honours to the fky
 Our grateful tongues shall raife.
- To our young race will we proclaim The mercies God has shown;
 That they may learn to bless his name, And choose him for their own.

Thus, while we fleep in filent dust, When threatening dangers come, Their father's God shall be their trust, Their refuge and their home.

HYMN CCXXII. C. M. LEECH.

For a time of general Sickness.

DEATH, with his dread commission seal'd, Now hastens to his arms; In awful state he takes the field, And sounds his dire alarms.

 Attendant plagues around him stand, And wait his dread command; And pains, and dying groans obey The signal of his hand.

 With cruel force he featters round His fhafts of deadly power;
 While the grave waits its destin'd prey, Impatient to devour.

4. Look up, ye heirs of endless joy, Nor let your fears prevail; Eternal life is your reward, When life on earth shall fail.

 What tho' his darts, promifcuous hurl'd, Deal fatal plagues around;
 And heaps of putrid carcafes
 O'erload the cumber'd ground;

6. The arrows that shall wound your flesh,
Were given him from above,
Dipt in the great Redeemer's blood,
And wing d with grace and love.

These, with a gestle hand, he throws,
 And faints lie gasping too;
 But heavenly strongth supports their souls,
 And bears them conquerors thro.

8. Joyful they ftretch their wings abroad,
And all in triumph rife
To the fair palace of their God,
And mansions in the skies.

HYMN CCXXIII. C. M. STEELE.

Defiring the presence of God in Affliction.

- r. THOU only Centre of my reft; Look down with pitying eye, While with protracted pain-oppreft I breathe the plaintive figh.
- 2. Thy gracious prefence, O my God, My every wish contains; With this, beneath afflictions load, My heart no more complains.
- 3. This can my every care controul,
 Gild each dark feene with light;
 This is the funfhine of the foul,
 Without it all is night.
- 4. My Lord, my life, O cheer my heart With thy reviving ray, And bid thefe mournful shades depart, And bring the dawn of day!
- 5. O happy scenes of pure delight!
 Where thy full beams impart
 Unclouded beauty to the fight,
 And rapture to the heart.
- 6. Her part in those fair realms of blis,
 My spirit longs to know;
 My wishes terminate in this,
 Nor can they rest below.
- Lord, shall the breathings of my heart Aspire in vain to thee?
 Confirm my hope, that where thou art, I shall for ever be.

 Then shall my cheerful spirit sing The darksome hours away, And rise on faith's expanded wing To everlasting day.

HYMN CXXIV. C. M. Dr. WATTS.

Complaint and bope under great pain,

- L ORD, I am pain'd; but I refign My body to thy will;
 Tis grace, 'tis wifdom all divine, Appoints the pains I feel.
- Dark are thy ways of providence, While they who love thee groan: Thy reasons lies conceal'd from sense, Mysterious and unknown.
- Yet nature may have leave to fpeak, And plead before her God, Left the o'erburden'd heart should break Peneath thine heavy rod.
- 4. These mouraful groams and flowing tears, Give my poor spirit ease: While every groam my father hears, Andwevery tear he sees.
- [How shall I glorify my God
 In bonds of grief confin'd?
 Damp'd is my vigour, while this clod
 Hangs heavy on my mind.]
- Is not fome fmiling hour at hand With peace upon its wings?
 Give it, O God, thy fwift command, With all the joys it brings.

HYMN CCXXV. C. M. Dr. Doddridge,

Praise for recovery from Sickness, Pf. cxviii. 18. 19.

I. SOVEREIGN of life, I cwn thy hand In every chastening stroke;

And, while I fmart beneath thy rod, Thy prefence I invoke.

- 2. To thee in my diftrefs I cried,
 And thou halt bow'd thine ear;
 Thy powerful word my life prolong'd,
 And brought falvation near.
- Unfold, ye gates of righteeuinels, That, with the pious throng, I may record my folemn vows, And tune my grateful fong.
- Praise to the Lord, whose gentle hand Renews our labouring breath.
 Praise to the Lord, who makes his faints Triumphant e'en in déath.
- 5. My God, in thine appointed hour Those heavenly gates display, Where pain and sin, and sear and death For ever slee away.
- There, while the nations of the blefs'd, With raptures bow around, My anthems to delivering grace, In fweeter firains shall found.

HYMN CCXXVI. Dr. WATTS.

The Song of Simeon; or, death made definable, Luke ii. 27. &c.

- I. ORD, at thy temple we appear,
 As happy Simeon came,
 And hope to meet our Saviour here;
 O make our joys the same!
- With what divine and vast delight
 The good old man was fill'd,
 When fondly in his wither'd arms
 He clasp'd the holy child;

3. " Now I can leave this world, he cried, "Behold thy fervant dies;

" I've feen thy great falvation, Lord, " And close my peaceful eyes.

4. " This is the light prepar'd to shine " Upon the Gentile lands,

"Thine Israel's glory, and their hope,
"To break their flavish bands,"

[5. Jefus! the vifion of thy face, Hath over-pow'ring charms! Scarce shall I feel death's cold embrace, If Christ be in my arms.

6. Then while ye hear my heart-strings break, How sweet my minutes roil! A mortal paleness on my cheek, And glory in my soul.

HIMN CCXXVII. Dr. WATTS.

The death of a sinner.

T. MY thoughts on awful fubjects roll,
Dannation and the dead
What horrors feize the guilty foul
Upon a dying bed!

 Ling'ring about these mortal shores, She makes a long delay,
 Till, like a flood with rapid force Death sweeps the wretch away.

 Then, fwift and dreadful, fhe defcends. Down to the fiery coaft, Amongst abominable fiends, Herself a frighted ghost.

4. There endless crouds of finners lie,
And darkness makes their chains;
Tortur'd with keen despair they cry,
Yet wait for fiercer pains.

- 5. Not all their anguish and their blood For their past guist atones, Nor the compassion of a God Shall hearken to their groans.
- 6. Amazing grace, that kept my breath,

 Nor bid my foul remove,

 "Till I had learn'd my Saviour's death,

 And well infur'd his love!

HYMN CCXXVIII. Dr. WATTS.

Death and eternity.

- 1. STOOP down, my thoughts, that use to rise,
 Converse a while with death:
 Think how a gasping mortal lies
 And pants away his breath.
- His quiv'ring lips hang feebly down,
 His pulfe is faint and few,
 Then speechless, with a doleful groan,
 He bids the world adieu.
- 3. But, O the foul that never dies!
 At once it leaves the clay!
 Ye thoughts, purfue it where it flies,
 And trace its wondrous way.
- 4. Up to the courts where Angels dwell,
 It mounts triumphant there;
 Or devils plunge it down to hell,
 In infinite despair.
- And must my body faint and die?
 And must this foul remove?
 Oh, for some guardian Angel nigh,
 To bear it safe above.
- Jefus, to thy dear, faithful hand,
 My naked foul I truft;
 My flesh shall wait for thy command,
 And drop into my dust.

HYMN CCXXIX. Dr. WATTS.

Mofe; dying in the embraces of God.

- r. DEATH cannot make our fouls afraid,
 If God be with us there;
 We may walk thro' its darkest shade,
 And never yield to fear.
- 2. I could renounce my all below,

 If my creator bid;

 And run, if I were call'd to go,

 And die as Moses did.
- 3. Might I but climb to Pifgah's top,

 And view the promis'd land,

 My flesh itself would long to drop,

 And pray for the command.
- Clasp'd in my heav'nly Father's arms, I would forget my breath,
 And lose my life amid the charms
 Of so divine a death.

HYMN CCXXX. Dr. WATTS.

Death dreadful, or delightful.

- I. DEATH! 'tis a melancholy day
 To those that have no God,
 When the poor soul is forc'd away
 To feek her last a-bode.
- In vain to heav'n the lifts her eyes;
 But guilt, a heavy chain,
 Still drags her downward from the fkies,
 To darknefs, fire and pain.
- 3. Awake and mourn, ye heirs of hell, Let stubborn singers fear; You must be driv'n from earth, and dwell A long for ever there.

- 4. See how the pit gapes wide for you,
 And flashes in your sace:
 And thou, my foul, look downward too,
 And sing recoviring grace.
- He is a God of fov'reign love,
 That promis'd heav'n to me,
 And taught my thoughts to foar above,
 Where happy fpirits be.
- Prepare me, Lord, for thy right hand, Then come the joyful day;
 Come, death, and some celestial band, To bear my foul away.

HYMN CCXXXI. Dr. WATTS.

A thought of death and glory.

- Y foul, come, meditate the day,
 And think how near it stands,
 When thou must quit this house of clay,
 And sly to unknown lands.
- [2. And you, mine eyes, look down and view
 The hollow, gaping tomb:
 This gloomy prison waits for you,
 Whene'er the fummons come.]
- 3. Oh! could we die with those that die, And place us in their stead; Then would our spirits learn to fly, And converse with the dead:
- 4. Then should we see the faints above
 In their own glorious forms,
 And wonder why our souls should love
 To dwell with mortal worms.
- [5. How we should scorn these clothes of sless, These setters, and this load; And long for evining to undress, 'That we may rest with God.]

 We should almost forfake our clay, Before the summons come, And pray, and wish our fouls away To their eternal home.

HYMN CCXXXII. DR. WATTS.

A funeral thought.

I. HARK! from the tombs a doleful found,
My ears attend the cry,

"Ye living men, come view the ground, "Where you must shortly lie.

2. " Princes, this clay must be your bed,
" In spite of all your tow'rs!

"The tall, the wife, the rev'rend head, "Must lie as low as ours."

3. Great God! is this our certain doom?

And are we still fecure?

Still walking downward to the tomb,

And yet prepare no more?

4. Grant us the pow'r of quick'ning grace, To fit our fouls to fly; Then, when we drop this dying flesh, We'll rife above the sky.

CCXXXIII. C. M. NEEDHAM.

The rich Fool surprised, Luke xii. 16-22.

I. DELUDED fouls! who think to find A folid blifs below:
Blifs! the fair flower of paradife,
On earth can never grow.

 See how the foolish wretch is pleas'd, T' increase his worldly store;
 Too scanty now he finds his barns, And covets room for more. 3. " What shall I do?" distrest he cries,
" This scheme will I pursue:

" My fcanty barns faall now come down,
" I'll build them large and new.

4. " Here will I lay my fruits, and bid " My foul to take its cafe:

"Eat, drink, be glad, my lasting store
"Shall give what joys I please."

5. Scarce had he fpoke, when lo! from heaven
Th' Almighty made reply:

" For whom dost thou provide, thou fool?
"This night thyself shall die."

6. Teach me, my God, all earthly joys
Are-but an empty dream:
And may I feek my blifs alone,
In thee the good Supreme!

HYMN CCXXXIV. C. M. Dr. WATTS'S LYRIC.

Death and Eternity.

1. MY thoughts, that often mount the skies,
Go, fearch the world beneath.
Where nature all in ruin lies
And owns her fovereign, Death.

2. The tyrant how he triumphs here,* His trophies fpread around! And heaps of duft and hones appear Thro' all the hollow ground.

3. These skulls, what ghastly figures now!

How loathsome to the eyes;

These are the heads we lately knew
So beauteous and so wife.

4. But where the fouls, those deathless things, That left their dying clay?

* Bunbill-Fields.

My thoughts, now firetch out all your wings, And trace eternity.

5. O that unfathomable fea!

Those deeps without a shore!

Where living waters gently play,

Or fiery billows roar.

 There we shall swim in heavenly blifs, Or sink in slaming waves, While the pale carcase breathless lies Among the silent graves.

Prepare us, Lord, for thy right hand,
 Then come the joyful day,
 Come, death, and fome celeftial band,

"Come, death, and fome celetical ban
"To bear our fouls away,"

HYMN CCXXXV. Dr. WATTS.

A prospect of beaven makes death easy.

THERE is a land of pure delight,
Where faints immortal reign,
Infinite day excludes the night,
And pleafures banish pain.

 There everlafting fpring abides, And never-with ring flowers:
 Death, like a narrow fea divides, This heav'nly land from ours.

[3. Sweet fields beyond the fwelling flood Stand drefs'd in living green; So to the Jews old Canaan flood, While Jordan roll'd between.

4. But tim'rous mortals start and shrink, To cross this narrow sea, And linger, shiv'ring on the brink, And sear to launch away.]

5. Oh! could we make our doubts remove, These gloomy doubts that rise, And fee the Canaan that we love, With unbeclouded eyes!

Could we but climb where Mofes flood,
 And view the landfcape o'er.
 Not Jordan's ftream, nor death's cold flood,
 Should fright us from the fhore.

HYMN CCXXXVI. Dr. WATTS.

Triumph over death, in hope of the refurrection.

1. A ND must this body die ?
This mortal frame decay;
And must these active limbs of mine
Lie mould'ring in the clay?

 Corruption, earth, and worms Shall but refine this flesh,
 Till my triumphant spirit comes,
 To put it on afresh.

3. God, my Redeemer, lives,
And often from the skies
Looks down, and watches all my dust,
'Till he skall bid it rife.

4. Array'd in glorious grace, Shall these vile bodies shine, And ev'ry shape, and ev'ry sace, Look heav'nly and divine.

5. These lively hopes we owe To Jesus' dying love; We would adore his grace below, And sing his pow'r above.

6. Dear Lord! accept the praife
Of these our humble songs,
"Till tunes of nobler sound we raise
With our immortal tengues.

HYMN CCXXXVII. L. M. FAWCETT.

The death of the sinner and the Saint.

- 1. WHAT scenes of horror and of dread,
 Await the Sinner's dying bed!
 Death's terrors all appear in fight,
 Presages of eternal night.
- 2. His fins in dreadful order rife,
 And fill his foul with fad furprife;
 Mount Sinai's thunder fluns his ears,
 And not one ray of hope appears.
- 3. Tormenting pangs distract his breast, Where'er he turns he finds no rest: Death strikes the blow, he groans and cries, And in despair and horror, dies.
- 4. Not fo the heir of heavenly blifs;
 His foul is fill'd with confcious peace:
 A fleady faith fubdues his fear;
 He fees the happy Cansan near.
- His mind is tranquil and forene,
 No terrors in his looks are feen;
 His Saviour's fmile difpels the gloom,
 And fmooths his paffage to the tomb.
- 6. Lord, make my faith and love fincere, My judgment found, my confcience clear: And when the toils of life are past, May I be found in peace at last.

HYMN CCXXXVIII. 148th. Teplaby's Collection.

The midnight cry, Matt. xxv. 6.

1. YE Vargin Souls arife,
With all the Dead awake,
Unto falvation wife,
Oil in your vessels take:

Upstarting at the midnight-cry, Behold your heavenly Bridegroom nigh.

- 2. He comes, he comes, to call
 The nations to his bar,
 And take to glory all
 Who meet for glory are:
 Make ready for your free reward,
 Go forth with joy to meet your Lord—
- 3. Go, meet him in the fky,
 Your everlasting friend:
 Your Head to glorify,
 With all his faints ascend:
 Ye pure in heart, obtain the grace
 To see, without a veil, his face.
- 4. Ye that have here receiv'd
 The unction from above,
 And in his Spirit liv'd,
 And thirsted for his love,
 Jesus shall claim you for his Bride;
 Rejoice with all the fanctify'd.
- 5. Rejoice, in glorious hope
 Of that great day unknown,
 When you shall be caught up
 To stand before his throne;
 Call'd to partake the marriage-Feast,
 And lear on our Immanuel's breaft.
- 6. The everlafting doors Shall foon the Saints receive, With Seraphs, Thrones, and Powers, In glorious joy to live; And far from forrow, pain and fin, To reign in peace and light divine.
- 7. Then let us wait to hear
 The trumpet's welcome found;
 To fee our Lord appear,
 May we be watching found!
 Enrob'd in righteoufnefs divine,
 In which the bride shall ever shine.

HYMN CCXXXIX. C. M. RIPPON.

Victory over death through Christ, I Cor. xv. 57.

- I. WHEN death appears before my fight
 In all his dire array,
 Unequal to the dreadful fight,
 My courage dies away.
- 2. But fee my glorious leader nigh!
 My Lord, my Saviour lives;
 Before him death's pale terrors fly,
 And my faint heart revives.
- He left his dazzling throne above, He met the tyrant's dart, And (O amazing power of love;) Receiv'd it in his heart.
- 4. No more, O grim deftroyer, boast Thy univerfal sway To heaven-born souls thy sting is lost, Thy might is chang'd to day.
- Lord, I commit my foul to thee, Accept the facred truft.
 Receive this nobler part of me, And watch my fleeping duft:
- "Fill that illustrious morning come, When all thy faints shall rife, And cloth'd in full immortal bloom, Attend thee to the skies.
- When thy triumphant armies fing The honours of thy name, And heav'n's eternal arches ring With glory to the Lamb;
- 8. O let me join the reptur'd lays, And with the blifsful throng Refound falvation, power, and praife, In everlasting fong.

HYMN CCXL. Dr. WATTS'S LYRIC.

- The presence of God worth dying for; or, the death of Moses, Deut. xxxii. 49, 50. xxxiv. 5.
- ORD, 'tis an infinite delight
 To fee thy lovely face,
 To dwell whole ages in thy fight,
 And feel thy vital rays.
- This Gabriel knows, and fings thyname, With rapture on his tongue; Mofes, the faint, enjoys the fame, And heaven repeats the fong.
- While the bright nation founds thy praise From each eternal hill,
 Sweet odors of exhaling grace,
 The happy region fill.
- 4. Thy love, a fea without a fhore, Spreads life and joy abroad; O'tis a heaven worth dying for, To fee a fmiling God?
- 5. Sweet was the journey to the fky, The wonderous Prophet try'd;
 - "Climb up the mount," faid God, "and die !"
 The Prophet climb'd and died.
- 6. Shew me thy face, and I'll away
 From all inferior things;
 Speak, Lord, and here I quit my clay,
 And firetch my airy wing.

HYMN CCXLI, L. M. Dr. S. STENNETT.

Children dying, in their Infancy in the arms of Jesus, Matt. xix. 14.

1. THY life I read, my dearest Lord, With transport all divine;

Thine image trace in every word, Thy love in every line.

2. Methinks I fee a thousand charms Spread o'er thy lovely face, While Infants in thy tender arms

Receive the fmiling grace.

- 3. "I take these little lambs," said he,
 "And lay them on my breast;
 - " Protection they shall find in me, " In me be ever bleft.
- 4. " Death may the bands of life unloofe, " But can't diffelve my love : "Millions of infant-fouls compose

- " The family above. 5. " Their feeble frames my pow'r shall raife,
 - " And mould with heavenly skill : " I'll give them tongues to fing my praife, " And hands to do my will."
- 6. His words the happy parent, hear, And fhout with joys divine, Dear Saviour, all we have, and are, Shall be for ever thine.

HYMN CCXLII. C. M. STEELE.

At the funeral of a young person.

- TTHEN blooming Youth is fnatch'd away By Death's reliftless hand, Our hearts the mournful tribute pay, Which pity must demand.
- 2. While pity prompts the rifing figh, O may this truth, imprest With awful power,-I too must die,-Sink deep in every breaft.
- 3. Let this vain world engage no more : Behold the gaping temb !

It bids us feize the present hour; To-morrow death may come.

4. The voice of this alarming fcene May every heart obey; Nor be the heavenly warning vain, Which calls to watch, and pray.

5. Oh let us fly, to Jesus fly,
Whose powerful arm can save;
Then shall our hopes ascend on high,
And triumph o'er the grave.

 Great God, thy fovereign grace impart, With cleanfing, healing power;
 This only can prepare the heart For Death's fuprifing hour.

HYMN CCXLIII. C. M. Dr. Doddridge. Comfort for pious parents, who have been bereaved of their children, Isaiah Ivi. 4. 5.

YE mourning Saints, whose streaming tears Flow o'er your Children dead, Say not in transports of despair,

That all your hopes are fled.

While cleaving to that darling duft,

In fond diffres ye lie,
Rife and with joy and reverence view
A heavenly parent nigh.

 Tho', your young branches torne away. Like wither'd trunks ye stand,
 With fairer verdure shall ye bloom,
 Touch'd by th' Almighty's hand.

4. "I'll give the mourner," faith the Lord,
"In my own house a place;

"No names of daughters and of fons
"Could yield fo high a grace.

5. "Transient and vain is every hope "A rising race can give;

"In endless honor and delight
"My children all shall live?"

We welcome, Lord, those rising tears,
 Thro' which thy face we see,
 And bless those wounds, which thro' our hearts
 Prepare a way for thee.

HYMN CCXLIV. C. M. DR. DODDRIDGE.

Submifion under bereaving providences, Pfalm xlvi. 10-

- I. PEACE, 'tis the Lord Jehovah's hand
 That blass our joys in death;
 Changes the visage once so dear,
 And gathers back the breath:
- Tis he, the Potentate fupreme
 Of all the Worlds above,
 Whose steady counsels wifely rule,
 Nor from their purpose move.
- Tis he, whose justice might demand Our fouls a factifice;
 Yet scatters with unwearied hand,
 A' thousand rich supplies.
- 4. Our covenant God and Father he
 In Christ our bleeding Lord;
 Whose grace can heal the bursting heart
 With one reviving word.
- 5. Fair garlands of immortal blifs He weaves for every brow; And shall rebelious passions rife, When he corrects us now?
- Silent we own Jehovah's name, We kifs the feourging hand;
 And yield our comforts and our life To thy supreme command,

HYMN CCXLV. L. M. S-

Satisfaction in God under the lofs of dear Friends.

THE God of love will fure include The flewing tear, the heaving figh,

When his own Children fall around, When tender friends and kindred die

- Yet not one anxious, murmuring thought Sho uld with our mourning paffions blend; Nor would our bleeding hearts forget Th' almighty ever-living Friend.
- 3. Beneath a numerous train of ills;
 Our feeble flesh and heart may fail;
 Yet shall our hope in thee, our God,
 O'er every gloomy fear prevail.
- 4. Parent and Husband, Guard and Guide,
 'Thou art each tender Name in one;
 On thee we cast our every care,
 And comfort seek from thee alone.
- Our Father God, to thee we look,
 Our Rock, our Portion, and our Friend;
 And on thy covenant-love and truth,
 Our finking fouls shall still depend.

HYMN CCXLVI. C. M. Dr. Doddridge,

Comfort under the loss of Ministers.

- 2. NOW let our drooping hearts revive,
 And all our tears be dry;
 Why should those eyes be drown'd in grief,
 Which view a Saviour nigh?
- What the 'the arm of conquering death Does God's own House invade;
 What the 'the Prophet and the Priest Be number'd with the dead!
- Tho' earthly Shepherds dwell in duft,
 The aged and the young,
 The watchful cyc in darknefs clos'd,
 And mute th' inftructive tongue s
- 4. Th' eternal Shepherd fill furvives, New comfort to impart

His eye still guides us, and his voice Still animates our heart.

5. "Lo, I am with you," faith the Lord, "My Church shall safe abide;

" For I will ne'er forfake my own, "Whose fouls in me confide."

 Thro' every fcene of life and death, This promife is our truft;
 And this shall be our Children's fong, When we are cold in duft.

HYMN CCXLVII. C. M. RIPPON.

The bodies of the faints quickened and raifed by the Spirit, Rom. viii. 11.

W HY fhould our mourning thoughts delight
To grovel in the duft?
Or why fhould fireams of tears unite
Around th' expiring Just?

2. Did not the Lord, our Saviour, die, And triumph o'er the grave Did not our Lord afcend on high, And prove his power to fave?

3. Doth not the facred Spirit come, And dwell in all the Saints? And should the temples of his grace Resound with long complaints?

4. Awake, my foul, and like the fun Burst thro' each sable cloud; And thou, my voice, tho' broke with sighs, Tune forth thy fongs aloud.

 The Spirit rais'd my Saviour up, When he had bled for me;
 And, fpite of Death and Hell, shall raise Thy pious friends and thee. Awake, ye faints, that dwell in duft, Your hymns of victory fing;
 And let his dying fervants truft
 Their ever-living King.

HYMN CCXLVIII. Dr. WATTS LYRIC.

A prospect of the resurrection.

- I. How long shall Death, the tyrant, reign,
 And triumph o'er the just;
 While the rich blood of martyrs slain
 Lies mingled with the dust?
- 2. I.o, I behold the featter'd fhades,
 The dawn of Heaven appears;
 The fweet, immortal morning fpreads
 Its bluffes round the fpheres.
- I fee the Lord of glory come, And flaming guards around;
 The skies divide to make him room, The trumpet shakes the ground.
- 4. I hear the voice, " Te dead arife!" And lo the graves obey: And waking faints with joyful eyes Salute th' expected day.
- 5. They leave the dust, and on the wing Rise to the midway-air, In shining garments meet their King, And low adore him there.
- 6. Oh may our humble spirits stand Among them cloth'd in white! The meanest place at his right hand Is infinite delight.
- How will our joy and wonder rife, When our returning King Shall bear us homeward thro' the skies, On Love's triumphant wing!

HYMN CCXLIX. Dr. WATTS.

The last Judgment, Rev. xxi. 5-8.

- t. SEE where the great, incarnate God Fills a majestic throne, While from the skies his awful voice Bears the last judgment down.
- 2. "I am the first, and I the last,
 "Through endless years the same;
 - " I AM is my memorial still,
 " And my eternal name.
- 3. " Such favours as a God can give,
 " My royal grace bestows;
 - "Ye thirsty fouls, come taste the streams
 "Where life and pleasure flows.]
- [4. " The faint that triumphs o'er his fins, " I'll own him for a fon;
 - " The whole creation shall reward " The conquests he has won.
- 5. " But bloody hands, and hearts unclean, " And all the lying race,
 - "The faithless and the scoffing crew That spurn'd at offer'd grace;
- 6. "They shall be taken from my sight, "Bound fast in iron chains,
 - " And headlong plung'd into the lake "Where fire and darkness reigns."]
- 7. O may I stand before the Lamb, When earth and seas are sled! And hear the Judge pronounce my name With blessings on my head!
- 3. May I with those for ever dwell.
 Who here were my delight,
 - Who here were my delight,
 While finners banish'd down to hell,
 No more offend my fight.

HYMM CCL. Dr. WATTS.

God the thunderer : or, The last judgment, and hell.

- I. SING to the Lord, he heav'nly hofts, And thou, O earth, adore: Let death and hell, thro' all their coasts, Stand trembling at his pow'r.
- 2. His founding chariot shakes the sky, He makes the clouds his throne; There all his stores of light ning lie, 'Till vengeance darts them down.
- His neftrils breathe out fiery ftreams, And from his awful tongue
 A fov'reign voice divides the flames, And thunder roars along.
- Think, O my foul, the dreadful day When this incenfed God Shall rend the fky, and burn the fea, And fend his wrath abroad!
- What shall the wretch, the sinner do?
 He once defied the Lord;
 But he shall dread the thund'rer now,
 And sink beneath his word.
- Tempelts of angry fire shall roll, To blast the rebel-worm, And beat upon his naked foul In one eternal fform.

HYMN CCLL Dr. WATTS.

A bathy refurrection.

I. No, I'll repine at death no more,
But with a cheerful voice refign
To the cold dungeon of the grave
These dying, with ring limbs of mine.

* Made in a great florm of thunder, August the

- Let worms devour my wasting flesh, And crumble all my bones to dust, My God shall raise my frame anew At the revival of the just.
- 3. Break, facred morning, thro' the fkies, Bring that delightful, dreadful day! Cut fhort the hours, dear Lord, and come; Thy ling'ring wheels how long they ftay!
- [4. Our weary spirits faint to see The light of thy returning face, And hear the language of those lips Where God has shed his richest grace.]
- [5. Haste then upon the wings of love, Rouze all the pious sleeping clay, That we may join in heav'nly joys, And sing the triumphs of the day.

HYMN CCLII. L. M. RIPPON.

The books opened, Rev. xx. 12.

- METHINKS the last great day is come, Methinks I hear the trumpet found That shakes the earth, rends every tomb, And wakes the prisoners under ground.
- The mighty deep gives up her truft, Aw'd by the Judge's high command; Both fmall and great now quit their duft, And round the dread tribunal stand.
- Behold the awful books display'd,
 Big with th' important fates of men;
 Each deed and word now public made,
 As wrote by heaven's unerring pen.
- 4. To every foul, the books affign
 The joyous or the dread reward:
 Sinners in vain lament and pine,
 No plea the Judge will here regard.

5. Lord, when these awful leaves unfold, May life's fair book my foul approve: There may I read my name enroll'd, And triumph in redeeming love.

HYMN CCLIII. S. M. Dr. DODDRIDGE

The final Sentence and mifery of the wicked, Matt. XXV. 41.

And must the Dead arise?

And not a single soul escape

His all-discerning eyes?

2. And from his righteous-lips Shall this dread fentence found; And thro' the numerous guilty throng, Spread black despair around?

3. " Depart from me, accurs'd,
"To everlafting flame,
"For rebel Angels first prepar'd,
"Where mercy never came."

4. How will my heart endure
The terrors of that day:
When Earth and Heaven, before his face,
Aftonish'd shrink away?

5. But ere that trumpet shakes
The mansions of the dead;
Hark, from the Gospel's cheering sound;
What joyful tidings spread!

6. Ye finners feek his grace,
Whose wrath ye cannot bear:
Fly to the shelter of his cross,
And find salvation there.

7. So shall that curse remove, By which the Saviour bled; And the last awful day shall pour His blessings on your head. HYMN CCLIV. C. M. DR. DODDRIDGE ...

The final sentence, and happiness of the righteous.

Matt. xxv. 34.

- A TTEND, my foul, my heart, rejoice, While Jesus from his throne, Before the bright angelic hosts, Makes his last fentence known.
- When finners, curfed from his face, To raging flames are driven; His voice, with melody divine, Thus calls his faints to heaven.
- Blefs'd of my Father, all draw near,
 Receive the great reward;
 And rife, with raptures to possess
- "The kingdom love prepar'd.
 4. "Ere earth's foundations first were laid,
- " His fovereign purpose wrought,

 " And rear'd those palaces divine,

 " To which you now are brought.

5. "There shall you reign unnumber'd years,
"Protected by my power:

- "While fin and death, and pains and cares,
 "Shall ver your fouls no more."
- 6. Come, thou majestic Saviour, come, This jubilee proclaim; And teach us language fit to praise So great, so d.ara Name.

H7MN CCLV. C. M. Dr. S. STENNETT

The last Judgment.

I. " HE comes 'he comes ! to judge the world,"
Aloud th' Archangel cries
While thunders roll from pole to pole,
And light'nings cleave the fries.

 Th' affrighted nations hear the found, And upward lift their eyes:
 The flumb'ring tenants of the ground In living armies rife.

 Amid the fhouts of numerous Friends, Of hofts divinely bright,
 The Judge in folemn pomp defcends,

Array'd in robes of light.

4. His head and hairs are white as snow His eyes a fiery flame,

A radiant crown adorns his brow, And Jefus is his name.

 Writ on his thigh his name appears, And sears his vict'ries tell:
 Lo! in his hand the Conqu'ror bears
 The keys of death and hell.

 Lo he afcends the judgment-feat, And at his dread command, Myriads of creatures round his feet In folemn filence frand.

Princes and peafants here expect
 Their last, their righteous doom
 The men who dar'd his grace reject,
 And they who dar'd prefume.

" Depart, ye fons of vice and fin,"
 The injur'd Jefus cries,
 While the long-kindling wrath within
 Flashes from both his eyes.

And now in words divinely fweet.
 With rapture in his face,
 Aloud his facred lips repeat
 The fentence of his grace.

10. " Well done, my good and faithful fons,
" The children of my love:

"Receive the sceptres, crowns and thrones
"Prepar'd for you above."

HTMN CCLVI. Dr. WATTS.

Hope of beaven by the refurresion of Ciri? 1 Pet. i. 3, 4, 5.

- BLESS'D be the everlasting God, Be his abounding mercy prais'd. His maistly ador'd.
- When from the dead he rais d his Son. And call'd him to the iky. H: gave our fouls a lively hope That they flould never dle.
 - What the' our inbred fins require Our flein to fee the duit. Vet as the Lord our Saviour role, So all his foll wers raul.
- 4 There's an inheritance divine Referv'd against that day ; 'Fis ungerrented, undefil'd. And cannot fade away.
- . Saints by the power of God are kept "Till the falvation come : We walk by faith, as firangers here, 'Till Christ shall call us home.

HEMN CCLVII. Dr. WATTS.

Affarance of Heaven : or, A faint prepared to die, 2 Tim. iv. 6, 7, 8, 18.

- 1. DEATH may diffelve my body now, And bear my spirit home; Why do my minutes move to flow, Nor my falvation come?
- 2. With heav'alv weapons I have fought The battles of the Lord,

- Finish'd my course, and kept the faith, And wait the sure reward]
- God has laid up in heav'n for me
 A crown which cannot fade;
 The righteous judge at that great day.
 Shall place it on my head,
- 4. Nor hath the King of grace decreed
 This prize for me alone;
 But all that love and long to fee.
 Th' appearance of his Son.
- Jefus, the Lord, shall guard me safe From every ill design;
 And to his heav'nly kingdom take.
 This seeble foul of mine.
- God is my everlafting aid, And hell shall rage in vain; To him be highest glory paid, And endless praise. Amen.

HYMN CCLVIII. Dr. WATTS.

Bleffed are the dead that die in the Lord, Rev. xiv. 3.

- r. HEAR what the voice from heaven proclaims
 For all the pious dead,
 Sweet is the favour of their names,
 And foft their fleeping bed.
- They die in Jesus, and are bless'd; How kind their flumbers are! From suff'rings and from sin releas'd, And freed from every snare.
- Far from this world of toil and firife,
 They're present with the Lord:
 The labours of their mortal life
 End in a large reward.

HYMN CCLIX. Dr. WATTS.

The martyrs glorified, Rev. vii. 13, &c.

1. THESE glorious minds, bow bright they fine !
Whence all their white array ?
How came they to the happy feats

Of everlafting day?

From tort'ring pains to endless joys,
 On fiery wheels they rode,
 And strangely wash'd their raiment white
 In Jesus's dying blood.

3. Now they approach a fpotless God,
And how before his throne;
Their warbling harps and sacred fongs,
Adore the holy One.

4. The unveil'd glories of his face Among his faints refide, While the rich treasure of his grace Sees all their wants supplied.

 Tormenting thirst shall leave their souls, And hunger slee as fast;
 The fruit of life's immortal tree Shall be their sweet repast.

 The Lamb shall lead his heav'nly flock Where living fountains rife,
 And love divine shall wipe away
 The forrows of their eyes.

HYMN CCLX. Dr. WATTS.

Heaven invisible and boly, 1 Cor. ii. 9, 10. Rev. xxi. 27.

Nor fense nor reason knows,
What joye the father has prepar'd
For those that love the Son,

- 2. But the good spirit of the Lord Reveals a heav'n to come: The beams of glory in his word Allure and guide us home.
- 3. Pure are the joys above the fky, And all the region peace; No wanton lips, nor envious eye, Can fee, or tafte, the blifs.
- 4. Those holy gates for ever bar Pollution, fin, and same; None shall obtain admittance there, But followers of the Lamb.
- 5. He keeps the Father's book of life,
 There all their names are found;
 The hypocrite in vain shall strive
 To tread the heaving ground.

HYMN CCLNI. Dr. WATTS.

The fight of God and Christ in Leaven.

- ESCEND from heav'n, immortal Dove,
 Stoop down and take us on thy wings,
 And mount and bear us far above.
 The reach of these inserior things;
- 2. Beyond, beyond this lower fky, Up where eternal ages roll, Where folid pleasures never die, And fruits immortal feast the foul.
- 3. O for a fight, a blifsful fight, Of our almighty Father's throne! 'Their fits our Saviour crown'd with light, Cloth'd in a body like our own.
- 4. Adoring faints around him fland, And thrones and pow'rs before him fall; 'The God fines gracious thro' the man, And fheds fweet glories on them all.

- 5. O what amazing joys they feel, While to their golden harps they fing And fit on ev'ry heav'nly hill, And spread the triumphs of their King!
- 6. When shall the day, dear Lord, appear, That I shall mount, to dwell above, And stand, and bow, and worship there, And view thy face, and sing, and love?

HYMN CCLXII. C. M. Dr. S. STENNETT.

The promised land.

- O N Jordan's rugged banks I stand, And cast a wishful eye, To Canaan's fair and happy Land, Where my possessions lie.
- O the transporting, repturous fcene, That rifes to my fight!
 Sweet fields array'd in hving green, And rivers of delight!
- There generous fruits that never fail,
 On trees immortal grow:
 There rocks and hills, andbrooks and vales,
 With milk and honey flow.
- O'er all those wice extended plains Shines one eternal day: There God, the sun, for ever reigns, And scatters night away.
- No chilling winds, or relifenous breath Can reach that healthful fhore.
 Sickness, and forrow, pain, and death Are felt and fear'd no more.
- 6. When shall I reach that happy place, And be for ever blest? When shall I see my Father's face, And in his besom rest?

 Fill'd with delight, my raptur'd foul Can here no longer ftay:
 Tho' Jordan's waves around me roll, Fearlefs I'd launch away.

HYMN 'CCLXIII. C. M. RIPPON.

The everlasting fong.

- Z. EARTH has engrofs'd my love too long;
 "Tis time I lift mine eyes
 "Upward, dear Father, to thy throne,
 And to my native skies.
- 2. There the bleft Man, my Saviour, fits; The God, how bright he shines! And scatters infinite delights On all the happy minds.
- 3. Seraphs with elevated strains
 Circle the throne around;
 And move, and charm the starry plains
 With an immortal found.
- Jefus, the Lord, their harps employs; Jefus, thy love, they fing:
 Jefus, the life of all our joys, Sounds fweet from every ftring.
- 5. [Hark, how beyond the narrow bounds Of time and space they run; And echo in majestic founds The Godhead of the Son!
- And now they fink the lofty tune, And gentler notes they play;
 And bring the Father's Equal down To dwell in humble clay.
 - Ofacred beauties of the Man!
 (The God refides within:)
 His flesh all pure without a stain;
 His foul without a fin:

- 8. But, when to Calvary they turn, Silent their harps abide : Sufpended fongs, a moment, mourn The God that lov'd and died.
- o. Then, all at once, to living frains They fummon every chord : Tell how he triumph'd o'er his pains, And chant the rifing Lord.]
- 10. Now let me mount, and join their fong, And be an Angel too; My heart, my hand, my ear, my tongue, Here's joyful work for you.
- II. I would begin the music here, And fo my foul fhould rife : O for fome heavenly notes to bear My passions to the skies!
- 12. There we that love my Saviour fit : There I would fain have place, Among your thrones, or at your feet,
 - So I might fee his face.

Daughters of Sion, come, behold	402
Now to the Lord a noble Song	403
Bright King of Glory, dreadful God	404
What equal honour shall we bring	405
Behold the blind their fight receive	405
The mighty frame of glorious grace	406
Yes, the Redeemer rose	407
Rejoice, the Lord is King	408
He lives, the great Redeemer lives	409
Behold the glories of the Lamb	410
Come let us join our cheerful fongs	4II
O the delights, the heavenly joys	AII
CREATION AND PROVIDENCE
Now let a spacious world arise	412
Eternal Wildom, thee we praise	413
Ye Sons of men, with joy record	414
Lord, when our raptur'd thought furveys	415
How are thy fervants blefs'd, O Lord,	416
Almighty Father, gracious Lord,	417
THE FALL AND TEMPTATION OF	MAN.
Backward with humble shame we look,	418
With tears of anguish I lament	419
Sin, like a venomous difeafe,	420
Great King of Glory and of grace	420
Let the wild leopards of the wood	421
Sin has a thousand treacherous arts	422
Broad is the road, that leads to death	422
THE SCRIPTURES.

DOCTRINES OF THE SCRIPTUR	ES.
Let the whole race of creatures lie	435
Behold the potter, and the clay	437
Lord, we confess our numerous faults	438
Now to the power of God fupreme	439
Father, how wide thy Glory faines	439
The Lord on high preclaims	440
Christ and his cross are all our theme	441
Not all the outward forms on earth	442
Attend, while God's exalted Son	442
Behold, what wondrous grace	443
Not all the nobles of the earth	444
Oh for a closer walk with God	445
Had I the tongues of Greeks and Jews	445
Where are the mourners, faith the Lord	446
Strait is the way, the door is strait	447
Oh that I knew the fecret place	447
The Deluge at the Almighty's call	448
Jefus, my Saviour and my God	449
Grace 'tis a charming found	450
INFLUENCES OF THE SPIRIT OF	GOD.
Come, Holy Spirit, heavenly Dove	450

Come, gracious Spirit, heavenly Dove	45I
Eternal Spirit, we confess	452
Why should the children of a King	452
As fhowers on meadows, newly mown	453
Dear lord, and shall thy Spirit rest.	454
THE CHRISTIANS CHARACTER	1 1 1 2
GRACES.	AND
Lord, how fecure my conscience was	455
Behold, how Sinners difagree	455
Is this the kind return	456
Behold the wretch whose lust and wine	457
God is a Spirit, just and wife	458
Mistaken Souls that dream of heaven	458
So new-born babes desire the break	459
My foul forfakes her vain delight	461
Happy the heart, where graces reign	461
Man has a Soul of vast defires	. 462
Naked as from the earth we came	463
There was an hour, when Christ rejoic'd	463
Not from the dust affliction grows	464
So let our lips and lives express	465
Awake, our Souls, away, our fears	465
Awake, my heart, arife, my tongue	466
Let Pharifees of high efteem	467
'Tis by the faith of joys to come	467
Long have I fate beneath the found	468
Thrice happy fouls who, born of heaven	469
Behold the Sons, the heirs of God	470
Oh! what stupendous mercy shines	470
Father of mercies, fend thy Grace	471
Bleft be the tie, that Linds	472
Let party names no more	473
Now by the bowels of my God	473
Oft have I turn'd my eye within	474
Sweet was the time, when first I felt	474

Why is my heart fo far from thee	477
I hate the tempter, and his charms	478
How vain are all things here below	479
Now let the Lord, my Saviour, fmile	480
Arife, my foul, my joyful powers	481
When in the light of faith divine	48I
My God, the spring of all my joys	482
Hence from my foul, fad thoughts, begone	483
Why should a living man complain	483
Unite, my roving thoughts, unite	484
Ye treambling Souls, difmifs your fears	485
Who shall the Lord's elect condemn	486
Let me but hear my Saviour fay	486
Give me the wings of faith to rife	487
How honourable is the place	488
Lo what a glorious fight appears	489
Bleft are the humble fouls, that fee	489
How beautoous are their feet	490
Lord how fecure and bleft are they	491
Salvation ! O the joyful found	492
Come, ye that love the Lord	492
Ye humble fouls, complain no more	494
The righteous Lord supremely great	495
Now let our voices join	495
Not to the terrors of the Lord	496
When I can read my title clear	497
Great God, I own thy fentence just	497
Our Sins, alas how strong they be	498
The wondering nations have beheld	499
Great Father of mankind	500
Jefus, my Lord, how rich thy grace	SOE
When Jefus dwelt in mortal clay	SOI

Bleft morning, whose first opening rays	508
Another fix days work is done	508
Awake, our drowfy fouls	509
Frequent the day of God returns	510
Welcome, sweet day of rest.	511
How charming is the place	511
Away from every morral care	512
Almighty maker, God	513
Look down, O Lord! with pitying eye	514
While finners, who prefume to bear	514

BAPTISM.
'Twas the commission of our Lord,	316
Thus faith the mercy of the Lord	517
Thus did the fons of Abraham pass	517
Do we not know that folemn word	518
My Saviour God, my fovereign Prince	518
Attend, ye children of your God	519
THE LORD's SUPPER.
Twas on that dark, that doleful night:	520
Ye wretched, hungry, flarving, poor	521
Lord, at thy table I behold.	522
To Jesus, our exalted Lord	522
Jefus invites his faints	523
The premise of my Fathers love.	524
Let us adore th' eternal Word	525
Jefus is gone above the fkies	525
Now far above these starry skies	526
Nature with open volume stands	527
How fweet and awful is the place	528
Now have our hearts embrac'd our God	529
How are thy Glories here display'd	530

TIMES AND SEASONS.

God of the morning, at whose voice	530
Thus far the Lord has led me on	531
Once more my foul, the rifing day.	532
Dread fovereign, let my evening Song	533
My God, how endless is thy love	534
Hofanna! with a cheerful found	534
See how the mounting fun	535
Great God, to thee my evening fong	536
To praise the ever bounteous Lord	536
Stern winter throws his icy chains	537
Eternal Source of every joy	538
Great God, we fing that mighty hand,	539
Life is the time to ferve the Lord	539
Ye Sons of Adam, vain and young	540
Now in the heat of youthful blood	541
Time what an empty vapour 'tis	541
Time what an empty vapour 'tis How foft the words, my Saviour speaks	342
Ye hearts with youthful vigour warm	543
Must all the charms of nature then	544
Thee we adore, Eternal Name	544
With humble heart and tongue	545
While o'er our guilty land O Lord	546
Great Ruler of the Earth and skies	547
To thee, who reign'st supreme above	548
Death, with his dread commission feal'd	549
Thou only center of my rest	550

tirk! from the tombs a doleful Sound	* 557
Jeluded Souls, who think to find	557
My thoughts, that often mount the skies	558
There is a land of pure delight	559
And must this body die	560
What scenes of horror and of dread	561
Ye virgin fouls, arife	561
When death appears before my fight	563
Lord, 'tis an infinite delight	564
Thy life I read, my dearest Lord	564
When blooming youth is fnatch-d away	565
Ye mourning faints, whose streaming tears	1566
Peace! 'tis the Lord Jehovah's hand	567
The God of love will fure indulge	567
Now let our drooping hearts revive	568
Why should our mourning thoughts delight	569
How long shall Death, the tyrant, reign	570
